This Week's Do You Know Video:

As we continue our series on the History of the Mass, this week's video addresses the church's response to the Reformation, especially in the area of liturgy and worship. For many reasons, it took a long time for the church to respond to the call of the reformers. The Council of Trent, 1545-1563, attempted to tackle both the pastoral and doctrinal issues surfaced by the reformers. While listening to and addressing many of the pastoral issues, Trent took a more adversarial stance regarding the doctrinal issues, often doing the opposite of what the reformers were calling for. Many of those doctrinal issues were related to the mass, to worship and to the liturgical life of the community. These are the issues addressed in this week's DYK video. To find out more, make time to check out this week's video at www.stsabinaparish.org and click on the Do You Know Series link.

Sunday Catholic Mass Online

Heart of the Nation televises Sunday Catholic Mass on KMCI channel 38 ("The Spot") at 7:00am on Sundays. Please share this with friends or family members who are unable to get to church because of age, illness, or other struggles.

Congratulations to Aiden, son of TJ and Niki, who was baptized last Sunday at the 10:30 Mass!

Stewardship

"Then Jesus approached and said to them, 'All power in heaven and on earth has been given to me. Go, therefore, and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you. And behold, I am with you always, until the end of the age.'"

Matthew 28: 18-20

We consider the Holy Trinity to be one of the great mysteries in the Church. It is the mystery of the identity of God. Who is God? God is one God in three Divine Persons — the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit. Whether we are aware of this consciously or not, this is something each of us acknowledges in a number of ways, especially when we go to Mass. Every time we make the Sign of the Cross, we are making a statement about the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit. There are so many times before, during, and after Mass when we make the sign of the cross, and there may be other times in our daily lives when we do it. Pope Francis has said, "Every time we make the sign of the cross, we draw closer to God." — See more at www.catholicsteward.com/blog/

Tax and Estate Planning

Use tax and estate planning as a way to share God's blessings with your parish ministries and those that they serve. Under the new tax law, the standard deduction threshold increased to $12,000 for an individual and $24,000 for a couple.

- Pick a target year to itemize and bundle your charitable gifts to exceed the threshold.
- Create a donor advised fund with a large charitable contribution that exceeds the threshold.

The limitation on deductions for charitable contributions increased from 50% to 60% of adjusted gross income. If you can afford to forego the income, help grow your parish and its ministries.

Reflection on the Readings

With the feast of Pentecost the fifty days of the Easter Season come to a close and the Season of Ordinary Time becomes operative once again till the first Sunday of Advent. Holy Trinity Sunday is part of Ordinary Time and helps focus attention on the fullness of revelation that has occurred through the Easter mysteries. The fullness of our God, Father, Son and Spirit, has been made known to us through Jesus. The rest of the liturgical year is devoted to deepening our relationship and love commitment with our God. The refrain from Responsorial Psalm 33 "Blessed the people the Lord has chosen to be his own," calls us to realize the depth of this love relationship with our God.

The Trinity brings us in touch with mystery. Mystery can be understood as something we will never be able to explain so why bother. Or it can be looked upon as something that is "infinitely explainable." What exactly would that mean? This statement takes seriously the fact that we are living, thinking people who want our values and beliefs to mean something. If this is so, then we must say something, however inadequate, about things that we will never be able to totally or exhaustively comprehend. Mysteries should never stop us from attempting to make sense of those realities and how they impact our lives.

Do our readings help us get a handle on the mystery that we celebrate this Sunday? Yes and no. That is always the reality when talking about mysteries. The doctrine of the Trinity is more implicit than explicit in the Scriptures. While the references to Father, Son and Spirit are there, it took centuries for the Christian community to articulate the meaning, understanding and belief that we attribute to the Trinity today, namely three persons in one God. We continually affirm the oneness of God expressed in the three-ness of persons. But what does all this mean?

The first reading from Deuteronomy has Moses remind the people of their special relationship with God which God initiated by drawing close to humanity in love and intimacy. Such freely given intimacy and love demand a response from all. Will the people freely respond or will they choose not to? That is the challenge God's love presents to all humanity.

The second reading from Romans speaks of God's love manifested through the Spirit, drawing us close to God expressed in terms of loving familial relationship. We become sons and daughters of God, enabling us to call upon God as our loving father, who cares for us in good times and in bad. Paul affirms that through God's Spirit we become "joint heirs with Christ," so wonderfully does God love us. All of Christ's inheritance is freely ours, for we are all brothers and sisters in Christ.

