This Week's Do You Know Video:

The feast of Pentecost, which brings the Easter Season to a close, celebrates the descent of the Holy Spirit upon the followers of Jesus. Based on Isaiah 11:1-3, it is traditional Christian belief that the Holy Spirit showers us with seven gifts that help us on our faith journey. These gifts are: wisdom, understanding, counsel, fortitude, knowledge, piety and fear of the Lord. The Spirit showered these gifts upon Jesus at his baptism, as we are blessed with the same gifts at our baptism. As these gifts were integral to Jesus' personality, life, and ministry, so too these gifts are to be an integral part of anyone claiming to be a disciple of the Lord. Reflecting on these gifts, and their meaning and significance for our faith lives and spirituality is essential in our striving to become living witnesses of the Risen Christ in the world. Make time to view this week's DYK video and learn how each of the Spirit's seven gifts can aid us in becoming more faithful disciples.

En Nuestro Video ¿Sabes...? de Esta Semana:

La fiesta de Pentecostés, que cierra el Tiempo Pascual, celebra la venida del Espíritu Santo sobre los seguidores de Jesús. Basado en Isaías 11:1-3, es la creencia cristiana tradicional que el Espíritu Santo nos colma de siete dones que nos ayudan en nuestro viaje de fe. Estos dones son: sabiduría, comprensión, consejo, fortaleza, conocimiento, piedad y temor del Señor. El Espíritu derramó estos dones sobre Jesús en su bautismo, igual nosotros somos bendecidos con los mismos dones en nuestro bautismo. Así como estos dones eran parte integral de la personalidad, la vida y el ministerio de Jesús, también estos dones deben ser parte integral de cualquiera que afirme ser un discípulo del Señor. Reflexionar sobre estos dones y su significado e importancia para nuestra vida de fe y espiritualidad es esencial en nuestro esfuerzo por convertirnos en testigos vivos de Cristo Resucitado en el mundo. Tómese un momento para ver el video ¿Sabes? de esta semana y aprender cómo cada uno de los siete dones del Espíritu puede ayudarnos a convertirnos en discípulos más fieles.

Do You Know - Going to the farmers' market is a great family activity. There's plenty to see and new foods to try. Here are a few tips to get the most out of your next trip.

1. Bring Cash and Choose Your Time

While some vendors might be able to accept credit cards or checks, cash is king. If you want the absolute freshest produce and the most selection, arrive bright and early. On the other hand, by shopping later in the day – say, an hour before the market closes – you can get the best discounts.

2. Make a Loop First and Be Prepared

The best way to tackle a farmers' market is by making a loop around the entire market first. Be sure and stash a cooler in the back of your car to keep fruits and veggies cool and fresh.

3. Try Something New and Buy in Season

Sample new products and foods that are in season. You might discover you have a new favorite fruit or vegetable.

4. Grab Bulk Portions

The best deals at the farmers market are had when you buy in bulk. You'll enjoy the best flavors and the best prices when you buy lots of whatever is at its harvest peak. Freezing, canning, and drying are just some of the ways you can save seasonal tastes you find at the farmers market for later in the year.

5. Ask Questions

If you are unsure of a product or need more information, ask the vendor! He or she will certainly have plenty to share about the item itself. They may also be eager to offer varied ways to eat or prepare the item. Who knows, you might go home with a new recipe!

With the Feast of Pentecost, the Easter season officially comes to a close with evening prayer. Psalm 104, the responsorial psalm for Pentecost, resounds with this rich refrain: "Lord, send out your Spirit and renew the face of the earth." What focus does this psalm present as we try to gain wisdom from the other Pentecost readings?

What is the Lord's spirit and how does it bring about the renewal of the earth? Ruah, the Hebrew word for spirit, can mean wind, breath, soul, spirit. Psalm 104 depicts God as the giver and sustainer of life, the one who continually creates and re-creates. It is God's breath or ruah which creates, sustains and re-creates life. Without that breath we perish. So we praise God for continually creating and re-creating us. What are the concrete manifestations of this re-creation? The other readings provide strong clues as to what re-creation entails.

The first reading, unique to Luke's Acts of the Apostles, is the narrative of Pentecost. The backdrop to the descent of the Spirit is the Jewish feast of Weeks, Shavuot, or Pentecost, occurring exactly fifty days after Passover. The narrative specifies two aspects of re-creation. One is the attitude of receptiveness needed if we are to be open to the presence of the Spirit. This requires the support and encouragement of a community that is attuned to the direction of the Spirit. Once such an attunement is cultivated, then the Spirit can do its work. The powerful result is a two-fold miracle, corresponding to the two things that most humans find challenging: to speak and listen meaningfully.

