Romero Celebration-March 11th-6:00pm

On Saturday, March 11 our Salvadoran Community will host our parish's annual celebration in honor of Blessed Bishop Oscar Romero. Mass will begin at 6:00pm and Fr. José Angel Renderos will celebrate the Mass. Bishop James Johnston will be in attendance.

Fr. Angel is the pastor of the parish of Santa Ana in San Salvador. He is also the director of Centro Escolar Católico Santa Ana and he is a co-founder of the Bishop Romero Association in El Salvador. He was ordained on March 9, 1986. Padre Angel visited St. Sabina in 2012 and celebrated Mass in honor of Mons. Oscar Romero. We are delighted to have him return.

Blessed Óscar Arnulfo Romero (August 15, 1917 - March 24, 1980) was a prominent Roman Catholic priest in El Salvador during the 1960s and 1970s, becoming Archbishop of San Salvador in 1977. After witnessing numerous violations of human rights, he began to speak out on behalf of the poor and the victims of repression. This led to numerous conflicts, both with the government in El Salvador and within the Catholic Church. After speaking out against U.S. military support for the government of El Salvador, and calling for soldiers to disobey orders to fire on innocent civilians, Archbishop Romero was shot dead while celebrating Mass at the small chapel of the cancer hospital where he lived.

"Single-Hearted for God" is a new program at St. Sabina for unmarried adults. This program is to aid unmarried Catholics of all ages to discern ways to serve Christ and the Church as a single adult. An unmarried vocation is unique in all the Church and we will explore many ways to go forward with purpose. All men and women who are single, widowed, and divorced are welcome. We will meet on Tuesday nights during Lent. Please sign up in the vestibule, or email the office or Deacon Mike.

Wellness Center

Young People and Heart Disease

The plaques that eventually lead to clogged arteries can start accumulating during adolescence, which is why cholesterol checks should begin as early as age 20. Even if you’re young, your chances of developing heart disease increase at least tenfold when you have three or more risk factors—for instance, if you smoke, you’re overweight, you don’t exercise, and you’re chronically stressed. “While it’s true that women under 55 make up fewer than 5 percent of all heart disease cases, studies suggest that young women who do have heart attacks are twice as likely to die, compared with young men,” says Judith Lichtman, PhD, an associate professor of epidemiology at Yale’s School of Public Health.

While no research has proved why female heart attack patients have a higher mortality rate, some researchers believe that it may be due in part to less aggressive treatment and post-op. It’s never too early to start on the path of health and wellness!

Stewardship

“If you choose, you can keep the commandments, they will save you; if you trust in God, you too shall live; he has set before you fire and water; to whichever you choose, stretch forth your hand. Before man are life and death, good and evil, whichever he chooses shall be given him.”

Sirach 15: 15-17

We do have choices throughout our lives. One of those choices is pursuing stewardship as a way of life. One can choose to be a steward or choose not to. Nevertheless, if we look at it from the point of view of God's wisdom rather than ours, it really is not a choice at all. It is something we should and must practice. In a homily this past June, Pope Francis said, “You cannot love God without loving your brothers and sisters; in fact, you cannot love God without being an active participant in the Church.” — See more at www.catholicsteward.com/blog/

Reflection on the Readings

As we continue our reflection on select passages from the Matthew's Sermon on the Mount, the themes that surface in today's readings are beautifully captured in the refrain from Responsorial Psalm 119, "Blessed are they who follow the law of the Lord!" With 176 verses, Psalm 119 is the longest psalm in the Psalter.

The focus of the psalm is the Law of the Lord, understood not in legalistic terms but as the source of light, life, happiness, and wisdom.

This week, it would be beneficial to read and reflect on the entire Psalm 119. Eight synonyms for the law are offered in the psalm: teachings, decrees, precepts, laws, commands, edicts, words, promises. When used together in the psalm they come to 174 references to God's law. The Law, gifted to us by God, is ultimately the source of joy to the heart, and peace to the mind, guiding and helping us to live life well and to the fullest.

