Millions of hard working people around the world are living in extreme poverty through no fault of their own. They simply lack access to the information, services, and infrastructure they need to participate as equals in the global economy. As a result, they are not earning their fair share of the wealth created by International trade.

Catholic Cemeteries

In the face of death, the Church confidently proclaims our Catholic belief that God has created each person for eternal life. In the celebration of the Funeral Rites, the Church affirms and expresses the union of the Church on earth with the Church in heaven in the one Communion of Saints.

The conclusion of the Funeral Rites and committal, celebrated at the grave, tomb, columbarium, or niche, is the final act of one’s family and the faith community in caring for the body of its deceased member and gives concrete expression to our belief expressed in the Apostles’ Creed: “I believe in the resurrection of the body and life everlasting.” We proclaim that the grave or place of internment, once a sign of futility, is transformed into a sign of hope and promise.

As a special ministry for Catholics and others within the Diocese of Kansas City-St. Joseph, our cemeteries provide consecrated ground for our families for the sacred rites of burial and internment. Our Catholic Cemeteries at Mount Olivet Kansas City or Mount Olivet St. Joseph, Resurrection in North Kansas City and Mount St. Mary’s, also in Kansas City, provide a fitting and appropriate resting place for our beloved deceased. Important and tangible benefits of funerals in a Catholic cemetery ensure revering, honoring and commemorating the life of the deceased. In addition, burial in hallowed ground offers a sacred trust, perpetuating our Catholic Tradition expressing our belief in Christ’s saving Redemption and in the life of the world to come. Masses and prayer services are celebrated throughout the year in our Catholic cemeteries for our deceased loved ones, and these holy grounds are not re-sold to other corporations since the ground and buildings having perpetual care and maintenance.

For more information you may contact Mount Olivet, Kansas City at 816-353-1900; Mount Olivet, St. Joseph at 816-279-5005; Resurrection at 816-734-2356; or Mount St. Mary at 816-241-7633.

Did You Know— An annual flu vaccine is the best way to protect you and your family from the flu and its potential complications. The flu (influenza) is a respiratory infection that can cause serious complications, particularly in young children, older adults and people with certain medical conditions. Getting an influenza vaccine — though not 100% effective — is the best way to prevent the misery of the flu and its complications. The Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC) recommends that everyone 6 months of age or older be vaccinated annually against influenza.

What kind of protection does the flu vaccine offer? The flu vaccine is generally more effective among people under 65 years old. Some older people and people with certain medical conditions may develop less immunity after receiving a flu shot. Even when the vaccine doesn’t completely prevent the flu, it may lessen the severity of your illness and the risk of serious complications.

Can I lower my risk of the flu without getting a flu shot? The flu vaccine is your best defense against the flu, but there are additional steps you can take to help protect yourself from the flu and other viruses. These steps include the following:

- Wash your hands often and thoroughly with soap and water.
- Use an alcohol-based sanitizer on your hands if soap and water aren’t available.
- Avoid touching your eyes, nose or mouth whenever possible.
- Avoid crowds when the flu is most prevalent in your area.

Practice good health habits. Get plenty of sleep, exercise regularly, drink plenty of fluids, eat a nutritious diet and manage your stress.

2 Thessalonians 2: 16-17

Today’s readings challenge us to focus on the “why” of stewardship. Why embrace this challenging way of life when it seems hard enough just to meet the demands of our daily lives and responsibilities? Because this life is not all there is. While we cannot earn our way into Heaven, what we do now with the life God has given us has eternal consequences. Stewardship living helps us to keep focused on our hoped-for destination in the choices we make each day. Stewardship is not about the particular amount or kind of time, talent and treasure that we offer. It is about the conviction that everything we have is a gift from our loving God. Revisiting these three aspects of our lives on a regular basis, prayerfully discerning the best use of our gifts, and putting this down in writing clarifies and strengthens our conviction to put God first. That is the “why” of stewardship. — See more at www.catholicsteward.com/blog/

