STEWARDSHIP

"Jesus said to him in reply, 'What do you want me to do for you?' The blind man replied to him, 'Master, I want to see.' Jesus told him, 'Go your way; your faith has saved you.' Immediately he received his sight and followed him on the way."

Mark 10: 51-52

"Immediately he received his sight and followed him (Jesus) on the way." What is noteworthy about this is at that time and for the first years after Jesus' Resurrection, His disciples were called "followers of the way." They recognized Jesus as the way to live and the way to salvation. Thus, the man became not just healed but a follower of the Lord. Jesus healed the man on His way from Jericho to Jerusalem, where He would be crucified. The man most likely was with Him all the way. Would we be willing to follow the Lord on such a journey? That is exactly what He is asking us to do. - See more at www.catholicsteward.com/blog/.

WHY DO WE HAVE AN AREA OF REMEMBRANCE AT ST SABINA?

Through out the entire month of November, we join the church in remembering those men and women who lived Christian lives of faith and now enjoy the promise of eternal life made to them at their baptism. WE INVITE YOU TO BRING A PICTURE of your deceased loved ones beginning the weekend of Oct. 24-25. The Area of Remembrance will remain in the north alcove until the Feast of Christ the King, Sunday, November 22nd.

YOU ARE CORDIALLY INVITED TO OUR ALL SOULS MASS AND RECEPTION ON MONDAY, NOVEMBER 2, AT 7PM

All those who have lost a loved one are invited to join us for the 7pm All Soul's Mass on Monday, November 2, and for a reception after Mass in the gathering space of the church. ADULT FAITH FORMATION

REFLECTION ON THE THIRTIETH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME , YEAR B

Today we proclaim the second account of the healing of a blind man from Mark's gospel. The first narrative, 8:22-26, sets the tone for the whole middle section of Mark, 8:22-10:52, by focusing on what true "seeing" demands. This middle section of Mark is a manual focused on who Jesus is and what discipleship entails.

Throughout Mark's gospel "seeing" has been associated with coming to know the truth about self, Jesus and discipleship. Throughout this section, the disciples are having a difficult time seeing. Their sight seems to be so impaired that one is left wondering whether they will ever understand or "see." Three times Jesus plainly explained that discipleship involves suffering, persecution, rejection, service, being least of all, having no status, position or authority. Yet, every time the disciples do not understand or refuse to enter Jesus' mind set.

In last Sunday's reading, James and John, after hearing Jesus clearly expound this message of suffering, cross and life giving service for all, request of Jesus that they sit at his right and his left when Jesus enters into his kingdom. Jesus responds with the reaffirmation of suffering and service as the only way to the kingdom. Yet the disciples do not seem to get it. The curing of Bartimaeus is a transition story, climaxing all the lessons of this middle section and setting the theme for the passion narrative which begins with Jesus entry into Jerusalem in chapter 11. It sums up Mark's middle section by clearly displaying what true discipleship entails

Jesus is in Jericho, fifteen miles northeast of Jerusalem. This popular pilgrimage stop would have attracted many people, especially beggars looking for help. As Jesus draws close to Jerusalem, he is certain that his disciples still do not know what discipleship entails. On hearing about Jesus passing by, Bartimaeus yells out for Jesus to have pity on him, titling him "Son of David." Bartimaeus is silenced by Jesus' disciples. Undeterred, Bartimaeus yells even louder, asking Jesus for pity.

Jesus asks his disciples to call him over and Bartimaeus rushes to Jesus, throwing aside his cloak.

He leaves all he has to respond to Jesus' call. Jesus asks him the same question that he asked James and John just a few verses before: "What do you want me to do for you?" Instead of the obviously blind request of James and John for power and prestige, Bartimaeus ask simply: "Master, I want to see."

The literalness of this request is obvious. The symbolic aspect is more involved. The request asks for a true understanding of who Jesus is and what faith and discipleship demand. Jesus responds with words that address both levels of the request: "Go your way, your faith has saved you." A blind person has been able to understand and respond to Jesus, while his own disciples, able to physically see, continue with their vision impaired.

In the end it is the blind man Bartimaeus who teaches what true seeing entails. The episode and this section of Mark ends with Bartimaeus receiving his sight and immediately following Jesus on the way. What is that way? It is the road that Jesus has been on and will soon complete – the road to Jerusalem. The road is one of suffering, humiliation and pain. Yet it is the only road to resurrection and glory. There is no other.

Bartimaeus chose to follow Jesus on that road. Are we willing to imitate Bartimaeus? Or will we, like the disciples, need a miracle before we understand and respond to Jesus' call of discipleship? Are we willing to admit that our vision is impaired? Are we willing to ask Jesus to help us see clearly what following him demands? "Master, I want to see."

CHRISTMAS IN OCTOBER REPORT

On Saturday October 10, 2015 our Christmas in October ministry volunteers went to 5 houses in South Kansas City, Missouri. As usual we had a terrific group of volunteers who were very generous in giving their time and skills. Doing so demonstrated their commitment to the teachings of Christ to help our neighbors and those less fortunate.

Significant improvements were made to the homes of the residents. Among the services performed were: reconstruction of hand rails, electrical repairs, repairing front porches, repairing broken glass, painting inside and outside of the homes, sheet rocking, plumbing repair, hauling trash to the curb, winterizing homes, yard work, repairing doors and gutters as well as much more.

