Romero Celebration - March 13th - 12:30pm

On Sunday, March 13th our Salvadoran Community will host our parish's annual celebration in honor of Blessed Bishop Oscar Romero. Mass will begin at 12:30pm and Bishop Gregorio Rosa Chavez will celebrate the Mass.

Bishop Gregorio Rosa Chávez is the Auxiliary Bishop from San Salvador. Bishop Rosa Chávez feels a deep personal connection to Blessed Romero. Many see him as the carrier of Romero's torch of justice and peace. Bishop Rosa Chávez is profoundly connected to the struggles of his people. Bishop Rosa Chávez has been the guest speaker at the Romero Celebrations in Kansas City in 2008, 2010 and 2013. We are humbled that he accepted the invitation once again to join us on this 36th anniversary.

Blessed Óscar Arnulfo Romero (August 15, 1917 - March 24, 1980) was a prominent Roman Catholic priest in El Salvador during the 1960s and 1970s, becoming Archbishop of San Salvador in 1977. After witnessing numerous violations of human rights, he began to speak out on behalf of the poor and the victims of repression. This led to numerous conflicts, both with the government in El Salvador and within the Catholic Church. After speaking out against U.S. military support for the government of El Salvador, and calling for soldiers to disobey orders to fire on innocent civilians, Archbishop Romero was shot dead while celebrating Mass at the small chapel of the cancer hospital where he lived.

Health Checklist

Do you have a carbon monoxide detector? Every year, more than 20,000 Americans end up in the ER after inhaling the colorless, odorless toxic gas. Install a carbon monoxide detector on each floor of your home, and make sure all heating sources are properly ventilated.

Am I getting enough Vitamin D? While doctors have believed for years that a D deficiency can increase the risk of respiratory infections, a 2013 study found that people with the lowest D levels were 2.6 times more likely to develop pneumonia than those with the highest. All it takes to reach your quota is 10 to 15 minutes in the sun three times per week. During the winter months, please consult your doctor for a recommendation on an oral dosage of vitamin D.

Stewardship

"And he told them this parable: 'There once was a person who had a fig tree planted in his orchard, and when he came in search of fruit on it but found none, he said to the gardener, "For three years now I have come in search of fruit on this fig tree but have found none. So cut it down. Why should it exhaust the soil?" He said to him in reply, "Sir, leave it for this year also, and I shall cultivate the ground around it and fertilize it; it may bear fruit in the future. If not you can cut it down."'"

Luke 13: 6-9

During Lent we are all called to repent and to change. Jesus makes that call to repentance quite clear in our Gospel Reading from Luke, which includes the Parable of the Barren Fig Tree. Scholars maintain that God is the owner of the fig tree, and He looks to each of us to bear fruit, to do good and righteous works. Are we? Do we? That, too, is so important to us during this Lenten period. God is very patient with us but even His patience has a limit. God grants us this time in His mercy to indeed repent and to change our behaviors. — See more at www.catholicsteward.com/blog/

Hungering for a Healthy Start

The next stop on our CRS Rice Bowl journey is the African nation of Rwanda, where we're reminded to care for the unborn. This week we pray for pregnant mothers, that they may have the medical and nutritional support they need to raise healthy, thriving children. Visit crsricebowl.org for more.

Catholic Relief Services

Next week, our parish will take up The Catholic Relief Services Collection. This collection supports six Catholic agencies that touch more than 100 million lives around the world. The funds from this collection help provide food to the hungry, support to displaced refugees, and Christ's love and respect to all people. Next week, please give generously to The Catholic Relief Services Collection and help Jesus in disguise.

Second Collections

Last weekend we began taking up the special collections after communion. On weekends we do not have a special collection we will take up the second collection for our many maintenance needs that have to be completed soon. We will stop the maintenance collection hopefully by summer. This summer we need to repave our parking lots, repair all the concrete sidewalks, and re-carpet the education wing. Any help you can give is greatly appreciated.

Reflection on the Readings

Each liturgical year the third, fourth, and fifth Sundays of Lent are clustered together having their own focus and theme. In year A, clear and strong baptismal themes are highlighted. In year B, the focus is on dying and rising with Christ. In our current year C, the readings focus on repentance, compassion and forgiveness.

