Child Safety

The Diocese of Kansas City-St. Joseph is committed to combatting sexual abuse in the Church. If you are a victim of sexual abuse, or if you observe or suspect sexual abuse:

1. Call the Missouri Child Abuse Hotline at 1.800.392.3738 (if the victim is currently under the age of 18), and
2. Contact your local law enforcement agency or call 911, and
3. After reporting to these civil and law enforcement authorities, report suspected sexual abuse of a minor or vulnerable adult to the Ombudsman, Joe Crayon, at 816.812.2500 or crayon@ombudsmankcsj.org if the abuse involves a priest, deacon, employee or volunteer of the Diocese of Kansas City-St. Joseph.

The Diocese has a sincere commitment to providing care and healing resources to victims of sexual abuse and their families. Please contact Whitney True-Francis, Victim Assistance Coordinator, at 816.392.0011 or true.francis@diocesekcsj.org for more information.

All volunteers with youth and children must attend one Protecting God's Children workshop, submit to a background check and sign the policy on Ethics and Integrity in Ministry, (EIM). More info at <https://kcsj catholic.org/the-office-of-child-and-youth-protection/>.

Did You Know—There are many benefits to getting quality sleep. Researchers are beginning to understand the importance of sleep to overall health and well-being. They have learned, for example, that when people get less than 6 to 7 hours of sleep each night, they are at a greater risk of developing diseases.

Here are 5 reasons to make it an early night—

- Sleep helps keep your heart healthy - Lack of sleep has been associated with worsening of blood pressure and cholesterol, which are risk factors for heart disease and stroke.
- Sleep reduces stress - When your body is sleep deficient, it goes into a state of stress. The body's functions are put on high alert, which causes high blood pressure and the production of stress hormones.
- Sleep reduces inflammation - Increased stress hormones caused by lack of sleep raises the level of inflammation in your body. This creates a greater risk for heart-related conditions as well as cancer and diabetes.
- Sleep helps the body repair itself - Sleep is a time to relax, but it's also a time during which the body is hard at work repairing damage caused by stress, ultraviolet rays, and other harmful exposure.
- Sleep improves your memory - During sleep, your body may be resting, but your brain is busy processing your day, making connections between events, sensory input, feelings, and memories. Deep sleep is a very important time for your brain to make memories and links and getting more quality sleep will help you remember and process things better.

Next week learn how to improve your sleep!

The Sacrament of Anointing of the Sick

The Anointing of the Sick is the sacrament that is received by those who are ill or suffering. By the sacred anointing and the prayer of the priest, the whole Church commends those who are sick to Christ. The sick person receives the Holy Spirit's gifts of strength, faith, peace, and courage, and his or her suffering is united with the suffering of Christ for the building up of the Church (Catechism of the Catholic Church, CCC nos. 1520-23).

The Apostolic Constitution Sacram unctionem infirmorum, following upon the Second Vatican Council, established that henceforth, in the Roman Rite the following be observed: The sacrament of anointing of the Sick is given to those who are seriously ill by anointing them on the forehead and hands with duly blessed oil—pressed from olives or from other plants—saying, only once: "Through this holy anointing may the Lord in his love and mercy help you with the grace of the Holy Spirit. May the Lord who frees you from sin save you and raise you up. (CCC 1513).

Anointing of the Sick offered after Weekend Masses – February 11-12

The Catholic Church celebrates World Day of the sick on February 11. In conjunction, we will offer this sacrament next weekend. If you suffer from a chronic illness, the effects of advanced years (those 70 or older), or have an upcoming surgery and wish to receive this sacrament, Fr. Jeff will offer the sacrament of the anointing of the sick after the 4pm, 8am, and 10:30 Masses on February 11-12 to those who wish to receive it. Fr. Jeff will offer this sacrament after the 12:30 Mass on Sunday, February 19.

El Sacramento de la Unción de los Enfermos

La Unción de los Enfermos es el sacramento que reciben los enfermos o los que sufren. Por la sagrada unción y la oración del sacerdote, toda la Iglesia encomienda a Cristo a los enfermos. El enfermo recibe los dones del Espíritu Santo de fuerza, fe, paz y valentía, y su sufrimiento se une al sufrimiento de Cristo para la edificación de la Iglesia (El Catecismo de la Iglesia Católica, 1520-23).

