This Week's Do You Know Video:

Pentecost celebrates the outpouring of the Spirit upon all creation. The Spirit is Jesus' full presence and power with us, guiding us to take on the mind and heart of Jesus. Our openness to the Spirit's presence in our lives transforms us, guiding us on the path that God desires for all humanity. In this way, the Spirit gives us the strength and courage to be living witnesses to God's ways, modeled by Jesus. The Spirit of truth empowers us to act justly, to fight against all that is contrary to God, and to speak truth to power, taking on the dominating forces that destroy life. The Spirit helps us fight the temptation to stray from God's path, guiding us, walking with us, and comforting us especially in times of trials, pain and suffering. Ultimately the Spirit unites us with the entire human family, especially when we speak the Spirit's universal language of love, compassion and care. Make time to view this week's DYK video and reflect on the Spirit's transforming presence in your life.

En Nuestro Video ¿Sabes...? de Esta Semana:

Pentecostés celebra el derramamiento del Espíritu sobre toda la creación. El Espíritu es la presencia plena y el poder de Jesús con nosotros, guiándonos para asumir la mente y el corazón de Jesús. Nuestra apertura a la presencia del Espíritu en nuestra vida nos transforma, guiándonos por el camino que Dios desea para toda la humanidad. De esta manera, el Espíritu nos da la fuerza y el valor para ser testigos vivos de los caminos de Dios, modelados por Jesús. El Espíritu de verdad nos da poder para actuar con justicia, para luchar contra todo lo que es contrario a Dios y para decir la verdad al poder, enfrentando las fuerzas dominantes que destruyen la vida. El Espíritu nos ayuda a combatir la tentación de desviarnos del camino de Dios, guiándonos, caminando con nosotros y consolándonos especialmente en tiempos de prueba, dolor y sufrimiento. En última instancia, el Espíritu nos une con toda la familia humana, especialmente cuando hablamos el lenguaje universal de amor, compasión y cuidado del Espíritu. Tómese un momento para ver el video ¿Sabes? de esta semana y reflexionar sobre la presencia transformadora del Espíritu en su vida.

Did You Know - Between Memorial Day and July 4th, millions of Americans will be inviting their families and friends over and firing up the grills. The tried and true Summer BBQ is a much anticipated event for many people and for good reason!

However, as the hot dogs and burgers are cooking and kids set up the sprinkler, you can become vulnerable to a few summer-specific dangers. From proper grill safety to making sure your little ones are safe, here are the top summer safety tips to have an awesome and safe summer cookout season!

1. Have a fire extinguisher nearby and ready for use. Make sure others (besides yourself) at the party know how to use it as well, just in case.
2. Keep a tidy grill station. Do not have anything unnecessary near your grill such as decorations, dirty utensils, or hand towels.
3. Make sure your grill is clean and working properly. Double check for holes, leaks, cracks, or grease build-up that could cause a grill fire.
4. Place your grill away from the house! Having your grill on the deck is probably convenient, but it may not be in your best interest. Try and have your grill at least 10 feet away from the house if possible.

Keep the kids safe with these tips:

- Always have someone keeping watch if there is a pool or sprinkler in play.
- Make sure that nothing is around kids to trip on while playing.
- Don't allow children to be near the grill, whether it is being used or not.
- Keep food/drink that is not kid-friendly out of reach such as alcohol, food with common allergens, or anything too hot or spicy.

In all of Canada and in most dioceses in the United States, the feast of the Ascension has been transferred from Ascension Thursday to the following Sunday, effectively replacing the seventh Sunday of Easter. The feast is important enough that the church wants more people to participate in it than is possible when celebrated on a weekday.

