Getting to Know Your Faith—The Psalms in the Sunday Lectionary

After a brief introduction to the Book of Psalms, this session for Getting to Know Your Faith will explore how the psalms are used in the Sunday Lectionary as well as how the psalms can be used for personal prayer and reflection. Take some time for yourself to explore this rich resource for both liturgical and personal prayer. We will meet on Monday, April 24 from 7-8:30 PM in the Parish Education Wing. Knights of Columbus Weekend - April 29-30

The Knights of Columbus is a world wide fraternal organization of Catholic men. They currently have a membership of over one million men. The local council has over 100 members.

The Knights of Columbus was founded in 1882 by Fr. Michael J McGivney. The basic principles of the Knights of Columbus are Charity, Unity, Fraternity and Patriotism. The greatest of these principles is Charity. There are four steps or degrees in the Knights of Columbus, and they are 1st, 2nd, 3rd and 4th degree. A member may progress as far as he wishes. There is an insurance and an annuity program available to members, if they wish to participate in it.

The Knights of Columbus sponsor several Parish activities such as breakfasts, Lenten Fish Fries, Mouse Races, to mention a few. All the proceeds from these activities go to support charitable organizations, local and national, and to help with the cost of some items needed by the Parish.

On the weekend of April 29-30, the Knights will be in our gathering space to promote their organization. If you wish to become a member, please take some time to talk with one of our Knights after Masses that weekend. Also, you can contact John Clark at 816-289-1421 or via email at clarkgk27@gmail.com, or you can contact Corey Morgan at cdean.morgan@gmail.com.

Thank you to Sheila Birkner who designed and created our new Easter banners. Thanks to Sandy Katzer who helped Sheila with this process. They are beautiful!

Thank you to all the music ministers and liturgical ministers who put in many extra hours to prepare for the special liturgies of Holy Week and Easter. It takes many people to fill all the special roles during these celebrations. Your time & dedication are greatly appreciated!

Stewardship

“They devoted themselves to the teaching of the apostles and to the communal life, to the breaking of bread and to the prayers. Awe came upon everyone, and many wonders and signs were done through the apostles. All who believed were together and had all things in common; they would sell their property and possessions and divide them among all according to each one's need.”

Acts 2: 42-45

This passage is often misunderstood in some ways. When it speaks of “communal life,” that term is based upon a brief translation of a Greek word which means much more than what it might seem. The Greek word is Koinonia (κοινωνία), which is a broad term meaning association, communion, fellowship, and joint participation. It means to share in something. This is an excellent example of stewardship which has meaning for us today. Our parish is a community, one in which we are all called to share and to participate. Koinonia identifies an almost ideal state of fellowship and unity which should exist in the Church, the Body of Christ. It should be more than just attending Mass. When we speak of stewardship, we understand that it means much more than placing something in the collection basket. It means that we share all of our gifts, our time and talent also, with the community and others in need. It will be difficult for us to ever match the sense of association and the joy of that early Church, but it is a model for us to which we as a faith community should aspire.— See more at www.catholicsteward.com/blog/

More good news for your Morning Joe

A new study in the Journal of the National Cancer Institute suggests that caffeinated coffee may help prevent malignant melanoma, the most dangerous form of skin cancer. Researchers found that people who regularly drank four or more cups (the equivalent of two Grandes at Starbucks) a day had on average a 25 percent lower risk of developing melanoma over the course of about ten years. One theory is that the roasting process produces vitamins that may protect against UVB damage. While decaf didn't show the same effect, another recent report linked drinking three to five cups (decaf or caffeinated) daily to a potential decrease in the risk of heart disease.

Reflection on the Readings

With the Vatican II revised Lectionary, the Sundays after Easter became the Sundays of Easter. The language change indicates that we celebrate Easter for fifty days, culminating the season with the feast of Pentecost. This time of great joy and rejoicing in Jesus' victory over sin and death is a reality that we affirm daily during the entire Easter season. Mercy and forgiveness belong to Lent. To Easter belongs the great joy of the risen Lord.

Psalm 118, the Easter psalm par excellence, calls us to "Give thanks to the Lord for he is good, his love is everlasting." Great joy and thanksgiving are the responses we make to the Lord whose love endures forever. With the psalmist we can joyfully sing, "This is the day the Lord has made, let us be glad and rejoice in it." This stance typifies our whole Easter attitude.

The first reading from Acts manifests the ideal community suffused with the presence of the Risen Lord. Such communities devote themselves to prayer, concern for others, attention to God's word and creating communities of salt and light by sharing with all. Such works of justice are the core of our life in the risen Christ. Reaching out to others in need with joy and sincerity of heart are what Easter demands. Any community that concretely lives out the Easter message of new life for all become magnets that attract others to the risen Lord.

The second reading, 1 Peter, encourages us to rejoice with "indescribable and glorious joy". We rejoice because in and through Jesus, God calls us to a deeper and more intimate relationship. Even though we have not seen the risen Lord, we believe. Our belief in the resurrected Lord is the source of that "glorious joy." No matter what life brings, no one can take that Easter joy from us.

John's gospel recounts how the risen Lord comes through the locked doors of our fears and breathes on us the gift of peace. Like the disciples, we too rejoice at seeing the risen Lord. Jesus further enhances our joy by commissioning us to be ministers of peace to all. This ministry can only be actualized when we commit ourselves to lives of reconciliation and forgiveness. If we truly want peace, then Jesus clearly calls us to lives of justice. Justice demands that we strive to restore human dignity and worth by reconciling with the stranger, the alien, the oppressed and the alienated. In so doing, we bring the peace and new life of the risen Lord to all who experience the darkness and despair of life.

