St. Joseph Table: A huge thank you to our wonderful volunteers, youth community and parishioners who all helped to make this "come back" a great success. You baked your hearts out, lifted heavy boxes, served dinner and most importantly, joined together to raise money for those less fortunate. We cannot thank you all enough! We also thank our parish community for visiting the table and purchasing the many treats as well as enjoying dinner together. It wouldn't have been a success without you! With your help, we raised over $1,000! See page 3 for pictures.

We prayed, fasted and gave alms—and now we celebrate Easter joy! Our Lenten journey with CRS Rice Bowl ends as we encounter our Risen Lord. Don't forget to turn in your CRS Rice Bowl in the gathering space next weekend!

Guide Book and Directory Advertising

We have partnered with Guide Book Publishing to provide a Guide Book and Directory for our congregation that we will update and publish annually. This book is delivered directly to every member at no cost to our congregation. Local businesses are being solicited to advertise in the book, but we want to make sure our members have first access to prime locations in this directory. This is a great opportunity for your business because our members prefer to support businesses that support our congregation. Recent results of a survey taken by GBP show that 92.1% of families would rather patronize an advertiser over a non-advertiser and 70.9% consciously look to see who is advertising. If you are interested in advertising in our Guide Book and Directory, please call Kris at 816-979-3151.

Wellness Center

It's spring: the flowers are coming up, the sun is out, there is new life all around you.

This season is traditionally a time of new beginnings—a chance to refresh your outlook and your behaviors. New Year has come and gone, and let's face it, reviewing your goals and plans for life only once each year is not often enough. We need reminders, we need jump starts, we need the chance to review where we were, how far we've come, and what's left to do to get us where we want to be.

Here are 3 focus areas to get you back on track and add some spring to your steps.

Eating healthy foods is a sign that you want to take care of your body and you want to lead a long, energetic life. It's no easy task, especially for those constantly on the go. Add more veggies to your meals, introduce fruits as snacks instead of cookies, drink more water.

Exercising improves both physical and mental health. The endorphins released during a good walk or run spark creativity and give you the oomph you need for following through on tasks and improving your mood.

Sleep renews your body and your mind and gives you energy to get through the days and weeks.

On the most basic level, you can improve your health by choosing to spend more time outside, exposing yourself to more sunshine now that winter is over (no more winter blues!). Your body thrives on sunshine and fresh air, so don't deprive yourself of those elements. A journey begins with the first step, start small to change your habits.

Stewardship

"They both ran, but the other disciple ran faster than Peter and arrived at the tomb first; he bent down and saw the burial cloths there, but did not go in. When Simon Peter arrived after him, he went into the tomb and saw the burial cloths there, and the cloth that had covered his head, not with the burial cloths but rolled up in a separate place. Then the other disciple also went in, the one who had arrived at the tomb first, and he saw and believed. For they did not yet understand the Scripture that he had to rise from the dead."

Philippians 2: 6-8

Our Catholic Church considers today to be the holiest day of the year. For us as Catholics this celebrates one of the greatest days in history — when Jesus, the Son of God, defeated death and rose from the grave giving us all hope for eternal life. St. Pope John Paul II may have put it best several years ago when he proclaimed, "Do not abandon yourselves to despair. We are the Easter people and hallelujah is our song." — See more at www.catholicsteward.com/blog/

This Week's Do You Know Video:

Our DYK video this week concludes our 8 part series on how Christianity evolved from Judaism. Throughout the centuries, Christian attitude towards Jews and Judaism is full of hatred, rejection, persecution and murder. The Second Vatican Council, 1962-1965, affirmed that there is no legitimacy to hatred of Jews and Judaism, reversing centuries of hatred into a new vision of respect, understanding and dialogue with our Jewish brothers and sisters. This week's DYK video addresses the changes brought about by Vatican II regarding Christian relationship to Jews and Judaism. While still struggling with our past, the church challenges us to move forward seeking understanding, respect and mutual dialogue with Judaism. Again, do make some time to check out this week's video at www.stsabinaparish.org and click on the Do You Know Series link.

Reflection on the Readings

After Lenten fasting, praying and almsgiving, we find ourselves at Easter and the mystery of the empty tomb. Mary Magdalene, in today's gospel from John, is the first to discover the empty tomb. She does not understand what has happened and runs back to Peter with the assumption that someone had stolen the body of Jesus.

Peter and the beloved disciple who remains unnamed in the gospel run to see for themselves. The beloved disciple gets there first, sees the cloths but does not enter the tomb. When Peter arrives, he enters the empty tomb and sees the burial cloths, but, like Mary, does not seem to comprehend the reality of the empty tomb. The beloved disciple goes inside the empty tomb, sees and believes.