The readings for the feast are the same each year with the exception of the gospel which comes from the gospel of that particular lectionary year. Year C is focused on the gospel according to Luke, who is also the author of the Acts of the Apostles. Since the first reading is always Luke's account of the Ascension from Acts, this year is unique in that we proclaim Luke's gospel account of the Ascension as well, which differs in purpose and time frame from his account in Acts. The second reading offers options but is usually taken from the letter to the Ephesians, while Responsorial Psalm 47, an enthronement psalm, is proclaimed every Ascension, celebrating the feast with "a blare of trumpets" because "God mounts his throne amidst shouts of joy."

On this feast of the Ascension, the refrain from responsorial Psalm 47 proclaims that: "God mounts his throne to shouts of joy: a blare of trumpets for the Lord." We celebrate the exaltation of Jesus to the Father's right hand, the place of power, honor, and respect. Jesus is raised to the Father, so that he could continue to share intimately in the life of God, as well as be able to send us his very Spirit to guide, encourage and strengthen us for mission and ministry.

The first reading from Acts calls us to rejoice in the exaltation of Jesus because it is the precondition for the sending of the Spirit. The Spirit of Jesus is the motivating force propelling us into the world, to witness to the mighty deeds that God has done and continues to do. Just like the early followers of Jesus, we are commissioned, through our baptism, to be witnesses of Jesus in our homes, neighborhoods, cities and world. It is the Spirit's work that we are about.

The second reading from Ephesians prays that the God of Jesus will continually grant us the "spirit of wisdom and revelation resulting in knowledge of him." This knowledge is a source of enlightenment for us, giving us hope, and enabling us to share in the very life of God. Our God raised up Jesus and exalted him, seating him at the right hand and placing all things under Jesus' power. We, God's people, filled with Jesus' Spirit, are now his body on earth, as we strive to witness and mission in Jesus' name.

Luke uses the Ascension as the linchpin or hinge holding up his gospel and the Acts narrative, giving both accounts unity and continuity. The gospel Ascension account, occurring late on Easter Sunday, brings closure to the ministry of Jesus. The Ascension account from Acts, occurring forty days after Easter, marks the beginning of events that propel Jesus' followers to continue his mission and work to the ends of the earth.

Luke's gospel account closes with the Ascension to emphasize that Jesus' presence with his followers will be different than before. They are to wait for empowerment from God, and then continue Jesus' mission. The disciples are filled with joy and praise of God as they anticipate being "clothed with power from on high." Next Sunday, we celebrate Pentecost, that "clothing" from on high through the presence of the Spirit among us.

As we celebrate the feast of the Ascension, reflect on how you experience Jesus' presence in your life. What does that presence call you to in terms of service to God's people?

En todo Canadá y en la mayoría de las diócesis de los Estados Unidos, la fiesta de la Ascensión se transfirió del jueves de la Ascensión al domingo siguiente, reemplazando el séptimo domingo de Pascua. La fiesta es lo suficientemente importante como para que la iglesia quiera que más personas participen en ella de lo que es posible cuando se celebra en un día entre semana.

Las lecturas para esta fiesta son las mismas cada año con la excepción del evangelio que viene del evangelio de ese año leccionario en particular. El año C se centra en el evangelio según Lucas, quien también es el autor de los Hechos de los Apóstoles. Dado que la primera lectura es siempre el relato de Lucas de la Ascensión de los Hechos, este año es único en el sentido de que también proclamamos el relato del evangelio de Lucas de la Ascensión, que difiere en propósito y periodo de tiempo de su relato en los Hechos. La segunda lectura ofrece opciones, pero generalmente se toma de la carta a los Efesios, mientras que el Salmo responsorial 47, un salmo de entronización, se proclama cada Ascensión, celebrando la fiesta con un "son de trompetas" porque "Dios asciende entre aclamaciones".

En esta fiesta de la Ascensión, el estribillo del Salmo 47 proclama que: "Dios asciende entre aclamaciones; el Señor, al son de trompetas".

Celebramos la exaltación de Jesús a la diestra del Padre, el lugar de Poder, honor y respeto. Jesús es resucitado al Padre, para que pueda continuar compartiendo íntimamente la vida de Dios y poder enviarnos su mismo Espíritu para guiarnos, animarnos y fortalecernos para la misión y el ministerio.

