Attention Communion Ministers:

Please plan to attend a meeting on Tuesday, January 31, at 7:00 PM in the Parish Hall. We will pray, spend some time reflecting on the liturgy, our role, and our experience as communion ministers. We will also cover some important updates to our weekend procedures. As we begin a new year and prepare for the season of Lent, it is a great time to share some time together exploring our faith & deepening our commitment to ministry.

Feeling your age?

Have you ever told someone you're younger than you really are- and then started to believe it? What we believe really can make a big difference to our health and well-being. Shaving a few years off your age may actually help you live longer, according to a recent study from the University College in London.

Researchers found that among roughly 6,500 older adults (with and average age of 65), those who reported feeling three or more years younger had a 41 percent lower risk of dying over an eight-year period than those who felt older than their age. "At first we thought that people who felt older were, in fact, sicker, but even when we accounted for preexisting conditions-cancer, heart disease, diabetes, and arthritis, among others-the relationship between perceived age and longevity remained quite strong," says study coauthor Andrew Steptoe, PhD, director of the Institute of Epidemiology and Health Care at the University College in London.

Our body is always listening, make sure you're sending sweet, healthy messages!

Stewardship

“Blessed are they who are persecuted for the sake of righteousness, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven. Blessed are you when they insult you and persecute you and utter every kind of evil against you falsely because of me. Rejoice and be glad, for your reward will be great in heaven.”

Matthew 5: 10-12

In His Sermon on the Mount Jesus gives a more accurate perspective of Who He is. He begins what we call the Beatitudes (the word means “blessings”) with “Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.” In a sense we are all “poor in spirit.” Without the guidance and strength provided us by the Lord there is no way we can escape this poverty of spirit, of spirituality, if you will. That is why we often say that living God-centered lives is at the very core of stewardship. Being a disciple of Christ translates into being a steward of our many gifts and blessings. Some scholars believe that Jesus may have given this sermon often during His ministry. Those who followed Jesus and became the earliest Christians, the first members of the Church, were fond of quoting and referring to what the Lord said on this occasion. As stated Jesus provides us with the secret of living a good life. If we rely on Him and follow Him, we will be blessed. — See more at www.catholicsteward.com/blog/

Reflection on the Readings

Beginning today and continuing for the next four Sundays, we proclaim select passages from Matthew's Sermon on the Mount. The Eighth Sunday in Ordinary Time, the Sunday just before Ash Wednesday, concludes the Sermon readings with Jesus' advice on seeking the kingdom of God and its righteousness and not worrying about tomorrow for God will provide. Reading the entire Sermon on the Mount, Matthew chapters 5-7, as we go through these five Sundays would be an excellent way to immerse oneself into some of Jesus' most significant teachings.

Today's gospel begins the Sermon with "The Beatitudes." Matthew, writing for a primarily Jewish audience, pictures Jesus as the new Moses who goes up a mountain, sits down in the style of a teacher, and begins to dispense God's wisdom to his disciples. The Beatitudes are not new teachings for they flow completely out of the Wisdom tradition of Israel. Jesus knew his Jewish traditions and Scriptures well. He was able to call upon them in guiding the life style and values of his own disciples.

The Beatitudes reflect the wisdom that comes from taking on the perspective of God. Jesus challenges his followers not to be fooled by the values and standards that the world sets, but rather to seek and learn God's values and standards. The wisdom of the Beatitudes undermines and actually reverses all that the world considers honorable, blessed, or the source of happiness. "Blessed," the word used in most translations can also be translated as "happy" or "honored." The Beatitudes contain the attitudes, values and perspectives that will lead to true happiness, in contrast to the kind of happiness that the world envisions.

The second reading from Paul's first letter to the Corinthians picks up on this reversal of values. Paul asserts that God purposely chooses the "foolish of the world to shame the wise...the weak of the world to shame the strong...those who count for nothing, to reduce to nothing those who are something, so that no human being might boast before God." A strongly developed sense of humility is the key requirement for any disciple. Why? So that we can focus not on ourselves but on the Lord. Paul sums up by saying "Whoever boasts, should boast in the Lord," and not in themselves or what they possess.

