Child Safety

The Diocese of Kansas City-St. Joseph is committed to combatting sexual abuse in the Church. If you are a victim of sexual abuse, or if you observe or suspect sexual abuse:

1. Call the Missouri Child Abuse Hotline at 1.800.392.3738 (if the victim is currently under the age of 18), and
2. Contact your local law enforcement agency or call 911, and
3. After reporting to these civil and law enforcement authorities, report suspected sexual abuse of a minor or vulnerable adult to the Ombudsman, Joe Crayon, at 816.812.2500 or crayon@ombudsmankcsj.org if the abuse involves a priest, deacon, employee or volunteer of the Diocese of Kansas City-St. Joseph.

The Diocese has a sincere commitment to providing care and healing resources to victims of sexual abuse and their families. Please contact Whitney True-Francis, Victim Assistance Coordinator, at 816.392.0011 or true.francis@diocesekcsj.org for more information.

All volunteers with youth and children must attend one Protecting God's Children workshop, submit to a background check and sign the policy on Ethics and Integrity in Ministry, (EIM). More info at <https://kcsj catholic.org/the-office-of-child-and-youth-protection/>.

This Week's Do You Know Video:

Each liturgical year, the Season of Lent offers us an opportunity to examine and reflect on what we should be about throughout the entire liturgical year. Lent highlights the various ways in which we are called and invited to respond to the love relationship that God offers us from the first moment of life. Prayer, fasting and almsgiving are the focus of our Lenten spiritual exercises, disciplines that we are called to develop not just during Lent but throughout the year. Giving up something for Lent should always be coupled with doing something for others, especially those in most need. Make time to view this week's DYK video and learn how Lent can help us be better disciples all year long.

En Nuestro Video ¿Sabes...? de Esta Semana:

Cada año litúrgico, la Temporada de Cuaresma nos ofrece la oportunidad de examinar y reflexionar sobre lo que debemos hacer durante todo el año litúrgico. La Cuaresma destaca las diversas formas en que somos llamados e invitados a responder a la relación de amor que Dios nos ofrece desde el primer momento de la vida. La oración, el ayuno y la limosna son el centro de nuestros ejercicios espirituales de Cuaresma, disciplinas que estamos llamados a desarrollar no solo durante la Cuaresma sino durante todo el año. Renunciar a algo durante la Cuaresma siempre debe ir acompañado de hacer algo por los demás, especialmente por los más necesitados. Tómese un momento para ver el video ¿Sabes? de esta semana y aprender cómo la Cuaresma puede ayudarnos a ser mejores discípulos durante todo el año.

Did You Know— Regularly challenging yourself with brain games, mental exercises and new activities keeps your mind running on all four cylinders.

A recent study found that adults who play a mentally challenging brain game every day for several weeks can dramatically improve their memory. Go play!!

1. Name your colors—Challenge your ability to stay focused: Quickly read out loud the color that each word is printed in—not the word itself. Try it repeatedly to see if you can improve.
2. In just 7 words—Test your creativity with this verbal challenge. Write a short story—and use only seven words to tell your tale.
3. Count backwards—Try these exercises in simple subtraction to keep your brain on track:

- Beginning at 200, count backward, subtracting 5 each time (200, 195, 190.....)
- Beginning at 150, count backward, subtracting 7 each time (150, 143, 136.....)

The gospel for the second Sunday of Lent always narrates the Lord's transfiguration. Why does the lectionary move from the temptations of Jesus on the first Sunday of Lent to an account of the Lord's glorification? If Lent is supposed to focus on the difficulty of the Christian journey and our need to struggle to get back on course with God, then why highlight glorification themes?

The readings for first two Sundays of Lent reflect two most important Lenten themes. On the first Sunday, Jesus' temptations remind us of the constant struggle and striving that is integral to living our Christian lives faithfully. The Transfiguration reminds us that we are assured victory in our struggle because our Lord has gone before us and already conquered sin and death.

© J. S. Paluch Co., Inc.

