This Week's Do You Know Video:

As we continue our series on the History of the Mass, this week's video addresses the ritual of the Mass from the missal of the Council of Trent to the eve of Vatican II. Many changes impacted the Mass during these roughly 400 years as a result of the reforms of the Council of Trent. With the new missal, Trent imposed a uniformity on all liturgical and sacramental rituals, along with modifying the previous structure of churches and sanctuaries. Tabernacles now dominated the altar and the entire sanctuary became a throne room, replete with ornate structures that completely focused the attention of the worshipper. The liturgy was now in the complete control of the ordained with Latin as its official language. People developed their own devotions while attending Mass, with absolutely no involvement in the liturgical action. Reception of communion was still rare and often not in the context of the Mass itself. These changes were still in place on the eve of the Second Vatican Council. These are some of the issues addressed in this week's DYK video. To find out more, make time to check out this week's video at www.stsabinaparish.org and click on the Do You Know Series link.

Did you know that to make the most of the sunny days and star-studded nights, you need to be prepared so you have fun, stay safe and keep your health top of mind? Don't leave home without these essentials.

Sunscreen: Any time you'll be outside, it's important to wear sunscreen. This is especially important when spending time around sand and water as these reflect the sun's rays, which put you at higher risk for sunburn. The American Academy of Dermatology recommends everyone use sunscreen that offers broad-spectrum protection (protects against UVA and UVB rays), is SPF 30 or higher, and is water resistant.

Sunglasses: Protect those peepers by keeping sunglasses on hand. If you wear prescription glasses, a stylish and affordable solution is Solar Shield, available in clip-ons and fits-over designs. Solar Shield sunglasses are polarized and come at an affordable price point, so you can have a pair with you for all your summer adventures.

Water: Staying hydrated is important for keeping your body well, especially as the temperatures rise. When outdoors during summer, your body needs H2O to stay energized and keep cool. If you're doing an activity in the heat, you'll need to increase your water intake. Keep a bottle nearby and drink often.

Insect repellent: Warm weather brings out people to enjoy nature, and whether you like it or not, that includes bugs. From mosquitoes and ticks to ants and chiggers, bugs thrive in the summer. The first step to keep yourself protected is to be aware of what insects you may encounter during the activities you have planned for the day.

Next, be prepared by using appropriate insect repellent and clothing.

Shoes: The unofficial shoe of summer has to be the flip-flop. This easy-on, easy-off shoe has been keeping feet cool for generations. The problem is flip-flops offer little support and put you at higher risk of injury. From stubbing your toes to being a tripping hazard, flip-flops are a flop when it comes to your health. Support feet and be ready for summer by shopping for supportive sandals with toe and ankle straps. For example, athletic-style sandals are trendy, durable and will last more than one season, making them a worthwhile investment.

These summer tips will help you feel your best so you can maximize every day to the fullest. Have fun and stay safe for the best summer yet.

Stewardship

"While they were eating, he took bread, said the blessing, broke it, gave it to them, and said, 'Take it; this is my body.' Then he took a cup, gave thanks, and gave it to them, and they all drank from it. He said to them, 'This is my blood of the covenant, which will be shed for many. Amen, I say to you, I shall not drink again the fruit of the vine until the day when I drink it new in the kingdom of God.'"

Mark 14: 22-25

What Jesus says, and what we do at Mass are very important. The Lord says, "Take it; this is my body." The word "take" implies that this is not something that is forced upon us. Without food and drink we will perish; the key to the Eucharist is that without Jesus, we will also perish. This is something that when we take it, we need to take it into our innermost being. The bottom line on all this is that the Eucharist is our acceptance of the New Covenant. There is more to it than just receiving. It also means sharing and discipleship. That is the reality of the Body and Blood of Christ. — See more at www.catholicsteward.com/blog/

PSR News

Vacation Bible School is coming in July!

Volunteer and children's registrations are available in the gathering space and on the parish website. Our theme this year is Shipwrecked! Rescued by Jesus! All creative people who want to help create a desert island in the Parish Hall should contact Kirstie Roberts in the Youth Office. This week of fun and discovery will be July 15th through the 19th from 5:30pm to 8:30pm.

Summer Book Club!