La Constitución Apostólica Sacram unctionem infirmorum, siguiendo el Concilio Vaticano II, estableció que en adelante, en el Rito Romano, se observará lo siguiente: El sacramento de la Unción de los enfermos se administra a los gravemente enfermos ungiéndolos en la frente y en las manos con aceite de oliva debidamente bendecido o, según las circunstancias, con otro aceite de plantas, y pronunciando una sola vez estas palabras: "Por esta santa Unción, y por su bondadosa misericordia te ayude el Señor con la gracia del Espíritu Santo, para que, libre de tus pecados, te conceda la salvación y te conforte en tu enfermedad" (CIC 1513).

Unción de los Enfermos ofrecida después de las Misas Dominicales – 11, 12 y 19 de febrero

La Iglesia Católica celebra la Jornada Mundial del Enfermo el 11 de febrero. En conjunto, ofreceremos este sacramento el próximo fin de semana. Si padece una enfermedad crónica, los efectos de la edad avanzada (los de 70 años o más), o tiene una cirugía próxima y desea recibir este sacramento, el P. Jeff ofrecerá el sacramento de la unción de los enfermos después de las Misas de las 4pm, 8am y 10:30am el 11 y 12 de febrero a quienes deseen recibirlo. El P. Jeff ofrecerá este sacramento después de la Misa de las 12:30 el domingo 19 de febrero.

The readings for the Fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time contain strong images that highlight the demands of discipleship. They capture well the saying attributed to both Augustine and Francis of Assisi that disciples are called to “preach at all times; when necessary, use words.” The readings specify the connection between what a disciple is and what a disciple does. The image of “light” runs through the readings. It becomes a metaphor for what Israel, Paul, Jesus and the disciples are and should be about.

The first reading from Isaiah comes from a discourse in which the Lord distinguishes between genuine and false piety. Isaiah asserts that genuine piety involves specific actions that manifest a life of care and concern for others, a life of justice and righteousness. The image of light focuses this lifestyle, in contrast to a life of darkness typified by hypocrisy, maliciousness and oppression.

Only by bestowing “bread on the hungry” and satisfying “the afflicted” will light be manifested and gloom and darkness driven out. God is our model in this way of living and our commitment to this lifestyle draws us closer to one another and to God, while also drawing God closer to us. Genuine piety is manifested in relationship to others and to God.

Responsorial Psalm 112 plays with the image of light as well by inviting us to affirm that “The just man is a light in darkness to the upright.” The psalm verses link the actions of a just person with the very qualities of God by describing such persons as “gracious and merciful and just.” They become sources of light, right relationship and genuine piety for all to see. Because of this, such persons “shall not fear” for their “heart is firm, trusting in the Lord,” while their actions endure forever. They are indeed “light in darkness” to the upright, to all those who struggle to live lives of justice.

The second reading from the first letter to the Corinthians has Paul state that God’s power is brought to light and made manifest in the crucified and risen Christ. By knowing “nothing...except Jesus Christ and him crucified” Paul is able to tap into the Spirit, power and wisdom of God made manifest in Jesus. In this manner, Paul models a life of righteousness, light and wisdom based not on his own merits but on the power and wisdom of God.

© J. S. Paluch Co., Inc.

The gospel continues Matthew’s Sermon on the Mount by having Jesus challenge his disciples to be “salt of the earth...light of the world.” In a world without refrigerators and electricity, salt and light are essential for maintaining a good quality of life. The qualities of salt and light become manifest only in what they do. They are noticed when they do that for which they were intended, namely to give food taste and to enable one to see clearly. Disciples are called to be salt and light in their relationship with others. By being just in all our relationships and by living the way God intended for us, we shine forth for all to see. The “righteous” are clearly recognized when they do justice towards all. In this manner, they become salt and light to all, dispelling darkness and enhancing everyone.

As we continue our ongoing reflection on Matthew’s Sermon on the Mount, consider your daily response to Jesus’ challenge that all disciples be “salt of the earth” and “light of the world.” How are you “salt” and “light” to all you encounter and relate to on a daily basis? How do you strive to dispel gloom and darkness in the lives of others by the way you live and act? How do we as a church community, a city, a state and a nation strive to dispel the gloom and darkness that often seem to prevail in our times? Can we commit ourselves to live and act justly in all that we say and do?

In baptism we commit ourselves to lives of righteousness. How are you living out your communal baptismal call and challenge? Ask God for courage, wisdom and power to practice justice at all times.