While we struggle on our faith journey, we trust and hope in the victory already won for us by the Risen Christ. Attuning ourselves to Jesus' wisdom and guidance is essential. We are called to "listen" to Jesus for it is only in following that sure path that we are assured resurrection. This trust enables us to sing the refrain from responsorial Psalm 27 with great confidence and joy, "The Lord is my life and my salvation."

In the first reading from Genesis, Abram becomes a model of trust for all. Even though he has no children, Abram believes God's promises that his descendants would be as numerous as the stars.

Abram believes and trusts even though there is nothing tangible that Abram could grasp. "Abram put his faith in the Lord, who credited it to him as an act of righteousness." Dwelling in that trust enables Abram to enter more deeply in relationship with God, and to experience both God's abiding presence and God's covenant love.

Paul's letter to the Philippians calls us to imitate Paul's trust and confidence in God, thus reflecting that trust in all our conduct and relationships. Those who do not trust God see nothing beyond this life, and are caught up in concerns and actions that lead them away from God. Those whose "citizenship is in heaven" occupy themselves with concerns and actions that imitate the Lord Jesus. Because of this trust and corresponding lifestyle, we become transformed in and through Christ, who will bring about our ultimate union with God for all eternity.

Luke's transfiguration scene has Jesus conversing with Moses and Elijah concerning his "exodus that he was going to accomplish in Jerusalem." That "exodus" will involve the difficult path of arrest, suffering and death. Jesus' trust in God strengthens him for the difficult journey ahead. That trust transforms and deepens Jesus' desire and willingness to attune himself to God. His very body manifests that trust and love. Jesus comes down from the mountain to undertake his journey to Jerusalem with great trust. Dare we respond to God's challenge to "listen" to Jesus as he goes about his "exodus" to Jerusalem?

Active "listening" essentially involves modeling ourselves on Jesus. Doing so assures us of ultimate victory over our struggles and temptations. This is no easy road. The transfiguration reality is only arrived at through the "exodus" leading to Jerusalem. Jesus' fidelity to God's values ultimately lead him to endure suffering, cross and death.

As we attempt to be faithful to God's values in our lives, the struggles of life, and even our own death, will always be a part of Christian living. However, in living a life modeled on Jesus, all struggles, and even death, will ultimately be transformed into victory and life. That is why this second Sunday of Lent, we can boldly and confidently proclaim our responsorial psalm, "The Lord is my light and my salvation."

How you can make this refrain an important part of your Lenten prayer and journey to Easter?

2nd Reading: 1 Corinthians 10:1-6, 10-12

Gospel: Luke 13:1-9

El evangelio del segundo domingo de Cuaresma siempre narra la transfiguración del Señor. ¿Por qué el leccionario pasa de las tentaciones de Jesús el primer domingo de Cuaresma a un relato de la glorificación del Señor? Si se supone que la Cuaresma se enfoca en la dificultad del camino cristiano y nuestra necesidad de luchar para volver al curso con Dios, entonces ¿por qué resaltar los temas de glorificación?

Las lecturas de los dos primeros domingos de Cuaresma reflejan los dos temas más importantes de la Cuaresma. El primer domingo, las tentaciones de Jesús nos recuerdan la lucha y el esfuerzo constante que son parte integral de vivir fielmente nuestras vidas cristianas. La Transfiguración nos recuerda que estamos seguros de la victoria en nuestra lucha porque nuestro Señor nos ha precedido y ya ha vencido el pecado y la muerte.

Mientras luchamos en nuestro camino de fe, confiamos y esperamos en la victoria que ya ha ganado para nosotros por el Cristo resucitado. Sintonizarnos con la sabiduría y la guía de Jesús es esencial. Estamos llamados a "escuchar" a Jesús, ya que solo al seguir ese camino seguro se nos asegura la resurrección. Esta confianza nos permite cantar el refrán del Salmo 27 responsorial con gran confianza y alegría: "El Señor es mi luz y mi salvación".

