Romero Celebration - March 13th - 12:30pm

On Sunday, March 13th our Salvadoran Community will host our parish's annual celebration in honor of Blessed Bishop Oscar Romero. Mass will begin at 12:30pm and Bishop Gregorio Rosa Chavez will celebrate the Mass.

Bishop Gregorio Rosa Chávez is the Auxiliary Bishop from San Salvador. Bishop Rosa Chávez feels a deep personal connection to Blessed Romero. Many see him as the carrier of Romero's torch of justice and peace. Bishop Rosa Chávez is profoundly connected to the struggles of his people. Bishop Rosa Chávez has been the guest speaker at the Romero Celebrations in Kansas City in 2008, 2010 and 2013. We are humbled that he accepted the invitation once again to join us on this 36th anniversary.

Blessed Óscar Arnulfo Romero (August 15, 1917 - March 24, 1980) was a prominent Roman Catholic priest in El Salvador during the 1960s and 1970s, becoming Archbishop of San Salvador in 1977. After witnessing numerous violations of human rights, he began to speak out on behalf of the poor and the victims of repression. This led to numerous conflicts, both with the government in El Salvador and within the Catholic Church. After speaking out against U.S. military support for the government of El Salvador, and calling for soldiers to disobey orders to fire on innocent civilians, Archbishop Romero was shot dead while celebrating Mass at the small chapel of the cancer hospital where he lived.

Parish Happenings and Information

Guidelines for Fast and Abstinence During Lent

Abstinence: Abstinence is a penitential practice consisting of refraining from the consumption of meat and is to be observed by all Catholics who are 14 years of age and older. Ash Wednesday, Good Friday, and the Fridays during Lent are days of abstinence.

Fast and Abstinence: In addition to abstinence, fasting is to be observed by all Catholics between the ages of 18-59 years (inclusive). On days of fasting, one full meal is allowed. Two smaller meals, sufficient to maintain strength, may be taken according to one's needs, but together they should not equal another full meal. Eating between meals is not permitted, but liquids are allowed. Note: If a person is unable to observe the above regulations due to ill health or other serious reasons, they are urged to practice other forms of self-denial that are suitable to their condition. Ash Wednesday and Good Friday are days of Fasting.

Stations of the Cross

Stations of the Cross will be prayed on Fridays during Lent, February 12 - March 18th. They will be prayed in English at 6pm each Friday and in Spanish at 7pm. All parishioners are invited to attend.

Lenten Reconciliation Service

We will have our Lenten Reconciliation Service on Tuesday, March 8, at 7pm.

Over 55

February 25th Gathering

Our Over 55 gathering will be on Thursday, February 25th at 11am. We will begin with Mass at 11am, then head over to the parish hall for finger foods and wine. At noon we will have an adult painting party hosted by Apple Pie Painting. They will provide an artist that will help each person create their own painting, walking everyone through the step-by-step process. The cost for the day is $35.00. To RSVP, please contact the parish office at 816-331-4713.

HEALTH CHECKLIST What's My Blood Pressure? If you don't know your numbers, you could be among the 78 million American adults who have hypertension. That's not a group you want to belong to. High blood pressure is the number one risk factor for stroke. Everyone should track their BP and that includes young adults. One study found that 19 percent of people ages 24-32 had dangerously elevated levels. A healthy blood pressure falls below 120/80.

Am I Managing My Stress? The fact that stress is bad for your health is no surprise, but a recent study found that women who experienced a greater number of stressors (work problems, divorce, family illness) in middle age were more likely to develop dementia. Chronic stress may trigger the production of inflammatory compounds and damage areas of the brain linked to memory.

WE OFFER ONE-ON-ONE HEALTH COACHING TO HELP YOU MEET YOUR WELLNESS GOALS. COME ON IN!

A LENTEN CONCERT FEATURING STEVE COURTNEY AND FRIENDS

Friday Evening, March 4, 7:00 P.M. at Church of the Ascension, Overland Park, KS

Not everyone knows that one of the meanings of Lent is "Springtime"—a time for new life and growth. The penitential element of Lent helps us to clear out whatever might keep us from growing in the knowledge, love and joy of Jesus—whatever gets in the way of "A Life Worth Living!"

Steve Courtney, Fr. Kent O'Connor, Ellen Tuttle, Mark Fortino, Dorothy Brandwein and other singers will present this Lenten concert which is anything BUT "solemn" and "serious". This inspirational concert will be enjoyed by all ages, so bring the whole family and tell your friends, as well. There is no admission but donations will be accepted to benefit the Archdiocesan Retreat House—Christ's Peace, House of Prayer.

Stewardship

"As they were about to part from him, Peter said to Jesus, 'Master, it is good that we are here; let us make three tents, one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah.' But he did not know what he was saying. While he was still speaking, a cloud came and cast a shadow over them, and they became frightened when they entered the cloud. Then from the cloud came a voice that said, 'This is my chosen Son; listen to him.'"

