This Week's Do You Know Video:

Every January 25 we celebrate the Feast of the Conversion of St. Paul. Paul, a Jew born in a Roman Province and therefore a Roman citizen, was named Saul by his parents and was educated in the best of both Jewish Pharisaic Tradition and Classical Greek Culture. As an adult, he was a persecutor of the followers of Jesus until the day that he was struck down on his way to Damascus and heard Jesus asking him why Paul was persecuting him. From that day forward Paul slowly became one of Jesus' most ardent disciples, spreading the word about Jesus, the long awaited Jewish messiah, to all who would listen, most especially to Gentiles. Make time to view this week's DYK video and learn why the "conversion" of St. Paul is really a misnomer.

En Nuestro Video ¿Sabes...? de Esta Semana:

Cada 25 de enero celebramos la Fiesta de la Conversión de San Pablo. Pablo, un judío nacido en una provincia romana y por lo tanto ciudadano romano, fue llamado Saul por sus padres y fue educado en lo mejor de la tradición farisaica judía y la cultura griega clásica. De adulto, fue un perseguidor de los seguidores de Jesús hasta el día en que fue abatido camino a Damasco y escuchó a Jesús preguntarle por qué Pablo lo perseguía. A partir de ese día, Pablo se convirtió lentamente en uno de los discípulos más fervientes de Jesús, difundiendo la palabra acerca de Jesús, el mesías judío largamente esperado, a todos los que quisieran escuchar, especialmente a los gentiles. Tómese un momento para ver el video ¿Sabes? de esta semana y aprender por qué la "conversión" de San Pablo es realmente un nombre poco apropiado.

Did You Know- The best way to keep your brain sharp is to use it. Your brain is a muscle - so use it! When you don't challenge your brain, it can become less effective at remembering and recalling important information. Memory loss is a serious issue that becomes more common as you grow older. However, it doesn't need to control your life. In order to prevent, slow down, or even eliminate memory loss, you need to keep your brain alert and active. This is true for any age group. Here are some ways to keep your brain sharp.

1. Learn new things-One of the best ways to keep your brain sharp is to learn new things. Many memory related studies have indicated that learning and processing new information can actually be beneficial to overall memory function.
2. Use your senses-Don't shy away from using your senses. Touch, taste, smell, sight and hearing, are all ways to keep your brain working well. Essentially the more senses that your brain uses, the better. When you use a number of different senses at the same time, more parts of the brain are needed to retain the information.
3. Eat well and exercise-Diet and exercise can positively impact your body and mind and can improve your ability to retain information. A diet that is high in fish, beans, fruits and vegetables, and vitamin B is thought to reduce memory loss and even ward off serious degenerative brain diseases. Regular exercise is also important to your brain. Studies indicate that regular exercise three to four times a week can actually improve your memory due to increased oxygen and nutrient delivery throughout the body. Taking care of your body by walking, running, or another type of physical activity can keep your memory sharp and actually improve it.

It is important to keep your brain sharp, whatever age you are. Be sure to challenge your brain and focus on living a healthy lifestyle.

Despensa de Alimentos de Catholic Charities

Catholic Charities KCSJ (Caridades Católicas) abrió recientemente su primera despensa de alimentos, "Lift Up — Kansas City" en nuestro sitio temporal en la parroquia de St. Catherine of Siena. The Pantry está disponible para cualquier persona en nuestra diócesis e incluye un portal de compras en línea para que los clientes elijan alimentos. Nuestro plan es que el alcance móvil brinde alimentos y servicios de emergencia en toda la diócesis. Continuamos buscando apoyo de capital en forma de edificio, estanterías, camionetas y montacargas y también buscamos un hogar permanente para servir a la parte sur de nuestra diócesis y una ubicación en nuestros condados del norte. Si tiene conocimiento o acceso a alguno de estos elementos, háganoslo saber. Para obtener más información, comuníquese con Jessica Gant al 816-882-4781 o jgant@ccharities.com. COVID Precautions

In order for each of us to better protect ourselves and fellow members of our parish family, we have made the following updates to the precautions we are taking to prevent the spread of the Coronavirus:

-Fr. Jeff has granted dispensation to those who feel unsafe celebrating Mass in person. The 4pm Saturday Mass will be streamed in addition to 8am and 12:30pm Sunday Masses.

