Indoor Plant Care Volunteers Needed

We are seeking 2-3 individuals to help care for the plants in the church building. The job includes watering the green plants in church once or twice a month and seasonal flowers as needed. The day/time you water can be flexible according to your schedule. It doesn't take a lot of time and is a great way to contribute if you are one of those folks who desires to help, but doesn't like getting up in front of people. We really do need you! Please contact Susan Ratigan at susan@stsabinaparish.org or 816-979-3158. Thank you!

Guidelines for Fast and Abstinence During Lent

Abstinence: Abstinence is a penitential practice consisting of refraining from the consumption of meat and is to be observed by all Catholics who are 14 years of age and older. Ash Wednesday, Good Friday, and the Fridays during Lent are days of abstinence.

Fast and Abstinence: In addition to abstinence, fasting is to be observed by all Catholics between the ages of 18-59 years (inclusive). On days of fasting, one full meal is allowed. Two smaller meals, sufficient to maintain strength, may be taken according to one's needs, but together they should not equal another full meal. Eating between meals is not permitted, but liquids are allowed. Note: If a person is unable to observe the above regulations due to ill health or other serious reasons, they are urged to practice other forms of self-denial that are suitable to their condition. Ash Wednesday and Good Friday are days of Fasting.

Lenten Practices—prayer, fasting, almsgiving

During the season of Lent, we traditionally focus on the three practices of prayer, fasting and almsgiving. Reflection booklets and other resources to aid your Lenten prayer are available in the gathering space. Take what you feel will be helpful, and please consider donating a dollar for each resource you take.

To help you with the practice of almsgiving, there are Rice Bowls from the Catholic Relief Services available in the gathering space as well. Following the calendar and reading the stories provided help us to connect how our sacrifice and donations can impact the lives of others.

We Know That Green Tea is Healthy, How About Black Tea?

It turns out that black tea can be very beneficial. Recent research which pooled data from more than 170,000 women in Harvard University's Nurses' Health Studies, discovered that drinking more than a cup a day was associated with a 31 percent reduction in ovarian cancer risk. Black tea is rich in flavonols, which may inhibit the development of cancer cells. It's tea time ladies!

Stewardship

"The man answered and said to them, 'This is what is so amazing, that you do not know where he is from, yet he opened my eyes. We know that God does not listen to sinners, but if one is devout and does his will, he listens to him. It is unheard of that anyone ever opened the eyes of a person born blind. If this man were not from God, he would not be able to do anything.'"

John 9: 30-33

This time during Lent is a time for us to open our eyes as well. We need to see and to embrace the fact that Jesus is our Savior and Redeemer. To see we need light. In the Second Reading from St. Paul's Letter to the Ephesians, Paul says, "Live as children of light, for light produces every kind of goodness and righteousness and truth." Is that not what our whole purpose in Lent is? To seek the light; to find an understanding of the Lord's place in our lives; to open our eyes; and to become Disciples of the Lord? We often make reference to the fact that we are called to be disciples. What does that mean? According to Pope Emeritus Benedict XVI, it meant, "Do not keep Christ to yourselves. Share with others the joy of your faith. The world needs the witness of your faith; it surely needs God." — See more at www.catholicsteward.com/blog/

Reflection on the Readings

The fourth Sunday of Lent is the second of our three Scrutiny Sundays. Aimed at those who are to be baptized at the Easter Vigil, as well as the already baptized, Scrutiny Sundays provide an opportunity to examine our lives in light of our baptismal commitment to be like Jesus. On these Sundays, we pray with the entire community, asking God to remove any and all obstacles on our journey to be like Christ.

John's gospel readings for these Sundays carry with them the strong baptismal themes of water, light and new life. The third Sunday focuses on the Samaritan woman at the well encountering the living water that only Jesus can give. The fourth Sunday speaks of the encounter between the blind man and Jesus, who restores both physical and spiritual sight so that we may come to know Jesus and follow him. The fifth Sunday recounts the story of the raising of Lazarus through the loving concern of Jesus, the giver of new life.

This Sunday's unnamed man born blind is the focus of our concern. Like the woman at the well yearning for living water, the blind man yearning to see is a symbol of the struggle involved in our faith journey. We think we see clearly but all sorts of things get in the way of our ability to see God's path. Rather we continually grope in the darkness of our own egos, agendas and concerns.

In the midst of this human predicament, Jesus approaches us the way he does the blind man and asks us to trust him by following his directions. If we are open to Jesus' direction and help we will come to see not merely superficially but deeply. Jesus will aid us in removing the scales from our eyes, mind and heart so that we can follow the path that leads to life.

As the story of the blind man unfolds, we come to realize that openness to Jesus involves constant difficulties, struggles, challenges and even rejections. Yet, these realities can become the occasion for deeper seeing and understanding, leading us to realize and encounter Jesus once more as our true source of sight. Once we understand and see this clearly, then we can relate to Jesus as he is, our savior and Lord.

Responsorial Psalm 23 invites us to affirm this clear vision of Jesus as our savior and Lord by inviting us to sing "The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want." The verses of Psalm 23 stress that assuring and deep experience that the unnamed blind man must have felt in the presence of Jesus. He came to believe that Jesus is that dependable source of sight, light and deeper understanding of life, no matter what life brings. With the psalmist and the blind man, we too proclaim that Jesus does indeed guide us to right paths and leads us ultimately to secure dwelling in God's house.