Matthew's gospel speaks of the final commissioning of Jesus' followers to evangelize in the name of the Father, Son, and Spirit. The Trinity, here in seed form, will eventually blossom into the fullness and equality of God-with-us. The communal nature of God is something we live out and proclaim with conviction to all we come across. That communal nature calls us forth to love all humanity as we love the members of our family.

What meaning and significance does the One-God in three persons have for your life as a follower of Jesus who has been baptized in the Spirit? How does the communal nature of the Trinity help you to understand the communal nature of our relationship with all humanity? This week, make time to build community wherever you are.

Reflexión Sobre las Lecturas

Con la fiesta de Pentecostés, los cincuenta días de la temporada de Pascua llegan a su fin y la Temporada del Tiempo Ordinario vuelve a estar operativa hasta el primer domingo de Adviento. El Domingo de la Santísima Trinidad es parte del Tiempo Ordinario y ayuda a enfocar la atención en la plenitud de la revelación que ha ocurrido a través de los misterios de Pascua. La plenitud de nuestro Dios, Padre, Hijo y Espíritu, se nos ha hecho saber a través de Jesús. El resto del año litúrgico está dedicado a profundizar nuestra relación y compromiso de amor con nuestro Dios. El estribillo del Salmo responsorial 32 "Dichoso el pueblo que el Señor se escogió como heredad" nos llama a darnos cuenta de la profundidad de esta relación de amor con nuestro Dios.

La Trinidad nos pone en contacto con el misterio. El misterio se puede entender como algo que nunca podremos explicar, entonces, ¿para qué molestarse? O se puede considerar como algo que es "infinitamente explicable". ¿Qué significa eso exactamente? Esta declaración toma en serio el hecho de que somos personas vivientes y pensantes que queremos que nuestros valores y creencias signifiquen algo. Si esto es así, entonces debemos decir algo, por inadecuado que sea, sobre cosas que nunca podremos comprender totalmente o exhaustivamente. Los misterios nunca deben detenernos de tratar de dar sentido a esas realidades y cómo afectan nuestras vidas.

¿Nuestras lecturas nos ayudan a entender el misterio que celebramos este domingo? Si y no. Esa es siempre la realidad cuando se habla de misterios. La doctrina de la Trinidad es más implícita que explícita en las Escrituras. Mientras que las referencias al Padre, al Hijo y al Espíritu están ahí, le tomó siglos a la comunidad cristiana articular el significado, la comprensión y la creencia que atribuimos a la Trinidad hoy, es decir, tres personas en un solo Dios. Continuamente afirmamos la unidad de Dios expresada en la trinidad de personas. Pero ¿que significa todo esto?

La primera lectura de Deuteronomio hace que Moisés le recuerde a la gente su relación especial con Dios que Dios inició acercándose a la humanidad en amor e intimidad. Tal intimidad y amor libremente dados exigen una respuesta de todos. ¿La gente responderá libremente o elegirá no hacerlo? Ese es el desafío que el amor de Dios presenta a toda la humanidad.

La segunda lectura de Romanos habla del amor de Dios manifestado a través del Espíritu, acercándonos a Dios expresado en términos de una relación familiar amorosa. Nos convertimos en hijos e hijas de Dios, lo que nos permite invocar a Dios como nuestro padre amoroso, que se preocupa por nosotros en los buenos tiempos y en los malos. Pablo afirma que a través del Espíritu de Dios nos convertimos en "coherederos con Cristo", así que maravillosamente Dios nos ama. Toda la herencia de Cristo es libremente nuestra, porque todos somos hermanos y hermanas en Cristo.

El evangelio de Mateo habla de la comisión final de los seguidores de Jesús para evangelizar en el nombre del Padre, Hijo y Espíritu. La Trinidad, aquí en forma de semilla, eventualmente florecerá en la plenitud e igualdad de Dios-con-nosotros. La naturaleza comunitaria de Dios es algo que vivimos y proclamamos con convicción a todos los que nos encontramos. Esa naturaleza comunitaria nos llama a amar a toda la humanidad como amamos a los miembros de nuestra familia.

¿Qué significado e importancia tiene el Dios único en tres personas para su vida como seguidor de Jesús que ha sido bautizado en el Espíritu? ¿De qué manera la naturaleza comunitaria de la Trinidad le ayuda a comprender la naturaleza comunitaria de nuestra relación con toda la humanidad? Esta semana, dedique tiempo a crear una comunidad donde sea que esté.
