HAVING A DIFFICULT TIME WITH THE LOSS OF A LOVED ONE?

We are currently taking registrations for a six week Adult Grief Recovery Group. This group will begin on Tuesday, August 16 and meets for six consecutive weeks. The goal of this group is not to help you "move on" or "get over it", it is to help you blend a painful loss into the narrative of your life. All faith traditions are welcome. Advanced registration required. To register or for more information contact Marta Roper in the parish office at 816-979-3154 or marta@stsabinaparish.org, or co-facilitator Mary Ann Long at malinbelton@yahoo.com. If you would like to speak with someone who has participated in a previous group, contact Marta and I would be happy to make that happen.

Pope Francis, "The family and death." "Death is an experience which touches all families, without exception. It is a part of life; yet, where familial love is concerned, death never seems natural... In the People of God, by the grace of his compassion granted in Jesus, many families prove by their deeds that death does not have the last word: this is a true act of faith. Every time a family in mourning - even terrible mourning - finds the strength to guard the faith and love that unite us to those we love, it has already prevented death from taking everything."

SHRINK YOUR PLATE. According to Brian Wansink, PhD, director of the Food and Brand Lab at Cornell University, people who switch from 12- to 10-inch plates consume roughly 23 percent less food.

START A WALKING GROUP. Research shows that people who walk at a brisk pace for more than three hours per week can lower their risk of stroke by 34 percent.

EAT IN THREE NIGHT PER WEEK. Cutting just one meal out might save you hundreds of calories. A recent study found that at chain restaurants, the average meal (consisting of an entrée and one side dish, plus half an appetizer) can pack nearly 1,500 calories.

GIVE BACK. A 2013 report in BMC public Health found that people who volunteered had a 22 percent lower mortality rate than those who never pitched in.

Stewardship

“But a Samaritan traveler who came upon him was moved with compassion at the sight. He approached the victim, poured oil and wine over his wounds and bandaged them. Then he lifted him up on his own animal, took him to an inn, and cared for him. The next day he took out two silver coins and gave them to the innkeeper with the instruction, “Take care of him. If you spend more than what I have given you, I shall repay you on my way back.” Which of these three, in your opinion, was neighbor to the robbers’ victim?” He answered, ‘The one who treated him with mercy.’ Jesus said to him, ‘Go and do likewise.’”

Luke 10: 33-37

A simplified answer to the question “Who is my neighbor?” might be “Your neighbor is anyone you see or know who is in need.” It is much more than the person who lives in your neighborhood, or someone you may know at church or at the office. Equally telling is the response the questioner gave to Jesus when the Lord asked, after sharing the parable, “Which was the neighbor to the robber’s victim?” to which the lawyer responded, “The one who treated him with mercy.” Is it any wonder that Pope Francis has declared this a Year of Mercy? What he expects of us is what Jesus expects from us. The Holy Father says, “Let us become agents of Christ’s mercy, channels through which God can water the earth, protect all creation, and make justice and peace flourish.” That is a call to stewardship. — See more at www.catholicsteward.com/blog/

Contributions

Due to the holiday, July 3rd contributions will be printed in next week’s bulletin.

Second Collections

Throughout the year our diocese asks us to take up a special collection to benefit 12 different causes. Typically, one weekend each month, our second collection is for one of these causes. The other weekends of the month, our second collection is set aside to improve our buildings and grounds. We are in great need of improvement of our parking lots and sidewalks, carpet in the parish office, etc. If you use a “maintenance/upkeep” envelope, these funds also go towards making these improvements. We are very careful to make sure your contributions go toward the purpose/fund that you intend. Simply label your envelope with the purpose you would like your contribution to go to and we will assign your contribution to the appropriate fund..

Do you want to save federal and state income taxes?

Giving directly from your IRA to a qualified charity like your parish, school, diocesan or parish ministry can be a tax-wise strategy. Please consult your legal or tax adviser or Greg Vranicar at 816-714-2363 or vranicar@diocesekcsj.org at the Office of Stewardship and Development. Gifts of this type satisfy your “required minimum distribution (rmd)” and will help you avoid paying income tax on whatever amount you transfer directly to charity.

Reflection on the Readings

Today's responsorial psalm is the lens through which we are called to reflect on the other readings. The refrain for this Sunday helps us focus on God's saving actions in our lives, especially in time of need. Psalm 69 strongly encourages each of us to "Turn to the Lord in your need and you will live." The psalm affirms the reality that the Lord has, does and will continually respond whenever we call, especially in time of need. Through the psalm we are challenged to love others by modeling ourselves on our loving and faithful God who has first loved us.