Speaking in a language that all can understand is a miracle in itself for most of us. But listening and understanding something we find difficult or strange is an even greater miracle. In other words, the Spirit reverses the confusion and tyranny of the Tower of Babel syndrome (Gen 11). The Spirit gifts us with wisdom, along with understanding hearts and minds, so that God's presence, mission and reign become living realities. This gifting is intended for all, achieving a universalism consistent with God's intention and purpose from the beginning of creation.

The second reading from Paul's first letter to the Corinthians proclaims that the presence of the Spirit manifests diversity in thought, gifts, feelings and presence. Our oneness in the Spirit is made manifest through the many diverse gifts given to build up the entire body of Christ. Diversity is not destructive of unity but rather is the essential component of unity. Jesuit Pierre Teilhard de Chardin perfectly expressed this reality by stating that "unity is achieved by honoring the differences."

The gospel reading from John takes the dynamics of re-creation to even greater depths. As Jesus interacts with his followers on resurrection day, he greets them with peace, the first and sure sign of the presence of the Spirit, a gift of the risen Jesus. Following this greeting, Jesus commissions them to go out and spread that special gift to all. By breathing on them the Spirit, Jesus re-creates them for relationship and mission, just as God did at the very moment of our creation. Integral to the mission of relationship in the Spirit is our ability to forgive and reconcile. Only by being willing to forgive and reconcile, will we ever be able to achieve that peace that the Spirit gives.

The responsorial psalm focuses the wisdom from the other readings by dialoguing with them about the essentials involved in being renewed and re-created by God in and through the Spirit. God is the giver of all life, continually renewing and re-creating us. When we choose to speak and listen with open hearts, when diversity is seen as a rich blessing, when forgiveness is graciously practiced and peace becomes a way of life, then we can be certain that the Spirit is present, renewing and re-creating us for abundant life.

How does the Spirit help you experience diversity as a treasured gift that enhances community? How do you experience the Spirit re-creating and energizing you to welcome the stranger and the foreigner knocking at our doors? How does the Spirit help you live and act so that all can experience God's life-giving Spirit, present and active among us?

Psalm: Psalm 8:4-5, 6-7, 8-9 (2a)

2nd Reading: Romans 5:1-5

Gospel: John 16:12-15

Con la fiesta de Pentecostés, la temporada de Pascua llega a su fin con la oración vespertina. El Salmo 104, el salmo responsorial de Pentecostés, resuena con este rico refrán: "Envía tu Espíritu, Señor, y repuebla la faz de la tierra". ¿Cual enfoque presenta este salmo ya que intentamos obtener sabiduría de las otras lecturas de Pentecostés?

¿Qué es el espíritu del Señor y cómo produce la repoblación de la tierra? Ruah, la palabra hebrea para espíritu, puede significar viento, aliento, alma, espíritu. El Salmo 104 representa a Dios como el dador y sustentador de la vida, el que continuamente crea y recrea. Es el aliento de Dios o ruah lo que crea, sostiene y recrea la vida. Sin ese aliento perecemos. Así que alabamos a Dios por crearnos y recrearnos continuamente. ¿Cuáles son las manifestaciones concretas de esta reconstrucción? Las otras lecturas proporcionan pistas sólidas sobre lo que implica la reconstrucción.

La primera lectura, exclusiva de los Hechos de los Apóstoles de Lucas, es la narrativa de Pentecostés. El telón de fondo del descenso del Espíritu es la fiesta judía de las Semanas, Shavuot o Pentecostés, ocurriendo exactamente cincuenta días después de la Pascua. La narrativa especifica dos aspectos de la reconstrucción. Una es la actitud receptiva necesaria para estar abiertos a la presencia del Espíritu. Esto requiere el apoyo y el estímulo de una comunidad que esté en sintonía con la dirección del Espíritu. Una vez que se cultiva tal sintonización, entonces el Espíritu puede hacer su trabajo. El poderoso resultado es un milagro doble, que corresponde a las dos cosas que la mayoría de los humanos encuentran desafiantes: hablar y escuchar de manera significativa.