-All ministers serving at Mass will wear masks.

-The choir will have a limited number of members at each Mass.

-During the sign of peace, we encourage all to greet those outside of their own household with a wave, head bow or peace sign.

-All are encouraged to use sanitizer before receiving communion. This helps protect those behind you.

-All are encouraged to wear a mask when moving about the building and to do your best to social distance between households.

We appreciate your cooperation in our hope to protect our parish family from this virus.

Precauciones COVID

Para que cada uno de nosotros podamos protegernos mejor a nosotros mismos y a los demás miembros de nuestra familia parroquial, hemos realizado las siguientes actualizaciones de las precauciones que estamos tomando para prevenir la propagación del coronavirus:

-El P. Jeff ha otorgado dispensa a aquellos que se sienten inseguros celebrando Misa en persona. La Misa del sábado de las 4pm se transmitirá además de las Misas dominicales de las 8am y las 12:30pm.

-Todos los ministros que sirvan en la Misa usarán cubrebocas.

-El coro tendrá un número limitado de miembros en cada Misa.

-Durante el signo de la paz, animamos a todos a saludar a quienes están fuera de su hogar con un saludo de la mano sin contacto o una inclinación de cabeza.

-Se anima a todos a usar desinfectante antes de recibir la comunión. Esto ayuda a proteger a los que están detrás de usted.

-Se anima a todos a usar cubrebocas cuando se muevan por el edificio y a hacer lo posible para mantener la distancia social entre diferentes familias.

Agradecemos su cooperación en nuestra esperanza de proteger a nuestra familia parroquial de este virus.

After the epiphanies of the Lord in the accounts of the magi, the baptism of the Lord and the wedding feast of Cana, proclaimed this year on three successive Sundays, we begin in earnest our pilgrimage journey of faith. The season of Ordinary Time allows us the leisure to immerse ourselves in our faith journey by reflecting on the great mystery of the Incarnation, God-with-us.

Today's readings offer us a roadmap for our faith journey. They focus on the words of the Lord, which are for us "spirit and life," as the refrain from Responsorial Psalm 19 invites us to affirm. Each of the readings provide guidance concerning what we should be about in our journey of faith.

The first reading from the book of Nehemiah has Ezra, the priest, assemble the people to proclaim God's word to them. Ezra not only "read plainly" the words of the Lord, but also interpreted the words "so that all could understand what was read." By proclaiming the law or teaching, Ezra provides the people with God's life-giving and spirit-filled words. By their attentiveness and response, the people appropriate God's word, allowing it to become the measure of their relationship to God and others.

Paul's letter to the Corinthians boldly affirms the reality that we are one body in Christ with many members. This key path on our faith journey is often forgotten as we allow our differences to divide and separate us. Paul reminds us that our unity stems from being baptized into Christ and being given to drink of the one Spirit.

It is fitting that we read Paul's exhortation soon after the Week of Prayer for Christian Unity which has been celebrated from January 18-25 for over one hundred years. Rather than allowing our differences to keep us apart and splinter the body of Christ, Paul invites us to revel in our uniqueness and be enriched by our differences. It is Christ who binds us together, in the very midst of our diversity. Forgetting this significant wisdom causes Christians to go astray. Appropriating this wisdom bonds us into people who model Christ's love, mercy and compassion.

Luke's gospel reading presents us with two significant paths on our journey. The first path presents a challenge that each Christian generation must accept. That challenge involves each generation's need to articulate for themselves the wisdom that has been handed down to them. Luke is doing this for his community so that they may realize "the certainty of the teaching you have received." We too are called to appropriate the wisdom we have received, making it living and active for ourselves and our present day and age. This generational process is precisely what Pope John XXIII meant by the Italian word "aggiornamento" when he convened the Second Vatican Council.