Again this year we want to thank the merchants who have either helped personally, with donations or discounts.

Wally Srader at Wally's Safety Service	Kevin Owen at Owen Lumber	Nick Biondo at 4-Way Plumbing

Our dedicated house captains this year were:

Phil Bohnert	Pete Muenks	Norman Scott	Dennis Squires	Carolyn Squires	Jim Ruffini
--------------	-------------	--------------	----------------	-----------------	-------------

As usual we can't get all this done unless we have wonderful volunteers. This year's volunteers were:

Jacob Armstrong	Manuel Towes Jr.	Leslie Iseman	Patricia Iseman	Harold Siglar
Fran Iseman	Terry Eppert	Annie Austin	Dale Amfahr	Celia Squires
Steve Carter	Kirstie Roberts	Cooper Tracy	Kevin Iseman	Mary Eppert

The volunteers in this ministry certainly have shown by their efforts a commitment to the gospel message of loving and helping our neighbors.

It is ministry where you can make a difference and we hope that more of you will join us next year on October 8th, 2016 (the second Saturday in October). I guarantee you will be glad you did.

WEARABLE ACTIVITY TRACKERS

Sanjay Gupta, MD, reviewed personal activity trackers and found what personal health values were really worth keeping track of. The two most important health activities to monitor are sleep and steps. He reports that if there is just one thing you track, sleep is the most important. Without adequate rest, your whole body suffers. Today's trackers offer approximate results based on how restless you are during the night. Research has found that motion-tracking devices can overestimate how long and how well you've slept. If you keep track of your uneasy nights, you may be able to pinpoint the daytime factors that could be throwing off your sleep. Just as the activity monitors can motivate you to move, the sleep monitor can move you closer to a good bedtime. The second most important health value to monitor is your movement or steps during your day. One study found that women who consistently walked about 10,000 steps daily lowered their systolic blood pressure by an average of 11 points over 24 weeks. Use any type of pedometer to find the average number of steps you're currently taking, and then challenge yourself to add an extra 1,000 each day until you reach 10,000. This is personal biofeedback at its best!

CLASES DE RICA

RICA, El Rito de Iniciación Cristiana de Adultos, comienza en Septiembre. RICA es el proceso de formación para adultos que quieren ser Católicos y para adultos que han sido bautizados en la fe Católica, pero necesitan los sacramentos de Primera Comunión y/o Confirmación. Este año vamos a tener pláticas los jueves de 7-9pm. Si esta interesado, comuníquese con Kris en la oficina, o llámele a Gerardo Arenivas al 816-719-7563 o a Raúl Félix al 816-309-1919.

SERVICIOS DE SANIDAD

Nuestra diócesis de Kansas City-St. Joseph esta haciendo un llamado a todos aquellos quienes han sido afectados por cualquier tipo de abuso sexual, ofreciendo servicios de sanidad. Los servicios se llevaran a cabo:

- 11 de Noviembre en la Natividad de María, en Independence, MO a las 7pm.
- 26 de Junio en la Catedral de la Inmaculada Concepción en Kansas City a las 2pm.

POR FAVOR TENGAN EN CUENTA:

Queremos que todos los feligreses tengan en cuenta que el Código de Ordenanzas de Belton dice que en ningún lugar dentro de la ciudad está autorizado pedir dinero (para comida, gasolina, etc.). Si alguien le pide dinero en el estacionamiento cuando viene a Misa, por favor dirígelo a cualquier miembro del personal que está en esa Misa, o a la oficina parroquial durante las horas de oficina, en lugar de darle dinero. Un miembro del personal está presente en cada Misa para cualquiera pregunta o duda nos puede encontrar en el lado sureño del Espacio de Reunión. Nosotros lo dirigiremos a los recursos adecuados.

OBRA DE LA VIRGEN DE GUADALUPE

Si a usted le gustaría formar parte de nuestro elenco para la Obra de la Virgen de Guadalupe, por favor comuníquese con Raúl Félix al 816-309-1919. Los ensayos comenzaron la semana pasada.

INTENCIONES DE LA MISA

Es una antigua costumbre (que data los tiempos del Antiguo Testamento) orar por los que han muerto. La Iglesia sigue esta costumbre, sobre todo cuando se celebra la Eucaristía. Además de oración por todos los difuntos, una intención particular puede ser incluida por el sacerdote para una o más personas a solicitud de cualquier persona. Esa persona puede ofrecer una donación (sugerido $10). Dicha ofrenda tradicionalmente se ha proporcionado para el apoyo del clero. En nuestra diócesis, el clero decidió hace años para todas las misas que las remuneraciones se entregaran a la parroquia. Si usted desea ofrecer una Misa para uno de sus seres queridos, por favor comuníquese con Zuiiri en la oficina parroquial.

ATADO A SU CASA DEBIDO A ENFERMEDAD

HOSPITALIZADO Si usted esta hospitalizado y le desea hacernos saber, por favor llame o que un miembro de su familia se comunice con nosotros. Llámele a María Palomares al 816-838-1138 o con Kris Larkey en la oficina parroquial al 816-979-3151 o por correo electrónico: kris@stsabinaparish.org. Debido a las leyes de privacidad, los hospitales no pueden contactarnos.
