This Week's Do You Know Video:

With the onslaught of the Industrial Revolution, Catholic Social Teaching consistently manifested a concern for workers and the dignity of work. CST advocated for many workers' rights and protections which did not exist at the time. CST continually dedicates itself to improving the rights of workers regarding a "living" or just wage and reasonable work hours. CST has always supported the rights of workers to organize and continues to be a strong supporter of labor unions. CST insists that a just society is one that respects the rights and dignity of workers. Make time to view this week's DYK video and learn how CST continues to advocate for workers' rights and dignity.

Con el embate de la Revolución Industrial, la Enseñanza Social Católica (ESC) manifestó constantemente una preocupación por los trabajadores y la dignidad del trabajo. ESC abogó por muchos derechos y protecciones de los trabajadores que no existían en ese momento. La ESC se dedica continuamente a mejorar los derechos de los trabajadores con respecto a un salario "digno" o justo y horas de trabajo razonables. La ESC siempre ha apoyado el derecho de los trabajadores a organizarse y sigue siendo un firme partidario de los sindicatos. La ESC insiste en que una sociedad justa es aquella que respeta los derechos y la dignidad de los trabajadores. Did You Know- smart phones can "hook" users into a dependency. In a study of 1,600 managers and professionals, Harvard Business School, found that:

- 70% said they check their smartphone within an hour of getting up
- 56% check their phone within an hour of going to sleep
- 51% check continuously during vacation

Here are a few steps to help you set boundaries with your technology.

1. Don't read emails first thing in the morning- Begin your morning with a routine—prayer, meditation and exercise will help you prepare for the day ahead.
2. Set limits on when and where you let yourself use electronic devices. A good rule of thumb might be to not use the smartphone in situations where an interaction with another human is taking place. If your Facebook friends are worth checking in on, it might also be worth engaging with the person directly in front of you.
3. Set a good example. Our children are growing up at a time where the competition for attention from all these sources is increasingly going to be challenging. Unless children learn self-regulating ability, they will be living a life which is constantly reactive, always responding to something coming from the outside. Setting limits on screen time for kids applies to adults too.
4. Track your smartphone habits. Change can begin with keeping a record. Jot down your smartphone usage, what you're doing and how long you're doing it. Are you answering work email, checking out Facebook or playing Candy Crush five times in a row? Add up the time and divide it by seven and make a modest goal of cutting back — say 10 percent.

If you're distracted by the latest email, text, tweet, Facebook and Instagram pic, Snapchat, TikTok video (to name a few), your family and friends lose interest in what you are saying and stop engaging with you.

Be present and mindful for the real people in your life!

Ecological Conversion: Called to Tend to a Flourishing Garden of Life

St. Sabina Parish Community Green Team will facilitate a workshop on Laudato Si' "Ecological Conversion: Called to Tend to a Flourishing Garden of Life," on Tuesday evening October 26, 2021, from 7-8:30 PM and repeated on Wednesday morning, October 27, 2021, from 10-11:30AM. The workshop will focus on defining "eco-conversion," why Pope Francis has called the global church to a 7-year journey to sustainability, and bringing the encyclical, Laudato Si' to life. We will also brainstorm how you and/or your community may join this important global church effort. Together we will discern how best to engage with Pope Francis' call to join him in a 7-year sustainability and "eco-conversion" journey through the Vatican's Laudato Si' Action Platform. Into the Breach

A message from the Knights of Columbus - Council 5586 St. Sabina Catholic Church

Into the Breach series takes on the subject of today's men and their role as a husband, father, friend, neighbor, leader, and protector of our church.

Family

Men's service of their family and their vocation as a husband and father requires faith, dedication, and sacrifice.

Fatherhood

The presence and involvement of a loving father is critical in the development of a child. True fatherhood models itself on God the Father.

Brotherhood

Man was not meant to "go it alone", but to be in communion with others. It is important to build close friendships with other men in faith.

Leadership

Men must become leaders through developing their character. True leadership seeks greatness and brings out the greatness in others.

En la foto arriba aparecen los miembros de RICA quienes se reunieron el 30 de septiembre para una de sus sesiones regulares para crecer juntos en la fe y como comunidad.

