Child Safety

The Diocese of Kansas City-St. Joseph is committed to combatting sexual abuse in the Church. If you are a victim of sexual abuse, or if you observe or suspect sexual abuse:

1. Call the Missouri Child Abuse Hotline at 1.800.392.3738 (if the victim is currently under the age of 18), and
2. Contact your local law enforcement agency or call 911, and
3. After reporting to these civil and law enforcement authorities, report suspected sexual abuse of a minor or vulnerable adult to the Ombudsman, Joe Crayon, at 816.812.2500 or crayon@ombudsmankcsj.org if the abuse involves a priest, deacon, employee or volunteer of the Diocese of Kansas City-St. Joseph.

The Diocese has a sincere commitment to providing care and healing resources to victims of sexual abuse and their families. Please contact Whitney True-Francis, Victim Assistance Coordinator, at 816.392.0011 or true.francis@diocesekcsj.org for more information.

All volunteers with youth and children must attend one Protecting God's Children workshop, submit to a background check and sign the policy on Ethics and Integrity in Ministry, (EIM). More info at <https://kcsj catholic.org/the-office-of-child-and-youth-protection/>.

This Week's Do You Know Video:

As we celebrate the Easter Season, it is good to reflect on what it means when we claim to be believers in Christ's Resurrection. In raising Jesus up, God affirmed Jesus' values, and lifestyle. The Risen Christ thus becomes the ultimate model of what it means to be a disciple and a member of God's family. Resurrection is not just a doctrine to be believed but a reality to be lived, exemplified by the early followers of Jesus in the Acts of the Apostles, the Lectionary readings for the Easter season. Resurrection people show care and concern for all, are welcoming of all, are countercultural, fight injustice, hatred, prejudice and violence, tear down walls and always strive to build up the reign of God which Jesus proclaimed. Make time to view this week's DYK video and delve into more of what it means to be resurrection people.

En Nuestro Video ¿Sabes...? de Esta Semana:

Mientras celebramos la Temporada Pascual, es bueno reflexionar sobre lo que significa cuando afirmamos ser creyentes en la Resurrección de Cristo. Al resucitar a Jesús, Dios afirmó los valores y el estilo de vida de Jesús. Cristo Resucitado se convierte así en el modelo último de lo que significa ser discípulo y miembro de la familia de Dios. La resurrección no es solo una doctrina para creer, sino una realidad para vivir, ejemplificada por los primeros seguidores de Jesús en los Hechos de los Apóstoles, las lecturas del Leccionario para la temporada de Pascua. El pueblo de la resurrección muestra cuidado y preocupación por todos, son acogedores para todos, son contraculturales, luchan contra la injusticia, el odio, el prejuicio y la violencia, derriban muros y se esfuerzan siempre por construir el reino de Dios que Jesús proclamó. Tómese un momento para ver el video ¿Sabes? de esta semana y profundice más sobre lo que significa ser un pueblo de la resurrección.

Did You Know—It takes 20 minutes for your stomach to tell your brain that you are full. The challenging part is figuring out whether it is your body that needs to be fed or if it's your mind playing tricks on you. Here are some internal and external cues you can use to help decipher the messages.

Internal Cues for Hunger—

- ◆ Your stomach growls
- ◆ Your body feels weak and you have no energy
- ◆ You may become moody or dizzy

External Cues for Hunger—

- ◆ Boredom; watching TV, passing your favorite restaurant or nibbling at parties

Now you know the internal and external cues for hunger. Here are some tips for how to manage your hunger—

- ◆ Don't let yourself get too hungry before you eat.
- ◆ Avoid overeating at mealtimes
- ◆ Slow down when eating
- ◆ Don't skip meals, especially breakfast
- ◆ Include small snacks between meals
- ◆ Pause in the middle of a meal or snack and check in with yourself

beliefs and traditions as Jews. Yet they trusted that Jesus' wisdom and guidance was still operative among them in the presence and power of the Spirit.

After much deliberation and consultation they proclaimed that "It is the decision of the Holy Spirit and of us..." This bold proclamation was only possible because they believed and trusted that Jesus did not leave them orphan, and that the Spirit was present as they deliberated according to Jesus' values and modeling.

The second reading from the book of Revelation stresses this rich presence of God in powerful symbolic language. The New Jerusalem that was introduced in last week's reading is pictured without a temple and without sun or moon. This would have been shocking language to any Jew since the temple was the very heart of the city, the focus and center of its ritual and religious practice. But, with Jesus, we have a new focus to the city of Jerusalem. The Lord God and the Lamb, the risen Lord, are its temple, and the glory of God and the Lamb are its light and lamp. The image clearly stresses that God dwells with us, guiding and sustaining us with glory and power.