En la primera lectura de Génesis, Abram se convierte en un modelo de confianza para todos. Aunque no tiene hijos, Abram cree en las promesas de Dios de que sus descendientes serían tan numerosos como las estrellas, aunque no hay nada tangible que Abram pueda comprender. "Abram creyó lo que el Señor le decía y, por esa fe, el Señor lo tuvo por justo". Morar en esa confianza le permite a Abram entrar más profundamente en relación con Dios y experimentar la presencia perdurable de Dios y el amor de alianza de Dios.

La carta de Pablo a los filipenses nos llama a imitar la confianza de Pablo en Dios, reflejando así nuestra confianza en toda nuestra conducta y relaciones. Aquellos que no confían en Dios no ven nada más allá de esta vida, y están atrapados en preocupaciones y acciones que los alejan de Dios. Aquellos quienes son "ciudadanos del cielo" se ocupan de preocupaciones y acciones que imitan al Señor Jesús. Debido a esta confianza y al estilo de vida correspondiente, nos transformamos en y por medio de Cristo, quien logrará nuestra unión definitiva con Dios por toda la eternidad.

La escena de la transfiguración según Lucas tiene a Jesús conversando con Moisés y Elías sobre su "muerte que le esperaba en Jerusalén". La cual implicará el difícil camino precedente de la detención, el sufrimiento y por último, la muerte. La confianza de Jesús en Dios lo fortalece para el difícil viaje por delante. Esa confianza transforma y profundiza el deseo y la voluntad de Jesús de sintonizarse con Dios. Su mismo cuerpo manifiesta esa confianza y amor. Jesús bajó de la montaña para emprender su viaje a Jerusalén con gran confianza. ¿Nos atreveremos a responder al desafío de Dios de "escuchar" a Jesús mientras él realiza su camino difícil a Jerusalén?

Escuchar activamente consiste en modelarnos en Jesús. Hacerlo, nos asegura la victoria final sobre nuestras luchas y tentaciones. Este no es un camino fácil. La realidad de la transfiguración solo se llega a través del camino difícil que conduce a Jerusalén. La fidelidad de Jesús a los valores de Dios lo lleva a soportar el sufrimiento, la cruz y la muerte.

Al tratar de ser fieles a los valores de Dios en nuestras vidas, las luchas de la vida e incluso nuestra propia muerte, siempre serán parte de la vida cristiana. Sin embargo, al vivir una vida modelada en Jesús, todas las luchas, e incluso la muerte, se transformarán finalmente en victoria y vida. Por eso, este segundo domingo de Cuaresma, podemos proclamar con audacia y confianza nuestro salmo responsorial: "El Señor es mi luz y mi salvación".

¿Cómo puede hacer que este refrán forme una parte importante de su oración Cuaresmal y de su viaje a la Pascua?

Palm Sunday Processional Choirchimes

Now is your chance to try something new! All are invited to join us to play a choirchime during the Palm Sunday Processional on April 9 & 10 at the 4:00 and 10:30 Masses. Anyone, any age can play. (Young children will need parental help.)

It's easy and fun. You don't have to be able to read music to play, just ring a simple 4 beat pattern that we will practice. We begin in the gym and process to the church. After the procession, you can sit with your family for Mass.

Details:Pick the Mass for which you'd like to play:

Saturday, April 9 at 4:00 PM Mass, Sunday, April 10 at 10:30 Mass, or both!
There are chimes for up to 14 people at each Mass.

Contact Susan Ratigan to sign up. Spots will fill up quickly, so please sign up in the gathering space, email or call Susan at 816-979-3158 or susan@stsabinaparish.org

Attend at least two 30 minute practices. Choose 2 from these dates/times:

Wed March 16 at 6:00 PM in the church
Sun March 20 at 11:30 AM in the church
Wed March 30 at 8:00 PM in the church (after the Mission Mass)
Sun April 3 at 11:30 AM in the church
Wed April 6 at 6:00 PM in the church

April 9: Arrive at 3:20 PM for 4:00 Mass. Go to the music room of church.

April 10: Arrive at 9:50 AM for 10:30 Mass. Go to the music room of church.

This is a super easy and enjoyable way to make music and participate in the start of Holy Week. Give it a try!