The mystery of the Resurrection confronts us today as it did the disciples of Jesus on that first Easter morning. What does Resurrection mean to us today as we renew our baptismal promises, recommitting ourselves to follow and be transformed by Jesus? Do we really believe that death is not the end and that new life, new meaning and eternal life are our true destiny? If we find this challenging, then we are not alone. The early followers of Jesus also “did not yet understand the Scripture that he had to rise from the dead.”

Despite the challenge of fully comprehending the mystery that is Resurrection, Responsorial Psalm 118 calls us to sing with joy for “This is the day the Lord has made; let us rejoice and be glad.” The other two readings, the first from the Acts of the Apostles and the second from the letter to the Colossians boldly proclaim the good news of the Resurrection, inviting us to “see and believe.”

Today, it is appropriate to ask ourselves if we have come to “see and believe” as the beloved disciple did. If so, then do we live our lives as if we understand and believe the marvelous, mysterious reality that is the Resurrection? Every Sunday is referred to as a “little Easter,” for we celebrate the passion, death and resurrection of Jesus.

Every time we celebrate Eucharist, we affirm our belief in the Easter paschal mystery, the reality that God can and does bring about new life and meaning from all the death and tomb experiences of our lives. God's raising of Jesus to new life is God's promise to us that in dying with Jesus, we too will rise with him to eternal life.

The Resurrection concretizes our hope that all the negative experiences of life can be brought to God, the God of life and not death. God will indeed transform them and us into a new life, new beings, and new creations. Do we really believe this?

Today, this Easter day, ask yourself what signs of resurrected life you have noticed in your encounters with life, nature, God and others? Where have you experienced “empty tombs” in your faith journey? When and where have you experienced new, unexpected and transformed life? When have death, misery, disappointment, and the negativity of life been transformed for you into new life, joy, enduring hope and a zest for life? Who has helped you come out of the various dark tombs of everyday life into the bright new light of a sun-filled day?

Today we proclaim that Jesus is risen among us. Our task as disciples is to grow in our ability to recognize the risen Lord among us. Having recognized the risen Lord in our midst, we venture forth in hope as we grow in greater awareness of what that recognition entails and demands. Ask God for new sight this day to “see and believe” that with God's help, new life can and does come out of death. Happy Easter to all.

Reflexión Sobre las Lecturas

Después del ayuno, la oración y la limosna Cuaresmal, nos encontramos en Pascua y en el misterio del sepulcro vacío. En el evangelio de hoy de Juan, María Magdalena es la primera en descubrir el sepulcro vacío. Ella no entiende lo que sucedió y vuelve corriendo a Pedro con la suposición de que alguien había robado el cuerpo de Jesús.

Pedro y el discípulo amado quien permanece sin nombre en el Evangelio corren para ver por sí mismos. El discípulo amado llega primero, ve las telas pero no entra al sepulcro. Cuando llega Pedro, entra al sepulcro vacío y ve las telas funerarias, pero, como María, no parece comprender la realidad del sepulcro vacío. El discípulo amado entra al interior del sepulcro vacío, ve y cree.

El misterio de la Resurrección nos confronta hoy como lo hizo a los discípulos de Jesús en esa primera mañana de Pascua. ¿Qué significa la Resurrección para nosotros hoy a medida que renovamos nuestras promesas bautismales, volviendo a comprometernos a seguir y ser transformados por Jesús? ¿Realmente creemos que la muerte no es el final y que la nueva vida, el nuevo significado y la vida eterna son nuestro verdadero destino? Si encontramos esto desafiante, entonces no estamos solos. Los primeros seguidores de Jesús "aún no habían entendido las Escrituras, según las cuales Jesús debía resucitar de entre los muertos".

A pesar del desafío de comprender completamente el misterio que es la Resurrección, el Salmo responsorial 117 nos llama a cantar con alegría porque "Este es el día en que actuó el Señor: sea nuestra alegría y nuestro gozo". Las otras dos lecturas, la primera de los Hechos de los Apóstoles y la segunda de la carta a los Colosenses, proclaman con audacia las buenas nuevas de la Resurrección y nos invitan a "ver y creer".

Hoy, es apropiado preguntarnos si hemos venido a "ver y creer" como lo hizo el discípulo amado. Si es así, ¿vivimos nuestras vidas como si entendiéramos y creyéramos la maravillosa y misteriosa realidad que es la Resurrección? Cada domingo es referido como una "pequeña Pascua", porque celebramos la pasión, la muerte y la resurrección de Jesús.