These Sundays are also known as Scrutiny Sundays. The initiating community invites the catechumens who will be fully initiated at the Easter Vigil to scrutinize their lives. On each of the three Sundays the initiating community prays for the catechumens, asking God to give the catechumens strength and courage to put aside anything that would prevent them from fully committing themselves to Christ. Because of their strong baptismal focus, the reading for Year A are often used at the liturgies where the catechumens are present and the scrutinies are celebrated. This 2016 Year of Mercy, our parish community has decided to use the readings for Year C on the Scrutiny Sundays because they highlight repentance, compassion and forgiveness, the heart of Christian mercy.

The overall focus of today's readings is set by the refrain of responsorial Psalm 103, "the Lord is kind and merciful." Today, we emphasize God's loving-kindness or hesed in Hebrew, as well as the mercy and compassion of God, rahamim in Hebrew. Rahamim is rooted in the Hebrew word rehem, meaning womb. The psalm emphasizes that God's covenant love is as real and as deep as a mother's love for the child of her womb.

Within this focus on God's loving-kindness and compassion is our need for repentance and change of heart. God's love is boundless, but we must desire to be in relationship with God and work on building up that relationship. If we choose not to, then we are left to our own devices. Choosing to live by God's intentions and reaching out in love and compassion towards others are difficult realities for all humans. Conversion of heart is challenging and often resisted by most of us. We are not comfortable with change because it forces us out of our comfort zone, stretching us to think of others beside ourselves.

Yet, this is exactly the challenge of our readings. Both Jesus in the gospel and Paul in his first letter to the Corinthians emphasize the need to repent as well as rethink our stance before God and one another. Both strongly encourage us to work on turning our minds and hearts toward God. God's love is always there for us. But God cannot force love. Failing to repent and respond in love leaves us empty and alone. We also risk the dangers that come from being unprepared to encounter the living God. Always and everywhere, conversion and repentance ready us for the deep encounter with our God, no matter when or how.

While the risk of not being prepared to meet God are great, the first reading from Exodus concerning the call of Moses, Psalm 103, along with the fig tree parable in the gospel, present another aspect of God's loving-kindness and compassion. In the Exodus reading, God witnesses the suffering and listens to the cries of the people, and consequently responds with compassion and mercy, always faithful to and mindful of covenant love. The psalm refrain presents us with a God who is faithful to the covenant relationship and who always responds with mercy. The Lucan version of the fig tree parable does not lead to the cursing of the fig tree but rather to patience, compassion, and caring.

Bible Study

Catholics are mostly exposed to the Bible through the Sunday Lectionary Readings. In order to help us all enter into the Bible through the Sunday readings, we are offering study sessions that will provide an opportunity to read, to study background to the readings, and to reflect on how to apply the readings to our lives. We will gather on March 6th & 20th at 10:30am. All are welcome. Bring a Bible and a friend. To register for these sessions, please call Biagio at 816-979-3153.

Repentance and change are difficult for all of us. Yet our God is there continually full of mercy and covenant love, always patient, ready to listen, understand and forgive. How is our merciful and loving God part of your Lenten journey this year?

Reflexión Sobre las Lecturas

Cada año litúrgico el tercero, cuarto, y quinto domingos de Cuaresma se agrupan juntos con su propio enfoque y tema. En el ciclo A, temas bautismales claros y fuertes están resaltados. En el ciclo B, la atención se centra en morir y resucitar con Cristo. En nuestro año actual, ciclo C, las lecturas se centran en el arrepentimiento, la compasión y el perdón.

Estos domingos son también conocidos como Domingos Escrutinios. La comunidad de iniciar invita a los catecúmenos que serán completamente iniciados en la Vigilia de Pascua a examinar sus vidas. En cada uno de los tres Domingos la comunidad de iniciar reza por los catecúmenos, pidiendo a Dios que les dé a los catecúmenos la fuerza y el valor para dejar a un lado todo lo que les impediría comprometerse plenamente a Cristo. Debido a sus fuertes enfoques de bautismo, las lecturas del ciclo A por lo regular se utilizan en las liturgias donde los catecúmenos están presentes y se celebran los escrutinios. Este año 2016 Jubileo de la Misericordia, nuestra comunidad parroquial ha decidido utilizar las lecturas del ciclo C en los Domingos de Escrutinio porque resaltan las temas del arrepentimiento, la compasión y el perdón, el corazón de la misericordia Cristiana.

El enfoque general de las lecturas de hoy está establecido por el estribillo del Salmo responsorial 103, "El Señor es compasivo y misericordioso." Hoy en día, enfatizamos la bondad amorosa de Dios o 'hesed' en Hebreo, así como la misericordia y la compasión de Dios, 'rahamim' en Hebreo. Rahamim tiene sus raíces en la palabra Hebreo 'Rehem,' que significa útero. El salmo enfatiza que el pacto de amor de Dios es tan real y tan profundo como el amor de una madre por el hijo de su matriz.