Stuff the Turkey Drive
The Parents Lounge will be putting together Thanksgiving Day Baskets and we will be needing St. Sabina’s parishioners to make this Thanksgiving one to remember. We will be collecting turkeys, boxed or fresh potatoes, green beans, corn and gravy. If you can help in any way, it will be greatly appreciated. We are also collecting monetary donations the weekend of November 16th and 17th after the masses to do shopping for the deserving families. In years past we collected enough donations to add gift cards to purchase additional perishable items. A box will be located in the back of the church for donations beginning in November. Thank you in advance from all the families in the Parents Lounge and may your family and all the families of St. Sabina have a blessed holiday season.

2019 Christmas in October Ministry Report

This year, Kansas City’s Christmas in October (CIO) organization had its primary work day on Saturday, October 12th. The two houses that the St. Sabina’s CIO Ministry selected were in the cities of Belton and Grandview. The weather was clear, but the temperature was unseasonably cold. It was at the freezing mark when we started, which delayed us for several hours from painting the outside of one of the houses.

We replaced a toilet and repaired outdoor leaking spigots, repaired sagging decks and deteriorating steps and hand rails, repaired screens, trimmed vegetation entwined in fences, scrapped and painted the outside walls of one of the houses, fixed window sashes locks and keepers, replaced a soffit panel, added insulation, as well as completed a variety of other tasks.

Local businesses, who recognize the benefits that CIO provides members of our community, assisted us by providing donations of materials or gift cards. This year those businesses were Owen Lumber Company, Price Chopper and Lowe’s.

The CIO ministry would not be able to function without the volunteers who generously provide their time and talents to do what Christ asks us to do – to help our fellow brothers and sisters. Our volunteers this year were Dave Feller, Glenn Schmidt, Norm Scott, Tom Iseman, Elaine Christopher, Jim Deschenes, Louise McNelly, Jorge Andrade, David Kille, Kevin Iseman, Sergio Valenzuela, Ed Yeater, Benni Lipschuetz, and Ken and Sharon Schmidt. As they have done for several years, Chris and John Ryan, with the help of their daughter Jessica, provided lunch for the hardworking volunteers and the homeowners.

Next year, we would like to do more, but to do so requires more volunteers. Please consider participating in 2020. Also next year, we want to promote CIO in northwest Cass County. If you know someone in the area who is disabled, elderly or a veteran and needs house or yard repairs and can’t perform them themselves or cannot afford to hire someone, please let us know and we will advise them about registering their house on the CIO registry.

Archdiocese for the Military Services Appeal-Nov 10

The National Collection for the Archdiocese for the Military Services, USA (AMS) is scheduled for the weekend of November 10th. The AMS receives no funding from the U.S. Government or the U.S. Military, has no parishes for a weekly in-pew collection, and must rely principally on private donations to fund an annual operating budget of over $8.2 million. The AMS is responsible for the pastoral care of men, women, and children from all U.S. dioceses, who hail from all 50 states and U.S. territories who serve in the United States Armed Services, those enrolled in U.S. Military Academies, those undergoing treatment at any of the 153 Department of Veterans Affairs Medical Centers, those working in civilian jobs for the federal government beyond U.S. borders, and for the families of these populations.

Delegation to El Salvador - February 10-17

Due to responses from parishioners interested in working to build homes in Paso Puente, we have changed the itinerary and the dates of our delegation to El Salvador. Our new dates of the delegation will be February 10-17. While in El Salvador, we will spend the majority of our time in Paso Puente, as well as try to arrange to visit with some of our scholarship students. This will be an incredible experience, joining our brothers and sisters in solidarity to build dignified homes for families. The children living in Paso Puente have never lived in a dignified home, instead they’ve only lived in shacks assembled from scrap materials. Our delegation will also have the opportunity to visit Romero Community, which is a neighborhood across the street from Paso Puente. Just four years ago, Romero Community was living in squalor, like Paso Puente is now. They received title to their land and, through many generous donations, 65 dignified homes have been built in Romero Community. For more information, please contact Kris Larkey in the parish office at 816-979-3151 or kris@stsabinaparish.org.

