St. Sabina’s Recycling Bin
After the recent elimination of Belton curbside recycling, our parish bin has become increasingly difficult to maintain. Not only have we become the drop off point for many Belton residents, but the recycling service company has yet again raised our rates to a point that is no longer sustainable by the Green Team. We have decided the best solution is to remove our co-mingle bin from the parking lot for the time being. Perhaps we can begin again in the future, especially if a new option becomes available in Belton.

The Green Team hopes to come up with a way that the parish itself (staff and teachers) will be able to continue to recycle our parish items. Please contact the city of Belton for a list of drop off locations for your recyclables. If they hear from many of our citizens, maybe recycling will become a higher priority for them.

Thank you. – St. Sabina Green Team

This Week’s Do You Know Video:
The tall, large candle that is placed near the baptismal pool in church is known as the Easter, the Paschal or the Christ Candle. Blessed anew each year at the Easter vigil fire, it represents Christ, the light of the world, who has overcome sin and death, dispelled the darkness, and now, as the Risen Christ, offers light, victory and hope to all the world. Processed into a darkened church to the chant of “Christ our Light”, we chant a rejoice song. Thank you. – St. Sabina Green Team

Did You Know- Running and walking are among the purest, most natural forms of exercise around. With newfangled innovations like Freon-filled midsoles and pump-it-up tongues, it's difficult to know which shoes to buy. Choose the wrong athletic shoes and you could end up lying on the couch nursing shin splints or aching heels instead of enjoying a brisk walk or run. Here are a few tips to get to the right fit.

- Don’t make shoes multitask. Walking shoes are stiffer; running shoes are more flexible, with extra cushioning to handle greater impact. If you do both activities, get a pair for each.
- Know your feet and measure your feet frequently. We all have 10 toes and two heels, but beyond that, feet come in a variety of shapes and knowing your foot's particular quirks is key to selecting the right pair of shoes. It's a myth that foot size doesn't change in adults. It does change as we get older, so have your feet measured twice a year. Sizes also vary between brands, so go by what fits, not by the shoe size.
- Shop toward the end of the day. Feet swell over the course of the day; they also expand while you run or walk, so shoes should fit your feet when they're at their largest.
- Bring your own socks -- the ones you wear while running or walking. If you wear orthotics, bring those, too. Shoes need to fit with the orthotic inside.
- Don’t over- or underpay. Good-quality running and walking shoes are fairly pricey -- and usually worth it. A $15-shoe will not be as good as an $80-shoe. But you'll pay a premium for super-fashionable styles or those associated with a celebrity and they won't be any better for your feet.
- Know when to replace them. The average pair of running shoes should be replaced after about 350-400 miles of use. Once the back of the sole is worn out or the shoe feels uncomfortable or less supportive, it's time to take those tootsies shopping again.

“What man among you having a hundred sheep and losing one of them would not leave the ninety-nine in the desert and go after the lost one until he finds it? And when he does find it, he sets it on his shoulders with great joy and, upon his arrival home, he calls together his friends and neighbors and says to them, “Rejoice with me because I have found my lost sheep.””
Luke 15: 4-6
Jesus gives us several poignant illustrations of His merciful love in today’s Gospel reading from Luke. Let us focus on one in particular — the story of the lost sheep. He asks, “What man among you, having a hundred sheep and losing one of them would not leave the ninety-nine... and go after the lost one until he finds it?” The logical response is no one! It simply does not make sense to spend time and energy searching for one lost sheep when there are so many others to tend to. But God’s logic — God’s mercy — defies human logic. And who is the lost one? It is every one of us when we stray away from God through sin, great or small. What gratitude we owe to such a personal, passionate, loving God! Just think, even our sins, once forgiven, become a source of fuel for our stewardship way of life as we reflect with deep gratitude on the powerful mercy of our Savior. — See more at www.catholicsteward.com/blog/

Retirement Plan Assets
Plan your legacy – retirement plan assets
As Christian stewards, we share the responsibility of making our Church a true community of faith and a vibrant source of service to the larger community. This includes providing financial support for today’s needs, and building a firm financial foundation for tomorrow.