Such indwelling of God with us through the presence of the Spirit assures us of continued guidance, wisdom and power. With the psalmist we call upon all the nations to realize and acknowledge God's presence with all people as we join together to joyously sing the refrain of Responsorial Psalm 67, "O God, let all the nations praise you!"

We too, who often struggle in our commitment to "keep" Jesus' word and carry on his vision and mission, should trust and believe that Jesus is always with us, our true light and lamp. In returning to the Father, Jesus has gifted us with the discerning power of the Spirit who will help and guide us in our decision making. The Advocate is what makes Jesus present to us in new and different situations, always helping us put into practice what Jesus would have done and said if Jesus were still physically present with us.

As we prepare for the coming of the Spirit at Pentecost, reflect on how the Spirit is operative in your daily life, guiding your path and enlightening your way.

Biagio Mazza
Pastoral Associate

As we approach the feast of Pentecost and bring closure to the Easter season, our readings focus on the new way that the earthly Jesus will be always with us. It may seem ironic that in the Easter season we select readings from John's gospel concerning Jesus farewell discourse to his followers at the last supper. Here, Jesus speaks most clearly about his passage from this life to the next, and consequently his different way of being present with us. That presence is concretized in the gift of the Spirit, the Advocate, whom God will send to teach and remind Jesus' followers of all that Jesus had told them.

Leaving and departure is difficult for all parties concerned. Jesus assures his followers that his peace will be gifted to them through the presence of the Spirit. He reminds them that love involves keeping "my word." To keep Jesus' word is to trust that whatever Jesus said and did is a reliable guide for life and relationship.

This does not mean that worries, concerns and conflicts will not arise. Think of the major conflict that faced the early followers of Jesus in today's first reading from Acts. They faced a very difficult decision concerning how to invite and welcome non-Jewish persons as followers of a Jewish Jesus. Such a major step must have challenged them to the very core of their identity,

Sunday, May 22

1st Reading: Acts 15:1-2, 22-29

Psalm: Psalm 67:2-3, 5, 6, 8 (4)

2nd Reading: Revelation 21:10-14, 22-23

Gospel: John 14:23-29

Sunday, May 29

1st Reading: Acts 1:1-11

Psalm: Psalm 47:2-3, 6-7, 8-9 (6)

2nd Reading: Ephesians 1:17-23

Gospel: Luke 24:46-53

Ya que nos acercamos a la fiesta de Pentecostés y cerramos la temporada de Pascua, nuestras lecturas se centran en la nueva forma en que el Jesús terrenal siempre estará con nosotros. Puede parecer irónico que en la temporada de Pascua seleccionemos las lecturas del evangelio de Juan sobre el discurso de despedida de Jesús a sus seguidores en la última cena. Aquí, Jesús habla más claramente acerca de su paso de esta vida a la siguiente, y en consecuencia su manera diferente de estar presente con nosotros. Esa presencia se concreta en el don del Espíritu, el Consolador, a quien Dios enviará para enseñar y recordar a los seguidores de Jesús todo lo que Jesús les había dicho.

La partida y la salida son difíciles para todas las partes involucradas. Jesús asegura a sus seguidores que su paz les será otorgada a través de la presencia del Espíritu. Les recuerda que el amor implica mantener "mi palabra". Mantener la palabra de Jesús es confiar en que todo lo que Jesús dijo e hizo es una guía confiable para la vida y las relaciones.

Esto no significa que no surjan preocupaciones y conflictos. Piense en el conflicto principal que enfrentaron los primeros seguidores de Jesús en la primera lectura de hoy de los Hechos. Se enfrentaron a una decisión muy difícil con respecto a cómo invitar y dar la bienvenida a personas no judías como seguidores de un Jesús judío. Un paso tan importante debe haberlos desafiado hasta el núcleo de su identidad, creencias y tradiciones como judíos. Sin embargo, confiaban en que la sabiduría y la guía de Jesús todavía operaban entre ellos en la presencia y el poder del Espíritu.

Después de mucha deliberación y consulta, proclamaron que "el Espíritu Santo y nosotros hemos decidido..." Esta proclamación audaz solo fue posible porque creyeron y confiaron en que Jesús no los dejó huérfanos, y que el Espíritu estaba presente mientras deliberaron de acuerdo con los valores y el modelo de Jesús.