Hablar en un idioma que todos puedan entender es un milagro en sí mismo para la mayoría de nosotros. Pero escuchar y comprender algo que nos resulta difícil o extraño es un milagro aún mayor. En otras palabras, el Espíritu invierte la confusión y la tiranía del síndrome de la Torre de Babel (Gen 11), otorgándonos sabiduría, junto con la comprensión de los corazones y las mentes, para que la presencia, la misión y el reinado de Dios se conviertan en realidades vivientes. Este don está destinado a todos, logrando un universalismo consistente con la intención y el propósito de Dios desde el principio de la creación.

La segunda lectura de la primera carta de Pablo a los corintios proclama que la presencia del Espíritu manifiesta diversidad en pensamiento, dones, sentimientos y presencia. Nuestra unidad en el Espíritu se manifiesta a través de los muchos dones diversos que se dan para edificar todo el cuerpo de Cristo. La diversidad no es destructiva de la unidad, sino que es el componente esencial de la unidad. El jesuita Pierre Teilhard de Chardin expresó perfectamente esta realidad al afirmar que "la unidad se logra honrando las diferencias".

La lectura del evangelio de Juan lleva la dinámica de la reconstrucción a profundidades aún mayores. Cuando Jesús interactúa con sus seguidores el día de la resurrección, los saluda con la paz, la primera y segura señal de la presencia del Espíritu, un don del Jesús resucitado. Después de este saludo, Jesús les encarga que salgan y difundan ese regalo especial para todos. Al respirar sobre ellos el Espíritu, Jesús los recrea para la relación y la misión, tal como lo hizo Dios en el momento de nuestra creación. Una parte integral de la misión de la relación en el Espíritu es nuestra capacidad de perdonar y reconciliarnos. Solo al estar dispuestos a perdonar y reconciliar, podremos alcanzar esa paz que el Espíritu nos da.

El salmo responsorial enfoca la sabiduría de las otras lecturas al dialogar con ellos acerca de lo esencial involucrado en ser renovado y recreado por Dios en y a través del Espíritu. Dios es el dador de toda vida, renovándonos y recreándonos continuamente. Cuando elegimos hablar y escuchar con los corazones abiertos, cuando la diversidad se ve como una rica bendición, cuando el perdón se practica con gracia y la paz se convierte en una forma de vida, podemos estar seguros de que el Espíritu está presente, renovándonos y recreándonos para una vida abundante.

¿Cómo le ayuda el Espíritu a experimentar la diversidad como un don preciado que mejora la comunidad? ¿Cómo experimenta el Espíritu recreando y energizándolo para darle la bienvenida al extranjero que toca a nuestras puertas? ¿Cómo le ayuda el Espíritu a vivir y actuar para que todos puedan experimentar el Espíritu vivificante de Dios, presente y activo entre nosotros?

In God's Image -A Peace and Justice Column On Caring for the Whole Person and End of Life Issues

Caring for the whole person involves taking care of ourselves and others physically, emotionally, mentally, intellectually, socially, and spiritually. Physically we take care of ourselves by seeing our health care professionals and perhaps receiving treatment, avoiding addictions, exercising, and eating nutritiously. Receiving support from friends and family, visiting a counselor, taking time to study and do activities that we enjoy, and spending time with friends and family are other ways that we take care of ourselves. Spiritually, we connect and recharge through prayer, the Mass and the sacraments, community celebrations, and reaching out to help others.

End of life and special circumstances can be hard to navigate. Our Catholic Church helps us with these issues. "It may sound odd at first but valuing life and accepting death go hand in hand." (<https://www.artofdyingwell.org/>)

- The Church teaches that human life, from conception to natural death, is sacred "because the human person has been willed for its own sake in the image and likeness of the living and holy God. (CCC ¶2319)
- Sick or handicapped persons should be helped to lead lives as normal as possible. (CCC ¶2276)
- Discontinuing medical procedures that are burdensome, dangerous, extraordinary, or disproportionate to the expected outcome can be legitimate; it is the refusal of "over-zealous" treatment.... The decisions should be made by the patient if he is competent and able. (CCC ¶2278)
- Even if death is thought imminent, the ordinary care owed to a sick person cannot be legitimately interrupted. Palliative care should be encouraged. (CCC ¶2279)
- "The dying should be given attention and care to help them live their last moments in dignity and peace. They will be helped by the prayer of their relatives, who must see to it that the sick receive at the proper time the sacraments that prepare them to meet the living God." (CCC ¶2299)

Conversing with family about end of life issues is helpful in living a good life and preparing for the end of life.