Beneficiaries of your Retirement Plan Assets
A gift of all or a portion of your remaining assets from an IRA, 401(k), 403(b) or other retirement plan may be one of the smartest and least "expensive" ways to favor your parish, school, ministry or the Church. Very substantial sums are currently invested in retirement plans. For many people, their retirement plan may be the principal asset at the end of their life.

Tax Treatment
Taxable to your heirs
In addition to inheritance taxes if the balance is large (more than $11.2 million in 2018), if retirement plan assets pass to family members other than the spouse, the heir pays income tax on the value received. If a child is in the 22% tax bracket when he/she receives retirement plan assets from a parent, then a 22% tax will be levied on the receipt of these funds.

Tax free to your parish, school or other ministry
If you have other assets to provide for your heirs, giving assets from retirement accounts directly to your parish, school or other ministry can by-pass taxation. Moreover, these gifts can be accomplished quite easily. Most retirement fund managers provide "beneficiary designation forms" available through a website or by calling the manager of the funds. The proper legal name of your parish, St. Sabina Catholic Church, Belton, should be listed on the beneficiary designation form with a portion or amount of the fund to be designated for the benefit of the parish or ministry. Please consult with your own attorney and other professional advisors regarding your personal tax and financial situation.

Green Team Tip of the Week
Cash for cans! The Green Team collects the aluminum cans from events in the gym and sells them for scrap. Please use the bin labeled Aluminum only to help support our ministry.

All students in 3rd grade and higher will be given the opportunity to sign up for the above roles at the Children’s Liturgy masses.

Protecting God’s Children We will host a PGC workshop in the Parish Hall on September 22nd at 2pm in English. Youth are responsible for advance purchase, coupons and/or purchase at the gate tickets. Permission forms are available on the website and in the Youth Office. Parent drivers and chaperones are needed for this event. Please contact Kirstie Roberts to sign up.

Junior & Senior High Youth to Worlds of Fun! We will be heading out for the Halloween Haunt at WOF on October 11th at 5pm and returning to the parish at 12:30am. Because we are traveling by bus, we ask that each youth chip in an extra $10 for transportation. Tickets can be purchased online or at the gate. Please let the youth office know if you have a group discount to share with some other kids. We will need at least 3 adult chaperones. Contact Kirstie if you would like to volunteer! Child Safety
The Diocese of Kansas City-St. Joseph is committed to combatting sexual abuse in the Church. If you are a victim of sexual abuse, or if you observe or suspect sexual abuse:

1. Call the Missouri Child Abuse Hotline at 1.800.392.3738 (if the victim is currently under the age of 18), and
2. Contact your local law enforcement agency or call 911, and
3. After reporting to these civil and law enforcement authorities, report suspected sexual abuse of a minor or vulnerable adult to the Diocesan Ombudsman, Joe Crayon, at 816.812.2500 or crayon@ombudsmankcsj.org, if the abuse involves a priest, deacon, employee or volunteer of the Diocese of Kansas City-St. Joseph.

The Diocese has a sincere commitment to providing care and healing resources to victims of sexual abuse and their families. Please contact Victim Advocate, Kathleen Chastain, at 816.392.0011 or chastain@diocesekcsj.org for more information.

All volunteers with youth and children must attend one Protecting God’s Children workshop, submit to a background check and sign the policy on Ethics and Integrity in Ministry, (EIM). More info at https://kcsicatholic.org/the-office-of-child-and-youth-protection/
Pharisees and scribes complain that Jesus “welcomes sinners and eats with them.” This context frames the three “lost” parables of Luke’s gospel passage. The parables of the lost sheep, the lost coin and the lost son are examples of total extravagance, impractical love, and disproportionate attention paid to one thing at the possible loss of much more.