Luke 9: 33-35

The description of the Transfiguration occurs in all three Synoptic Gospels (Matthew, Mark, and Luke). This is a proclamation of the Lord's divinity. It is intended for all of us. In fact, each of us is invited, just as Peter, James, and John are, to become a part of this experience. We are called to conversion and witness of the truth. That is what Lent should be all about for us. The stewardship message is that we need to strive for conversion, for grasping the hope offered by Christ. — See more at www.catholicsteward.com/blog/

Join us in showing others the mercy of God through this authentic act of love. Please prayerfully consider making a gift to the CCEAF special collection on Saturday, February 20 or Sunday, February 21. Or, you can give a gift now at www.CatholicCharitiesGives.org.

Reflection on the Readings

The gospel for the second Sunday of Lent always narrates the Lord's transfiguration. Why does the lectionary move from the temptations of Jesus on the first Sunday of Lent to an account of the Lord's glorification? If Lent is supposed to focus on the difficulty of the Christian journey and our need to struggle to get back on course with God, then why highlight glorification themes?

The readings for first two Sundays of Lent reflect two most important Lenten themes. On the first Sunday, Jesus' temptations remind us of the constant struggle and striving that is integral to living our Christian lives faithfully. The Transfiguration reminds us that we are assured victory in our struggle because our Lord has gone before us and already conquered sin and death.

While we struggle on our faith journey, we trust and hope in the victory already won for us by the Risen Christ. Attuning ourselves to Jesus' wisdom and guidance is essential. We are called to "listen" to Jesus for it is only in following that sure path that we are assured resurrection. This trust enables us to sing the refrain from responsorial Psalm 27 with great confidence and joy, "The Lord is my life and my salvation."

In the first reading from Genesis, Abram becomes a model of trust for all. Even though he had no children, Abram believed God's promises that his descendants would be as numerous as the stars, even though there was nothing tangible that Abram could grasp. "Abram put his faith in the Lord, who credited it to him as an act of righteousness." Dwelling in that trust enabled Abram to enter more deeply in relationship with God, and to experience both God's abiding presence and God's covenant love.

Paul's letter to the Philippians calls us to imitate Paul's trust and confidence in God, thus reflecting that trust in all our conduct and relationships. Those who do not trust God see nothing beyond this life, and are caught up in concerns and actions that lead them away from God. Those whose "citizenship is in heaven" occupy themselves with concerns and actions that imitate the Lord Jesus. Because of this trust and corresponding lifestyle, we become transformed in and through Christ, who will bring about our ultimate union with God for all eternity.

Luke's transfiguration scene has Jesus conversing with Moses and Elijah concerning his "exodus that he was going to accomplish in Jerusalem." That "exodus" will involve the difficult path of arrest, suffering and death. Jesus' trust in God strengthens him for the difficult journey ahead. That trust transforms and deepens Jesus' desire and willingness to attune himself to God. His very body manifests that trust and love. Jesus comes down from the mountain to undertake his journey to Jerusalem with great trust. Dare we respond to God's challenge to "listen" to Jesus as he goes about his "exodus" to Jerusalem?

Active "listening" essentially involves modeling ourselves on Jesus. Doing so assures us of ultimate victory over our struggles and temptations. This is no easy road. The transfiguration reality is only arrived at through the "exodus" leading to Jerusalem. Jesus' fidelity to God's values ultimately lead him to endure suffering, cross and death.

As we attempt to be faithful to God's values in our lives, the struggles of life, and even our own death, will always be a part of Christian living. However, in living a life modeled on Jesus, all struggles, and even death, will ultimately be transformed into victory and life. That is why, on this second Sunday of Lent, we can boldly and confidently proclaim our responsorial psalm, "The Lord is my light and my salvation."

How you can make this refrain an important part of your Lenten prayer and journey to Easter?

All are welcome. Bring a Bible and a friend. To register for these sessions, please call Biagio at 816 -979-3153.

Reflexión Sobre las Lecturas

El Evangelio del segundo Domingo de Cuaresma siempre narra la transfiguración del Señor. ¿Por qué el leccionario pasa de las tentaciones de Jesús en el primer Domingo de Cuaresma a una cuenta de la glorificación del Señor? Si se supone que la Cuaresma se centra en la dificultad de la jornada Cristiana y nuestra necesidad de luchar para volver a la ruta con Dios, entonces ¿por qué recalcar temas de glorificación?

Las lecturas de los dos primeros Domingos de Cuaresma reflejan las dos temas más importantes de la Cuaresma. El primer Domingo, las tentaciones de Jesús nos recuerdan de la lucha y el esfuerzo constante que es una parte integral para vivir nuestra vida Cristiana fielmente. La Transfiguración nos recuerda que tenemos asegurada la victoria en nuestra lucha porque nuestro Señor nos ha precedido y ya ha conquistado el pecado y la muerte.