La segunda lectura del libro de Apocalipsis enfatiza esta presencia rica de Dios en un lenguaje simbólico poderoso. La Nueva Jerusalén que se introdujo en la lectura de la semana pasada se representa sin un templo y sin sol ni luna. Esto habría sido un lenguaje impactante para cualquier judío, ya que el templo era el corazón de la ciudad, el foco y el centro de su práctica ritual y religiosa. Pero, con Jesús, tenemos un nuevo enfoque en la ciudad de Jerusalén. El Señor Dios y el Cordero, el Señor resucitado, son su templo, y la gloria de Dios y el Cordero son su luz y lumbrera. La imagen destaca claramente que Dios mora con nosotros, guiándonos y sosteniéndonos con gloria y poder.

Tal morada de Dios con nosotros a través de la presencia del Espíritu nos asegura una guía, sabiduría y poder continua. Con el salmista hacemos un llamado a todas las naciones para que realicen y reconozcan la presencia de Dios con todas las personas cuando nos unamos para cantar con alegría el estribillo del Salmo responsorial 67: "Oh Dios, que te alaben los pueblos, que todos los pueblos te alaben."

Nosotros también, quienes muchas veces luchamos en nuestro compromiso de "mantener" la palabra de Jesús y continuar con su visión y misión, debemos confiar y creer que Jesús siempre está con nosotros, nuestra verdadera luz y lumbrera. Al regresar al Padre, Jesús nos ha regalado el poder discernidor del Espíritu que nos ayudará y guiará en nuestra toma de decisiones. El Consolador es lo que hace que Jesús se presente en situaciones nuevas y diferentes, siempre nos ayuda a poner en práctica lo que Jesús habría hecho y dicho si Jesús todavía estuviera físicamente presente con nosotros.

Mientras nos preparamos para la venida del Espíritu en Pentecostés, reflexione sobre cómo el Espíritu opera en su vida diaria, guiando su camino e iluminando su camino.

Putting your Faith into Action

When Blessed Michael McGivney founded the Knight of Columbus in 1882, many of its first members were like father McGivney-the children of immigrants, or immigrants themselves. The Order's main goal was to help each other to satisfy the physical and spiritual needs of families regardless of the language or cultural differences. Today, our church is the home of so many cultures and immigrants, just like the early days of the Knights of Columbus, which gives our parish an incredible opportunity. Now is time to overcome our differences and come together as one with a vision of charity, a commitment to unity, and the bond of fraternity. Our multicultural community will help our future generations develop and grow the "Body of Christ".

What does it mean to be a Knight of Columbus? Supporting our parish, serving our community, and growing in faith are ingrained in our order from the very beginning. This is the organization that serves as an instrument to feed our spirit, to get us closer to God, and helps you be a man of God, an excellent father, a loving husband, and a good neighbor.

We may be different, but how do we all benefit from it? Each of us, regardless of our origin or language, bring diversity, rich gifts, and traditions to our church that open endless opportunities. Through our faith in Christ, our biggest challenges are faced with hope and solidarity as we stand arm in arm with the Holy Spirit. This is our fraternal commitment in the Knights of Columbus.

My Saint Sabina Brothers, we invite you to join the Knights of Columbus in our parish. Together we can grow spiritually with Our Virgen de Guadalupe and create a legacy for future generations. Imagine the possibilities!

Poniendo Tu Fe en Acción

Desde el comienzo de los Caballeros de Colon en el 1882 por el venerado Michael McGivney, muchos de sus primeros miembros fueron, incluyendo el Padre McGivney, hijos de inmigrantes. El objetivo principal de la Orden consistía en ayudar el uno al otro para satisfacer las necesidades físicas y espirituales de las familias sin importar las diferencias de lenguaje y cultura. Hoy, nuestra parroquia hospeda muchas culturas e inmigrantes como en los primeros días de los Caballeros de Colon lo cual provee grandes oportunidades en nuestra parroquia. Ahora es el tiempo de sobreponer nuestras diferencias y unimos en Uno con la visión de caridad, el compromiso a la unidad, y el enlace fraternal. Nuestra comunidad multicultural nos ayudara a desarrollar nuevas generaciones y a crecer en el cuerpo de Cristo.

¿Que significa ser un Caballero de Colon? Desde el comienzo, nuestra Orden provee respaldo a la iglesia, sirve a la comunidad, y crece en le Espíritu de Fe. Esta organización sirve como instrumento que nos alimenta y nos trae cerca a Dios y nos permite hacer todo y ayudar a ser hombres de Dios, excelente padres, esposos amorosos, y buenos vecinos.