Thomas was not there when the risen Lord appeared to the others. He does not believe in the presence of the risen Lord unless he sees and touches for himself. We all have a piece of Thomas within us. Like the community addressed in our second reading from 1 Peter, the challenge we face is in believing without seeing. Ultimately that is the heart of our Easter faith. We believe that the risen Lord is alive and active in our midst. We affirm with great joy that sin and death no longer have power over us. We commit ourselves to lives attuned to peace, justice and reconciliation. The risen Lord is gloriously triumphant. "This is the day the Lord has made, let us rejoice and be glad in it."

How will you live out your Easter joy this Easter season? How will you share the risen Lord's Easter peace with all you come into contact? How will your attitude manifest the reality that the risen Lord is present and active among us? What will you do to show that you are committed to a life of peace, justice and reconciliation? Much Easter joy to you.

Bible Study

Catholics are mostly exposed to the Bible through the Sunday Lectionary Readings. In order to help us all enter into the Bible through the Sunday readings, we are offering study sessions that will provide an opportunity to read, to study background to the readings, and to reflect on how to apply the readings to our lives. We will gather on April 23rd and May 7th at 10:30am. All are welcome. Bring a Bible and a friend. To register for these sessions, please call Biagio at 816-979-3153.

Reflexión Sobre las Lecturas

Con el Leccionario revisado del Vaticano II, los domingos después de Pascua se convirtieron en los domingos de Pascua. El cambio del lenguaje indica que celebramos la Pascua durante cincuenta días, culminando la temporada con el festivo de Pentecostés. Este tiempo de gran alegría y regocijo en la victoria de Jesús sobre el pecado y la muerte es una realidad que afirmamos diariamente durante toda la temporada de Pascua. La misericordia y el perdón pertenecen a la Cuaresma. A la Pascua pertenece la gran alegría del Señor resucitado.

El Salmo 117, el salmo de Pascua por excelencia, afirma que "la misericordia del Señor es eterna. Aleluya". Gran alegría es la respuesta que hacemos al Señor cuyo amor perdura para siempre. Con el salmista podemos cantar alegremente, "Este es el día de triunfo del Señor, día de júbilo y de gozo". Esta postura tipifica toda nuestra actitud Pascual.

La primera lectura de los Hechos manifiesta la comunidad ideal, impregnada de la presencia del Señor Resucitado. tales comunidades se dedican a la oración, a la preocupación por los demás, a la atención a la Palabra de Dios y a la creación de comunidades de sal y luz, compartiendo con todos. Tales obras de justicia son el núcleo de nuestra vida en el Cristo resucitado. Alcanzar a otros en necesidad con alegría y sinceridad de corazón son lo que exige la Pascua. Cualquier comunidad que vive concretamente el mensaje Pascual de una nueva vida para todos se convierten en imanes que atraen a otros al Señor resucitado.

La segunda lectura, 1 Pedro, nos anima a regocijarnos con "una alegría radiante e indescriptible". Nos regocijamos porque en y por medio de Jesús, Dios nos llama a una relación más profunda y más íntima. Aunque no hemos visto al Señor resucitado, creemos. Nuestra creencia en el Señor resucitado es la fuente de esa "alegría radiante". No importa lo que traiga la vida, nadie nos puede quitar esa alegría Pascual.

El evangelio de Juan relata cómo el Señor resucitado viene a través de las puertas cerradas de nuestros miedos y respira sobre nosotros el don de la paz. Como los discípulos, también nosotros nos regocijamos al ver al Señor resucitado. Jesús enriquece aún más nuestra alegría al encomendarnos a ser ministros de la paz para todos. Este ministerio sólo puede ser actualizado cuando nos comprometemos a una vida de la reconciliación y el perdón. Si realmente queremos la paz, entonces Jesús claramente nos llama a vivir vidas de la justicia. La justicia exige que nos esforcemos por restablecer la dignidad y el valor humano al reconciliarnos con el desconocido, el extranjero, el oprimido y el alienado. Al hacerlo, traemos la paz y la nueva vida del Señor resucitado a todos los que experimentan la oscuridad y la desesperación de la vida.

Tomás no estuvo cuando el Señor resucitado se apareció a los otros. Él no cree en la presencia del Señor resucitado a menos que vea y toque por sí mismo. Todos tenemos un pedazo de Tomás dentro de nosotros. Como la comunidad en nuestra segunda lectura de 1 Pedro, el desafío que enfrentamos es creer sin ver. En última instancia, ese es el corazón de nuestra fe Pascual. Creemos que el Señor resucitado está vivo y activo entre nosotros. Afirmamos con gran alegría que el pecado y la muerte ya no tienen poder sobre nosotros. Nos comprometemos a vivir en sintonía con la paz, la justicia y la reconciliación. El Señor resucitado es gloriosamente triunfante. "Este es el día de triunfo del Señor, día de júbilo y de gozo".

¿Cómo vivirá su alegría Pascual en esta temporada de Pascua? ¿Cómo compartirá la paz de Pascua del Señor resucitado con todos? ¿Cómo manifestará su actitud la realidad de que el Señor resucitado está presente y activo entre nosotros? ¿Qué hará para demostrar que está comprometido a una vida de paz, justicia y reconciliación? Le deseo mucha alegría Pascual.

Asociado Pastoral