Green Team Tip of the Week

Live more simply. As a family discuss the difference between needs and wants. For younger children you could make a list of items that are wants versus needs. For older children you could discuss the family budget and how much of that budget goes toward needs versus wants. Could you decrease or eliminate wants during Lent?

Consejo de la Semana del Equipo de Ecología

Vive de forma más sencilla. Como familia, platica de la diferencia entre necesidades y deseos. Para los niños más pequeños, puede hacer una lista de elementos que son deseos versus necesidades. Para los niños mayores, podría hablar sobre el presupuesto familiar y cuánto de ese presupuesto se destina a las necesidades frente a los deseos. ¿Podrían disminuir o eliminar los deseos durante la Cuaresma?

"While he was praying his face changed in appearance and his clothing became dazzling white.

And behold, two men were conversing with him, Moses and Elijah, who appeared in glory and spoke of his exodus that he was going to accomplish in Jerusalem. Peter and his companions had been overcome by sleep, but becoming fully awake, they saw his glory and the two men standing with him."

Luke 9:29-32

The reason for all of our fasting, prayer, and almsgiving during Lent is to be reawakened to all God has done for humanity, and to all that He has done for each of us personally. It is all too easy to get lulled into complacency in our daily routines, to "sleepwalk" through life, getting up and getting ourselves out the door, going to work, returning home for dinner and dishes, meetings, or sports activities, and finally flopping on the couch to watch TV until bedtime. While there is nothing inherently sinful in this routine, as Christian stewards, we are called to so much more! This Lent, let us train ourselves, or more precisely, allow Him to train us to say "Yes" to His will and to offer our lives back to Him in gratitude. In so doing, we, too, will become "transfigured." This is what it means to live fully awake; this is a stewardship way of life and it is glorious indeed.

"Mientras oraba, su rostro cambió de aspecto y sus vestiduras se hicieron blancas y relampagueantes.

De pronto aparecieron conversando con él dos personajes, rodeados de esplendor: eran Moisés y Elías. Y hablaban de la muerte que le esperaba en Jerusalén. Pedro y sus compañeros estaban rendidos de sueño; pero, despertándose, vieron la gloria de Jesús y de los que estaban con él."

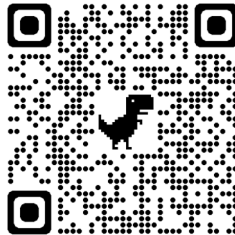

Lucas 9:29-32

El motivo de todos nuestros ayunos, oraciones y limosnas durante la Cuaresma es despertar de nuevo a todo lo que Dios ha hecho por la humanidad y a todo lo que Él ha hecho por cada uno de nosotros personalmente. Es demasiado fácil dejarse llevar por la complacencia en nuestras rutinas diarias, "caminar sonámbulos" por la vida, levantarse y salir por la puerta, ir al trabajo, regresar a casa para cenar y lavar platos, reuniones o actividades deportivas, y finalmente dejándose caer en el sofá para ver la televisión hasta la hora de acostarse. Si bien no hay nada inherentemente pecaminoso en esta rutina, como cristianos corresponsables, ¡estamos llamados a mucho más! Esta cuaresma, entrenémonos, o más precisamente, dejemos que Él nos entrene para decir "Sí" a Su voluntad y para devolverle nuestra vida en agradecimiento. Al hacerlo, nosotros también seremos "transfigurados". Esto es lo que significa vivir plenamente despierto; esta es una forma de vida de corresponsabilidad y es verdaderamente gloriosa.

Stations of the Cross

The Stations of the Cross are a Catholic devotion that commemorates Jesus' last day on Earth as a man. The 14 stations are commonly used as a mini pilgrimage as we move from station to station. At each station, we recall and meditate on a specific event from Christ's last day. Prayers are recited, and then we move to the next station until all 14 are complete.

Join us to pray the Stations of the Cross each Friday this Lent after you enjoy the Knights of Columbus Fish Fry! Each week a different parish ministry group will lead our prayer. The schedule for Stations in English is below. Each Friday, Stations will be prayed in Spanish at 7:00 PM.

