Parish Directory and Guidebook

We are in the process of updating our annual Guide Book and Directory for the church. This book will contain everything pertinent to our church: the various ministries, organizations, committees, activities, functions and events plus a complete directory of all members. This book is being provided and direct-mailed to each family at no cost to our church, and it is again being subsidized by local business that advertise. If you own or manage a business and would like to find out about advertising in our book, please call the Church Office at 816-331-4713.

Update Your Membership Information

Does our Church have your family membership correct? If you have moved or changed your phone number recently, please update that information through your My Own Church account or contact Bridget Hernandez at bridget@stsabinaparish.org or 816-979-3159 to update your information.

Altar Society to Begin Providing Coffee

Our Altar Society will begin providing coffee after the 8am and 10:30am Masses after Easter. To make this possible, we need more people to join the Altar Society. This is a great way to meet and work with other women of the parish, and by providing coffee after Masses, this is a great way to meet other people in our parish family. To help, please contact Kathy Moorman at kcmoorman79@gmail.com or 913-491-6809.

Blood Drive—March 26

Community Blood Center is the primary supplier of blood for local hospitals and has been serving Missouri and Kansas hospitals for more than 50 years. Community Blood Center needs to collect 580 pints of blood every day and over 140,000 pints annually to meet the needs of our local hospitals. An individual within the area that Community Blood Center serves needs a blood transfusion every four minutes.

Please share your gift of life with local hospital patients who need it by donating at the next Community Blood Center blood drive. The blood drive will be held in the gym of our parish on Sunday, March 26, 8am-1pm. To make an appointment online, visit esavealifenow.org and use sponsor code: saintsabina.

Guidelines for Fast and Abstinence During Lent

Abstinence: Abstinence is a penitential practice consisting of refraining from the consumption of meat and is to be observed by all Catholics who are 14 years of age and older. Ash Wednesday, Good Friday, and the Fridays during Lent are days of abstinence. Note that Bishop Johnston has dispensed all Catholics in the diocese from the requirement to abstain from meat on Friday, March 17, as this day is the commemoration of St. Patrick.

Fast and Abstinence: In addition to abstinence, fasting is to be observed by all Catholics between the ages of 18-59 years (inclusive). On days of fasting, one full meal is allowed. Two smaller meals, sufficient to maintain strength, may be taken according to one's needs, but together they should not equal another full meal. Eating between meals is not permitted, but liquids are allowed. Note: If a person is unable to observe the above regulations due to ill health or other serious reasons, they are urged to practice other forms of self-denial that are suitable to their condition. Ash Wednesday and Good Friday are days of Fasting.

Lenten Practices—prayer, fasting, almsgiving

During the season of Lent, we traditionally focus on the three practices of prayer, fasting and almsgiving. Reflection booklets and other resources to aid your Lenten prayer are available in the gathering space. Take what you feel will be helpful, and please consider donating a dollar for each resource you take.

To help you with the practice of almsgiving, there are Rice Bowls from the Catholic Relief Services available in the gathering space as well. Following the calendar and reading the stories provided help us to connect how our sacrifice and donations can impact the lives of others.

DACA RENEWALS

Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals (DACA) must be renewed every two years. If you have DACA status, please be aware that the renewal process takes about 7 months. Please refer to the following timeline to ensure that you renew your DACA on time:

1. Check the expiration date on your work permit
 2. Gather proof of presence in the United States since applying for DACA
 3. Save money for the filing fee and for an attorney
- Processing a DACA renewal takes approximately 6 months. To ensure timely renewal, 7 months prior to your DACA expiration you should begin the renewal process.

Avocados: Healthy Fat

A small study in Nutrition Journal revealed that overweight people who included half an avocado in their midday meal reported greater satiety three hours later. Researchers also noted that avocado reduced spikes of insulin—a hormone that can promote fat storage, possibly making it harder for you to lose weight. It may sound counterintuitive, but slimming down by eating fat, (an avocado has 30 grams) is making more and more sense!

Stewardship

"Jesus took Peter, James, and John his brother, and led them up a high mountain by themselves. And he was transfigured before them; his face shone like the sun and his clothes became white as light."