Tal vez somos diferentes pero, ¿como nos beneficiamos? Cada uno de nosotros, sin importar nuestro origen o lenguaje, trae diversidad, regalos de Dios, y tradiciones a nuestra iglesia que abren oportunidades interminables. A través de nuestra Fe en Cristo, confrontamos obstáculos enormes con Esperanza y solidaridad cimentado en el Espíritu Santo. Esta es la dedicación fraternal de los Caballeros de Colon.

Mis hermanos de Santa Sabina, únete a los Caballeros de Colon en nuestra parroquia. Juntos podemos crecer espiritualmente con la ayuda de Nuestra Virgen de Guadalupe, y crear una herencia para generaciones futuras. Imagina las oportunidades!

"Jesus said to his disciples: 'Whoever loves me will keep my word, and my Father will love him, and we will come to him and make our dwelling with him. Whoever does not love me does not keep my words; yet the word you hear is not mine but that of the Father who sent me.'"

John 14:23-24

How does one show hospitality to God? How do we make God "at home and at ease" within us? How can we communicate to God that He is "highly valued" by us? Jesus tells us how: we are to keep His word, to follow His teachings. To keep His word, we must know His word. This takes discipline and effort on our part. We must make the study of Scripture and Church teaching a priority in our daily lives. If we want our parish to be a place of genuine Christian hospitality, we must be sure that our own hearts are hospitable dwelling places for the Blessed Trinity. Then our smiles and words, our greetings and ministries will radiate with the warmth of God's love. And our parish family will become at least a little bit like Heaven on earth. This is the simplicity and glory of a stewardship way of life.

"En aquel tiempo, Jesús dijo a sus discípulos: 'El que me ama, cumplirá mi palabra y mi Padre lo amará y haremos en él nuestra morada. El que no me ama no cumplirá mis palabras. La palabra que están oyendo no es mía, sino del Padre, que me envió.'"

Juan 14:23-24

¿Cómo se muestra hospitalidad a Dios? ¿Cómo hacemos que Dios esté "en casa y cómodo" dentro de nosotros? ¿Cómo podemos comunicarle a Dios que Él es "muy valorado" por nosotros? Jesús nos dice cómo: debemos seguir Su palabra, seguir Sus enseñanzas. Para seguir Su palabra, debemos conocer Su palabra. Esto requiere disciplina y esfuerzo de nuestra parte. Debemos hacer prioridad en nuestra vida diaria el estudio de las Escrituras y la enseñanza de la Iglesia. Si queremos que nuestra parroquia sea un lugar de hospitalidad cristiana y genuina, debemos estar seguros de que nuestros propios corazones son moradas hospitalarias para la Santísima Trinidad. Entonces nuestras sonrisas y palabras, nuestros saludos y ministerios irradiarán el calor del amor de Dios. Y nuestra familia parroquial llegará a ser por lo menos un poco como el Cielo en la tierra. Esta es la sencillez y la gloria de un estilo de vida de corresponsabilidad.

Consider Making a Bequest to St. Sabina

There are no small gifts in the eyes of our Lord. A bequest of any size is an ultimate expression of stewardship and demonstrates your appreciation for the gifts you have received. To leave your parish a bequest, make sure your intentions are understood by providing as much identifying information as possible. Contact Kris at kris@stsabinaparish.org for more information.

For Those Needing Help in Their Marriage

The word Retrouvaille™ (pronounced re-tro-vi with a long i.) is a French word meaning rediscovery. The Retrouvaille program offers tools needed to rediscover a loving marriage relationship. Thousands of couples headed for cold, unloving relationships or divorce have successfully overcome their marriage problems by attending this program. The Retrouvaille Program consists of an initial overnight weekend phase combined with a series of 6 post-sessions held over the following 3 months. It provides the tools to help put your marriage in order again. Next Weekend: June 10-12th: Savior Pastoral Center, Kansas City, KS. Learn more at www.helpourmarriage.org.

Have You Considered a Vocation to the Priesthood?