A Imagen de Dios -Una Columna de Paz y Justicia Sobre el Cuidado de la Persona en su Totalidad y Cuestiones del Fin de la Vida

Cuidar de la persona en su totalidad implica cuidar de nosotros mismos y de los demás física, emocional, mental, intelectual, social y espiritualmente. Físicamente nos cuidamos viendo a nuestros profesionales de la salud y tal vez recibiendo tratamiento, evitando las adicciones, haciendo ejercicio y comiendo nutritivamente. Recibir apoyo de amigos y familiares, visitar a un consejero, dedicar tiempo a estudiar y realizar actividades que disfrutamos y pasar tiempo con amigos y familiares son otras formas en las que nos cuidamos a nosotros mismos. Espiritualmente, nos conectamos y recargamos a través de la oración, la Misa y los sacramentos, las celebraciones comunitarias y la ayuda a los demás.

El final de la vida y las circunstancias especiales pueden ser difíciles de navegar. Nuestra Iglesia Católica nos ayuda con estos temas. "Puede sonar extraño al principio, pero valorar la vida y aceptar la muerte van de la mano". (<https://www.artofdyingwell.org/>)

- La Iglesia enseña que la vida humana, desde la concepción hasta la muerte natural, es sagrada "porque la persona humana ha sido amada por sí misma a imagen y semejanza del Dios vivo y santo". (CCC ¶2319)
- Se debe ayudar a las personas enfermas o discapacitadas a llevar una vida lo más normal posible. (CCC ¶2276)
- La interrupción de tratamientos médicos onerosos, peligrosos, extraordinarios o desproporcionados a los resultados puede ser legítima. Interrumpir estos tratamientos es rechazar el "encarnizamiento terapéutico"... Las decisiones deben ser tomadas por el paciente si es competente y capaz. (CCC ¶2278)
- Aunque la muerte se considere inminente, los cuidados ordinarios debidos a una persona enferma no pueden ser legítimamente interrumpidos. Deben fomentarse los cuidados paliativos. (CCC ¶2279)
 - "A los moribundos se han de prestar todas las atenciones necesarias para ayudarles a vivir sus últimos momentos en la dignidad y la paz. Deben ser ayudados por la oración de sus parientes, los cuales cuidarán que los enfermos reciban a tiempo los sacramentos que preparan para el encuentro con el Dios vivo." (CCC ¶2299)

Conversar con la familia sobre las cuestiones del final de la vida es útil para vivir una buena vida y prepararse para el final de la vida.

"And suddenly there came from the sky a noise like a strong driving wind, and it filled the entire house in which they were. Then there appeared to them tongues as of fire, which parted and came to rest on each one of them. And they were all filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in different tongues, as the Spirit enabled them to proclaim."

Acts 2:2-4

Reflecting on today's readings inspires a sense of awe as we consider the mighty power of the Holy Spirit at work, giving birth to and sustaining our Church. Just as awesome — the same Spirit is calling to us this day to take up our part in the Church's saving work. Each one of us, young and old alike, is personally called today by the Holy Spirit into the same mission as that of the first Apostles — to advance the Kingdom of God in our corner of the world. Just as He did on that Pentecost day, the Holy Spirit speaks to us in our "own language" to give us the Good News of the Gospel and urge us to share it. We can think of our own language as the particular gifts, talents, and passions we possess. We experience the presence of the Holy Spirit through them and we are meant to put them to the work in grateful service of the Kingdom of God. When we consider the stewardship way of life we are called to live, we often focus on the challenges it poses. Surrendering ourselves to God is indeed a challenging way to live. But it leads to a life that is exciting, creative, and deeply rewarding. Stewardship allows us to experience life as a great adventure because it is a life guided and directed by the very source of power and creativity—the Holy Spirit!

"De repente se oyó un gran ruido que venía del cielo, como cuando sopla un viento fuerte, que resonó por toda la casa donde se encontraban. Entonces aparecieron lenguas de fuego, que se distribuyeron y se posaron sobre ellos; se llenaron todos del Espíritu Santo y empezaron a hablar en otros idiomas, según el Espíritu los inducía a expresarse."

