Guide Book and Directory Advertising Opportunity

We are in the process of updating our annual Guide Book & Directory for the church. This book will contain everything pertinent to our church: the various ministries, organizations, committees, activities, functions and events plus a complete directory of all members. This book is being provided and direct-mailed to each family at no cost to our church, and it is again being subsidized by local businesses that advertise. If you own or manage a business and would like to find out about advertising in our book, please call the Church Office. Recent survey results by Guide Book Publishing show that 92.1% of families would rather patronize a Guide Book & Directory advertiser over a non-advertiser. It “will pay” to advertise in our new Guide Book & Directory.

This Week’s Do You Know Video:
As we enter into the fifty days of Easter, this week’s DYK video examines the differences between the Western and the Orthodox depictions of the Risen Jesus. Resurrection celebrates the victory of Jesus over Satan, sin and death. Since there were no eyewitnesses to the Resurrection, any artistic representation of it reveals much about the meaning and significance that the resurrection has for that community. The Western Church’s artistic depictions of the risen Jesus consistently picture him as triumphantly rising alone, indicating his victory over sin and death. The Eastern Orthodox Church’s iconography consistently pictures others rising with Jesus, often showing Jesus holding on to both Adam and Eve, representative of all humanity, as they rise with him. This communal resurrection theologically affirms that Jesus’ resurrection is the sure hope of our resurrection with him to God for all eternity. The risen Jesus, having restored humanity's relationship with God, is pictured as freeing the righteous from the bonds of Satan and Sheol or Hades, and bringing them with him as he returns to the Father. Make time to view this week’s DYK video and reflect on the difference between the Western and Orthodox depictions of the Risen Lord, and what significance that has for your life.

Register for a Wellness Package which includes 4 vascular tests and osteoporosis screening from $149 ($139 with our member discount). All five screenings take 60-90 minutes to complete. In order to register for this event and to receive a $10 discount off any package priced above $129, please call 1-888-653-6441 or visit www.lifelinescreening.com/communitycircle or text the word circle to 797979. Rachel's Vineyard: Healing the Pain of Abortion
In Jesus’ ministry, He was often an outcast to His own people. For women and men who have experienced an abortion, they, too, often feel like outcasts, isolated and alone. If you or someone you know is suffering from an abortion decision, Jesus understands your pain. Allow Jesus to work a miracle in your heart. Rachel's Vineyard retreats are all about healing the pain of abortion one weekend at a time. The first of three 2019 Kansas City retreats will be on May 3-5. Please call (816) 679-4973 or email rvkcmo@gmail.com.

Wellness Center
Did you know that walking can lower your risk of developing high blood pressure, high cholesterol, diabetes, and it can lead to fat loss? You can easily burn 500 calories a day just by walking. And the best thing is you can do it anywhere — at work, home, or school.

To burn 500 calories a day, you need to walk 10,000 steps a day. Though it may seem like a high amount of steps, it's doable. A typical sedentary person walks about 1,000 to 3,000 steps a day. With a little focus and determination, it's easy to bump that number up to 10,000.

One mile is equivalent to 2,000 steps, and it takes about 20 minutes to walk. You'll need to walk about five miles to complete 10,000 steps. Below are 3 easy tips that will help you focus on reaching this number:

1. Use a pedometer and add 300 steps a day to get to 10,000.
2. Commit to walking, make it a habit.
3. Walk at a fast pace, you'll burn more calories.

A journey begins with the first step so lace up your shoes and start walking today!

“When Simon Peter arrived after him, he went into the tomb and saw the burial cloths there, and the cloth that had covered his head, not with the burial cloths but rolled up in a separate place. Then the other disciple also went in, the one who had arrived at the tomb first, and he saw and believed.” John 20: 6-8
How can we as Christian stewards all these years later see for ourselves and so become His witnesses? We “see for ourselves” when we prayerfully read the Scriptures knowing they are a living love letter from God with a message to each one of us. We “see for ourselves” each time we receive the precious Body and Blood of our Lord in the Eucharist. We “see for ourselves” when we experience His personal and healing power in our hearts during Reconciliation. We “see for ourselves” when we pour out our lives in loving service to those around us and experience the deep satisfaction that only comes when we are imitating our Savior. This Easter, resolve to live as if the saving power of the Resurrection is true. Experience Jesus for yourself every day from now on. You will be a powerful witness to the truth that He is risen! He is truly risen! — See more at www.catholicsteward.com/blog/.

We have journeyed through Lent and we enter the great fifty days of Easter, a week of weeks in which we celebrate the victory of Christ over evil, sin and death. The seasonal Sundays are referred to as the Sundays “of” Easter in contrast to the time when they were called the Sundays “after” Easter. Easter is celebrated for fifty days, culminating with the feast of Pentecost.

During these fifty days, the first reading, usually taken from the Old Testament, is now replaced by selections from the Acts of the Apostles. This shift helps us focus on the reaction of the early communities of believers to the resurrected Christ, along with their enthusiasm and passion for mission in response to the gift of the Spirit.

The refrain of responsorial Psalm 118 captures the focus of the Easter season when it proclaims: “This is the day the Lord has made; let us rejoice and be glad.” It affirms the joy of Easter, the gift of new life and the possibilities offered to us as pure gifts from God. The psalm verses speak of God’s mercy enduring forever, and of God’s great power which rescues the psalmist even from death’s clutches. These verses prefigure Christ, the rejected stone that “has become the cornerstone.” Today we praise and thank God for the rich gift of Christ, the incarnation of God’s love and mercy which “endures forever.”