Mientras luchamos en nuestro camino de fe, confiamos y esperamos en que la victoria ya ha sido ganado para nosotros por el Cristo resucitado. Sintonizarnos a la sabiduría y la orientación de Jesús es esencial. Estamos llamados a "escuchar" a Jesús, porque es sólo en seguir ese camino seguro que nos asegura la resurrección. Esta confianza nos permite cantar el estribillo del Salmo Responsorial 27 con gran confianza y alegría, "El Señor es mi luz y mi salvación."

En la primera lectura del Génesis, Abram se convierte en un modelo de confianza para todos. A pesar de que no tenía hijos, Abram creyó las promesas de Dios que sus descendientes serían tan numerosos como las estrellas, a pesar de que no había nada tangible que Abram podía agarrar. "Abram creyó lo que el Señor le decía y, por esa fe, el Señor lo tuvo por justo." Viviendo en esa confianza habilitó a Abram entrar más profundamente en una relación con Dios y experimentar tanto la presencia permanente de Dios y el amor de la Alianza de Dios.

La carta de Pablo a los Filipenses nos llama a imitar la confianza de Pablo en Dios, lo que refleja esa confianza en toda nuestra conducta y todas nuestras relaciones. Los que no confían en Dios no ven nada más allá de esta vida, y están atrapados en las preocupaciones y las acciones que los llevan lejos de Dios. Aquellos cuya "ciudadanía está en los cielos" se ocupan de las preocupaciones y acciones que imitan al Señor Jesús. Debido a esta confianza y estilo de vida correspondiente, nos transformamos a través de Cristo, que dará lugar a nuestra unión definitiva con Dios por toda la eternidad.

La escena de la transfiguración de Lucas presenta a Jesús conversando con Moisés y Elías en relación con su "éxodo que iba a cumplir en Jerusalén." Ese "éxodo" implicará el camino difícil de la detención, el sufrimiento y la muerte. La confianza de Jesús en Dios lo fortalece para el camino difícil por delante. Esa confianza transforma y profundiza el deseo y la voluntad de Jesús de sintonizarse con Dios. Su mismo cuerpo manifiesta esa confianza y ese amor. Jesús baja de la montaña para emprender su viaje a Jerusalén con gran confianza. ¿Nos atrevemos a responder al reto de Dios a "escuchar" a Jesús mientras que avanza en su "éxodo" a Jerusalén?

El "escuchar" activamente esencialmente involucra el modelizar a nosotros mismos en Jesús. Si lo hacemos, nos asegura la victoria final sobre nuestras luchas y tentaciones. Esto no es un camino fácil. Solo se llega a la realidad de la transfiguración a través del "éxodo", hacia a Jerusalén. La fidelidad de Jesús a los valores de Dios por ultimo, lo lleva a soportar el sufrimiento, la cruz y la muerte.

Mientras tratamos de ser fieles a los valores de Dios en nuestras vidas, las luchas de la vida, e incluso nuestra propia muerte, siempre será una parte de la vida Cristiana. Sin embargo, en vivir una vida siguiendo el modelo de Jesús, todas las luchas, e incluso la muerte, por ultimo, se transoformarán a la victoria y la vida. Por eso, este segundo Domingo de Cuaresma, podemos proclamar con valor y confianza nuestro Salmo Responsorial: "El Señor es mi luz y mi salvación."

¿Cómo puede hacer esta estribilla una parte importante de la oración de Cuaresma y el camino a la Pascua?

El Obispo Gregorio Rosa Chávez es el obispo auxiliar de San Salvador. El Obispo Rosa Chávez siente una conexión personal profunda al Beato Romero. Muchos lo ven como el portador de la antorcha de la justicia y la paz de Romero. El Obispo Rosa Chávez está profundamente ligada a las luchas de su pueblo. Ha sido el orador invitado en las celebraciones Romero en Kansas City en 2008, 2010 y 2013. Nos sentimos honrados que haya aceptado la invitación una vez más a unirse a nosotros en este 36º aniversario.

El Beato Óscar Arnulfo Romero (15 de Agosto, 1917 a 24 de Marzo, 1980) fue un prominente sacerdote católico en El Salvador durante los años 1960 y 1970, llegando a ser Arzobispo de San Salvador, en 1977. Después de ser testigo de numerosas violaciónes de los derechos humanos, empezó a hablar en nombre de los pobres y las víctimas de la represión. Esto dio lugar a numerosos conflictos, tanto con el gobierno de El Salvador y dentro de la Iglesia Católica. Después de hablar en contra del apoyo militar de los EE.UU. al gobierno de El Salvador, y llamando a los soldados a desobedecer las órdenes de disparar contra civiles inocentes, el Arzobispo Romero fue asesinado mientras celebraba Misa en la pequeña capilla del hospital de cáncer donde vivía.