Dentro de este enfoque en la bondad amorosa y la compasión de Dios está nuestra necesidad del arrepentimiento y el cambio de corazón. El amor de Dios no tiene límites, pero hay que desear estar en relación con Dios y trabajar en la refuerza de esa relación. Si elegimos no hacerlo, entonces estamos abandonados a nuestros propios dispositivos. La elección de vivir de acuerdo con las intenciones de Dios y llegar en el amor y la compasión hacia los demás son realidades difíciles para todos los seres humanos. La conversión del corazón es difícil y, muchas veces resistido por la mayoría de nosotros. No estamos cómodos con el cambio, ya que nos obliga a salir de nuestra zona de confort, nos se extiende a pensar en otros fuera de nosotros mismos.

Sin embargo, esto es exactamente el desafío de nuestras lecturas. Tanto Jesús en el Evangelio y Pablo en su primera carta a los Corintios enfatizan la necesidad de arrepentirse, así como reconsiderar nuestra postura ante Dios y entre sí. Ambos nos animan firmemente en trabajar para convertir nuestras mentes y corazones hacia Dios. El amor de Dios siempre está ahí para nosotros. Pero Dios no puede forzar el amor. Al fracasarnos de arrepentir y responder en amor nos deja vacíos y solos. También corremos el riesgo de los peligros que vienen de no estar preparados para encontrar al Dios vivo. Siempre y en todas partes, la conversión y el arrepentimiento nos prepara para el encuentro profundo con nuestro Dios, no importa cuándo o cómo.

Aunque el riesgo de no estar preparado para encontrarse con Dios es grande, la primera lectura de Éxodo con respecto a la llamada de Moisés, el Salmo 103, junto con la parábola higuera en el Evangelio, presentan otro aspecto de la bondad amorosa y la compasión de Dios. En la lectura del Éxodo, Dios es testigo del sufrimiento y escucha los gritos de la gente, y por lo tanto responde con compasión y misericordia, siempre fiel a y consciente del pacto de amor. El estribillo del salmo nos presenta un Dios que es fiel a la relación de pacto y que siempre responde con misericordia. La versión Lucana de la parábola higuera no da lugar a la maldición de la higuera, sino más bien a la paciencia, la compasión y la preocupación.

El arrepentimiento y el cambio son difíciles para todos nosotros. Sin embargo, nuestro Dios está ahí continuamente lleno de misericordia y amor de pacto, siempre paciente, dispuesto a escuchar, comprender y perdonar. ¿Cómo es nuestro Dios misericordioso y amoroso parte de su jornada de Cuaresma de este año?

Celebración Romero - 13 de Marzo - 12:30pm

El Domingo, 13 de Marzo nuestra comunidad Salvadoreña será el anfitrión de la celebración anual de nuestra parroquia en honor del Beato Obispo Oscar Romero. La Misa comenzará a las 12:30pm y el Obispo Gregorio Rosa Chávez celebrará la Misa.

El Obispo Gregorio Rosa Chávez es el obispo auxiliar de San Salvador. El Obispo Rosa Chávez siente una conexión personal profunda al Beato Romero. Muchos lo ven como el portador de la antorcha de la justicia y la paz de Romero. El Obispo Rosa Chávez está profundamente ligada a las luchas de su pueblo. Ha sido el orador invitado en las celebraciones Romero en Kansas City en 2008, 2010 y 2013. Nos sentimos honrados que haya aceptado la invitación una vez más a unirse a nosotros en este 36° aniversario.

El Beato Óscar Arnulfo Romero (15 de Agosto, 1917 a 24 de Marzo, 1980) fue un prominente sacerdote católico en El Salvador durante los años 1960 y 1970, llegando a ser Arzobispo de San Salvador, en 1977. Después de ser testigo de numerosas violaciones de los derechos humanos, empezó a hablar en nombre de los pobres y las víctimas de la represión. Esto dio lugar a numerosos conflictos, tanto con el gobierno de El Salvador y dentro de la Iglesia Católica. Después de hablar en contra del apoyo militar de los EE.UU. al gobierno de El Salvador, y llamando a los soldados a desobedecer las órdenes de disparar contra civiles inocentes, el Arzobispo Romero fue asesinado mientras celebraba Misa en la pequeña capilla del hospital de cáncer donde vivía.
