Romero Celebration - March 13th - 12:30pm

On Sunday, March 13th our Salvadoran Community will host our parish's annual celebration in honor of Blessed Bishop Oscar Romero. Mass will begin at 12:30pm and Bishop Gregorio Rosa Chavez will celebrate the Mass.

Bishop Gregorio Rosa Chávez is the Auxiliary Bishop from San Salvador. Bishop Rosa Chávez feels a deep personal connection to Blessed Romero. Many see him as the carrier of Romero's torch of justice and peace. Bishop Rosa Chávez is profoundly connected to the struggles of his people. Bishop Rosa Chávez has been the guest speaker at the Romero Celebrations in Kansas City in 2008, 2010 and 2013. We are humbled that he accepted the invitation once again to join us on this 36th anniversary.

Blessed Óscar Arnulfo Romero (August 15, 1917 - March 24, 1980) was a prominent Roman Catholic priest in El Salvador during the 1960s and 1970s, becoming Archbishop of San Salvador in 1977. After witnessing numerous violations of human rights, he began to speak out on behalf of the poor and the victims of repression. This led to numerous conflicts, both with the government in El Salvador and within the Catholic Church. After speaking out against U.S. military support for the government of El Salvador, and calling for soldiers to disobey orders to fire on innocent civilians, Archbishop Romero was shot dead while celebrating Mass at the small chapel of the cancer hospital where he lived.

Anointing of the Sick Anointing is the sacrament received by those who are ill or suffering. By the sacred anointing and the prayer of the priest, the whole Church commends those who are sick to Christ. The sick person receives the Holy Spirit's gifts of strength, faith, peace and courage, and his or her suffering is united with the suffering of Christ for the building up of the Church.

Who should receive Anointing? If you suffer from a chronic illness, the affect of advanced years or have a upcoming surgery and wish to receive this sacrament let Fr Jeff or Fr Curt know before the Mass you attend and they will be glad to anoint you after Mass. If you would like to schedule it in advance or make an appointment for a weekday contact Marta Roper in the parish office at 816-979-3154.

ARE YOU AT RISK FOR DIABETES? Quiz #2

TRUE OR FALSE: Watching more than two hours of TV per day can increase your risk for diabetes. Answer: TRUE

Studies have shown that sitting on the couch for long stretches of time can put you at greater risk. Dr. Elizabeth Venditti, PhD, principal investigator with the National Institutes of Health's Diabetes Prevention Program says, "You need at least 150 minutes of brisk activity every week." A recent review showed that exercise alone may not completely counteract the danger of prolonged sitting, so make it a habit to move more through the day and take mini walks whenever you can spare a few minutes. To monitor your progress, consider investing in a fitness tracker. While the default step goal on many trackers is set to 10,000, a 2012 report recommends 7,500 or more steps daily to get started on becoming more active.

Stewardship

“Let the one among you who is without sin be the first to throw a stone at her.’ Again he bent down and wrote on the ground. And in response, they went away one by one, beginning with the elders. So he was left alone with the woman before him.

Then Jesus straightened up and said to her, ‘Woman, where are they? Has no one condemned you?’ She replied, ‘No one, sir.’ Then Jesus said, ‘Neither do I condemn you. Go, and from now on do not sin any more.’”

John 8: 7-11

We often speak of seeing Jesus in others, in treating them in a way that reflects love and caring, not judgment. Blessed Mother Teresa (who will officially become a saint this coming September) once stated, “I see Jesus in every human being. I say to myself, ‘This is hungry Jesus. I must feed Him.’ Or ‘This is sick Jesus who has leprosy and gangrene.’ I serve because I love Jesus.” Stewardship calls us to show the same kind of love reflected by Jesus in the Gospel and in the words and actions of Mother Teresa. We, too, are called to find and see Jesus in all we meet, to be willing to humble ourselves if necessary to serve and care for them. There are ways we can do this among the ministries right here in our own faith community.— See more at www.catholicsteward.com/blog/

Reflection on the Readings

The theme for the Scrutiny Sundays in Lectionary Year C, the third, fourth and fifth Sundays in Lent, is one of repentance, conversion and forgiveness. The readings for this fifth Sunday of Lent manifest that theme, as well as highlight the great joy that results from encountering the living God.

The psalm refrain is the lens helping us to unpack the other readings. The refrain from responsorial Psalm 126 echoes the great joy that results from being in relationship with God: "The Lord has done great things for us; we are filled with joy." The psalm context reflects the experience of the people's return from exile. Having given up hope of ever returning home, they are overwhelmed with feelings of laughter, excitement and unbelievably great joy. God is ever gracious, restores our fortunes, and continually restores hope, bringing great joy and laughter to our lives.

In the first reading Isaiah speaks of the great things the Lord has done. In the context of the Jewish Babylonian exile, Isaiah comforts those in exile telling them to be faithful in their relationship with God. Our God knows our situation and listens to our call, ready to respond and do even greater things than have been done in the past. Isaiah reminds the people that while God has done great things for them in the past, it pales in the face of the new and great things that God is doing and will continue to do for the people.

Our God can be relied upon and does not give up on us. Rather, God calls us into ever deeper relationship, no matter what. In that process, God transforms our lives and gives us the strength and ability to handle the ups and downs of life. God's actions on our behalf do indeed fill us with joy.