Matthew 17: 1-2

During our time in Lent, we are called to a type of transformation, as well. In our cases it is more inward than outer. God asks us to try to seek conversion of mind and heart. Yet, only God can truly cause this type of conversion; however, we must be open to it for it to occur. Stewardship is closely associated with conversion. People who give of themselves to build the Kingdom of God are disciples of the Lord. To be a disciple, we must follow Jesus' example and teachings. His way of life literally becomes our way of life. For that to happen we must be transformed. That transformation can present challenges, but it also offers extreme joy. Stewardship challenges us to make conscientious decisions about our lives. Stewardship calls each of us to account for what God has given us, not only for the sake of knowing how much we have and how God has blessed us, but also to know how much God is calling us to share what He has given us with others. — See more at www.catholicsteward.com/blog/

Are you 70 and ½ or older?

Do you want to save federal and state income taxes?

Giving directly from your IRA to a qualified charity like your parish, school, Annual Catholic Appeal, diocesan or parish ministry can be a tax-wise strategy. Please consult your legal or tax adviser or Greg Vranicar at 816-714-2363 or vranicar@diocesekcsj.org at the Office of Stewardship and Development. Gifts of this type satisfy your "required minimum distribution (rmd)" and will help you avoid paying income tax on whatever amount you transfer directly to charity.

Encounter Nutrition

We encounter Evelina in Zambia as she and other mothers in her community learn new ways to provide nutritious meals for their growing children and families. How do we ensure that those who are hungry have not only food but true nourishment? Visit csricebowl.org for more.

Reflection on the Readings

The first and second Sundays of Lent are consistent in their gospel proclamation narratives. Every first Sunday, we proclaim the temptations of Jesus according to the various gospels, excluding John, who has no temptation narrative. The second Sunday of Lent always proclaims the Transfiguration account from each of the three lectionary years. Many find it odd that this reading was chosen to be part of the Lenten proclamation. After all, aren't we supposed to be focusing on conversion, reconciliation and the struggles involved in living out the Christian life? Why a reading focused on the glory and divinity of Jesus?

The Lenten season is not isolated but is part of the Lent/Easter/Pentecost season. During this season we focus in a concentrated manner on the entire Paschal Mystery, the reality of Christ's life, passion, death, resurrection, ascension and the coming of the Spirit. While Lent focuses on the more somber and challenging aspects of conversion and reconciliation, we can never forget that Christ has already gone before us and won the victory over sin and death.

That victory gives us the hope that responsorial Psalm 33 affirms as we are called to proclaim, "Lord, let your mercy be on us as we place our trust in you." God's faithful love, hesed in Hebrew, is always there, calling us to persevere in hope no matter what difficulties we encounter. The Lord is ever ready to guide, deliver and preserve us from harm. All that is needed is that we trust and listen to God's word, especially as communicated to us by Jesus, God with us. This thread runs through all the readings.

Abram is called to leave his home and to journey to a place that God will show him. God promises to bless him and to make him and his descendants a great nation. Fear of the unknown along with travel to a strange land must have felt overwhelming. Yet, with no children and not knowing where he is going, Abram trusts the Lord, and sets out as the Lord directed him. Because of his attentiveness to God's word God makes Abram the source of blessing for "all the communities of the earth."

The second reading from the second letter to Timothy asks us to bear our share of the hardship involved in living the gospel with the strength that comes from God. God has called us to holiness, not based on our works but on the grace that comes from Christ. Jesus destroyed death and brought life and light to the world. We are asked to place our trust in God, our true source of strength, who had already won the victory for us.

The Transfiguration account gives us a glimpse into the majesty and divinity of Jesus, fully realized only at the resurrection. Yet the journey to resurrection involves the journey to Jerusalem. It would be nice if resurrection came without the cross, but such is not the journey of life. Rather resurrection becomes the symbol of our hope and trust in the hesed of God. God's faithful love becomes the anchor that grounds us in life, enabling us to live the gospel, empowering us to "listen" to Jesus and live out God's faithful love in our own lives. Both at Jesus' baptism and at the Transfiguration, God invites us to "listen" to Jesus, as the sure guide and the certain way to God's saving grace.

How will you discipline yourself this Lent to truly "listen" to what Jesus is saying? Try to list two areas in your life that need transformation. Ask God for the strength and courage to change.