The heart of the Beatitudes lies in the refrain used for today's responsorial Psalm 146, "Blessed are the poor in spirit, the kingdom of heaven is theirs." The poor in spirit are those who, rich, poor or otherwise, place their trust, confidence, reliance and hope on God and not on themselves or others. This perspective allows them to weather whatever trials and difficulties that come their way, for they know that God is their true wealth, shelter and shield. The psalm verses powerfully proclaim that God is always attuned to the needs of the poor, the weak, the stranger, or anyone else who seeks and places their trust in the Lord. These are the humble of the world, whose attitude evokes a compassionate and loving response from God.

Zephaniah in the first reading counsels his people who have strayed from covenant justice and promises, to turn to the Lord in humility, and not in arrogance. The Lord affirms Zephaniah's message by changing his "perhaps" God will relent, to a definite affirmation by God that humility will lead to a restoration of a remnant of the people who will learn what it means to be "poor in spirit."

As we begin this lengthy exploration of the Sermon on the Mount, reflect on how you cultivate a sense of humility, of being "poor in spirit," by placing all your trust, hope and confidence in the faithful Lord who never gives up on us. Strive to read and reflect on Jesus' Sermon in Matthew's gospel and recommit yourself to taking on God's values and perspective. If we all begin to do so, we can be certain that "the kingdom of heaven" will be ours.

Pastoral Associate

Bible Study

Catholics are mostly exposed to the Bible through the Sunday Lectionary Readings. In order to help us all enter into the Bible through the Sunday readings, we are offering study sessions that will provide an opportunity to read, to study background to the readings, and to reflect on how to apply the readings to our lives. We will gather on February 12th and 26th at 10:30am. All are welcome. Bring a Bible and a friend. To register for these sessions, please call Biagio at 816-979-3153.

Reflexión Sobre las Lecturas

Comenzando hoy, y continuando para los cuatro domingos siguientes, proclamamos pasajes selectos del Sermón del Monte de Mateo. El Octavo Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario, el domingo justo antes del Miércoles de Ceniza, concluye las lecturas del Sermón con el consejo de Jesús de buscar el reino de Dios y su justicia y no preocuparse por el mañana porque Dios proveerá. Leer todo el Sermón del Monte, Mateo capítulos 5-7, mientras pasamos por estos cinco domingos sería una excelente manera de sumergirse en algunas de las enseñanzas más significativas de Jesús.

El evangelio de hoy comienza el Sermón con "Las Bienaventuranzas". Mateo, escribiendo para una audiencia principalmente judía, representa a Jesús como el nuevo Moisés que sube una montaña, se sienta al estilo de un maestro y comienza a dispensar la sabiduría de Dios a sus discípulos. Las Bienaventuranzas no son nuevas enseñanzas porque fluyen completamente de la tradición de Sabiduría de Israel. Jesús conocía bien sus tradiciones y escrituras judías. Él fue capaz de utilizarlos para guiar el estilo de vida y los valores de sus propios discípulos.

Las Bienaventuranzas reflejan la sabiduría que proviene de asumir la perspectiva de Dios. Jesús desafía a sus seguidores a no dejarse engañar por los valores y estándares que el mundo establece, sino más bien a buscar y aprender los valores y estándares de Dios. La sabiduría de las bienaventuranzas socava y realmente revierte todo lo que el mundo considera honorable, bendito o la fuente de la felicidad. "Bienaventurado", la palabra usada en la mayoría de las traducciones, se puede traducir también como "feliz", o "honrado". Las bienaventuranzas contienen las actitudes, los valores y las perspectivas que resultarán a la verdadera felicidad, en contraste con la clase de felicidad que el mundo prevé.

La segunda lectura de la primera carta de Pablo a los Corintios retoma esta inversión de valores. Pablo afirma que Dios elige deliberadamente a los "ignorantes de este mundo para humillar a los sabios ... a los débiles del mundo, para avergonzar a los fuertes ... a los que no valen nada, para reducir a la nada a los que vale; de manera que nadie pueda presumir delante de Dios". Un fuerte sentido desarrollado de la humildad es el requisito clave para cualquier discípulo. ¿Por qué? Para que no nos concentremos en nosotros mismos, sino en el Señor. Pablo resume: "El que se gloría, que se gloríe en el Señor", y no en sí mismos ni en lo que poseen.