Paul, writing to his beloved Philippians from prison while facing possible exile or death, speaks of the surpassing joy he has found in the Lord. All Paul's accomplishments that gave him meaning and significance pale in the realization of knowing Christ and being intimately connected with him. Being taken possession of by Christ sharpens Paul's focus, enabling him to realize what is essential in life and what can be let go. Despite the challenges of life, this focus and attitude brings Paul great peace and joy. So great is Paul's joy that he considers "everything as a loss (as so much rubbish) because of the supreme good of knowing Christ Jesus my Lord."

John's gospel narrates the account of the woman caught in adultery. She is brought to Jesus by some of the Jewish leaders to see how Jesus would respond to her sinfulness. The woman has already been condemned by her accusers and is most likely expecting the same judgment from Jesus. Instead, Jesus confronts the accusers with the reality of their own sinfulness, and refuses to judge neither they nor the woman.

Jesus' challenge is to go and sin no more. What great joy the woman must have felt in hearing Jesus' unexpected compassion and love. She must have felt such relief along with a renewed sense of new life and new possibilities. God does make things new, most especially in situations when we can't even begin to imagine that anything new or positive can come from them.

As you reflect on this Sunday's readings, call to mind the great things that the Lord has done for you. Think of times when you had given up hope and somehow new meaning and new life were realized. Be thankful for God's great love and compassion, something that is a continued cause for great joy and amazement.

Reflexión Sobre las Lecturas

El tema de los Domingos Escrutinios en el Año del Leccionario C, el tercero, cuarto y quinto Domingo de Cuaresma, es uno de arrepentimiento, conversión y perdón. Las lecturas de este quinto Domingo de Cuaresma manifiestan ese tema, así como recalcan la gran alegría que resulta al encontrarse con el Dios vivo.

El estribillo del salmo es el objetivo que nos ayuda a descomprimir las otras lecturas. El estribillo del Salmo responsorial 126 se hace eco de la gran alegría que resulta de estar en relación con Dios: "El Señor ha estado grande con nosotros; y estamos alegres." El contexto del salmo refleja la experiencia del regreso del pueblo del exilio. Habiendo abandonado la esperanza de volver a casa, están abrumados por sentimientos de la risa, la emoción y la increíblemente gran alegría. Dios está siempre lleno de gracia, restaura nuestra fortuna, y restaura continuamente la esperanza, trayendo gran alegría y risas a nuestras vidas.

En la primera lectura, Isaías habla de las grandes cosas que el Señor ha hecho. En el contexto del exilio de los Judíos Babilonios, Isaías consuela a los exiliados diciéndoles que sean fieles en su relación con Dios. Nuestro Dios conoce nuestra situación y escucha nuestra llamada, listo para responder y hacer cosas aún más grandes que se han hecho en el pasado. Isaías le recuerda al pueblo que aunque Dios ha hecho grandes cosas por ellos en el pasado, palidece en la cara de las nuevas y grandes cosas que Dios está haciendo y que seguirá haciendo para el pueblo.

En nuestro Dios se puede confiar y no nos abandona. Más bien, Dios nos llama a una relación cada vez más profunda, no importa qué. En ese proceso, Dios transforma nuestras vidas y nos da la fuerza y la capacidad de manejar los altibajos de la vida. Las acciones de Dios en nuestro nombre de hecho nos llenan de alegría.

Pablo, escribiendo a sus queridos Filipenses desde la prisión mientras se enfrentaba a posible exilio o muerte, habla de la alegría incomparable que ha encontrado en el Señor. Todos los logros de Pablo que le daban sentido y significado palidecen en la realización de conocer a Cristo y ser íntimamente conectado con él. Habiendo sido conquistado por Cristo agudiza la concentración de Pablo, lo que le permitió darse cuenta de lo que es esencial en la vida y lo que se puede dejar ir. A pesar de los desafíos de la vida, este enfoque y actitud trae a Pablo gran paz y alegría. Tan grande es la alegría de Pablo que él considera "todo como basura con tal de ganar a Cristo y de estar unido a él."

El evangelio de Juan narra el relato de la mujer encontrada en el adulterio. Se la llevaron a Jesús algunos de los líderes judíos para ver cómo Jesús respondería a su pecaminosidad. La mujer ya ha sido condenado por sus acusadores y es más probable que espera el mismo juicio de Jesús. En su lugar, Jesús se enfrenta a los acusadores con la realidad de su propia maldad, y se niega a juzgar ni ellos ni la mujer.

El desafío de Jesús es ir y no pecar más. Qué gran alegría la mujer debe haber sentido en escuchar la compasión y amor inesperado de Jesús. Ella debe haber sentido tanto alivio junto con un sentido renovado de la nueva vida y nuevas posibilidades. Dios si hace las cosas nuevas, sobre todo en situaciones en las que ni siquiera podemos empezar a imaginar que cualquier cosa nueva o positivo puede venir de ellas.

Al reflexionar sobre las lecturas de este Domingo, traiga a la memoria las grandes cosas que el Señor ha hecho por usted. Piense en momentos en los que había perdido la esperanza y de alguna manera un nuevo significado y una nueva vida se hicieron realidad. Sea agradecido por el gran amor y compasión de Dios, algo que es una causa continua de gran alegría y asombro.