Readings

Sunday, February 5

1st Reading: Isaiah 58:7-10

Psalm: Psalm 112:4-5, 6-7, 8-9 (4a)

2nd Reading: 1 Corinthians 2:1-5

Gospel: Matthew 5:13-16

Sunday, February 12

1st Reading: Sirach 15:15-20

Psalm: Psalm 119:1-2, 4-5, 17-18, 33-34 (1b)

2nd Reading: 1 Corinthians 2:6-10

Gospel: Matthew 5:17-37

Las lecturas del Quinto Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario contienen imágenes fuertes que resaltan las demandas del discipulado. Capturan bien el dicho atribuido tanto a Agustín como a Francisco de Asís de que los discípulos están llamados a "Predicar el Evangelio en todo momento y si es necesario utilizar las palabras". Las lecturas especifican la conexión entre lo que es un discípulo y lo que hace un discípulo. La imagen de la "luz" recorre las lecturas. Se convierte en una metáfora de lo que son y deberían ser Israel, Pablo, Jesús y los discípulos.

La primera lectura de Isaías proviene de un discurso en el que el Señor distingue entre la piedad genuina y la falsa. Isaías afirma que la piedad genuina involucra acciones específicas que manifiestan una vida de cuidado y preocupación por los demás, una vida de justicia y rectitud. La imagen de la luz enfoca este estilo de vida, en contraste con una vida de oscuridad caracterizada por hipocresía, malicia y opresión.

Solo al "compartir tu pan con el hambriento" y "saciar la necesidad del humillado" se manifestará la luz y la oscuridad será expulsada. Dios es nuestro modelo en esta forma de vida y nuestro compromiso con este estilo de vida nos acerca más el uno al otro y a Dios, a la vez que lo acerca a nosotros. La piedad genuina se manifiesta en la relación con los demás y con Dios.

El Salmo Responsorial 111 también juega con la imagen de la luz al invitarnos a afirmar que "El justo brilla en las tinieblas como una luz". Los versículos del salmo vinculan las acciones de una persona justa con las cualidades de Dios al describir tales personas como "justos, clementes y compasivos". Se convierten en fuentes de luz, relación correcta y piedad genuina para que todos lo vean. Debido a esto, tales personas "no temerán" porque su "corazón está firme en el Señor", mientras sus acciones perduran para siempre. De hecho, "brillan en las tinieblas" para los rectos, para todos aquellos que luchan por vivir vidas de justicia.

La segunda lectura de la primera carta a los Corintios hace que Pablo declare que el poder de Dios se revela y se manifiesta en el Cristo crucificado y resucitado. Al hablarles del Jesucristo crucificado, Pablo puede acceder al Espíritu, el poder y la sabiduría de Dios manifestados en Jesús. De esta manera, Pablo modela una vida de justicia, luz y sabiduría basada no en sus propios méritos sino en el poder y la sabiduría de Dios.

El evangelio continúa el Sermón del Monte de Mateo al hacer que Jesús desafíe a sus discípulos a ser "sal de la tierra ... luz del mundo". En un mundo sin refrigeradores y electricidad, la sal y la luz son esenciales para mantener una buena calidad de vida. Las cualidades de la sal y la luz se manifiestan solo en lo que hacen. Se notan cuando hacen aquello para lo que fueron destinados, a saber, dar sabor a los alimentos y permitir que uno vea con claridad. Los discípulos están llamados a ser sal y luz en su relación con los demás. Al ser justos en todas nuestras relaciones y al vivir de la manera que Dios nos lo propuso, brillamos para que todos lo vean. Los "justos" son claramente reconocidos cuando hacen justicia hacia todos. De esta manera, se convierten en sal y luz para todos, disipando la oscuridad y mejorando a todos.

Mientras continuamos nuestra reflexión continua sobre el Sermón del Monte de Mateo, considere su respuesta diaria al desafío de Jesús de que todos los discípulos sean "sal de la tierra" y "luz del mundo".

Lecturas

Domingo, 5 de Febrero

Primera Lectura: Isaías 58:7-10

Salmo: Salmo 111:4-5, 6-7, 8a y 9

Segunda Lectura: 1 Corintios 2:1-5

Evangelio: Mateo 5:13-16

Domingo, 12 de Febrero

Primera Lectura: Eclesiástico 15:16-21

Salmo: Salmo 118:1-2, 4-5, 17-18, 33-34

Segunda Lectura: 1 Corintios 2:6-10

Evangelio: Mateo 5:17-37

¿Cómo es "sal" y "luz" para todos los que encuentra y se relaciona a diario? ¿Cómo se esfuerza por disipar la oscuridad en la vida de los demás por la forma en que vive y actúa? ¿Cómo nos esforzamos como comunidad eclesial, ciudad, estado y nación para disipar la oscuridad que a menudo parece prevalecer en nuestros tiempos? ¿Podemos comprometernos a vivir y actuar con justicia en todo lo que decimos y hacemos?