The refrain from responsorial Psalm 90 sums up well this Sunday's focus, "Fill us with your love, O Lord, and we will sing for joy." Psalm 90 expresses a song of joy, delighting in God's faithful love (hesed). Such faithful love is freely given without limits. Yet limitless love costs God a great deal. A steep price is asked of anyone who chooses to love so totally. Yet in loving so one begins to enter the very self of God. Today's readings touch on this search for wisdom: what it involves, the price demanded, and the consequent rewards.

Psalm 90, a communal lament, contains many themes borrowed from wisdom literature. The community seems to be experiencing distress and turns to God for help. Beginning with a meditation on life's fragility and brevity (verses 1-6), the psalmist seeks reconciliation with God over any sinfulness that might have led to this state of distress. The psalmist prays for wisdom in the midst of life's sorrows and fragility, (verses 7-12).

The last portion of the psalm (verses 13-17) consists of a lament prayer. The psalmist waits on daybreak, the traditional time for anticipating God's deliverance, after passing a long night in prayer and fasting, waiting upon the Lord. The psalm ends on a note of trust, calling upon the Lord to be faithful to covenant love. Trusting in God's faithful love is the wisdom that one hangs on to in the midst of everything that seems to contradict that love.

The first reading comes from the book of Wisdom, attributed to Solomon by an unknown author. In this passage, Solomon asks God not for riches or fame but for wisdom. In doing so, Solomon opens himself up to all that wisdom demands, as well as all the rewards that come with practicing wisdom. Such wisdom is to be prized above all else for it is the source of all other good things in life. Such is the reward of those whose faith and trust enables them to rely upon God's faithful love.

The rich young man in Mark's gospel is, like the disciples, on a search for the true wisdom, desiring to do what is required in order to inherit eternal life. Jesus challenges him with the ethical life style of the commandments. Having adhered to them, the rich young man desires more, seeking a path to greater intimacy with God. Jesus' response gets at that very wisdom of God: to be like God, one has to let go of all that one values and take on the wisdom of God.

This challenge is just too much for the rich young man, and he goes away sad, because he could not let go of what he valued. The disciples are dismayed and wonder what will happen to them who have let go of all for the sake of God. Jesus responds that those who have let go, choosing the path of God's wisdom, will have all good things, including persecutions, and eternal life. God's wisdom is the source of all good things that have true meaning in this life and beyond.

The selection from Hebrews speaks of this search for wisdom by asserting that true wisdom requires attuning ourselves to the word of God. To know God, to acquire the wisdom of God, one is to dwell in the word of God, confronting its challenge ("sharper than any two-edged sword"), and conforming to it, allowing it to penetrate "soul and spirit, joints and marrow." This puts one in touch with God's very self, bringing wisdom and its consequent joys.

This week, take time to reflect on how you search for wisdom in your life, and how that search is related to your relationship to God and others. Are you willing to accept the challenge that the search for wisdom requires? Will you respond like Solomon, or like the rich young man? In seeking wisdom, are you ready to pay the price demanded? Where will your reflection lead you as you confront the word of God, living and effective this Sunday in our community celebration? May your search and reflection lead you joyously to God's wisdom.

2nd Reading: Hebrews 4:14-16

Gospel: Mark 10:35-45

El estribillo del Salmo responsorial 89 resume bien el enfoque de este domingo: “Sácianos, Señor, de tu misericordia, y toda nuestra vida será alegría y júbilo”. El Salmo 89 expresa una canción de alegría que se deleita en el amor fiel de Dios (hesed). Tal amor fiel es dado libremente sin límites. Sin embargo, el amor ilimitado le cuesta mucho a Dios. Se pide un precio elevado a cualquiera que elija amar tan totalmente. Sin embargo, al amar, uno comienza a entrar en el mismo ser de Dios. Las lecturas de hoy abordan esta búsqueda de sabiduría: lo que implica, el precio demandado y las recompensas consiguientes .