Vocation Discernment Nights

Every third Thursday of the month, Associate Director of the Vocations Office, Mark Sappington, hosts a monthly Discernment Night at Our Lady of Good Counsel Parish. These nights have a standing open invite to men who wish to discern their vocation from the Lord and would like the fraternity and prayers of their brothers to help them do so. The nights begin with Eucharist Adoration and prayer, followed by dinner and fraternal community with those present. These nights are meant to build fraternity, faith, and aid in discernment. Mark is eager to accompany men in their relationship with God and Church, and to assist them in hearing our Lord's call. If you are interested in attending and discerning, you can reach Mark at sappington@diocesekcsj.org. You can also contact the Vocations Office Manager Katie Lucas for more information at lucas@diocesekcsj.org

Considere Hacer un Legado a Santa Sabina

No hay regalos pequeños a los ojos de nuestro Señor. Un legado de cualquier tamaño es la máxima expresión de corresponsabilidad y demuestra su aprecio por los regalos que ha recibido. Para dejar un legado a su parroquia, asegúrese de que se entiendan sus intenciones proporcionando tanta información de identificación como sea posible. Póngase en contacto con Kris en kris@stsabinaparish.org para obtener más información.

¿Ha Considerado una Vocación al Sacerdocio?

Noches de Discernimiento Vocacional

Cada tercer jueves del mes, el Director Asociado de la Oficina de Vocaciones, Mark Sappington, organiza una Noche de Discernimiento en la Parroquia de Our Lady of Good Counsel. Estas noches tienen una invitación abierta permanente a los hombres que deseen discernir su vocación del Señor y deseen que la fraternidad y la oración de sus hermanos les ayuden a hacerlo. Las noches comienzan con la Adoración Eucarística y la oración, seguida de la cena y comunidad fraterna con los presentes. Estas noches están destinadas a construir la fraternidad, la fe y ayudar al discernimiento. Mark desea acompañar a los hombres en su relación con Dios y la Iglesia, y ayudarlos a escuchar el llamado de nuestro Señor. Si está interesado en asistir y discernir, puede comunicarse con Mark en sappington@diocesekcsj.org (ingles). También puede comunicarse con la Gerente de la Oficina de Vocaciones Katie Lucas para obtener más información en lucas@diocesekcsj.org (ingles).

Green Team Tip of the Week

Textiles have become the second largest waste stream into landfills as a result of fast fashion, irresponsible purchasing habits, and over-consumption. In 2018 alone, 17,000 million tons of textiles were generated and more than 11,000 million tons wound up in landfills!

Consejo de la Semana del Equipo de Ecología

Los textiles se han convertido en el segundo flujo de desechos más grande que termina en los vertederos como resultado de la moda rápida, los hábitos de compra irresponsables y el consumo excesivo. ¡Solo en 2018 se generaron 17,000 millones de toneladas de textiles y más de 11,000 millones de toneladas terminaron en vertederos!

Altar Server Training

St. Sabina's desperately needs more altar servers at all Mass times.

Training for new altar servers will be on Mondays June 6, 13 & 20 at 7:00 PM in the church. Parish youth aged 3rd grade and up are encouraged to train as altar servers. Serving at Mass is a great way for parish youth to become actively involved at church. But serving is not limited to youth. Adults are also welcomed to serve at weekend Masses.

Why be an altar server?

This is an important ministry to our parish, and a great way young people can actively do something that has real meaning at church. Being a server helps us learn more about Mass and can lead us to a deeper relationship with God. When we take an active role at church, we become more connected to our faith and to our parish family. This can have a great meaning in our lives!

You may sign up for training by returning the bottom portion of the flyer that is in the gathering space. Or, you may sign up on the website at www.stsabinaparish.org and click "New Server Training Registration." Or, simply contact Susan Ratigan in the parish office at 979-3158 or susan@stsabinaparish.org.

Se te Necesita como

Servidor del Altar

¿Qué hace un servidor del altar?

- ♦ Asiste al sacerdote y diácono en la Misa
- ♦ Prepara el altar
- ♦ Enciende las velas
- ♦ Maneja artículos especiales usados durante la Misa

¿Por qué ser Servidor del Altar?

Algunas razones son convenientes...

- ♦ Te sientas en el primer asiento
- ♦ Te veras muy bien con esa túnica blanca

Pero lo más importante...

- ♦ Marcarás la diferencia realizando un importante ministerio
- ♦ Te convertirás en un líder en nuestra parroquia
- ♦ Aprenderás mucho más sobre la Misa y eso significará mucho para ti.
- ♦ Ya que sirves a Dios en el altar, también aprenderás a servir a otros.

¡Planifique asistir a las sesiones de capacitación!

Junio 7, 8, 14 y 15 de 7:00-8:30 pm. en la iglesia

Los niños y niñas que ya hayan recibido su primera comunión están invitados a inscribirse completando el formulario a continuación y devolviéndoselo a Gerardo Arenivas