It makes little sense to go after one lost sheep, risking the loss of the other ninety-nine. It makes no sense to throw a big party for a son who was outrageously disrespectful and dissolute. That is exactly the complaint of some of the Pharisees and scribes towards Jesus. Why would Jesus waste his time with “sinners?” It seems such a waste of his time, attention and energy.

Jesus’ response to the Pharisees and scribes concretely images our God as full of compassion and mercy, slow to anger, rich in faithful covenant love, and abundant in forgiveness. Such extravagance knows no bounds. Our God is not caught up in judging and punishing, but is more focused on welcoming back, forgiving, and rejoicing in relationships restored and healed.

We find this extremely difficult to understand because we often fail to put ourselves in the other person’s shoes. What if we were the one who was lost? How would we want to be treated? But we are not sinners who have intentionally rejected God? Or are we? Here is where the insights of the responsorial psalm, as well as the other readings, come into play.

The refrain for Responsorial Psalm 51 asks us to identify ourselves with the wayward son who slowly realizes that his true home and security is with his loving father. With the prodigal son we too come to this realization as we sing “I will rise and go to my father.” The psalm verses ask us to declare to God that we are all sinners, in constant need of God’s mercy, compassion and forgiveness.

It is only in coming to such awareness about our true selves that we can begin to see our need for a God who is extravagantly generous in love, fidelity and compassion. Such a state of self-awareness brings us to our knees, asking for forgiveness and compassion, even when we know we do not deserve it.

In the first reading from Exodus, Moses challenges God’s impulse to destroy the Israelites because of their infidelity and fickleness. Their actions manifest a forgetfulness of all that God has done for them. Moses reminds God that while perfectly justified in anger, the most cherished attributes of the God of the Israelites are forgiveness and compassion. Unlike the Israelites, God can and does show care and compassion, most especially when undeserved. God has always been faithful and compassionate, no matter how unfaithful the people have been. God remains constant as the God of love and compassion.

The first letter to Timothy reminds us that Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners. Each one of us is a sinner. Pope Francis himself admits that he, like it rest of us, is a sinner. By manifesting compassion and forgiveness towards us, God continually re-establishes the loving bond with all creation initiated from the beginning of time. Because of our special relationship to God through Jesus, we too, like Jesus, have been chosen by God to be ministers of compassion, forgiveness, reconciliation and love towards all we encounter.

Reflect on how God has consistently reached out to you with extravagant love and compassion. This week, walk a while in the shoes of those in need of forgiveness, compassion and love. Note the times you have reached out to others with the same extravagant love and compassion that God has shown to you.

Biagio Mazza,
Pastoral Associate

Bible Study

Catholics are mostly exposed to the Bible through the Sunday Lectionary Readings. In order to help us all enter into the Bible through the Sunday readings, we offer study sessions that provide an opportunity to read, to study background to the readings, and to reflect on how to apply the readings to our lives. Our next Bible Study dates are Sept 22 and Oct 13 at 10:30am in the conference room. All are welcome; bring a Bible. To register, call Biagio at 816-979-3153.
Los fariseos y los escribas se quejan de que Jesús “recibe a los pecadores y come con ellos”. Este contexto enmarca las tres parábolas de “perdidos” del pasaje del evangelio de Lucas. Las parábolas de la oveja perdida, la moneda perdida y el hijo perdido son ejemplos de extravagancia total, amor poco práctico y atención desproporcionada a una cosa por la posible pérdida de mucho más.

Tiende poco sentido ir tras una oveja perdida, arriesgando la pérdida de las otras noventa y nueve. No tiene sentido organizar una gran fiesta para un hijo que fue escandalosamente irrespetuoso y disoluto. Esa es exactamente la queja de algunos de los fariseos y escribas hacia Jesús. ¿Por qué Jesús desperdiciaría su tiempo con “pecadores”? Parece una pérdida de tiempo, atención y energía.

