Romero Celebration-March 11th-6:00pm

On Saturday, March 11 our Salvadoran Community will host our parish's annual celebration in honor of Blessed Bishop Oscar Romero. Mass will begin at 6:00pm and Fr. José Angel Renderos will celebrate the Mass. Bishop James Johnston will be in attendance.

Fr. Angel is the pastor of the parish of Santa Ana in San Salvador. He is also the director of Centro Escolar Católico Santa Ana and he is a co-founder of the Bishop Romero Association in El Salvador. He was ordained on March 9, 1986. Padre Angel visited St. Sabina in 2012 and celebrated Mass in honor of Mons. Oscar Romero. We are delighted to have him return.

Blessed Óscar Arnulfo Romero (August 15, 1917 - March 24, 1980) was a prominent Roman Catholic priest in El Salvador during the 1960s and 1970s, becoming Archbishop of San Salvador in 1977. After witnessing numerous violations of human rights, he began to speak out on behalf of the poor and the victims of repression. This led to numerous conflicts, both with the government in El Salvador and within the Catholic Church. After speaking out against U.S. military support for the government of El Salvador, and calling for soldiers to disobey orders to fire on innocent civilians, Archbishop Romero was shot dead while celebrating Mass at the small chapel of the cancer hospital where he lived.

"Single-Hearted for God" is a new program at St. Sabina for unmarried adults. This program is to aid unmarried Catholics of all ages to discern ways to serve Christ and the Church as a single adult. An unmarried vocation is unique and we will explore many ways to go forward with purpose. All men and women who are single, widowed, and divorced are welcome. We will meet on Tuesday nights during Lent. Please sign up in the gathering space, or email the office or Deacon Mike at mikeg@stsabinaparish.org.

Formation of a Care Team

St. Sabina's Project Love Thy Neighbor is recruiting volunteers to serve on a care team. Duties would include delivering meals and cards to parishioners in need. If you are interested in serving in this ministry, please contact Bridget Hernandez at 816-979-3159 or bridget@stsabinaparish.org.

Marian Prayer Group

Marian Prayer Group will resume meeting on Monday, Mar. 13. We will meet in the Day Chapel (Cry Room) every Monday evening from 5:30 to 6:30. All are welcome to join us for Rosary and the Chaplet of Divine Mercy!

Guidelines for Fast and Abstinence During Lent

Abstinence: Abstinence is a penitential practice consisting of refraining from the consumption of meat and is to be observed by all Catholics who are 14 years of age and older. Ash Wednesday, Good Friday, and the Fridays during Lent are days of abstinence.

Fast and Abstinence: In addition to abstinence, fasting is to be observed by all Catholics between the ages of 18-59 years (inclusive). On days of fasting, one full meal is allowed. Two smaller meals, sufficient to maintain strength, may be taken according to one's needs, but together they should not equal another full meal. Eating between meals is not permitted, but liquids are allowed. Note: If a person is unable to observe the above regulations due to ill health or other serious reasons, they are urged to practice other forms of self-denial that are suitable to their condition. Ash Wednesday and Good Friday are days of Fasting.

Altar Society to Begin Providing Coffee

Our Altar Society will begin providing coffee after the 8am and 10:30am Masses after Easter. To make this possible, we need more people to join the Altar Society. This is a great way to meet and work with other women of the parish, and by providing coffee after Masses, this is a great way to meet other people in our parish family. To help, please contact Kathy Moorman at kcmoorman79@gmail.com or 913-491-6809.

SCC Dinner - Saturday, March 4

Our Small Christian Communities will be having a potluck dinner on Saturday, March 4th after the 4pm Mass. All members of Small Christian Communities and their families are welcome to attend, along with anyone interested in learning more about SCC. Please RSVP to the parish office at 816-331-4713 or email Biagio at biagio@stsabinaparis.org and let us know how many will be attending.

The Reformation and its Impact on Current Christian Relations

This year, 2017, is the 500th anniversary of The Protestant Reformation. The Reformation is usually associated with Martin Luther and the posting of his 95 Theses on October 31, 1517. These sessions will explore the history of the Reformation, what led up to it, what resulted from it and how the Catholic Church responded to it. The four main Christian traditions that resulted will be briefly examined, along with the various groupings related to those main traditions. The sessions will further examine the key theological beliefs and practices of the traditions, ending with an examination of the history and present state of Ecumenism, the movement toward Christian Unity. Come, bring a friend and let us learn together the rich variety that exists within Christianity. This five week series will be offered at two different times if enough register. Tuesday Evenings, March 7, 14, 21, 28 and April 4, 2017: 7pm — 9pm and Wednesday Mornings, March 8, 15, 22, 29 and April 5, 2017: 10am — 12pm, noon. To register call Biagio at 816-979-3153.

Wellness Center

Food labels: What's real? What's deceiving?

