STEWARDSHIP

"After this I had a vision of a great multitude, which no one could count, from every nation, race, people, and tongue. They stood before the throne and before the Lamb, wearing white robes and holding palm branches in their hands. They cried out in a loud voice: 'Salvation comes from our God, who is seated on the throne, and from the Lamb.'"

Revelation 7: 9-10

Those who have Feast Days are "known." Yet, each of us has known "saints" in our lives who fall into the category of "unknown." It may have been a parent or a sibling or a friend or a co-worker or a neighbor or a member of our parish or merely someone with whom we came in contact at some point in time. The crux is that on this day we need to pray and to honor those saints who have been an important part of our life in some way. — See more at www.catholicsteward.com/blog/.

ADULT FAITH FORMATION

REFLECTION ON THE FEAST OF ALL SAINTS, YEAR B

This year November 1, the Feast of All Saints, falls on a Sunday. The feast overtakes the readings for the Thirty-first Sunday in Ordinary Time by proclaiming scripture readings unique to it. All the readings focus on our status as “children of God” (second reading from John’s first letter) called into loving and eternal relationship with God and with all those who belong to God.

Responsorial Psalm 24 invites us all to sing “Lord, this is the people that longs to see your face.” Together we express our longing to be with God face to face as we strive to live Jesus’ life style and values. The gospel reading from Matthew specifies those values in terms of the Beatitudes, a life lived in total trust, dependence and reliance on God, no matter what life may bring.

The first reading from the book of Revelation envisions the joy and ultimate victory of those who have lived lives of fidelity and trust in God. They are the victorious ones, dressed in white robes and carrying palm branches, clear indicators of those victorious in their struggle against forces alien to God. The readings help us realize the meaning and significance of the Feast of All Saints, and of the whole month of November, dedicated to the commemoration of all the faithful departed.

November 2, the Feast of All Souls Day, dovetails with November 1, the Feast of All Saints. We commemorate all the faithful departed who have died with hope and trust in a loving God. The saints, our models of Christian living, are one with God in heaven. All the faithful departed are those who have died with hope and trust in a loving God who calls us to greater growth and development, even beyond death.

These November feasts vividly remind us of the rich reality known as the Communion of Saints. This belief stresses the strong affirmation that the Church is always one in Christ. Death does not sever any of the bonds that unite us in Christ. That is why it is a fitting practice to pray for the dead and to ask them to pray for us.

Because of our strong bond in faith we believe that those who have died continue to be connected with us, concerned about us as we are about them. This leads us in faith to believe that they too can intercede with God for us, just as we intercede for them. Just as we pray for each other when we are alive, so too we continue that bond and concern for each other even beyond death.

In Mexico and in other parts of Latin America, November 1 and 2 are celebrated as “Días de los Muertos.” On these days, relatives and friends gather to remember, pray for and celebrate those who have died. Visiting cemeteries and sharing food, beverage, stories, pictures and other connections with the dead are standard ways of celebrating. Some build private altars in their homes decorating them with pictures of deceased family members along with their favorite food, toy or drink.

Those who have died are not separated from us simply because they are no longer physically present. They are still with us and we are still connected with them. These celebrations provide time and space both religiously and socially to connect with, show care and concern for, as well as ask those who have died to pray for us as we continue to pray for them.

This month take some time to reflect on your relationship to those who have gone before us “marked with the sign of faith.”

Think of an aunt, uncle, grandparent, godparent or other awesome person in your life who you know well and with whom you would love to spend time. Each month we have a meeting for the candidate and their sponsor to attend which is the preparation class for the sacrament. Your next meeting will be November 11th in the Parish Hall from 7-8:30pm. If your sponsor is unable to attend the meeting, you must still be present. If you need help finding a sponsor, please call Kirstie in the Youth Office. She knows people.

HARVESTERS! This local food bank provides food to needy families around the KC area. Volunteers are needed to help sort food donations and pack weekend food bags for kids to help fight hunger in our community. We will be taking a group of 5 people on the third Thursday of each month. If you would like to volunteer, call or email Kirstie in the Youth Office to sign up. This ministry is open to all ages! Our next date is November 19th from 6-8pm.