Bible Study

Catholics are mostly exposed to the Bible through the Sunday Lectionary Readings. In order to help us all enter into the Bible through the Sunday readings, we are offering study sessions that will provide an opportunity to read, to study background to the readings, and to reflect on how to apply the readings to our lives. We will gather on March 12th and 26th at 10:30am. All are welcome. Bring a Bible and a friend. To register for these sessions, please call Biagio at 816 -979-3153.

Reflexión Sobre las Lecturas

El primer y segundo domingo de Cuaresma son consistentes en sus narrativas de la proclamación del evangelio. Cada primer domingo, proclamamos las tentaciones de Jesús según los diversos evangelios, excluyendo a Juan, que no tiene una narración de la Transfiguración de cada uno de los tres años leccionarios. A muchos les resulta extraño que esta lectura fuera elegida para ser parte de la proclamación cuaresmal. Después de todo, ¿no debemos centrarnos en la conversión, la reconciliación y las luchas que implica vivir la vida cristiana? Por qué una lectura centrada en la gloria y la divinidad de Jesús?

La temporada de Cuaresma no está aislada, sino es parte de la temporada de Cuaresma/Pascua/Pentecostés. Durante esta temporada nos enfocamos de manera concentrada en todo el Misterio Pascual, la realidad de la vida, la pasión, la muerte, la resurrección, y la ascensión de Cristo, y la venida del Espíritu. Mientras Cuaresma se centra en los aspectos más sombríos y desafiantes de la conversión y la reconciliación, nunca podemos olvidar que Cristo ya ha ido antes que nosotros y ganó la victoria sobre el pecado y la muerte.

Esa victoria nos da la esperanza de que el Salmo responsorial 32 afirma ya que estamos llamados a proclamar: "Que tu misericordia, Señor, venga sobre nosotros, como lo esperamos de ti". El amor fiel de Dios, hessed en hebreo, siempre está allí, llamándonos a perseverar en la esperanza, sin importar las dificultades que encontremos. El Señor está siempre listo para guiarnos, libramos y preservarnos del daño. Todo lo que se necesita es que confíemos y escuchemos la palabra de Dios, especialmente como nos fue comunicada por Jesús, Dios con nosotros. Este hilo pasa por todas las lecturas.

Abram es llamado a abandonar su casa y a viajar a un lugar que Dios le mostrará. Dios promete bendecirlo y hacer de él y sus descendientes una gran nación. El temor de lo desconocido junto con el viaje a una tierra extraña debe haber sido abrumador. Sin embargo, sin hijos y sin saber adónde va, Abram confía en el Señor, y se pone como el Señor lo dirigió. Debido a su atención a la palabra de Dios, Dios hace de Abram la fuente de bendición para "todos los pueblos de la tierra".

La segunda lectura de la segunda carta a Timoteo nos pide que soportemos nuestra parte de las dificultades que implica vivir el evangelio con la fuerza que viene de Dios. Dios nos ha llamado a la santidad, no basado en nuestras obras sino en la gracia que viene de Cristo. Jesús destruyó la muerte y trajo vida y luz al mundo. Se nos pide que pongamos nuestra confianza en Dios, nuestra verdadera fuente de fuerza, que ya había ganado la victoria para nosotros.

El relato de la Transfiguración nos da un vistazo a la majestad y divinidad de Jesús, plenamente realizada sólo en la resurrección. Sin embargo, el viaje a la resurrección involucra el viaje a Jerusalén. Sería bueno que la símbolo de nuestra esperanza y confianza en el hessed de Dios. El amor fiel de Dios se convierte en el nos motiva en la vida, permitiéndonos vivir el evangelio, dándonos poder para "escuchar" a Jesús y vivir el amor fiel de Dios en nuestras propias vidas. Tanto en el bautismo de Jesús como en la Transfiguración, Dios nos invita a "escuchar" a Jesús, como el guía seguro y el camino seguro hacia la gracia salvadora de Dios.

¿Cómo se disciplinará esta Cuaresma para verdaderamente "escuchar" lo que Jesús está diciendo? Trate de anotar dos áreas de su vida que necesitan transformación. Pide a Dios la fuerza y el valor para cambiar.