Hechos 2:2-4

Reflexionar sobre las lecturas de hoy inspira una sensación de asombro al considerar el gran poder del Espíritu Santo trabajando, dando a luz y sosteniendo a nuestra Iglesia. Igual de maravilloso: el mismo Espíritu nos está llamando este día para que asumamos nuestra parte en la obra salvadora de la Iglesia. Cada uno de nosotros, tanto jóvenes como mayores, somos llamados personalmente hoy por el Espíritu Santo a la misma misión que los primeros Apóstoles: hacer avanzar el Reino de Dios en nuestro rincón del mundo. Así como lo hizo en aquel día de Pentecostés, el Espíritu Santo nos habla en nuestra "propia lengua" para darnos la Buena Nueva del Evangelio e instarnos a compartirlo. Podemos pensar en nuestro propio idioma como los dones, talentos y pasiones particulares que poseemos. Experimentamos la presencia del Espíritu Santo a través de ellos y estamos destinados a ponerlos a trabajar en el servicio agradecido del Reino de Dios. Cuando consideramos la forma de vida de corresponsabilidad que estamos llamados a vivir, a menudo nos enfocamos en los desafíos que plantea. Entregarnos a Dios es ciertamente una forma difícil de vivir. Pero conduce a una vida emocionante, creativa y profundamente gratificante. La corresponsabilidad nos permite experimentar la vida como una gran aventura porque es una vida guiada y dirigida por la misma fuente de poder y creatividad: ¡el Espíritu Santo!

Retirement Receptions for Marta Roper

Marta Roper, our Pastoral Care Coordinator, is retiring and her last day of work will be Thursday, June 16th. In honor of Marta's many years of service to our parish community, you are invited to attend a reception in her honor. Marta began working for St. Sabina in June of 1997 as our Pastoral Care Coordinator, assisting parishioners with all the difficulties that come with illnesses, coordinating our nursing home ministry, ministry to the sick and homebound, and funerals. In 2006, Marta began working at the diocese in the Office of Worship, and served there for 3 years. She returned to St. Sabina in 2011. We are truly grateful for all of Marta's love and service to our parish community! Thanks, Marta, for all you have done for us.

Consejo de la Semana del Equipo de Ecología

Ahorre dinero en la lavada de ropa lavándola con agua fría y sin usar suavizante de telas ni toallitas para secadora. Las bolas de lana para secadora son un excelente sustituto del suavizante de telas o las toallitas para secadora.

Altar Server Training

St. Sabina desperately needs more altar servers at all Mass times.

Training for new altar servers will be on Mondays June 6, 13 & 20 at 7:00 PM in the church. Parish youth aged 3rd grade and up are encouraged to train as altar servers. Serving at Mass is a great way for parish youth to become actively involved at church. But serving is not limited to youth. Adults are also welcomed to serve at weekend Masses.

Why be an altar server?

This is an important ministry to our parish, and a great way young people can actively do something that has real meaning at church. Being a server helps us learn more about Mass and can lead us to a deeper relationship with God. When we take an active role at church, we become more connected to our faith and to our parish family. This can have a great meaning in our lives!

You may sign up for training by returning the bottom portion of the flyer that is in the gathering space. Or, you may sign up on the website at www.stsabina-parish.org and click "New Server Training Registration." Or, simply contact Susan Ratigan in the parish office at 979-3158 or susan@stsabinaparish.org.

Se te Necesita como

Servidor del Altar

¿Qué hace un servidor del altar?

- ♦ Asiste al sacerdote y diácono en la Misa
- ♦ Prepara el altar
- ♦ Enciende las velas
- ♦ Maneja artículos especiales usados durante la Misa

¿Por qué ser Servidor del Altar?

Algunas razones son convenientes...

- ♦ Te sientas en el primer asiento
- ♦ Te veras muy bien con esa túnica blanca

Pero lo más importante...

- ♦ Marcarás la diferencia realizando un importante ministerio
- ♦ Te convertirás en un líder en nuestra parroquia
- ♦ Aprenderás mucho más sobre la Misa y eso significará mucho para ti.
- ♦ Ya que sirves a Dios en el altar, también aprenderás a servir a otros.

¡Planifique asistir a las sesiones de capacitación!

Junio 7, 8, 14 y 15 de 7:00-8:30 pm. en la iglesia

Los niños y niñas que ya hayan recibido su primera comunión están invitados a inscribirse completando el formulario a continuación y devolviéndoselo a Gerardo Arenivas