En el bautismo nos comprometemos a vivir en justicia. ¿Cómo está viviendo su llamado y desafío bautismal comunitario? Pídale a Dios valor, sabiduría y poder para practicar la justicia en todo momento.

In God's Image-A Respect Life Column On the Death PenaltyRosary for Raheem Taylor

Despite new evidence that could prove his innocence, Raheem Taylor has been scheduled to be executed on Tuesday, February 7, 2023 at 6pm. Should the state follow through on this execution, we will pray a rosary for Raheem at the hour of his death beginning at 5:45 pm. The rosary will be repeated in Spanish at 7pm. All are invited in joining us.

In Pope Francis' 2020 encyclical, Fratelli Tutti, he states "Let us keep in mind that 'not even a murderer loses his personal dignity, and God himself pledges to guarantee this'. The firm rejection of the death penalty shows to what extent it is possible to recognize the inalienable dignity of every human being and to accept that he or she has a place in this universe. If I do not deny that dignity to the worst of criminals, I will not deny it to anyone. I will give everyone the possibility of sharing this planet with me, despite all our differences." Please consider calling Governor Parson to ask him to grant Raheem clemency and protect his personal dignity.

A Imagen de Dios-Una Columna de Respeto a la Vida Sobre la Pena de MuerteRosario por Raheem Taylor

A pesar de nuevas pruebas que podrían probar su inocencia, la ejecución de Raheem Taylor está programada para el martes 7 de febrero de 2023 a las 6:00pm. Si el estado continúa con esta ejecución, rezaremos un rosario por Raheem a la hora de su muerte a partir de las 5:45pm. El rosario se repetirá en español a las 7pm. Todos están invitados a acompañarnos.

En la encíclica del Papa Francisco del 2020, Fratelli Tutti, afirma: "Recordemos que «ni siquiera el homicida pierde su dignidad personal y Dios mismo se compromete a garantizar esto». El firme rechazo de la pena de muerte muestra hasta qué punto es posible reconocer la inalienable dignidad de todo ser humano y aceptar que tenga un lugar en este universo. Ya que, si no se lo niego al peor de los criminales, no se lo negaré a nadie, daré a todos la posibilidad de compartir conmigo este planeta a pesar de lo que pueda separarnos". Considere llamar al gobernador Parson para pedirle que conceda clemencia a Raheem y proteja su dignidad personal.

This Week's Do You Know Video:

Pope Francis' vision of the Church is rooted in the inclusive and expansive Vatican II vision of the church as the pilgrim people of God. The pope initiated the process of synodality in 2021 to move the church towards making real and concrete the Vatican II church vision. Synodality means walking together under the Spirit's inspiration and guidance, listening to one another, especially to the marginalized and all those of the periphery, so that together we can learn where the Spirit is leading us. The synod reports so far from this worldwide listening process indicate that the church is not seen as welcoming, inclusive or open to all, especially when it comes to marginalized groups such as LGBTQIA, women, divorced and remarried and others. To counter this aspect of a polarized, judgmental and exclusive church necessitates recommitting ourselves to the inclusive and welcoming gospel values modeled for us by Jesus, God-with-us. The best of our tradition also supports inclusiveness and belonging. Make time to view this week's DYK video and reflect on those dimensions of our Catholic Faith tradition that support inclusion and belonging.

Honoring the Four Chaplains and All Veterans

Fr. John Patrick Washington was a Catholic priest in the Archdiocese for the Military Services. He was also a lieutenant in the US Army during World War II. At just 34 years old, Fr. Washington was one of the Four Chaplains who gave their lives to save other soldiers during the sinking of the troop transport Dorchester on February 3, 1943. Although nearly 700 lives were lost that day, 230 survived thanks to the courage of Fr. Washington, the Four Chaplains, and others who helped civilian and military personnel board life boats and even offered up their own life jackets when the ship ran out. We take the opportunity, on this 80th anniversary of such a tragic event, to thank and honor Fr. John Washington, the Four Chaplains and all veterans and active military—living and deceased—for their great courage.