UPLIFT COOKS!

Anyone who would like to help prepare a meal for the homeless is welcome to join our team on the 4th Monday of each month at 10am in the gym. It's recommended that you bring a good cutting knife and vegetable peeler. Our next cooking day will be November 25th as we prepare a huge Thanksgiving meal for 300 homeless.

UPLIFT ORG. needs volunteers! If you would like to bring meals to the homeless on the 4th or 5th Monday of any month, please contact Kirstie Roberts to sign up! FORM FOR COMMUNICATION WITH MINORS

Parents and guardians must now sign a form giving permission for St. Sabina staff, specifically the Youth Director, Kirstie Roberts to respond to text messages, emails and phone calls from the youth of the parish. These forms are available in the back of the church with the PSR registrations and in the Youth Office.

All volunteers with youth and children must attend one Protecting God's Children workshop, submit to a background check and sign the policy on Ethics and Integrity in Ministry, (EIM).

WELLNESS CENTER

EVERYDAY FOOD: CELERY AND GRAPES

Celery is back on the must-eat list as a potential cancer fighter. It's a top source of a flavonoid called apigenin. Researchers recently discovered that when pancreatic cancer cells were treated with apigenin, 44 percent of the cells died. Apigenin activates a chemical reaction inside diseased cells, causing them to self-destruct. While eating celery can't cure pancreatic cancer, over time a diet containing apigenin-rich foods may help prevent the disease.

The skins of grapes are bursting with resveratrol, the same antioxidant that helps make red wine good for your heart. A study in Molecular Nutrition and Food Research has discovered that resveratrol may also aid in boosting immunity by helping increase levels of a molecule that kills bacteria and viruses. By adding more grapes to your diet, you may even protect yourself from contracting infections in the first place. One of the most important tenets of good nutrition is to eat a wide variety of foods. This helps ensure that you get a variety of nutrients. It doesn't have to be a super food to have value for your health. Let them eat grapes!

SERVICIOS DE SANIDAD

Nuestra diócesis de Kansas City-St. Joseph esta haciendo un llamado a todos aquellos quienes han sido afectados por cualquier tipo de abuso sexual, ofreciendo servicios de sanidad. Los servicios se llevaran a cabo:

POR FAVOR TENGAN EN CUENTA:

Queremos que todos los feligreses tengan en cuenta que el Código de Ordenanzas de Belton dice que en ningún lugar dentro de la ciudad está autorizado pedir dinero (para comida, gasolina, etc.). Si alguien le pide dinero en el estacionamiento cuando viene a Misa, por favor dirígelo a cualquier miembro del personal que está en esa Misa, o a la oficina parroquial durante las horas de oficina, en lugar de darle dinero. Un miembro del personal está presente en cada Misa para cualquiera pregunta o duda nos puede encontrar en el lado sureño del Espacio de Reunión. Nosotros lo dirigiremos a los recursos adecuados.

OBRA DE LA VIRGEN DE GUADALUPE

Si a usted le gustaría formar parte de nuestro elenco para la Obra de la Virgen de Guadalupe, por favor comuníquese con Raúl Félix al 816-309-1919. Los ensayos comenzaron la semana pasada.

INTENCIONES DE LA MISA

Es una antigua costumbre (que data los tiempos del Antiguo Testamento) orar por los que han muerto. La Iglesia sigue esta costumbre, sobre todo cuando se celebra la Eucaristía. Además de oración por todos los difuntos, una intención particular puede ser incluida por el sacerdote para una o más personas a solicitud de cualquier persona. Esa persona puede ofrecer una donación (sugerido $10). Dicha ofrenda tradicionalmente se ha proporcionado para el apoyo del clero. En nuestra diócesis, el clero decidió hace años para todas las misas que las remuneraciones se entregaran a la parroquia. Si usted desea ofrecer una Misa para uno de sus seres queridos, por favor comuníquese con Zuiri en la oficina parroquial.