Such covenant love and fidelity on God's part clues us in to the answer to the lawyer's question in our gospel reading from Luke. If love of God and love of neighbor as oneself sums up the whole law, then who exactly is my neighbor? Because as humans we live within a variety of established boundaries, this was and continues to be a hotly debated question. Is my neighbor the person next door? Or the person I know and like? Is my neighbor one from my country, race, religion, town? Could my neighbor be my enemy, the person I do not like, the foreigner, the person I would prefer to avoid, step over, not think about or not acknowledge as my concern? Who is my neighbor?

The answer becomes clear as one pays attention to the psalm and to the gospel reading. God responds with care and concern to all who call in time of need. God does not discriminate or set boundaries. God's love is not limited or exclusive. We have all been in situations of need. We all know what it feels like to be helped, cared for and attended to in our time of need. What is of upmost importance is not who helped but the fact that someone took the time to respond. In time of crisis or need, boundaries or divisions are to be set aside, and our common humanity should and must take over.

It is this reality that informs the lawyer with an insight that seems foreign to him. After the story of the Samaritan who stopped to help, the answer to the question of who is my neighbor becomes rather clear. The answer could only be the one who stopped to help. The only criterion for neighbor is not who the person is, but rather the reality that a person is in need.

This is the law written in our hearts and placed on our tongues, as the first reading from Deuteronomy states. It is not a law that places boundaries and restrictions on the identity of the neighbor. Rather Jesus offers an interpretation of that law that is attuned to the needs of the other, no matter who. This primary law of God was revealed from the very beginning. Yet often, our human desire to set limits and to establish boundaries causes us to forget God's boundless and unlimited love of us as the model for our love of others.

The second reading from the letter to the Colossians clearly affirms that "Christ Jesus, the image of the invisible God" came to remind, show, manifest and model for us God's limitless love. Jesus' life style manifests a perennial concern for breaking boundaries, for challenging the system, for bringing about reconciliation and peace where division, separation and hatred exist. By being willing to give of himself completely for others, Jesus incarnates God's law, will and desire.

If we took Jesus' message and modeling to heart, what should be our response to the homeless, the stranger, the immigrant, and the powerless in our midst? What should our health care system look like if we were really attuned to the health needs of all those who are not insured? This week, take some time to be attuned to the people around you and to respond to anyone who might be in need.

Pastoral Associate

Bible Study

Catholics are mostly exposed to the Bible through the Sunday Lectionary Readings. In order to help us all enter into the Bible through the Sunday readings, we are offering study sessions that will provide an opportunity to read, to study background to the readings, and to reflect on how to apply the readings to our lives. We will gather on July 24th and August 28th at 10:30am. All are welcome. Bring a Bible and a friend. To register for these sessions, please call Biagio at 816-979-3153.

Reflexión Sobre las Lecturas

El salmo responsorial de hoy es la lente a través del cual estamos llamados a reflexionar sobre las otras lecturas. El estribillo de este domingo nos ayuda a centrarnos en las acciones salvíficas de Dios en nuestras vidas, especialmente en tiempos de necesidad. El salmo 69 nos recomienda a cada uno de nosotros "Busquen al Señor, y revivirán sus corazones." El salmo afirma la realidad de que el Señor ha respondido, responde y seguirá respondiendo cada vez que llamamos, especialmente en tiempos de necesidad. A través del salmo tenemos el desafío de amar a los demás mediante el modelado de nosotros mismos en nuestro Dios amoroso y fiel que nos ha amado primero.

Tal amor y fidelidad del pacto por parte de Dios nos da pista sobre la respuesta a la pregunta del abogado en nuestra lectura del Evangelio de Lucas. Si el amor de Dios y el amor al prójimo como a uno mismo resume toda la ley, entonces, ¿quién exactamente es mi prójimo? Debido a que los seres humanos vivimos dentro de una variedad de límites establecidos, esto fue y sigue siendo una pregunta muy debatida. ¿Es, mi prójimo, la persona de al lado? ¿O la persona que conozco y que me cae bien? ¿Es, mi prójimo, uno de mi país, mi raza, mi religión, mi ciudad? Podría ser, mi prójimo, un enemigo, la persona que no me gusta, el extranjero, la persona que yo preferiría evitar, pasar por encima, no pensar en ella o no reconocerla como una preocupación mía? ¿Quién es mi prójimo?