This summer we will host a little book club for kids with the help of Gina Buice. Below is some information about the book they will be reading this summer. The club will be held in the Education Wing where we have PSR on Sunday mornings from June 3rd until July 22nd. The time will be 9am to 10am.

From Gina: I have the book and the study guide and would be willing to lead a small group of kids. I could provide books to anyone who wanted them for about $25, but since we would read it together as a group, each kid would not have to own the book. I think this would best suit kids in 3rd-6th grades, as we would be sitting and reading (albeit a very engaging book) for an hour.

If your child would like to be included in this group, please contact Kirstie in the parish office. Gina says that missing meetings is fine if there are weekends when kids will be out of town. The book is pretty easy to pick up at any part.

We hope to see your young readers here this summer!

Collegiate Challenge Mission Trip!

Who's ready to hit the road and help the community of Taos, New Mexico? 90% of the residents cannot afford housing in the tourist dependent town. Habitat for Humanity is creating possibilities for many to begin the journey to home ownership and we will help to build those homes. The week we are signed up for is July 29th through August 4th. This trip is for young adults (must be at least 18 years old by July 29, 2018). If you would like more information or are interested in joining the challenge, there will be information meetings on June 3rd at 9:15am and 11:45am in the Youth Office. You are also welcome to call or email Kirstie Roberts.

High School Summer Softball!

We will be joining a few other Catholic churches from our area for some fun in the dirt! This is for FUN! Sometimes the bases are car floor mats. All high school youth (including all those new Freshmen!) are welcome to play ball! I'm expecting a schedule any day and will post it to the website as soon as it's available. Call, email or text Kirstie in the Youth office to join the team, be a water boy/girl or take stats.

Reflection on the Readings

This Sunday we celebrate the feast of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ. It was and still is traditionally known as Corpus Christi (Body of Christ) Sunday. The name change is significant in that the focus is not just on the body of Christ, but also on the blood. There was a separate feast of the Precious Blood, celebrated on July 1 in the old liturgical calendar that was joined with Corpus Christi. Bread and wine together are the fullness of the real presence of Christ in our midst, the fullness of which we are all called to share.

The readings for this Sunday focus primarily on blood as the symbol of life and all that is dear and precious to any living being. The first reading tells of the sealing of the covenant on Mt. Sinai. The blood of sacrificed animals is sprinkled on the altar, representing God, and on the people. The covenant, sealed with blood, makes God and the people blood relatives, with God taking on the responsibility for the lives of the people.

Responsorial Psalm 116 proclaims that the Lord has saved the psalmist from danger and harm, rescuing the people from slavery and oppression, enabling them to sing, "I will take the cup of salvation and call upon the name of the Lord." The symbol of the cup of salvation is the public ritual acknowledgment of God's saving love. The people would fill a cup of wine and pour it out to the Lord as a means of publically acknowledging God's gracious care.

The letter to the Hebrews recalls the covenant blood ritual of Sinai, which is now sealed, not with the blood of sacrificial animals, but with the very blood of Christ. Christ's blood sacrifice empowers him to be our mediator with God, pleading on our behalf. Through Christ's blood sacrifice, we are united with him and intimately bonded with God.

Mark's account of the Last Supper culminates in Jesus' total giving of himself for all. Jesus gives of himself for us, enabling us to give of ourselves for others. United with him and strengthened by the Spirit, we are sent forth to be bread, nourishment, blood and sacrifice for others. In this manner, we all truly become the very body and blood of Christ.

This very real presence of Christ in the elements of bread and wine has never been understood by the Church to be a physical presence. The presence that we speak of is sacramental. It is the risen Christ, real and substantial, true and full that is really present, yet not in a physical manner. Our gathering and our sharing in that bread and wine really and truly expresses our belief in the living Christ and unites us with Christ in life, death, resurrection and forever.

This sharing is unlike any other sharing or eating that we have or will ever experience in our lives. Our best meal experiences in this life allow us a glimpse into the fullness of sharing that we are called to realize as Eucharistic communities.

How do we go forth to share our body and blood with others, as Jesus has done for us? How do we become "bread and wine," nourishment, drink, care, concern and sacrifice for others? How do you make real Jesus' Eucharistic presence in your life? On this most special feast, commit yourself once again to do for others as Christ has done for us.