The psalm is structured as an elaborate, expansive acrostic: each verse begins with a successive letter of the Hebrew alphabet. The acrostic structure is further expanded by having eight successive verses begin with the same Hebrew letter, thus resulting in 176 verses. The verses and stanzas are not linked together in any progressive thought pattern. Each verse stands alone in its statement about God's law. This makes the psalm ideal for meditation in that each and every verse can stand on its own, allowing us to tap into the rich understanding of God's wisdom expressed in the Law. As Irene Nowell, Benedictine Scripture Scholar from Mt. Scholastica in Atchison, KS, has expressed, Psalm 119 is a mantra prayer on the Law of the Lord.

Take the entire psalm for your prayer this week as you continue your reflection on today's readings. The verses chosen for today's responsorial psalm communicate the message that keeping and observing God's law is a desirable and life giving reality. Because we might not be faithful in observing God's law, we ask God to help us in understanding and keeping the Law in our minds and hearts.

The first reading from Sirach, one of the biblical Wisdom books, challenges us to take personal responsibility in the choices we make, and not blame God for things that go wrong in life. We can keep God's law if we choose to, and our choice determines whether we choose life or death. God's ways and law are always meant for life and not death. Yet, aware of our own weakness and fragility in keeping the law, with the verses of the Responsorial Psalm, we ask God's help in choosing wisely and in being guided by the Law.

Paul, in his first letter to the Corinthians, speaks again of the wisdom of God, no longer fully captured in the Law but thoroughly expressed in the crucified Christ. Jesus incarnates God's wisdom and law in ways we could not even have imagined or conceived. The Spirit of God aids us in trying to grasp the depths of God's wisdom and ways, the wonders of God's plan for all humanity.

In today's selection from Matthew's Sermon on the Mount, Jesus is the true teacher of wisdom and law. Jesus is not doing away with the law. Rather, typical of Jewish teachers in the various schools of Torah interpretation, Jesus interprets the law in a fashion that reflects his understanding of God. Through his teachings and interpretations, we come to understand more fully the intent, direction and wisdom of the law. Jesus comes to fulfill the law by deepening our awareness of God's intention and wisdom in revealing the Law to humanity. Jesus shares and deepens our insight into God's rich wisdom so that we might have life and be more in line with God's intention and wisdom in creating us.

This week, reflect on Psalm 119, challenging yourself to understand the wisdom of God's Law, not in a legal or restrictive mode, but in a mode that gives life, peace of mind, and sure guidance.

Reflexión Sobre las Lecturas

Mientras continuamos nuestra reflexión sobre pasajes selectos del Sermón del Monte de Mateo, los temas que emergen en las lecturas de hoy son bellamente capturados en el estribillo del Salmo responsorial 118: "Dichosos los que caminan en la voluntad del Señor". Con 176 versos, el Salmo 118 es el salmo más largo en el Salterio.

El foco del salmo es la voluntad del Señor, entendida no en términos legalistas, sino como fuente de luz, vida, felicidad y sabiduría.

Esta semana, sería beneficioso leer y reflexionar sobre todo el Salmo 118. Ocho sinónimos de la voluntad se ofrecen en el salmo: enseñanzas, decretos, preceptos, voluntad, mandamientos, edictos, palabras, promesas. Cuando se usan juntos en el salmo, llegan a 174 referencias a la voluntad de Dios. La voluntad, dotada a nosotros por Dios, básicamente es la fuente de la alegría al corazón, y la paz a la mente, guiándonos y ayudándonos a vivir la vida bien y al máximo.

El salmo está estructurado como un acróstico expansivo y complicado: cada verso comienza con una letra sucesiva del alfabeto hebreo. La estructura acróstica se amplía aún más al tener ocho versos sucesivos que empiezan con la misma letra hebrea, resultando así 176 versos. Los versos y las estrofas no están unidos entre sí en ningún patrón de pensamiento progresivo. Cada verso está solo en su declaración sobre la voluntad de Dios. Esto hace que el salmo sea ideal para la meditación en que todos y cada uno de los versos pueden mantenerse por sí mismos, permitiéndonos aprovechar el rico entendimiento de la sabiduría de Dios expresada en la voluntad. Como ha expresado Irene Nowell, erudito benedictina de Escrituras de Mt. Scholastica en Atchison, KS, el Salmo 118 es una oración del mantra sobre la voluntad del Señor.