Leading Groups

March 18, 6:30 PM, Parents Lounge/PSR
March 25, 6:30 PM, Dcn. Mike Gates
April 1, 6:30 PM, Social Justice
April 8, 6:30 PM, Youth Group

BAUTISMOS: llamar a Kris al 816-979-3151. Favor de llenar su aplicación para asistir a las platicas con anterioridad.

Comidas de Pescado Durante Cuaresma

Nuestros Caballeros de Colón organizarán sus comidas de pescado anuales los viernes hasta el 8 de abril de 5 a 7pm en el gimnasio. El menú de la cena incluye: pescado frito, pescado al horno (dos tipos), hush puppies (dos tipos), papas fritas, papas al ajillo, espaguetis sin carne, ejotes, ensalada de col, pan, bebidas y postre. Este año, los Caballeros ofrecen un menú para llevar separado que incluye: pescado frito, papas fritas, hush puppies, ejotes y ensalada de col. Los precios son los siguientes:

Cena:

Adulto: $15.00
Niño: $ 6.00
Mayor: $14.00

La cena para llevar por caja costará $10.00.

Viacrucis

El viacrucis es una devoción católica que conmemora el último día de Jesucristo en la Tierra como hombre. Las 14 estaciones se usan comúnmente como una mini peregrinación a medida que avanzamos de una estación a otra. En cada estación, recordamos y meditamos sobre un evento específico del último día de Cristo. Se recitan oraciones y luego pasamos a la siguiente estación hasta completar las 14.

Verá las imágenes de las estaciones ubicadas alrededor de las paredes traseras de nuestro santuario. Rezaremos el Viacrucis cada viernes de Cuaresma el 4, 11, 18, 25 de marzo y el 1 y 8 de abril a las 6:30pm en inglés y a las 7:00pm en español. Esta devoción es una excelente manera de conectarse con la pasión de Cristo y meditar sobre el don de la salvación ganado para nosotros a través de su sufrimiento. Planee acompañarnos al Viacrucis después de disfrutar la comida de pescado de los Caballeros de Colón los viernes durante esta Cuaresma.

IRA Qualified Charitable Distributions

You can give an IRA Qualified Charitable Distribution up to $100,000. You must be 70 1/2 years old or older and make a distribution directly from a traditional IRA to a qualified charity. If you are taking your Required Minimum Distribution (age 72 beginning in 2020), the QCD can satisfy the distribution requirement. Contact Kris at kris@stsabinaparish.org for more information.

Distribuciones Benéficas Calificadas de IRA

Debe tener 70 años y medio o más, y hacer una distribución directamente de una IRA tradicional a una organización benéfica calificada. Si está tomando su distribución mínima requerida (QCD), el QCD puede satisfacer el requisito de distribución. Comuníquese con Kris en kris@stsabinaparish.org para obtener más información.

Parish Mission—March 26-30—Of Course I'm a Disciple!

St. Sabina Parish Mission March 26-30, 2022.

Led by Fr. Bob Gielow, C.M. of the Vincentian Parish Mission Center.

Schedule & Themes:

Sat/Sun March 26-27 Fr. Gielow speaks at weekend Masses

Theme: "The What & Why of a Mission"

Monday Mar 28 7:00 PM Mass with mission talk, followed by reception in the Parish Hall

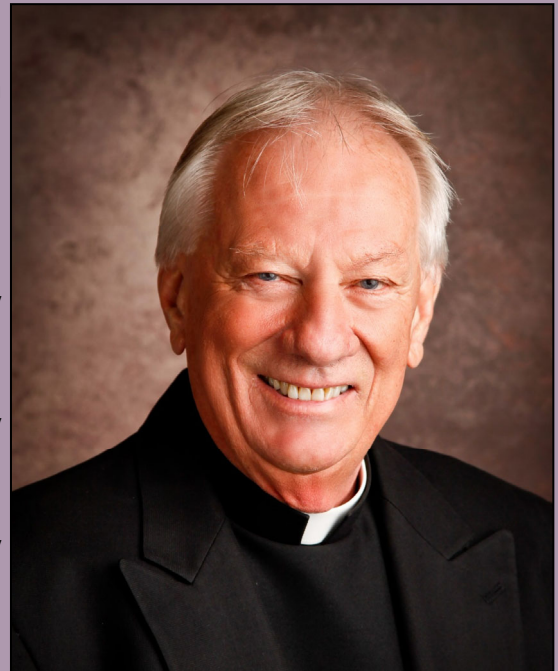

Theme: "Trust Me - Past, Present, Moving On"