Label: "MADE WITH WHOLE GRAINS"

The real deal: Crackers, breads, and cereals that carry this promise must offer some whole grains (higher in fiber, vitamins, and minerals than their refined counterparts), but companies aren't obliged to disclose the actual amount, and there's no required minimum. In fact, one popular brand of "whole wheat" crackers contains a measly five grams of whole grains per serving,

1/16 of your recommended daily intake. Avoid confusion in the bread aisle by choosing foods that say they're "100 percent whole grain"- that label ensures that the product contains no refined flours.

Stewardship

"Thus should one regard us: as servants of Christ and stewards of the mysteries of God. Now it is of course required of stewards that they be found trustworthy."

1 Corinthians 4: 1-2

Paul's understanding of what a steward was is that he manages the household of God. Managing included preserving and protecting. We are also to be servants (disciples) of Christ, and Paul goes on to say that a servant steward must be trustworthy. To Paul that meant we are to be faithful in order to be good disciples. There are several difficulties for us in all of those terms and requirements: being stewards, being servants, and being faithful. They mean that we have to place ourselves second to others and second most of all to Christ our Savior. We tend to question this and tend to have strong feelings of independence. That is what we learn from our society. Yet, to be a steward like Paul requires us to be humble and accepting. That may be our greatest test. St. Augustine wrote, "What does love look like? It has the hands to help others. It has eyes to see misery and want. It has the ears to hear the sighs and sorrows of others." That, too, is stewardship. — See more at www.catholicsteward.com/blog/

If you have any questions contact Jim Bornheimer at 816-331-6824.

Reflection on the Readings

This coming Wednesday Lent begins and the season of Ordinary Time is interrupted by the great ninety days of Lent-Easter-Pentecost. We will return to Ordinary Time with evening prayer on Pentecost Sunday. This Sunday, as we continue to reflect on Jesus' Sermon on the Mount from Matthew's gospel, we are strongly encouraged to trust and rest in God alone. Trust in God alone is difficult to exercise when we confront situations that create anxiety, impatience, and disquiet in our lives and in our country. The Sermon on the Mount provides a curriculum for disciples, inviting and challenging all disciples to learn and develop discipleship skills.

The readings encourage us to trust God alone, and in so doing, we move towards achieving a sense of balance and wholeness. Balance and wholeness result when we have all our relationships and priorities in their proper order. Today, the readings challenge us to develop this true sense of wholeness in our lives.

Responsorial Psalm 62 powerfully sets the theme by calling us to trust in God through its refrain, "Rest in God alone, my soul." As we sing the psalm, we are reminded that "only in God is my soul at rest." The psalm employs various images of God to convey why God is worthy of our trust. God is "my rock...my stronghold...my safety...my glory...the rock of my strength...my refuge." For all these reasons, the psalmist invites all to trust in God "at all times" and to "pour out your hearts" to God. God is always faithful and ever present, such that no matter what happens "I shall not be disturbed." Such a perspective is essential in establishing right relationships with others and in sorting out life's priorities.

The first reading from Isaiah is powerful in its message of trust and confidence in God, richly complementing Responsorial Psalm 62. The two verses capture well the necessity of trusting God. The first verse is a lament that often comes out of those life experiences when we feel anxious, overwhelmed, abandoned, and hopeless. When difficult moments surround us, we often feel and experience God as silent, distant, uncaring, or forgetful. Yet with the second verse, God, our loving mother, provider and nourisher, powerfully reminds us that we have not been abandoned or forgotten. Improbable as it may sound, even if a mother "forgets" or is "without tenderness for the child of her womb," God powerfully asserts that "I will never forget you." We are bonded to God as powerfully as a mother is bonded to the child of her womb.

The second reading from Paul's first letter to the Corinthians reminds us that we are all called to be "servants of Christ and stewards of the mysteries of God." A servant relies completely on the master for all needs, trusting the master to be ever attentive and caring. Because of God's rich love manifested to us in Christ, we are called to be stewards of God's mysteries, that is, of God's love and care. Like God, we are to care for others, lightening their burdens and enriching their lives. We are to do this not according to human standards and priorities but according to God who set those standards for us in the person of Christ.

The gospel selection from the Sermon on the Mount starts by challenging all disciples to serve only one master. To do this, we must take on the mission that Paul and the other readings present, namely, to trust God and to rest in God alone. In doing so we bring balance and harmony to our lives. Not that trouble, anxiety, disappointment or suffering will be eliminated from life. Rather, with trust in God, we will be able to handle whatever life brings. "Seek first the kingdom of God" and everything else will fall into place. Be "stewards" of God's love and learn to face life together with a trust and confidence that comes from being bonded to God.

Reflect on how you will serve God this week, and how you will take up the mission of being a "steward" of God's love by trusting in God and providing for the needs of others.

Bible Study

Catholics are mostly exposed to the Bible through the Sunday Lectionary Readings. In order to help us all enter into the Bible through the Sunday readings, we are offering study sessions that will provide an opportunity to read, to study background to the readings, and to reflect on how to apply the readings to our lives. We will gather on February 26th and March 12th at 10:30am. All are welcome. Bring a Bible and a friend. To register for these sessions, please call Biagio at 816-979-3153.