El corazón de las Bienaventuranzas se encuentra en el refrán usado para el Salmo 146 de hoy: "Dichosos los pobres de espíritu, porque de ellos es el Reino de los cielos". Los pobres en espíritu son aquellos que, ricos, pobres o de otra manera, confíen y esperen en Dios y no en sí mismos o en los demás. Esta perspectiva les permite soportar las pruebas y dificultades que surgen, porque saben que Dios es su verdadera riqueza, refugio y escudo. Los versos del salmo proclaman poderosamente que Dios siempre está en sintonía con las necesidades de los pobres, de los débiles, de los forasteros, o de cualquier otra persona que busque y deposite su confianza en el Señor. Estos son los humildes del mundo, cuya actitud evoca una respuesta compasiva y amorosa de parte de Dios.

Sofonías en la primera lectura aconseja a su pueblo que se ha desviado de la justicia y las promesas del pacto, para volverse al Señor en humildad y no en arrogancia. El Señor afirma el mensaje de Sofonías al cambiar su "tal vez" Dios se arrepiente, a una afirmación definida por Dios que la humildad llevará a la restauración de un remanente de la gente quien aprenderá lo que significa ser "pobre de espíritu".

Al comenzar esta extensa exploración del Sermón del Monte, reflexione sobre cómo cultiva un sentido de humildad, de ser "pobre de espíritu", poniendo toda su confianza y esperanza en el Señor fiel que nunca se rinde a nosotros. Esfuércese a leer y reflexionar sobre el Sermón de Jesús en el evangelio de Mateo y comprométase nuevamente a asumir los valores y la perspectiva de Dios. Si todos comenzamos a hacerlo, podemos estar seguros de que "el Reino de los cielos" será nuestro.

Corresponsabilidad/Información

Donaciones por Internet

Sta. Sabina ofrece una opción de donar en línea para los feligreses y visitantes. Esta es una manera fácil, y segura de contribuir por internet. Para establecer una contribución única ó recurrente: visite nuestro sitio web de la parroquia en www.stsabinaaparish.org, haga clic en el botón "Online Giving" en la parte superior derecha y llene el formulario de contribución en línea.

Donaciones de Valores y Fondos Mutuos

¿Valen algunas de sus acciones o fondos mutuos más que cuando los compró? Esto le proporciona un método sabio de dar a la parroquia de Sta. Sabina.

Donar acciones apreciadas o acciones de fondos mutuos es un método estratégico de la planificación de regalos. En la mayoría de los casos, el donante recibe una deducción detallada en el monto total del valor justo de mercado (FMV) de las acciones donadas a la fecha de la donación. Este valor es deducible hasta un 30% del ingreso bruto ajustado del donante y puede ser transferido por hasta cinco años después del año de la donación. Consulte a su asesor financiero o jurídico.

Colecta Para la Arquidiócesis Castrense de los Estados Unidos

A nombre de Monseñor Timothy P Broglio, Arzobispo Castrense de los Estados Unidos de América y sus obispos auxiliares y el personal, gracias de corazón a todos aquellos que participaron en la colecta para la Arquidiócesis Castrense. Sus oraciones y generosidad ayudarán al ministerio singular a los hombres y mujeres que protegen esta gran nación nuestra y defienden las libertades que atesoramos. Su contribución también ayuda proporcionar los sacramentos y el cuidado pastoral a los veteranos católicos que han servido con distinción y a los que están sometidos a tratamiento medico en los Centros médicos del Departamento de los Veteranos en los EE UU, Puerto Rico y Guam.

Un Momento de Corresponsabilidad

En el Evangelio de hoy, Jesús inicia su Sermón de la Montaña con una serie de bendiciones, las Bienaventuranzas. Las Bienaventuranzas son un resumen de la actitud fundamental de un cristiano corresponsable. Enfoque su reflexión en la lectura de este Evangelio durante esta semana. ¿Identifica la bendición con la cual usted se identifica más? ¿Cuál de las Bienaventuranzas es la más desafiante para usted? - Consejo Internacional de la Corresponsabilidad Católica
