STEWARDSHIP

“Jesus summoned them and said to them, ‘You know that those who are recognized as rulers over the Gentiles lord it over them, and their great ones make their authority over them felt. But it shall not be so among you. Rather, whoever wishes to be great among you will be your servant; whoever wishes to be first among you will be the slave of all. For the Son of Man did not come to be served but to serve and to give his life as a ransom for many.’ ”

Mark 10: 42-45

Jesus was a man of great humility. It is this humility to which we need to strive. This is not simple in the society in which we live. However, as the noted author and apologist, C.S. Lewis, once said, “Humility is not thinking less of yourself, but thinking of yourself less.” That is our tribulation as Christian stewards: to put others before ourselves both in reality and in our hearts. With God all things are possible. — See more at www.catholicsteward.com/blog/.

WORLD MISSION SUNDAY COLLECTION

Today is World Mission Sunday! In Scripture, we read that St. Paul asked the Gentile Churches to take up a collection to support the Church in Jerusalem. Now we are asked to reach out and support the young churches throughout our world. Your prayers and generous gifts to the Society for the Propagation of the Faith in the collection today will help missionaries offer the poor of these areas practical help as they share the mercy of God. It will ensure the development of local dioceses, and support the work of priests, religious and lay leaders who serve those on the margins and in most need. Go out to the whole world through your gift in today's collection!

STEWARDSHIP OF TIME AND TALENT:

CHRISTMAS IN OCTOBER 2015

ADULT FAITH FORMATION

REFLECTION ON THE TWENTY-NINTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME , YEAR B

This Sunday's readings throw a significant lens on what discipleship involves, what leadership entails and what role suffering plays in both. Today we learn from Jesus that discipleship involves a willingness to suffer for others, while true leadership entails lives of service. Jesus incarnates these lessons in his own life, especially in his dealing with others.

For such lessons to become integral parts of our lives of discipleship complete trust in God is essential. The refrain from responsorial Psalm 33 invites us to call upon the Lord's mercy with complete trust: "Lord Let your mercy be on us as we place our trust in you." Beginning with trust in God's faithful love and mercy, every disciple ventures out in service of others, ready and willing to handle the many difficulties that arise whenever we deal with each other and with life.

The first reading comes from Isaiah's fourth servant song which speaks of God's servant, Israel, suffering in Babylonia for the sake of being faithful to the Lord. Isaiah consoles the Babylonian captives that their suffering is not in vain. God, the giver of life, will bring about new life and meaning from Israel's suffering. God's people, in their willingness to suffer, will see long life and God's will accomplished through them.

Through such suffering, the Lord's servant will "justify many" and bear their guilt. The suffering servant will be the occasion for new life and meaning for all God's people. Such an insight can only surface from one who places complete trust in God's mercy, kindness and fidelity. The followers of Jesus understood Jesus to be the suffering servant of God, whose willingness to give of himself completely for others brings about new life and meaning for all.

The letter to the Hebrews offers Jesus as the model and hope to those who struggle with their lives of discipleship and service. Being fully human Jesus can sympathize with our weaknesses because Jesus was tested in every way that we are, "yet without sin." Our relationship to Jesus gives us confidence to approach God, ever mindful of God's mercy and ever trustful in God's love. In the midst of struggles and suffering, we can and do find timely help from our loving God.

Mark 8:22-10:51 is the heart of the gospel, with each passage offering important lessons in the school of discipleship. Jesus talks three times about his passion, death and resurrection, each time in more graphic detail than the previous. Each time, the disciples clearly misunderstand or refuse to acknowledge that discipleship is not for glory, status and prestige, but for service, which entails struggle and suffering.

Today's gospel is the last of the three misunderstandings by the disciples. Jesus has just spoken for the third time about his suffering and death. In response, all that James and John can think of is their status and privilege. The other disciples are indignant at them, not because they asked but rather for having beaten the rest of them to the punch. Jesus knows that it is time for another lesson in discipleship.

Jesus first challenges James and John with the same cup of suffering he is about to drink, namely his passion and death. They readily agree that they can walk that path with him. Jesus, realizing how little all of them actually understand the demands of discipleship, speaks to them in paradoxes. If you want to be first, be the slave of all. If you want to be great, be the servant of all. Disciples, like Jesus, are to be people who are willing to serve others, even to the point of giving one's life.

How willing are you to take on the challenge of discipleship? How active is your trust in God during times of difficulties and suffering? How is Jesus your model for dealing with the demands of Christian discipleship? This week, take time to reflect on and respond to these questions as we begin to bring this year of grace to a close.