Pictured are our own parish veterans with members of the Ladies Auxiliary at the Veterans Day luncheon provided by the Ladies Auxiliary this past fall.

Spring Parish
Dinner and Auction

"You are the light of the world. A city set on a mountain cannot be hidden. Nor do they light a lamp and then put it under a bushel basket; it is set on a lampstand, where it gives light to all in the house. Just so, your light must shine before others, that they may see your good deeds and glorify your heavenly Father."

Matthew 5:14-16

Our Gospel passage from Matthew sends us out on our stewardship way with a bang as Jesus declares to us, His disciples, that we are the "salt of the earth" and the "light of the world." But, He adds, salt no longer gives flavor if allowed to go stale — light cannot bring its blessed brightness if left hidden. Therefore, we must act! We must live our lives so that others will see the things that we do — the ways that we serve others, care for the vulnerable, prioritize our family relationships, and above all, our love for God — and then give Him glory. This is the stewardship way of life. — See more at www.catholicsteward.com/blog/.

"Ustedes son la luz del mundo. No se puede ocultar una ciudad construida en lo alto de un monte; y cuando se enciende una vela, no se esconde debajo de una olla, sino que se pone sobre un candelero, para que alumbré a todos los de la casa. Que de igual manera brille la luz de ustedes ante los hombres, para que viendo las buenas obras que ustedes hacen, den gloria a su Padre, que está en los cielos."

Mateo 5:14-16

Nuestro pasaje evangélico de Mateo nos envía a nuestro camino de corresponsabilidad cuando Jesús nos declara a nosotros, sus discípulos, que somos la "sal de la tierra" y la "luz del mundo". Pero agrega que la sal ya no da sabor si se deja rancia; la luz no puede traer su bendito brillo si se la deja oculta. Por lo tanto, ¡debemos actuar! Debemos vivir nuestras vidas para que otros vean las cosas que hacemos, las formas en que servimos a los demás, cuidamos a los vulnerables, priorizamos nuestras relaciones familiares y, sobre todo, nuestro amor por Dios, y luego le damos gloria. Este es el estilo de vida de la corresponsabilidad.

Online Giving

St. Sabina offers an online giving option for parishioners and visitors. This is an easy, safe and secure way to make contributions online. To set up a one-time or recurring contribution: scan the QR Code or go to our parish website at www.stsabina-parish.org and click the "Online Giving" button in the top right section. This will open a new window through our secure third party website.

Contributions for the Week of January 22

Envelopes/Sobres:	$8,569.00
Weekly Plate:	$ 941.50
Maintenance-Upkeep:	$ 972.50

Gifts of Stocks and Bonds

Stocks and bonds, especially if appreciated in value over the years, can cost you a lot of capital gains taxes, but they can also make substantial gifts to St. Sabina Parish. Consider such a gift in your will. Please contact Kris at kris@stsabinaparish.org for more information.

Donaciones por Internet

Sta. Sabina ofrece una opción de donar en línea para los feligreses y visitantes. Esta es una manera fácil, y segura de contribuir por internet. Para establecer una contribución única ó recurrente: escanee el código QR o visite nuestro sitio web de la parroquia en www.stsabina-parish.org, haga clic en el botón "Online Giving" en la parte superior derecha. Se abrirá una ventana nueva que lo llevará a otro sitio seguro.

Donaciones de Acciones y Bonos

Las acciones y los bonos, especialmente si su valor ha aumentado a lo largo de los años, pueden costarle muchos impuestos sobre las ganancias de capital, pero también pueden ser obsequios sustanciales para la parroquia de St. Sabina. Considere tal regalo en su testamento. Póngase en contacto con Kris en kris@stsabinaparish.org para obtener más información.

Green Team Tip of the Week

Save water by taking shorter showers and not letting the water run continuously while brushing teeth or shaving. In this way we can help bring a future in which impoverished populations around the world will have affordable access to a clean source of this God-given necessity of life.

Consejo de la Semana del Equipo de Ecología

Ahorre agua tomando duchas más cortas y no deje que el agua corra continuamente mientras se cepilla los dientes o se afeita. De esta manera podemos ayudar a traer un futuro en el que las poblaciones empobrecidas de todo el mundo tendrán acceso asequible a una fuente limpia de esta necesidad de vida dada por Dios.

Eucharistic Ministers Needed for Nursing Home Ministry