El Salmo 89, un lamento comunitario, contiene muchos temas tomados de la literatura de sabiduría. La comunidad parece estar experimentando angustia y acude a Dios en busca de ayuda. Comenzando con una meditación sobre la fragilidad y brevedad de la vida (versos 1-6), el salmista busca la reconciliación con Dios por cualquier pecado que pudiera haber conducido a este estado de angustia. El salmista ora por sabiduría en medio de las tristezas y la fragilidad de la vida (versos 7-12).

La última parte del salmo (versos 13-17) consiste en una oración de lamento. El salmista espera al amanecer, el tiempo tradicional para anticipar la liberación de Dios, después de pasar una larga noche en oración y ayuno, esperando el Señor. El salmo termina con una nota de confianza, pidiendo al Señor que sea fiel al pacto de amor. Confiar en el amor fiel de Dios es la sabiduría a la que uno se aferra en medio de todo lo que parece contradecir ese amor.

La primera lectura proviene del libro de la Sabiduría, atribuido a Salomón por un autor desconocido. En este pasaje, Salomón le pide a Dios no por riquezas o fama, sino por sabiduría. Al hacerlo, Salomón se abre a todo lo que exige la sabiduría, así como a todas las recompensas que se obtiene con la práctica de la sabiduría. Tal sabiduría debe ser apreciada por encima de todo porque es la fuente de todas las demás cosas buenas de la vida. Tal es la recompensa de aquellos cuya fe y confianza les permite confiar en el amor fiel de Dios.

El joven rico en el evangelio de Marcos está, como los discípulos, en una búsqueda de la verdadera sabiduría, deseando hacer lo que se requiere para heredar la vida eterna. Jesús lo desafía con el estilo de vida ético de los mandamientos. Al adherirse a ellos, el joven rico desea más, buscando un camino hacia una mayor intimidad con Dios. La respuesta de Jesús llega a esa misma sabiduría de Dios: para ser como Dios, uno tiene que dejar ir todo lo que uno valora y asumir la sabiduría de Dios.

Este desafío es demasiado para el joven rico, y se va triste porque no pudo dejar de lado lo que valoraba. Los discípulos están consternados y se preguntan qué les sucederá a los que han abandonado todo por Dios. Jesús responde que aquellos que lo han dejado, escogiendo el camino de la sabiduría de Dios, tendrán todas las cosas buenas, incluidas las persecuciones y la vida eterna. La sabiduría de Dios es la fuente de todas las cosas buenas que tienen un verdadero significado en esta vida y más allá.

La selección de Hebreos habla de esta búsqueda de sabiduría al afirmar que la verdadera sabiduría requiere sintonizarnos con la Palabra de Dios. Para conocer a Dios, para adquirir la sabiduría de Dios, uno debe morar en la palabra de Dios, confrontando su desafío ("más penetrante que una espada de dos filos"), y conformándose a ella, permitiéndole penetrar en "hasta lo más íntimo del alma, hasta la médula de los huesos". Esto lo pone a uno en contacto con el mismísimo ser de Dios, trayendo la sabiduría y sus alegrías consecuentes.

Esta semana, tómese el tiempo para reflexionar sobre cómo busca la sabiduría en su vida y cómo esa búsqueda está relacionada con su relación con Dios y con los demás. ¿Está dispuesto a aceptar el desafío que requiere la búsqueda de la sabiduría? ¿Responderá como Salomón, o como el joven rico? En la búsqueda de la sabiduría, ¿está listo para pagar el precio exigido? ¿Adónde le llevará su reflexión cuando confronte la Palabra de Dios, viva y efectiva este domingo en nuestra celebración comunitaria? Que su búsqueda y reflexión le guíe alegremente a la sabiduría de Dios.

"Jesus, looking at him, loved him and said to him, 'You are lacking in one thing. Go, sell what you have, and give to the poor and you will have treasure in heaven; then come, follow me.' At that statement his face fell, and he went away sad, for he had many possessions."

Mark 10:21-22

If we look at our own lives, we can most likely think of something that we tightly carry with us. Maybe it is possessions—material goods or money—like Jesus references in our Gospel. Or maybe it is something less material—like status, pride, or control. Jesus doesn't want our stuff—our job promotions, our designer house, or our bank account. He just wants us. So, we need to be willing to strip those things from our lives in order to reach Him. It might seem difficult, but the outcome will be more than we could have ever imagined—peace on earth and treasure in heaven.