The first reading from 1 Samuel narrates the anointing of young David as the next king of Israel. The reading challenges us to see and discern people and events as God does, judging not from appearances but seeing into the heart. Such deep sight demands spiritual attunement to God along with a discipline that continually aligns our thoughts with God's thoughts. The second reading from the letter to the Ephesians calls us to live as "children of light" producing "every kind of goodness and righteousness and truth." In so doing, we will see as God sees.

Reflect on how you can discipline yourself this Lent by opening yourself to seeing the way God sees, and not the way we humans tend to see. This coming Sunday, pray with the "elect" and the "candidates" as they ask for new and deeper sight.

Biagio Mazza,
Pastoral Associate

Bible Study

Catholics are mostly exposed to the Bible through the Sunday Lectionary Readings. In order to help us all enter into the Bible through the Sunday readings, we are offering study sessions that will provide an opportunity to read, to study background to the readings, and to reflect on how to apply the readings to our lives. We will gather on March 26th and April 9th at 10:30am. All are welcome. Bring a Bible and a friend. To register for these sessions, please call Biagio at 816-979-3153.

Reflexión Sobre las Lecturas

El cuarto domingo de Cuaresma es el segundo de nuestros tres Domingos de Escrutinio. Dirigidos a los que van a ser bautizados en la Vigilia Pascual, así como a los ya bautizados, los Domingos de Escrutinio brindan la oportunidad de examinar nuestras vidas a la luz de nuestro compromiso bautismal de ser como Jesús. En estos domingos, oramos con toda la comunidad, pidiendo a Dios que elimine todos los obstáculos en nuestro camino para ser como Cristo.

Las lecturas del evangelio de Juan para estos domingos llevan consigo las temas bautismales del agua, la luz y la nueva vida. El tercer domingo se centra en la mujer samaritana en el pozo que encuentra el agua viva que sólo Jesús puede dar. El cuarto domingo habla del encuentro entre el ciego y Jesús, que restaura tanto la vista física como la espiritual, para que podamos llegar a conocer a Jesús y seguirlo. El quinto domingo narra la historia de la resurrección de Lázaro a través de la preocupación amorosa de Jesús, el dador de la nueva vida.

El hombre sin nombre, ciego desde el nacimiento de este domingo es el foco de nuestra preocupación. Como la mujer del pozo que desea el agua viva, el ciego que desea ver es un símbolo de la lucha implicada en nuestro viaje de la fe. Creemos que vemos claramente, pero muchas cosas se interponen en el camino de nuestra capacidad de ver el camino de Dios. Más bien, continuamente buscamos en la oscuridad de nuestros propios egos, agendas e inquietudes.

En medio de esta situación humana, Jesús se acerca a nosotros de la manera en que se acerca al ciego y nos pide que confiemos en él siguiendo sus instrucciones. Si estamos abiertos a la dirección y ayuda de Jesús, llegaremos a ver no sólo superficialmente, sino profundamente. Jesús nos ayudará a quitar las escamas de nuestros ojos, mente y corazón para que podamos seguir el camino que conduce a la vida.

Mientras se desarrolla la historia del ciego, nos damos cuenta de que al ser abiertos a Jesús implica dificultades, luchas, desafíos e incluso rechazos. Sin embargo, estas realidades pueden convertirse en la ocasión para ver y entender más profundamente, llevándonos a darnos cuenta y encontrarnos con Jesús una vez más como nuestra verdadera fuente de vista. Una vez que entendamos y vemos esto claramente, podemos relacionarnos con Jesús tal como es, nuestro salvador y Señor.

El Salmo responsorial 22 nos invita a afirmar esta visión clara de Jesús como nuestro Salvador y Señor invitándonos a cantar: "El Señor es mi pastor, nada me falta". Los versos del Salmo 22 enfatizan la experiencia profunda y que el hombre ciego sin nombre debe haber sentido en la presencia de Jesús. Él llegó a creer que Jesús es esa fuente fiable de la vista, la luz y la comprensión más profunda de la vida, no importa lo que la vida trae. Con el salmista y el ciego, también nosotros proclamamos que Jesús nos guía a caminos rectos y nos lleva finalmente a la vivienda segura en la casa de Dios.

La primera lectura de 1 Samuel narra la unción del joven David como el próximo rey de Israel. La lectura nos desafía a ver y discernir a las personas y los acontecimientos como Dios lo hace, juzgando no por las apariencias, sino viendo en el corazón. Tal visión profunda exige la sintonía espiritual con Dios, junto con una disciplina que alinea continuamente nuestros pensamientos con los pensamientos de Dios. La segunda lectura de la carta a los Efesios nos llama a vivir como "hijos de luz" produciendo "la bondad, la santidad y la verdad". Al hacerlo, veremos como Dios ve.

Reflexione sobre cómo puede disciplinarse a si mismo esta Cuaresma, abriéndose a ver la manera en que Dios ve, y no la forma en que los humanos tienden a ver. Este domingo, ore con los "elegidos" y los "candidatos" mientras piden una visión nueva y más profunda.

Biagio Mazza,
Asociado Pastoral

Renovaciones de DACA

La Acción Diferida para Llegadas de Niñez (DACA) debe renovarse cada dos años. Si tiene el estado DACA, tenga en cuenta que el proceso de renovación dura aproximadamente 7 meses. Consulte la siguiente cronología para asegurarse de renovar su DACA a tiempo:

1. Verifique la fecha de caducidad de su permiso de trabajo
2. Reúna pruebas de presencia en los Estados Unidos desde que solicitó su DACA
3. Ahorre dinero para el gasto administrativo y para un abogado

Procesar una renovación de DACA toma aproximadamente 6 meses. Para asegurar la renovación oportuna, 7 meses antes de su caducidad de DACA debe comenzar el proceso de renovación.