Tuesday, Mar 29 7:00 PM Mass with mission talk, followed by reception in the Parish Hall

Theme: "Perseverance in Prayer - Not the Facts"

Wednesday, Mar 30 7:00 PM Mass with mission talk, followed by reception in the Parish Hall

Theme: "Ask for Mercy - Be at Peace"

Are you so involved in scurrying around with business, children, family, social activities that you have little time for quiet contemplation with God? A Mission is a time of special grace when God calls us into a deeper relationship with Him, a time for personal growth, a time to listen to God, a time of spiritual refreshment and invigoration. Make time for God and join us this Lent for our Parish Mission. Visit our website, www.stsabinaparish.org for more details and the Mission Prayer.

Have You Considered a Vocation to the Priesthood?

Vocation Discernment Nights

Every third Thursday of the month, Associate Director of the Vocations Office, Mark Sappington, hosts a monthly Discernment Night at Our Lady of Good Counsel Parish. These nights have a standing open invite to men who wish to discern their vocation from the Lord and would like the fraternity and prayers of their brothers to help them do so. The nights begin with Eucharist Adoration and prayer, followed by dinner and fraternal community with those present. These nights are meant to build fraternity, faith, and aid in discernment. Mark is eager to accompany men in their relationship with God and Church, and to assist them in hearing our Lord's call. If you are interested in attending and discerning, you can reach Mark at sappington@diocesekcsj.org. You can also contact the Vocations Office Manager Katie Lucas for more information at lucas@diocesekcsj.org

Vocation Come and See Dinners:

Throughout the year, the Vocations Office hosts Vocation Come-and-See Dinners at various parishes throughout the diocese. These informal, no-pressure evenings are meant to be an opportunity for men to prayerful discern their vocation and receive resources and guidance to help in that discernment. The evenings typically begin with the celebration of the Mass, followed by dinner and fraternal community. Priests from nearby deaneries will be in attendance, and all those present will be able to ask the clergy questions on discernment, vocations, seminary, priesthood, faith, and relation with our Lord. The one remaining opportunity this academic year is at the Cathedral of St. Joseph on March 25th. More opportunities will be made available later in the Fall. To RSVP, or for more information, please contact the Vocations Office Manager Katie Lucas at lucas@diocesekcsj.org. For more information, please contact Fr. Andrew Kleine at frkleine@stmkc.org

¿Ha Considerado una Vocación al Sacerdocio?

Noches de Discernimiento Vocacional

Cada tercer jueves del mes, el Director Asociado de la Oficina de Vocaciones, Mark Sappington, organiza una Noche de Discernimiento en la Parroquia de Our Lady of Good Counsel. Estas noches tienen una invitación abierta permanente a los hombres que deseen discernir su vocación del Señor y deseen que la fraternidad y la oración de sus hermanos les ayuden a hacerlo. Las noches comienzan con la Adoración Eucarística y la oración, seguida de la cena y comunidad fraterna con los presentes. Estas noches están destinadas a construir la fraternidad, la fe y ayudar al discernimiento. Mark desea acompañar a los hombres en su relación con Dios y la Iglesia, y ayudarlos a escuchar el llamado de nuestro Señor. Si está interesado en asistir y discernir, puede comunicarse con Mark en sappington@diocesekcsj.org (ingles). También puede comunicarse con la Gerente de la Oficina de Vocaciones Katie Lucas para obtener más información en lucas@diocesekcsj.org (ingles).