"Jesús lo miró con amor y le dijo: 'Sólo una cosa te falta: Ve y vende lo que tienes, da el dinero a los pobres y así tendrás un tesoro en los cielos. Después, ven y sígueme'. Pero al oír estas palabras, el hombre se entristeció y se fue apesadumbrado, porque tenía muchos bienes."

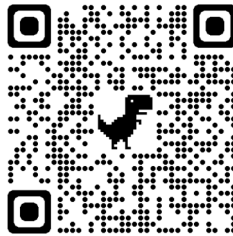

Marcos 10:21-22

Si miramos nuestras propias vidas, lo más probable es que podamos pensar en algo que llevamos con fuerza. Tal vez sean posesiones, bienes materiales o dinero, como Jesús hace referencia en nuestro Evangelio. O tal vez sea algo menos material, como estatus, orgullo o control. Jesús no quiere nuestras cosas: nuestras promociones laborales, nuestra casa de diseño o nuestra cuenta bancaria. Él solo nos quiere a nosotros. Entonces, debemos estar dispuestos a quitar esas cosas de nuestras vidas para poder llegar a Él. Puede parecer difícil, pero el resultado será más de lo que jamás hubiéramos imaginado: paz en la tierra y tesoro en el cielo.

Minister of Hospitality Formation

Please help to meet a great need at our parish and prayerfully consider becoming a Minister of Hospitality at St. Sabina. We currently do not have enough Hospitality Ministers to schedule at each weekend Mass. Our goal is to increase the number of active Hospitality Ministers so that we can have a team of six at each Mass. To do this, we need roughly 24 Ministers available to serve at each weekend Mass time. We are seeking 40 more parishioners to serve as Hospitality Ministers.

Any member of our parish, male, female, age 15-115, can be a Minister of Hospitality.

What do Hospitality Ministers do?

- Hospitality Ministers are responsible for welcoming people as they arrive for Mass.
- They create an atmosphere of hospitality and make sure general needs of our community are met as they arrive at church.
- They take up the collection and find members of our community to present the offering during Mass.
- Hospitality Ministers help facilitate processions and assist during large or special liturgies, when things may be a bit unfamiliar for the assembly.
- They often pass out needed materials (bulletins, candles, special envelopes).

Please register for Minister of Hospitality formation on:

Tuesday, October 12 at 7:00PM in the church

Please either email Susan Ratigan at susan@stsabinaparish.org or sign up on the Registration Form in the Gathering Space, or on the website to register for formation. If you would like to serve as a Minister of Hospitality, but can't attend this session, please contact Susan. There will be future formation dates.

You can see there is a great need. I hope you will consider sharing your time with our parish to fill this need. The ministry of Hospitality is much more than taking up the collection. These ministers are the face of welcome and caring of our parish. Hospitality Ministers help connect individuals to the parish and each other. This truly is a vital ministry and we need you.

El Salvador Scholarship Students

St. Sabina currently supports 11 university students in El Salvador. Over the next several weeks we will highlight one student a week. If you would like to support Katerin and our other 10 scholarship students, please place your donation in the collection basket and label it El Salvador Scholarship Fund. Thank you.

Katerin Anahí Sibrián Rosa

Katerin is from the community of San Francisco Echeverría, just outside of Cinquera, and is 17 years old. She is currently in her first year of study at the University of El Salvador and her field of study is Agricultural Engineering. She is expected to graduate in 2025 and her grade point average last semester was 7.0.

Katerin lives with her parents and 2 brothers. Her mother, Emma, is 38, a health promoter and completed high school. Her father, Santos, is 41, a farmer and received a 9th-grade education. Katerin's brother, Josué, is 8 years old and in the 3rd grade. Her youngest brother, Néstor, is 1 year old.

Below please read Katerin's comments about the Scholarship program, her challenges and her future plans.

WHAT IMPACT HAS THE SCHOLARSHIP PROGRAM HAD ON YOUR LIFE?