Tome el salmo entero para su oración esta semana mientras continúa su reflexión sobre las lecturas de hoy. Los versos escogidos para el salmo responsorial de hoy comunican el mensaje de que mantener y observar la voluntad de Dios es una realidad deseable y que da vida. Debido a que quizás no somos fieles en la observación de la voluntad de Dios, pedimos a Dios que nos ayude a comprender y mantener su voluntad en nuestras mentes y corazones.

La primera lectura del Eclesiástico, uno de los libros bíblicos de la Sabiduría, nos desafía a asumir responsabilidad personal en las decisiones que tomamos, y no culpar a Dios de las cosas que van mal en la vida. Podemos mantener la voluntad de Dios si elegimos y nuestra elección determina si elegimos la vida o la muerte. Los caminos y la voluntad de Dios siempre están destinados a la vida y no a la muerte. Sin embargo, conscientes de nuestra debilidad y fragilidad en mantener la voluntad, con los versos del Salmo Responsorial, pedimos la ayuda de Dios para escoger sabiamente y guiarnos por su voluntad.

Pablo, en su primera carta a los Corintios, habla nuevamente de la sabiduría de Dios, ya no capturado completamente en la Ley, sino expresado plenamente en Cristo crucificado. Jesús encarna la sabiduría y la voluntad de Dios en formas que ni siquiera podíamos haber imaginado o concebido. El Espíritu de Dios nos ayuda a tratar de captar las profundidades de la sabiduría y los caminos de Dios, las maravillas del plan de Dios para toda la humanidad.

En la selección de hoy del Sermón del Monte de Mateo, Jesús es el verdadero maestro de la sabiduría y la ley. Jesús no está eliminando la ley. Más bien, típico de los maestros judíos en las diversas escuelas de interpretación de la Torá, Jesús interpreta la ley de una manera que refleja su comprensión de Dios. A través de sus enseñanzas e interpretaciones, llegamos a comprender mejor la intención, la dirección y la sabiduría de la ley. Jesús viene a cumplir la ley profundizando nuestra conciencia de la intención y sabiduría de Dios al revelar la Ley a la humanidad. Jesús comparte y profundiza nuestra visión de la rica sabiduría de Dios para que podamos tener vida y estar más en línea con la intención y sabiduría de Dios al crearnos.

Esta semana, reflexione sobre el Salmo 118, desafiándose a entender la sabiduría de la Ley o voluntad de Dios, no en un modo legal o restrictivo, sino en un modo que da vida, paz mental y guía segura.

Celebración Romero - 11 de Marzo - 6pm

El sábado, 11 de Marzo nuestra comunidad Salvadoreña será el anfitrión de la celebración anual de nuestra parroquia en honor del Beato Obispo Oscar Romero. La Misa comenzará a las 6pm y el Padre José Angel Renderos celebrará la Misa. Nuestro Obispo Santiago Johnston asistirá.

El P. Angel es el párroco de la parroquia de Sta. Ana en San Salvador. También es director del Centro Escolar Católico Santa Ana y cofundador de la Asociación Obispo Romero en El Salvador. Fue ordenado el 9 de marzo de 1986. El Padre Ángel visitó Sta. Sabina en 2012 y celebró la Misa en honor de Mons. Oscar Romero. Estamos encantados de tenerlo de regreso.

El Beato Óscar Arnulfo Romero (15 de Agosto, 1917 a 24 de Marzo, 1980) fue un prominente sacerdote católico en El Salvador durante los años 1960 y 1970, llegando a ser Arzobispo de San Salvador, en 1977. Después de ser testigo de numerosas violaciones de los derechos humanos, empezó a hablar en nombre de los pobres y las víctimas de la represión. Esto dio lugar a numerosos conflictos, tanto con el gobierno de El Salvador y dentro de la Iglesia Católica. Después de hablar en contra del apoyo militar de los EE.UU. al gobierno de El Salvador, y llamando a los soldados a desobedecer las órdenes de disparar contra civiles inocentes, el Arzobispo Romero fue asesinado mientras celebraba Misa en la pequeña capilla del hospital de cáncer donde vivía.