CHANGING HABITS:WILLPOWER

We tend to think of willpower as something that can be depleted. But a growing body of research suggests that isn't so and that we may, in fact, have control over our self-control. In a Stanford University study, participants were prompted to regard willpower as either limited or limitless, and then asked to complete a cognitively challenging task. The result: Those who believed willpower was unlimited performed better on a subsequent test of self-control than people who thought the opposite. The next time you worry about your willpower not being up to the task, just remember, that belief is just in your mind. Go ahead and follow through with what you value. That's when your life comes into full alignment with what's really, really important to you.

CORRESPONSABILIDAD

TESORO: COLECTA DEL DOMINGO MUNDIAL DE LAS MISIONES

¡Hoy es el Domingo Mundial de las Misiones! En las escrituras, leímos que San Pablo, les pidió a las gentiles iglesias que realizaran una colecta para apoyar a la Iglesia de Jerusalén. Hoy en día, nos solicitan que apoyemos a las iglesias jóvenes de todo el mundo. Tus plegarias y regalos generosos a la Sociedad para la Propagación de la Fe en la colecta de hoy, ayudarán a los misioneros a ofrecer a los pobres de estas áreas, ayuda práctica mientras comparten la piedad del Señor. Asegurará el desarrollo de diócesis locales, y apoyará el trabajo de curas, religiosos y líderes laicos que sirven a los marginados y los mas necesitados. ¡Sal al mundo entero a través de tu regalo en la colecta de hoy!

INFORMACION

CLASES DE RICA

RICA, El Rito de Iniciación Cristiana de Adultos, comienza en Septiembre. RICA es el proceso de formación para adultos que quieren ser Católicos y para adultos que han sido bautizados en la fe Católica, pero necesitan los sacramentos de Primera Comunión y/o Confirmación. Este año vamos a tener pláticas los jueves de 7-9pm. Si esta interesado, comuníquese con Kris en la oficina, o llámele a Gerardo Arenivas al 816-719-7563 o a Raúl Félix al 816-309-1919.

SERVICIOS DE SANIDAD

Nuestra diócesis de Kansas City-St. Joseph esta haciendo un llamado a todos aquellos quienes han sido afectados por cualquier tipo de abuso sexual, ofreciendo servicios de sanidad. Los servicios se llevaran a cabo:

- 11 de Noviembre en la Natividad de María, en Independence, MO a las 7pm.
- 26 de Junio en la Catedral de la Inmaculada Concepción en Kansas City a las 2pm.

POR FAVOR TENGAN EN CUENTA:

Queremos que todos los feligreses tengan en cuenta que el Código de Ordenanzas de Belton dice que en ningún lugar dentro de la ciudad está autorizado pedir dinero (para comida, gasolina, etc.). Si alguien le pide dinero en el estacionamiento cuando viene a Misa, por favor dirígelo a cualquier miembro del personal que está en esa Misa, o a la oficina parroquial durante las horas de oficina, en lugar de darle dinero. Un miembro del personal está presente en cada Misa para cualquiera pregunta o duda nos puede encontrar en el lado sureño del Espacio de Reunión. Nosotros lo dirigiremos a los recursos adecuados.

2016 DELEGACION A EL SALVADOR

Nuestra parroquia llevara a su segunda delegación a El Salvador para aprender mas sobre el programa de becas allí y para tener la oportunidad de conocer a nuestro estudiantes becados y a sus familias. Viajaremos a Cinquera y a El Mozote. El pueblo de Mozote fue uno de los muchos donde ocurrieron masacres durante la Guerra Civil en El Salvador. Por ahora, planeamos viajar a El Salvador el 5 de Enero y quedarnos aproximadamente 8 días.

Si usted esta interesado o quiere mas información, por favor comuníquese con Kris al 816-979-3151 o por correo electrónico, kris@stsabinaparish.org.

INTENCIONES DE LA MISA

Es una antigua costumbre (que data los tiempos del Antiguo Testamento) orar por los que han muerto. La Iglesia sigue esta costumbre, sobre todo cuando se celebra la Eucaristía. Además de oración por todos los difuntos, una intención particular puede ser incluida por el sacerdote para una o más personas a solicitud de cualquier persona. Esa persona puede ofrecer una donación (sugerido $10). Dicha ofrenda tradicionalmente se ha proporcionado para el apoyo del clero. En nuestra diócesis, el clero decidió hace años para todas las misas que las remuneraciones se entregaran a la parroquia. Si usted desea ofrecer una Misa para uno de sus seres queridos, por favor comuníquese con Zuiri en la oficina parroquial.

Llámele a María Palomares al 816-838-1138 o con Kris Larkey en la oficina parroquial al 816-979-3151 o por correo electrónico: kris@stsabinaparish.org. Debido a las leyes de privacidad, los hospitales no pueden contactarnos.