The second path has Jesus present the mission statement governing his faith journey and ours. Quoting Isaiah, Luke's Jesus sets forth his high road, namely "to bring glad tidings to the poor...to proclaim liberty to captives and recovery of sight to the blind, to let the oppressed go free and to proclaim a year acceptable to the Lord." By stating that "today, this scripture passage is fulfilled in your hearing," Jesus affirms that in his person, God's love and compassion, God's mercy and justice, are available to all. Jesus is willing not only to live these values but to put his life on the line so that God's love and compassion can be experienced by all.

This is Jesus' path and through our baptism we are called to tread the same path. How is your life a living out of your baptismal commitment modeled on Jesus? Like Jesus, what mission statement motivates you as you travel on your journey with the Lord? As we travel our faith journey together this year, try to be attentive to the roadmap offered us in today's readings.

Sunday, January 30

1st Reading: Jeremiah 1:4-5, 17-19

Psalm: Psalm 71:1-2, 3-4, 5-6, 15, 17

2nd Reading: 1 Corinthians 12:31—13:13

Gospel: Luke 4:21-30

Después de las epifanías del Señor en los relatos de los reyes magos, el bautismo del Señor y la fiesta nupcial de Caná, proclamados este año en tres domingos sucesivos, comenzamos sinceramente nuestro peregrinaje de fe. La temporada del Tiempo Ordinario nos permite el ocio para sumergirnos en nuestra jornada de fe al reflexionar sobre el gran misterio de la Encarnación, Dios con nosotros.

Las lecturas de hoy nos ofrecen una hoja de ruta para nuestra jornada de fe. Se enfocan en las palabras del Señor, que son para nosotros "espíritu y vida", como el estribillo del Salmo Responsorial 19 nos invita a afirmar. Cada una de las lecturas proporciona orientación sobre lo que debemos tratar en nuestra jornada de fe.

La primera lectura del libro de Nehemías hace que Esdras, el sacerdote, reúna a la gente para proclamarles la palabra de Dios. Esdras no solo "leyó con claridad" las palabras del Señor, sino que también interpretó las palabras "de suerte que el pueblo comprendía la lectura". Al proclamar la ley o la enseñanza, Esdras proporciona a las personas las palabras de Dios que dan vida y están llenas del espíritu. Por su atención y respuesta, las personas se apropian de la palabra de Dios, permitiendo que se convierta en la medida de su relación con Dios y con los demás.

La carta de Pablo a los corintios afirma con valentía la realidad de que somos un cuerpo en Cristo con muchos miembros. Este camino clave en nuestra jornada de fe a menudo se olvida cuando permitimos que nuestras diferencias nos dividan y nos separen. Pablo nos recuerda que nuestra unidad se deriva de ser bautizados en Cristo y de ser dado a beber del único Espíritu.

Es apropiado que leamos la exhortación de Pablo poco después de la Semana de Oración por la Unidad de los Cristianos que se ha celebrado del 18 al 25 de enero por más de cien años. En lugar de permitir que nuestras diferencias nos separen a nosotros y al cuerpo de Cristo, Pablo nos invita a deleitarnos con nuestra singularidad y enriquecernos con nuestras diferencias. Es Cristo quien nos une, en medio de nuestra diversidad. Olvidar esta sabiduría significativa hace que los cristianos se desvíen. La apropiación de esta sabiduría nos une como personas que modelan el amor, la misericordia y la compasión de Cristo.

© J. S. Paluch Co., Inc.

La lectura del evangelio de Lucas nos presenta dos caminos significativos en nuestro viaje. El primer camino presenta un desafío que cada generación cristiana debe aceptar. Ese desafío implica la necesidad de cada generación de articular por sí mismos la sabiduría que se les ha heredado. Lucas está haciendo esto por su comunidad para que pueda darse cuenta de "la verdad de lo que se le ha enseñado". Nosotros también estamos llamados a apropiarnos de la sabiduría que hemos recibido, haciéndolo vivo y activo para nosotros y para nuestra época actual. Este proceso generacional es precisamente lo que el Papa Juan XXIII quiso decir con la palabra italiana "aggiornamento" cuando convocó el Concilio Vaticano II.