La primera lectura de los Hechos nos llama a regocijarnos en la exaltación de Jesús porque es la condición previa para el envío del Espíritu. El Espíritu de Jesús es la fuerza motivadora que nos impulsa al mundo, a dar testimonio de los hechos poderosos de Dios. Al igual que los primeros seguidores de Jesús, somos comisionados, a través de nuestro bautismo, a ser testigos de Jesús en nuestros hogares, vecindarios, ciudades y mundo. Se trata de la obra del Espíritu.

La segunda lectura de Efesios ora para que el Dios de Jesús nos otorgue continuamente el "espíritu de sabiduría y de reflexión para conocerlo". Este conocimiento es una fuente de iluminación para nosotros, que nos da esperanza y nos permite compartir en la misma vida de Dios. Nuestro Dios resucitó a Jesús y lo exaltó, sentándolo a la diestra y colocando todas las cosas bajo el poder de Jesús. Nosotros, el pueblo de Dios, lleno del Espíritu de Jesús, ahora somos su cuerpo en la tierra, mientras nos esforzamos por dar testimonio y misión en el nombre de Jesús.

Lucas usa la Ascensión como el eje o la bisagra que sostiene su evangelio y la narrativa de los Hechos, que dan unidad y continuidad a ambas cuentas. El relato de la Ascensión del Evangelio, ocurriendo tarde el Domingo de Pascua, cierra el ministerio de Jesús, mientras que el relato de la Ascensión de los Hechos, que ocurre cuarenta días después de la Pascua, marca el comienzo de los acontecimientos que impulsan a los seguidores de Jesús a continuar su misión y trabajar hasta el final de la tierra.

El relato del evangelio de Lucas se cierra con la Ascensión para enfatizar que la presencia de Jesús con sus seguidores será diferente a la anterior. Deben esperar el poder de Dios y luego continuar la misión de Jesús. Los discípulos están llenos de gozo y alabanza a Dios cuando anticipan recibir "la fuerza de lo alto". El próximo domingo celebramos Pentecostés, la fuerza que recibimos de lo alto a través de la presencia del Espíritu entre nosotros.

Mientras celebramos la fiesta de la Ascensión, reflexione sobre cómo experimenta la presencia de Jesús en su vida. ¿A qué le llama esa presencia en términos de servicio al pueblo de Dios?

"Jesus said to his disciples: 'Thus it is written that the Christ would suffer and rise from the dead on the third day and that repentance, for the forgiveness of sins, would be preached in his name to all the nations, beginning from Jerusalem. You are witnesses of these things. And behold I am sending the promise of my Father upon you; but stay in the city until you are clothed with power from on high.'"

Luke 24:46-49

Today's Gospel draws our attention to the clear instructions that Jesus gave His disciples (and to us) just before ascending to the Father. Embracing a stewardship way of life, with its emphasis on the use of time, talent and treasure, helps us to live in such a way that our very lives speak as a witness of the Good News of the Gospel. While we take time to reflect and renew our commitments in these three areas annually as a parish family, it is of great benefit to take some time individually throughout the year to take stock of the commitments we have made — looking at both our strengths and our need for continued growth in each area. On this Feast of our "launch day," take some time to celebrate your victories as Christ's disciples and renew your commitment to remain faithful to Him and the unique mission He has entrusted to you!

— See more at www.catholicsteward.com/blog/.

"En aquel tiempo, Jesús se apareció a sus discípulos y les dijo: 'Está escrito que el Mesías tenía que padecer y había de resucitar de entre los muertos al tercer día, y que en su nombre se había de predicar a todas las naciones, comenzando por Jerusalén, la necesidad de volverse a Dios para el perdón de los pecados. Ustedes son testigos de esto. Ahora yo les voy a enviar al que mi Padre les prometió.

Permanezcan, pues, en la ciudad, hasta que reciban la fuerza de lo alto'."