Reflexión Sobre las Lecturas

La Cuaresma comienza este miércoles que viene y la temporada del Tiempo Ordinario es interrumpida por los noventa días de Cuaresma-Pascua-Pentecostés. Regresaremos al Tiempo Ordinario con la oración de la tarde el Domingo de Pentecostés. Este domingo, mientras reflexionando sobre el Sermón del Monte de Jesús del evangelio de Mateo, nos anima encarecidamente a confiar y descansar solamente en Dios. La confianza en Dios solo es difícil de ejercitar cuando enfrentamos situaciones que crean ansiedad, impaciencia e inquietud en nuestras vidas y en nuestro país. El Sermón del Monte ofrece un plan de estudios para los discípulos, invitando y desafiando a todos los discípulos a aprender y desarrollar habilidades del discipulado.

La segunda lectura de la primera carta de Pablo a los Corintios nos recuerda que todos somos llamados a ser "servidores de Cristo y administradores de los misterios de Dios". Un sirviente confía completamente en el amor para todas las necesidades, confiando en que el amor esté siempre atento y comprensivo. Debido al gran amor de Dios que se nos manifiesta en Cristo, estamos llamados a ser administradores de los misterios de Dios, es decir, del amor y cuidado de Dios. Al igual que Dios, debemos cuidar a los demás, aliviar sus cargas y enriquecer sus vidas. Debemos hacer esto no de acuerdo con los estándares y prioridades humanas, sino según Dios que estableció esos estándares para nosotros en la persona de Cristo.

La selección del evangelio del Sermón del Monte empieza desafiando a todos los discípulos a servir a un solo amo. Para hacer eso, debemos asumir la misión que Pablo y las demás lecturas presentan, es decir, confiar en Dios y descansar en Dios solamente. Al hacerlo, traemos equilibrio y armonía a nuestras vidas. No es que los problemas, la ansiedad, la decepción o el sufrimiento sean eliminados de la vida. Más bien, con confianza en Dios, seremos capaces de manejar lo que la vida trae. "Busquen primero el reino de Dios" y todo lo demás caerá en su lugar. Sean "administradores" del amor de Dios y aprende a enfrentar la vida junto con una confianza que viene de estar unido a Dios.

Reflexione sobre cómo va a servir a Dios esta semana, y cómo tomará la misión de ser un "administrador" del amor de Dios confiando en Dios y proviendo para las necesidades de los demás.

Lecturas

Lecturas del Domingo, 26 de Febrero
Primera Lectura: Isaías 49:15-15
Salmo: Salmo 61:2-3, 6-7, 8-9ab
Segunda Lectura: 1 Corintios 4:1-5
Evangelio: Mateo 6:24-34

Lecturas del Domingo, 5 de Marzo
Primera Lectura: Génesis 2:7-9; 3:1-7
Salmo: Salmo 50:3-4, 5-6ab, 12-13, 14 y 17
Segunda Lectura: Romanos 5:12-19
Evangelio: Mateo 4:1-11

El salmo responsorial 61 establece poderosamente el tema llamándonos a confiar en Dios a través de su estribillo: "Descansa sólo en Dios, alma mía". Mientras cantamos el salmo, nos recuerda que "sólo en Dios descansas mi alma". El salmo emplea varias imágenes de Dios para transmitir por qué Dios es digno de nuestra confianza. Dios es "mi roca ... mi alcazar ... mi salvación ... mi gloria ... mi roca firme ... mi refugio". Por todas estas razones, el salmista invita a todos a confiar en Dios y "desahoga ante él sus corazones". Dios siempre es fiel y siempre presente, de tal manera que no importa lo que suceda "no vacilaré". Esa perspectiva es esencial para establecer relaciones correctas con los demás y para clasificar las prioridades de la vida.

La primera lectura de Isaías es poderosa en su mensaje de confianza en Dios, complementando abundantemente el Salmo Responsorial 61. Los dos versos capturan bien la necesidad de confiar en Dios. El primer verso es un lamento que muchas veces sale de esas experiencias de la vida cuando nos sentimos ansiosos, abrumados, abandonados y sin esperanza. Cuando los momentos difíciles nos rodean, muchas veces sentimos y experimentamos a Dios como silencioso, lejano, indiferente o olvidadizo. Sin embargo, con el segundo verso, Dios, nuestra madre amorosa, proveedor y nutridor, nos recuerda poderosamente que no hemos sido abandonados ni olvidados. Por muy improbable que parezca, aunque una madre olvide o

Un Momento de Corresponsabilidad

San Pablo nos recuerda que como cristianos bautizados, que hemos compartido la Eucaristía los unos con los otros, somos "servidores de Cristo y correspondientes de los misterios de Dios." No podemos definirnos a nosotros mismos por nuestra edad, etnia, género, estatus social, trabajo, vocación o aficiones. El conocimiento fundamental acerca de nosotros mismos debe ser como servidores y correspondientes del Señor y de todo lo que nos ha sido confiado. ¿Podemos nosotros aceptar este auto-conocimiento? ¿Lo encontramos confortante y alentador?