La respuesta se hace clara cuando uno se presta atención al salmo y a la lectura del evangelio. Dios responde con la atención y la preocupación de quienes lo invocan en momentos de necesidad. Dios no discrimina ni pone límites. El amor de Dios no está limitado ni exclusivo. Todos hemos estado en situaciones de necesidad. Todos sabemos lo que se siente al ser ayudado, cuidado y atendido en nuestro tiempo de necesidad. Lo que es de suma importancia no es quien ayudó sino el hecho de que alguien se tomó el tiempo para responder. En tiempo de crisis o necesidad, fronteras y divisiones se deben dejar a un lado, y nuestra humanidad común debe tomar el relevo.

Es esta realidad la que informa al abogado con una idea desconocida. Después del relato del samaritano que se detuvo a ayudar, la respuesta a la pregunta de quién es mi prójimo se vuelve bastante claro. La respuesta sólo podía ser el que se detuvo a ayudarla. El único criterio de 'prójimo' no es quién es la persona, sino la realidad de que una persona está en necesidad.

Esta es la ley escrita en nuestros corazones y colocada en nuestras lenguas, como dice la primera lectura del Deuteronomio. No es una ley que pone límites y restricciones sobre la identidad del prójimo. En lugar Jesús ofrece una interpretación de dicha ley que está en sintonía con las necesidades del otro, no importa quién. Esta ley primaria de Dios se reveló desde el principio. Sin embargo, muchas veces, nuestro deseo humano de poner límites y establecer fronteras nos hace olvidar del amor, sin límites y fronteras, de Dios para nosotros como el modelo para nuestro amor a los demás.

La segunda lectura de la carta a los Colosenses afirma claramente que "Cristo, la imagen de Dios invisible" vino a recordarnos, enseñarnos, manifestar y modelar para nosotros el amor sin límites de Dios. El estilo de vida de Jesús se manifiesta una preocupación perenne para romper límites, para desafiar al sistema, para lograr la reconciliación y la paz, donde existe la división, la separación y el odio. Al estar dispuesto a dar de sí mismo por completo para los demás, Jesús encarna la ley, la voluntad, y el deseo de Dios.

Si hacemos caso al mensaje y al modelo de Jesús, que debería de ser nuestra respuesta a las personas sin hogar, al extranjero, al inmigrante, y a los desamparados entre nosotros? ¿Cómo se debe de ver nuestro sistema de salud si realmente estuviéramos en sintonía con las necesidades de salud de todos los que no están asegurados? Esta semana, tome algún tiempo para estar en sintonía con las personas que le rodean y para responder a cualquier persona que pueda estar en necesidad.

Corresponsabilidad/Información

Segundas Colectas

Durante todo el año nuestra diócesis nos pide hacer una colecta especial para beneficiar a 12 causas diferentes. Por lo general, un fin de semana cada mes, nuestra segunda colecta es para una de estas causas. Para los demás fines de semana del mes, nuestra segunda colecta está apartado para mejorar nuestras instalaciones. Estamos en gran necesidad de mejorar nuestros estacionamientos y banquetas, alfombra en la oficina de la parroquia, etc. Si utiliza un sobre de "maintenance/upkeep", estos fondos también se usan para estas mejoras. Tenemos mucho cuidado para asegurarnos de que sus contribuciones van hacia el propósito/fondo que desea. Solo escriba en el sobre el propósito al que desea que se aplique su contribución, y asignaremos su contribución al fondo apropiado.

Recaudación de Fondos para el Ministerio Hispano

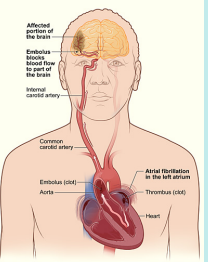

Pasen a refrescarse el próximo Domingo, 17 de Julio después de la Misa de las 12:30 y ayuden a nuestra parroquia y Ministerio Hispano. El Comité Hispano venderá paletas a $2 cada una para ayudar a financiar eventos que patrocina para la parroquia como: la Celebración Guadalupana, Las Posadas, y los Reyes Magos.

¿Tiene 70 años y ½ o más?

¿Quiere ahorrar impuestos federales y estatales?

Dar directamente de su cuenta IRA a una caridad calificada como su parroquia, escuela católica, ministerio diocesano o parroquial puede ser una estrategia de impuestos sabia. Por favor, consulte su asesor legal o fiscal, o Greg Vranicar (Inglés) al 816-714-2363 o vranicar@diocesekcsj.org en la Oficina de Corresponsabilidad y Desarrollo de la diócesis. Las donaciones de este tipo satisfacen su "mínima requerida de distribución (RMD)" y le ayudará a evitar el pago de impuestos sobre cualquier cantidad que se transfiere directamente a la caridad.