Bible Study

Catholics are mostly exposed to the Bible through the Sunday Lectionary Readings. In order to help us all enter into the Bible through the Sunday readings, we offer study sessions that provide an opportunity to read, to study background to the readings, and to reflect on how to apply the readings to our lives. Our next Bible Study dates are June 24 and July 22 at 10:30am in the conference room. All are welcome; bring a Bible. To register, call Biagio at 816-979-3153.

Reflexión Sobre las Lecturas

Este domingo celebramos la fiesta del Santísimo Cuerpo y Sangre de Cristo. Era y todavía se conoce tradicionalmente como el domingo de Corpus Christi (Cuerpo de Cristo).

El cambio de nombre es significativo porque el enfoque

no está solo en el cuerpo de Cristo, sino también en la sangre. Hubo una fiesta separada de la Preciosa Sangre, celebrada el 1 de julio en el antiguo calendario litúrgico que se unió con el Corpus Christi. El pan y el vino juntos son la plenitud de la presencia real de Cristo entre nosotros, cuya plenitud todos estamos llamados a compartir.

Las lecturas de este domingo se centran principalmente en la sangre como el símbolo de la vida y todo lo que es querido y valioso para cualquier ser vivo. La primera lectura habla del sellamiento del pacto en el monte. Sinai. La sangre de los animales sacrificados se rocía sobre el altar, representando a Dios y a las personas. El pacto, sellado con sangre, hace a Dios y al pueblo parientes consanguíneos, con Dios asumiendo la responsabilidad de las vidas de las personas.

El Salmo responsorial 115 proclama que el Señor ha salvado al salmista del peligro y daño, rescatando a la gente de la esclavitud y la opresión, permitiéndoles cantar: "Alzaré la copa de la salvación, invocando tu nombre". El símbolo de la copa de la salvación es el reconocimiento público ritual del amor salvador de Dios. La gente llenaba una copa de vino y la derramaba al Señor como un medio para reconocer públicamente el cuidado misericordioso de Dios.

La carta a los Hebreos recuerda el ritual de sangre del pacto del Sinaí, que ahora está sellado no con la sangre de los animales sacrificados, sino con la misma sangre de Cristo. El sacrificio de sangre de Cristo lo faculta para ser nuestro mediador con Dios, implorando en nuestro nombre. A través del sacrificio de la sangre de Cristo, estamos unidos con él y estamos íntimamente unidos a Dios.

El relato de Marcos sobre la Última Cena culmina con el dar totalmente de sí mismo que Jesús dio para todos. Jesús se da de sí mismo por nosotros y nos permite dar de nosotros mismos por los demás. Unidos con él y fortalecidos por el Espíritu, somos enviados a ser pan, alimento, sangre y sacrificio por los demás. De esta manera, todos realmente nos convertimos en el mismo cuerpo y sangre de Cristo.

Esta presencia muy real de Cristo en los elementos del pan y del vino nunca ha sido entendida por la Iglesia como una presencia física. La presencia de la que hablamos es sacramental. Es el Cristo resucitado, real y sustancial, verdadero y pleno que está realmente presente, pero no de una manera física. Nuestra reunión y nuestro compartir en ese pan y vino expresa verdaderamente nuestra creencia en el Cristo vivo y nos une con Cristo en vida, muerte, resurrección y para siempre.

Este compartir es diferente a cualquier otro compartir o comer que hemos experimentado o que alguna vez experimentaremos en nuestras vidas. Nuestras mejores experiencias de comida en esta vida nos permiten vislumbrar la plenitud de compartir que estamos llamados a realizar como comunidades eucarísticas.

¿Cómo salimos a compartir nuestro cuerpo y nuestra sangre con otros, como Jesús lo hizo por nosotros? ¿Cómo nos convertimos en "pan y vino", alimento, bebida, cuidado, preocupación y sacrificio por los demás? ¿Cómo realiza la verdadera presencia eucarística de Jesús en su vida? En esta fiesta tan especial, comprométase una vez más a hacer por los demás como Cristo lo hizo por nosotros.

Asociado Pastoral