Lucas 24:46-49

El evangelio de hoy llama nuestra atención sobre las claras instrucciones que Jesús dio a sus discípulos (y a nosotros) justo antes de ascender al Padre. Adoptar un estilo de vida de corresponsabilidad, con su énfasis en el uso del tiempo, el talento y el tesoro, nos ayuda a vivir de tal manera que nuestras propias vidas hablen como un testimonio de las Buenas Nuevas del Evangelio. Si bien nos tomamos el tiempo para reflexionar y renovar nuestros compromisos en estas tres áreas anualmente como familia parroquial, es de gran beneficio tomarnos un tiempo individualmente durante el año para hacer un balance de los compromisos que hemos hecho, observando tanto nuestras fortalezas como nuestra necesidad de crecimiento continuo en cada área. ¡En esta fiesta de nuestro "día de lanzamiento", tómese un tiempo para celebrar sus victorias como discípulos de Cristo y renueve su compromiso de permanecer fiel a Él y a la misión única que Él le ha confiado!

Blood Drive Thanks

Thank you so much for supporting our community by hosting the recent blood drive at St. Sabina. Mobile blood drives such as yours are essential in providing the blood needed to keep our hospitals adequately supplied. Without these mobile drives, it would be difficult to collect the 580 pints needed each day for our family, friends, and neighbors. At your May 17th blood drive, the Community Blood Center staff registered 33 volunteers and collected 34 units of blood. Thank you to all those that donated blood.

Gratefully, Lisa Nelson

Donación de Sangre

Muchas gracias por apoyar a nuestra comunidad organizando la reciente campaña de donación de sangre en St. Sabina. Las campañas de donación de sangre móviles como la suya son esenciales para proporcionar la sangre necesaria para mantener el suministro adecuado de nuestros hospitales. Sin estas unidades móviles, sería difícil recolectar las 580 pintas necesarias cada día para nuestra familia, amigos y vecinos. En su campaña de donación de sangre del 17 de mayo, el personal del Centro Comunitario de Sangre inscribió a 33 voluntarios y recolectó 34 unidades de sangre. Gracias a todos los que donaron sangre.

Con Agradecimiento, Lisa Nelson

Every third Thursday of the month, Associate Director of the Vocations Office, Mark Sappington, hosts a monthly Discernment Night at Our Lady of Good Counsel Parish. These nights have a standing open invite to men who wish to discern their vocation from the Lord and would like the fraternity and prayers of their brothers to help them do so. The nights begin with Eucharist Adoration and prayer, followed by dinner and fraternal community with those present. These nights are meant to build fraternity, faith, and aid in discernment. Mark is eager to accompany men in their relationship with God and Church, and to assist them in hearing our Lord's call. If you are interested in attending and discerning, you can reach Mark at sappington@diocesekcsj.org. Idealmente, indique el nombre legal, el número de identificación fiscal, la dirección, la ciudad, el estado y el código postal. Comuníquese con Kris al 816-979-3151 o kris@stsabinaparrish.org si tiene preguntas.

Altar Server Training

St. Sabina desperately needs more altar servers at all Mass times.

Training for new altar servers will be on Mondays June 6, 13 & 20 at 7:00 PM in the church. Parish youth aged 3rd grade and up are encouraged to train as altar servers. Serving at Mass is a great way for parish youth to become actively involved at church. But serving is not limited to youth. Adults are also welcomed to serve at weekend Masses.

Why be an altar server?

This is an important ministry to our parish, and a great way young people can actively do something that has real meaning at church. Being a server helps us learn more about Mass and can lead us to a deeper relationship with God. When we take an active role at church, we become more connected to our faith and to our parish family. This can have a great meaning in our lives!

You may sign up for training by returning the bottom portion of the flyer that is in the gathering space. Or, you may sign up on the website at www.stsabina-parish.org and click "New Server Training Registration." Or, simply contact Susan Ratigan in the parish office at 979-3158 or susan@stsabinaparish.org.