Cenas para Ver de que Se Tratan las Vocaciones:

A lo largo del año, la Oficina de Vocaciones organiza Cenas para Ver de que Se Tratan las Vocaciones en varias parroquias de la diócesis. Estas tardes informales y sin presiones están destinadas a ser una oportunidad para que los hombres discernan en oración su vocación y reciban recursos y orientación para ayudarlos en ese discernimiento. Las tardes suelen comenzar con la celebración de la Misa, seguida de la cena y la comunidad fraterna. Asistirán sacerdotes de los decanatos cercanos, y todos los presentes podrán hacer preguntas al clero sobre el discernimiento, las vocaciones, el seminario, el sacerdocio, la fe y la relación con nuestro Señor. La única oportunidad que queda este año académico es en la Catedral de St. Joseph el 25 de marzo. Más oportunidades estarán disponibles más adelante en el otoño. Para confirmar su asistencia, o para obtener más información, comuníquese con la Gerente de la Oficina de Vocaciones, Katie Lucas, en lucas@diocesekcsj.org (ingles). Para obtener más información, póngase en contacto con el P. Andrew Kleine en frkleine@stmkc.org (ingles).

Pope Francis' Synod on Synodality, the whole people of God walking together, invites us all to attune ourselves to how the Spirit leads and guides us in our lived experience as people of God. In gathering this Spirit-led wisdom from the entire human family, Pope Francis desires to use that wisdom in the deliberations of the bishops who will gather with him for the Synod on Synodality in October 2023. The hope is that the synodality process will greatly aid the deliberations by the pope and bishops, assuring that the deliberations will be Spirit filled with the wisdom of all God's people. By retrieving this ancient church practice of Synodality, consulting the whole people of God, Pope Francis hopes that this mode of operating will become the normal way for the Church to arrive at what the Spirit desires of us. The St. Sabina Parish community has made available a Synodality survey that is available to all, so that we can gather the Spirit-led wisdom to share with the pope and bishops. The link to the Survey is available on our website both in English and in Spanish. We encourage all to complete the survey in an open, honest and prayerful manner. The results will be sent to both the diocese and the Vatican. Anyone is encouraged to take the survey: non-Catholics, alienated Catholics, your friends and relatives, and anyone else interested in sharing their wisdom. Your Spirit-led wisdom is an important component of how the Spirit is leading us in our day. It will add much to the deliberations of the pope and bishops when they gather on the whole process of Synodality in October 2023.

Por una Iglesia sinodal
comunidad | participación | misión

El Sínodo del Papa Francisco sobre la Sinodalidad, todo el pueblo de Dios caminando juntos, nos invita a todos a sintonizarnos con cómo el Espíritu nos conduce y guía en nuestra experiencia vivida como pueblo de Dios. Al recopilar esta sabiduría guiada por el Espíritu de toda la familia humana, el Papa Francisco desea usar esa sabiduría en las deliberaciones de los obispos que se reunirán con él para el Sínodo sobre la Sinodalidad en octubre de 2023. La esperanza es que el proceso de la sinodalidad sea de gran ayuda. las deliberaciones del Papa y los obispos, asegurando que las deliberaciones estarán llenas del Espíritu con la sabiduría de todo el pueblo de Dios. Al recuperar esta antigua práctica eclesial de la sinodalidad, consultando a todo el pueblo de Dios, el Papa Francisco espera que este modo de operar se convierta en la forma normal para que la Iglesia llegue a lo que el Espíritu desea de nosotros. La comunidad parroquial de Sta. Sabina ha puesto a disposición una encuesta de Sinodalidad que está disponible para todos, para que podamos recopilar la sabiduría guiada por el Espíritu para compartir con el Papa y los obispos. El enlace a la Encuesta está disponible en nuestro sitio web tanto en inglés como en español. Animamos a todos a completar la encuesta de manera abierta, honesta y en oración. Los resultados serán enviados tanto a la diócesis como al Vaticano. Se anima a cualquier persona a participar en la encuesta: no católicos, católicos alienados, sus amigos y familiares, y cualquier otra persona interesada en compartir su sabiduría. Su sabiduría guiada por el Espíritu es un componente importante de cómo el Espíritu nos está guiando en nuestros días. Agregaré mucho a las deliberaciones del Papa y los obispos cuando se reúnan sobre todo el proceso de sinodalidad en octubre de 2023.