It has been a great help, as my family has scarce economic resources. We are three children in my house, so my parents can't afford my university studies. I decided to apply for a scholarship through ARDM, and as a family, we accepted all the commitments the scholarship requires, and thanks to God, I met all the criteria to enter the program, thanks to St. Sabina, ARDM and CIS.

WHAT IMPACT HAS THE SCHOLARSHIP PROGRAM HAD ON YOUR COMMUNITY?

The program has had a huge impact in our community, especially for the youth that come from economically disadvantaged families. Now, we have an opportunity to access a scholarship and become professionals.

WHAT HAVE BEEN YOUR GREATEST OBSTACLES IN ORDER TO CONTINUE YOUR EDUCATION?

Transportation from my home to university is an obstacle. I have to travel 72 kilometers and expose myself to robberies and accidents. Bus drivers are often reckless, and provide a bad service to customers. On the other hand, delinquency affects us when we leave for our classes in university. We leave home with fear, as there are many thieves who can take the little we have.

WHAT ARE YOUR PLANS AFTER GRADUATING FROM HIGH SCHOOL OR UNIVERSITY?

Personally, I want to share my knowledge with farmers of my community. I want to collaborate with ARDM, as I know they work with farmers and apply an organic method to grow their crops. I want to look for a job and work in my field.

Becados en El Salvador

Sta. Sabina actualmente apoya a 11 universitarios en El Salvador. Durante las próximas semanas destacaremos a un estudiante por semana. Si desea apoyar a Katerin y a nuestros otros 10 becados, coloque su donación en la canasta de la colecta y etiquétela como Fondo de Becas de El Salvador. Gracias.

Katerin Anahí Sibrián Rosa

Katerin es de la comunidad de San Francisco Echeverría, en las afueras de Cinquera, y tiene 17 años. Actualmente se encuentra en su primer año de estudios en la Universidad de El Salvador y su especialidad es la Ingeniería Agrícola. Se espera que se gradúe en 2025 y su promedio de calificaciones el semestre pasado fue de 7.0.

Katerin vive con sus padres y 2 hermanos. Su madre, Emma, tiene 38 años, es promotora de salud y terminó la escuela secundaria. Su padre, Santos, tiene 41 años, es agricultor y recibió una educación del noveno grado. El hermano de Katerin, Josué, tiene 8 años y está en el tercer grado. Su hermano menor, Néstor, tiene 1 año.

A continuación, lea los comentarios de Katerin sobre el programa de becas, sus desafíos y sus planes futuros.

¿Qué impacto ha tenido el programa de becas en su vida? Ha sido de gran ayuda, ya que mi familia tiene escasos recursos económicos. Somos tres hijos en mi casa, por lo que mis padres no pueden pagar mis estudios universitarios. Decidí solicitar una beca a través de ARDM, y como familia aceptamos todos los compromisos que la beca requiere, y gracias a Dios cumplí con todos los criterios para ingresar al programa, gracias a Santa Sabina, ARDM y CIS.

¿Que impacto ha tenido el programa de becas en su comunidad? El programa ha tenido un gran impacto en nuestra comunidad, especialmente para los jóvenes que provienen de familias económicamente desfavorecidas. Ahora, tenemos la oportunidad de acceder a una beca y convertirnos en profesionales.

¿Cuáles han sido sus mayores obstáculos para poder continuar su educación? El transporte de mi casa a la universidad es un obstáculo. Tengo que recorrer 72 kilómetros y exponerme a robos y accidentes. Los conductores de autobuses suelen ser imprudentes y ofrecen un mal servicio a los clientes. Por otro lado, la delincuencia nos afecta cuando salimos para nuestras clases en la universidad. Salimos de casa con miedo, ya que hay muchos ladrones que pueden llevarse lo poco que tenemos.

¿Cuáles son sus planes después de graduar? Personalmente, quiero compartir mis conocimientos con los agricultores de mi comunidad. Quiero colaborar con ARDM, ya que sé que trabajan con agricultores y aplican un método orgánico para cultivar. Quiero buscar trabajo y trabajar en mi campo.