Cada vez que celebramos la Eucaristía, afirmamos nuestra creencia en el misterio pascual de la Pascua, la realidad de que Dios puede y trae una nueva vida y significado de todas las experiencias de muerte y del sepulcro de nuestras vidas. La resurrección de Jesús a una nueva vida es la promesa de Dios para nosotros de que al morir con Jesús, también nosotros resucitaremos con él a la vida eterna.

La Resurrección concreta nuestra esperanza de que todas las experiencias negativas de la vida puedan ser llevadas a Dios, el Dios de la vida y no la muerte. Dios ciertamente los transformará a ellos y a nosotros en una nueva vida, nuevos seres y nuevas creaciones. ¿Realmente creemos esto?

Hoy, este día de Pascua, pregúntese ¿cuales signos de vida resucitada ha notado en sus encuentros con la vida, la naturaleza, Dios y otros? ¿Dónde ha experimentado "sepulcros vacíos" en su camino de fe? ¿Cuándo y dónde ha experimentado una vida nueva, inesperada y transformada? ¿Cuándo la muerte, la desdicha, la desilusión y la negatividad de la vida se han transformado para usted a una nueva vida, alegría, esperanza perdurable y ganas de vivir? ¿Quién le ha ayudado a salir de las diversas tumbas oscuras de la vida cotidiana hacia la nueva y brillante luz de un día lleno de sol?

Hoy proclamamos que Jesús ha resucitado entre nosotros. Nuestra tarea como discípulos es crecer en nuestra capacidad de reconocer al Señor resucitado entre nosotros. Habiendo reconocido al Señor resucitado entre nosotros, nos aventuramos con esperanza mientras que adquirimos mayor conciencia de lo que ese reconocimiento implica y exige. Pídale a Dios una nueva visión este día para "ver y creer" que con la ayuda de Dios, una vida nueva puede y de hecho sale de la muerte. Felices Pascuas a todos.

Biagio Mazza, Asociado Pastoral

Información y Corresponsabilidad

¿Le Gustaría Anunciar Su Negocio?

Nos hemos asociado con la "Guide Book Publishing" para proporcionar un directorio y guía para nuestra comunidad parroquial que actualizaremos y publicaremos anualmente. Este libro se entrega directamente a cada miembro sin costo alguno. Se solicita a los negocios locales anunciarse en el directorio, pero queremos asegurarnos de que nuestros miembros tengan acceso primero a las ubicaciones principales de publicación en este directorio. Esta es una gran oportunidad para su negocio porque nuestros miembros prefieren apoyar a las empresas que apoyan a nuestra parroquia. Los resultados recientes de una encuesta realizada por GBP muestran que el 92.1% de las familias preferiría patrocinar a un anunciante que a un no-anunciante y el 70.9% busca quién anuncia. Si está interesado en anunciar en nuestra guía y directorio, llame a Kris al 816-979-3151.

Centro de Bienestar

Es la primavera: las flores están creciendo, el sol está afuera, hay vida nueva a su alrededor.

Esta temporada es tradicionalmente un tiempo de nuevos comienzos: una oportunidad para actualizar nuestras perspectivas y comportamientos. El Año Nuevo ha llegado y se ha ido, seamos sinceros, revisar nuestras metas y planes de vida solo una vez al año no es suficiente. Necesitamos recordatorios, necesitamos arranques rápidos, necesitamos la oportunidad de revisar dónde estábamos, qué tan lejos hemos llegado y qué queda por hacer para llevarnos a donde queremos llegar.

Aquí hay 3 áreas de enfoque para volver a la pista.

Comer alimentos saludables es una señal de que desea cuidar su cuerpo y desea llevar una vida larga y enérgica. No es una tarea fácil, especialmente para aquellos que están constantemente en movimiento. Agregue más verduras a sus comidas, introduzca frutas como bocadillos en lugar de galletas, beba más agua.

El ejercicio mejora la salud física y mental. Las endorfinas liberadas durante una buena caminata o una corrida despiertan la creatividad y le dan la fuerza que necesita para realizar tareas y mejorar su estado de ánimo.

El sueño renueva su cuerpo y mente y le da energía para pasar los días y las semanas.

En el nivel más básico, puede mejorar su salud al optar por pasar más tiempo al aire libre, exponiéndose a más sol ahora que el invierno ha terminado (¡no más melancolía invernal!). Su cuerpo prospera con la luz del sol y el aire fresco, así que no se prive de esos elementos. Un camino comienza con el primer paso, comience con algo pequeño para cambiar sus hábitos.