Volunteers Needed

The Altar Society is in need of more volunteers to help serve coffee after our 8:00 and 10:30 Masses. If you would like to help by sharing a few extra minutes after Mass, or if you have questions about this ministry, contact Kathy Moorman at kcmoorman79@gmail.com or 913-484-3387.

Reflection on the Readings

The readings for the last three Sundays of the liturgical year take on a decidedly end time mind set. Along with the readings for the first two Sundays of Advent which begin the new liturgical year, the focus is on endings and new beginnings with all the anxiety, trepidation and letting go which such times of change and growth produce. November, the month of recollecting those who have gone before us in death, marked with the sign of faith, is an ideal time to explore the meaning of these transitional stages in our faith journey. Several lessons related to our faith journey are imparted to us in today’s readings.

The first reading from 2 Maccabees recounts portions of the narrative of seven brothers along with their mother who are willing to die rather than compromise their beliefs. They are certain that God will vindicate them, raising them up to eternal life. Belief in the afterlife is late in coming to the Jewish people, such that at the time of Jesus, there is still much disagreement over it, as the gospel passage clearly indicates. But belief in a faithful just God who would right all wrongs led to the conviction that God would reward the good and punish the wicked, if not in this life, then certainly in the next. This strong conviction is vividly and dramatically exemplified by this faithful and courageous Jewish family.

Responsorial Psalm 17 affirms that if we live in justice, we shall behold the face of God, no matter the earthly consequences of such a life style of justice. The verses implore God to attend to the psalmist’s “suit,” who has been faithful in the midst of various challenges to the contrary. A life lived in justice and right relationship towards all will be rewarded with deep, eternal intimacy in God’s presence, eternally beholding God’s face and continually deepening our relationship. Our second reading from 2 Thessalonians clearly proclaims that our God is faithful, continually strengthening us and guarding us no matter what difficulties we may encounter on our life’s faith journey.

The gospel for this Sunday concerns itself with the perennial human question, namely, what will happen to us when we die. The question is posed by the Sadducees who did not believe in the resurrection of the body at the end of time, something held by the Pharisees and by Jesus himself. It is a trick question, attempting to trap Jesus. Jesus refuses to fall into their trap, asserting that God knows what is best for us and we are to trust in God’s ways. The clear affirmation asserted by Jesus is that our God is a God of the living and not of the dead.

From the beginning, God has entered into loving relationship with us. That relationship is experienced as personal, deep and faithful. Nothing, not even death, can separate us from that loving relationship. Those united in loving relationship to God do not die to God, but rather live to God. This is the “dies natalis” tradition that we hold dear as Christians: that our day of death in this world is our day of birth into God. We are never separated from that deep and loving relationship that God has invited us into and continues to nourish and deepen in our lives.

Today, many things challenge us as a people and as a nation. We must select, uphold and affirm leaders who model God, leaders devoted to justice and right relationships no matter how difficult, challenging or outrageous. We too, both as individuals and as a nation, must be just in all that we say and do. We are to treat all, most especially the outcast, the stranger and the asylum seeker, with dignity, respect and hospitality, as hurting members of our human family. If we do this, then nothing can ever separate us from God or from one another. How will you rise to such a challenge as we begin to bring our liturgical year to a close?

Biagio Mazza, Pastoral Associate

Bible Study

Catholics are mostly exposed to the Bible through the Sunday Lectionary Readings. In order to help us all enter into the Bible through the Sunday readings, we offer study sessions that provide an opportunity to read, to study background to the readings, and to reflect on how to apply the readings to our lives. Our next Bible Study dates are Nov 10 and 24 at 10:30am in the conference room. All are welcome; bring a Bible. To register, call Biagio at 816-979-3153.
Las lecturas de los últimos tres domingos del año litúrgico adquieren una mentalidad decididamente del final del tiempo. Junto con las lecturas de los primeros dos domingos de Adviento que comienzan el nuevo año litúrgico, el enfoque se centra en los finales y los nuevos comienzos con toda la ansiedad, la inquietud que producen esos tiempos de cambio y crecimiento.