En el segundo camino, Jesús presenta la declaración de la misión que rige su jornada de fe y la nuestra. Citando a Isaías, el Jesús de Lucas inicia su camino principal, a saber, "llevar a los pobres la buena nueva para anunciar la liberación a los cautivos y la curación a los ciegos, para dar libertad a los oprimidos salgan libres y proclamar el año de gracia del Señor." Al afirmar que "hoy mismo se ha cumplido este pasaje de la Escritura que acaban de oír", Jesús afirma que en su persona, el amor y la compasión de Dios, la misericordia y la justicia de Dios, están disponibles para todos. Jesús está dispuesto no solo a vivir estos valores, sino a arriesgar su vida para que todos puedan experimentar el amor y la compasión de Dios.

Este es el camino de Jesús y, a través de nuestro bautismo, estamos llamados a recorrer el mismo camino. ¿Cómo es su vida un ejemplo de su compromiso bautismal, modelado en Jesús? Como Jesús, ¿qué declaración de misión le motiva mientras camina en su viaje con el Señor? Mientras viajamos juntos nuestra jornada de fe este año, trate de estar atento a la hoja de ruta que se nos ofrece en las lecturas de hoy.

Biagio Mazza, Asociado Pastoral

"For in one Spirit we were all baptized into one body, whether Jews or Greeks, slaves or free persons, and we were all given to drink of one Spirit. Now the body is not a single part, but many."

1 Corinthians 12:13-14

This reading shows us we all have equal dignity and worth in God's sight, and that if God sees us as equally precious, we should view each other in this same light. It teaches us to humbly recognize our own gifts as well as the giftedness of every member of our parish family. And, while God designed us to be ultimately dependent on Him, it seems He has also designed us to need each other! This is part of the beauty and richness of a stewardship way of life. No one person can "do it all" in life — whether in family life or parish life. But God does not ask us to do it all. He simply asks us to share the gifts and talents we do have in the season of life we find ourselves right now. It might feel uncomfortable at first. But the good news is you don't have to do it all. Do your part, let your brothers and sisters in the Body of Christ do theirs, and know that the Spirit of the Lord is upon us all as we live out this stewardship way of life.

"Así como el cuerpo es uno y tiene muchos miembros y todos ellos, a pesar de ser muchos, forman un solo cuerpo, así también es Cristo. Porque todos nosotros, seamos judíos o no judíos, esclavos o libres, hemos sido bautizados en un mismo Espíritu, para formar un solo cuerpo, y a todos se nos ha dado a beber del mismo Espíritu."

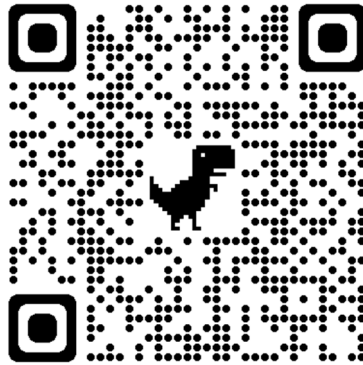

1 Corintios 12:13-14

Esta lectura nos muestra que todos tenemos la misma dignidad y valor ante los ojos de Dios, y que si Dios nos ve como igualmente valiosos, debemos vernos unos a otros de la misma manera. Nos enseña a reconocer humildemente nuestros propios dones, así como los dones de cada miembro de nuestra familia parroquial. Y, aunque Dios nos diseñó para depender de Él, ¡parece que también nos ha diseñado para que nos necesitemos unos a otros! Esto es parte de la belleza y la riqueza de una forma de vida de corresponsabilidad. Ninguna persona puede "hacerlo todo" en la vida, ya sea en la vida familiar o parroquial. Pero Dios no nos pide que lo hagamos todo. Simplemente nos pide que compartamos los dones y talentos que tenemos en la etapa de la vida en la que nos encontramos ahora. Puede sentirse incómodo al principio. Pero la buena noticia es que no tiene que hacerlo todo. Haga su parte, permita que sus hermanos y hermanas en el Cuerpo de Cristo hagan la suya, y sepa que el Espíritu del Señor está sobre todos nosotros mientras vivimos esta forma de vida de corresponsabilidad.