The first reading from Acts narrates a portion of Peter’s sermons to the early communities of believers which speak of the Easter events, and what those events mean for all humanity. These early communities responded with enthusiasm and joy to the commission that Jesus gave them through the power of the Spirit to testify and witness to Jesus as the long awaited messiah, and as “judge of the living and the dead.” Peter shares the great joy they have experienced in Jesus with all people when he affirms that “everyone who believes in him will receive forgiveness of sin through his name.” “Let us rejoice and be glad.”

The letter to the Colossians stresses that in the Risen Christ we die to our old selves and seek only what is above, the mind and heart of Christ. Persisting in our union with Christ, we too will rise in glory, and be ever united with God in Christ. How can we not ‘rejoice and be glad’?

Resurrection essentially communicates God’s reality that evil, sin and death are not the last word on the ultimate meaning of life. Rather, God can and does transform even the most limiting and debilitating human experiences into occasions for new life and meaning. Death is not the end. Rather death is the way to new life. Jesus walked that path, and invites us to join him on this journey to God.

Do you really believe that God can and does bring new life and meaning even out of our most limiting and debilitating experience of life? This is what we are proclaiming when we claim to be Easter people. May the Lord’s Easter joy be yours in abundance.

Bible Study

Catholics are mostly exposed to the Bible through the Sunday Lectionary Readings. In order to help us all enter into the Bible through the Sunday readings, we offer study sessions that provide an opportunity to read, to study background to the readings, and to reflect on how to apply the readings to our lives. Our next Bible Study dates are April 28 and May 12 at 10:30am in the conference room. All are welcome; bring a Bible. To register, call Biagio at 816-979-3153.
Hemos recorrido la Cuaresma y entramos en los grandes cincuenta días de la Pascua, una semana de semanas en las que celebramos la victoria de Cristo sobre el mal, el pecado y la muerte. Los domingos de esta temporada se conocen como los domingos "de" Pascua, en contraste con el tiempo en que fueron llamados los domingos "después" de Pascua. La Pascua se celebra durante cincuenta días, culminando con la fiesta de Pentecostés.

Durante estos cincuenta días, la primera lectura, generalmente tomada del Antiguo Testamento, ahora es reemplazada por selecciones de los Hechos de los Apóstoles. Este cambio nos ayuda a enfocarnos en la reacción de las comunidades tempranas de creyentes al Cristo resucitado, junto con su entusiasmo y pasión por la misión en respuesta al don del Espíritu.

El estribillo del Salmo responsorial 118 capta el foco de la temporada de Pascua cuando proclama: “Este es el día en que actuó el Señor: sea nuestra alegría y nuestro gozo”. Afirma el gozo de la Pascua, el don de la nueva vida y las posibilidades que se nos ofrecen como dones puros de Dios. Los versos del salmo hablan de la misericordia de Dios que perdura para siempre, y del gran poder de Dios que rescata al salmista incluso de las garras de la muerte. Estos versos prefiguran a Cristo, la piedra rechazada que "es ahora la piedra angular". Hoy alabamos y agradecemos a Dios por el rico don de Cristo, la encarnación del amor y la misericordia de Dios que es eterna.

La primera lectura de los Hechos narra una parte de los sermones de Pedro a las comunidades tempranas de creyentes que hablan de los eventos de la Pascua, y lo que esos eventos significan para toda la humanidad. Estas comunidades tempranas respondieron con entusiasmo y alegría a la comisión que Jesús les dio a través del poder del Espíritu para testificar de Jesús como el mesías tan esperado, y como "juez de vivos y muertos". Pedro comparte la gran alegría que han experimentado en Jesús con todas las personas cuando afirma que "cuantos creen en él reciben, por su medio, el perdón de los pecados". "Que sea nuestra alegría y nuestro gozo".

La carta a los colosenses enfatiza que en Cristo resucitado estamos llamados a una nueva mentalidad, a una nueva visión del mundo y a una nueva forma de actuar. Al comprometernos con el Cristo resucitado, morimos a nuestro antiguo ser y buscamos solo lo que está en las alturas, la mente y el corazón de Cristo. Persistiendo en nuestra unión con Cristo, nosotros también nos resucitaremos en gloria y estaremos siempre unidos con Dios en Cristo. ¿Cómo no puede ser “nuestra alegría y nuestro gozo”?

La lectura del evangelio de Juan relata cómo María Magdalena, el discípulo amado y Pedro tratan de dar sentido a la realidad de la tumba vacía. A cada uno a su manera le cuesta ver, comprender lo que ha sucedido y creer. Mientras experimentamos la temporada de Pascua, nosotros también entramos en esa misma lucha para dar sentido a la realidad de la Resurrección. ¿Qué significa para nosotros la resurrección y qué diferencia hace en nuestras vidas?

La resurrección esencialmente comunica la realidad de Dios de que el mal, el pecado y la muerte no son la última palabra sobre el significado último de la vida. Más bien, Dios puede y transforma incluso las experiencias humanas más limitantes y debilitantes en ocasiones para una nueva vida y significado. La muerte no es el fin. Más bien, la muerte es el camino a una nueva vida. Jesús caminó ese camino y nos invita a acompañarlo en este viaje a Dios.

¿Realmente cree que Dios puede y trae nueva vida y significado incluso de nuestra experiencia más limitante y debilitante de la vida? Esto es lo que estamos proclamando cuando afirmamos ser personas de Pascua. Que la alegría de la Pascua del Señor sea suya en abundancia.