Noviembre, el mes de recordar a los que nos han precedido en la muerte, marcados con el signo de la fe, es un tiempo ideal para explorar el significado de estas etapas de transición en nuestro viaje de fe. Se nos imparten varias lecciones relacionadas con nuestro viaje de fe en las lecturas de hoy.

La primera lectura de 2 Macabeos relata porciones de la narrativa de siete hermanos junto con su madre que están dispuestos a morir en lugar de comprometer sus creencias. Están seguros de que Dios los reivindicará resucitándolos a la vida eterna. La creencia en el más allá se tardó en llegar al pueblo judío, de modo que en la época de Jesús, todavía hubo mucha controversia al respecto, como indica claramente el pasaje del evangelio.

El evangelio de este domingo se refiere a la pregunta humana perenne, a saber, ¿qué nos sucederá cuando muramos? La pregunta es planteada por los saduceos que no creían en la resurrección del cuerpo al final de los tiempos, algo atribuido a los fariseos y a Jesús mismo. Es una pregunta capciosa, intentando hacer trampa a Jesús. Jesús se niega a caer en su trampa, afirmando que Dios sabe lo que es mejor para nosotros y que debemos confiar en los modos de Dios. La confirmación clara afirmada por Jesús es que nuestro Dios es un Dios de los vivos y no de los muertos.

Hoy, muchas cosas nos desafían como pueblo y como nación. Debemos seleccionar, defender y afirmar líderes que modelen a Dios, líderes dedicados a la justicia y las relaciones correctas, sin importar que tan difícil, desafiante o escandaloso sea. Nosotros, tanto como individuos como nación, debemos ser justos en todo lo que decimos y hacemos. Debemos tratar a todos, especialmente a los marginados, los extranjeros y los solicitantes de asilo, con dignidad, respeto y hospitalidad, como miembros perjudiciales de nuestra familia humana. Si hacemos esto, entonces nada puede separarnos de Dios o el uno del otro. ¿Cómo se enfrentará usted a tal desafío que comencemos a cerrar nuestro año litúrgico?

En Nuestro Video ¿Sabes…? de Esta Semana:

Durante tres domingos en noviembre, en el año leccionario C, leemos la segunda carta a los tesalonicenses. La carta se correlaciona bien con los temas de noviembre sobre el enfoque de los últimos tiempos y la reflexión sobre nuestra propia muerte y destino eterno. En nuestra lucha por permanecer fieles a la voluntad de Dios en medio de los desafíos de la vida, la carta enfatiza la necesidad de confiar en Dios. Siendo fieles y siguiendo el modelo de Pablo y otros predicadores, perseverarán cada vez que las luchas de la vida abruman. Este mes somos desafiados de la misma manera. Tómese un momento para ver el video ¿Sabes? de esta semana, ya que desempaque temas para la Segunda Carta a los Tesalonicenses.

Colecta Nacional para la Arquidiócesis - 10 de Nov

La Colecta Nacional en apoyo para la Arquidiócesis castrense de los EE.UU. (AMS) tomará lugar el fin de semana del 10 de Noviembre del 2019. La AMS no recibe fondos del gobierno o de las Fuerzas Armadas Estadunidense, tampoco tiene parroquias para una colecta semanal, lo cual la hace depender principalmente de donaciones privadas para financiar un presupuesto operativo anual de más de $8.2 millones. La AMS es responsable del cuidado pastoral de los miembros católicos de las fuerzas armadas de los Estados Unidos, a los ingresados en las academias militares de los Estados Unidos, a los que están sometidos a tratamiento médico en cualquiera de los 153 centros médicos del Departamento de los Veteranos en los Estados Unidos, Puerto Rico y Guam, a los que trabajan en posiciones civiles con el gobierno federal fuera de las fronteras de los Estados Unidos y sus familias.