La respuesta de Jesús a los fariseos y los escribas representa concretamente a nuestro Dios como lleno de compasión y misericordia, lento para la ira, rico en amor fiel y abundante en el perdón. Tal extravagancia no conoce límites. Nuestro Dios no está absorto en juzgar y castigar, pero está más enfocado en dar la bienvenida, perdonar y regocijarse en las relaciones restauradas y curadas.

Nos resulta extremadamente difícil de entender porque a menudo no nos ponemos en el lugar de la otra persona. ¿Qué pasaría si fuéramos los perdidos? ¿Cómo nos gustaría ser tratados? Pero no somos pecadores que hemos rechazado intencionalmente a Dios... ¿O somos? Aquí es donde entran en juego las ideas del salmo responsorial, así como las otras lecturas.

El estribillo del Salmo Responsorial 51 nos pide que nos identifiquemos con el hijo rebelde que poco a poco se da cuenta de que su verdadero hogar y seguridad está con su padre amoroso. Con el hijo pródigo, nosotros también nos damos cuenta cuando cantamos “Me levantaré y volveré donde mi padre”. Los versos del salmo nos piden que declamemos a Dios que todos somos pecadores, que necesitamos constantemente la misericordia, la compasión y el perdón de Dios.

Es solo al llegar a tal conciencia acerca de nuestro verdadero ser que podemos comenzar a ver nuestra necesidad de un Dios que sea extravagantemente generoso en amor, fidelidad y compasión. Tal estado de autoconciencia nos pone de rodillas, pidiendo perdón y compasión, incluso cuando sabemos que no lo merecemos.

En la primera lectura de Éxodo, Moisés desafía el impulso de Dios de destruir a los israelitas debido a su infidelidad y veleidad. Sus acciones manifiestan un olvido de todo lo que Dios ha hecho por ellos. Moisés le recuerda a Dios que, si bien está perfectamente justificado en la ira, los atributos más apreciados del Dios de los israelitas son el perdón y la compasión. A diferencia de los israelitas, Dios puede y muestra cuidado y compasión, especialmente cuando no se lo merecen. Dios siempre ha sido fiel y compasivo, no importa lo infiel que haya sido la gente. Dios permanece constante como el Dios del amor y la compasión.

La primera carta a Timoteo nos recuerda que Cristo Jesús vino al mundo para salvar a los pecadores. Cada uno de nosotros es un pecador. El mismo Papa Francisco admite que él, igual a todos nosotros, es un pecador. Al manifestar compasión y perdón hacia nosotros, Dios restablece continuamente el vínculo de amor con toda la creación iniciada desde el principio de los tiempos. Debe a nuestra relación especial con Dios a través de Jesús, nosotros también, como Jesús, hemos sido elegidos por Dios para ser ministros de compasión, perdón, reconciliación y amor hacia todo lo que encontramos.

Reflexione sobre cómo Dios le ha contactado constantemente con amor y compasión abundante.

Esta semana, camine un rato en los zapatos de aquellos que necesitan perdón, compasión y amor. Tenga en cuenta las veces que ha contactado a otros con el mismo amor y compasión que Dios le ha mostrado a usted.

En Nuestro Video ¿Sabes...? de Esta Semana:
La vela alta y grande que se coloca cerca de la pila bautismal en la iglesia se conoce como la Vela Pascual o la Vela de Cristo. Bendecido de nuevo cada año en el fuego de la vigilia pascual, representa a Cristo, la luz del mundo, que ha vencido el pecado y la muerte, disipando la oscuridad, y ahora, como Cristo resucitado, ofrece luz, victoria y esperanza a todo el mundo. Traída en procesión a una iglesia oscura al canto de "Cristo nuestra Luz", cantamos una canción de alegría llamada Exsultet, regocijándonos en Cristo, la luz del mundo, representada por la vela de Cristo encendida y bendecida. Tómese un momento para ver el video ¿Sabes? de esta semana y sumérjase en el poderoso simbolismo de nuestra vela Pascual.
¡Felicidades a Rubi, quien celebró sus quince años el 7 de septiembre!
