STEWARDSHIP

"While they were eating, he took bread, said the blessing, broke it, gave it to them, and said, 'Take it; this is my body.' Then he took a cup, gave thanks, and gave it to them, and they all drank from it. He said to them, 'This is my blood of the covenant, which will be shed for many. Amen, I say to you, I shall not drink again the fruit of the vine until the day when I drink it new in the kingdom of God.'"

Mark 14: 22-25

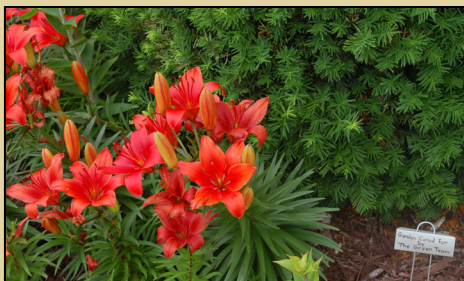

The emphasis on this Feast Day is Holy Communion, the Eucharist. At Communion we receive the True Body and Blood of Jesus Christ. We are a gifted people, and this is an incredible gift to us. On this day especially we are called to focus on this gift. In Communion we receive gifts that affect us both physically and spiritually. From a spiritual perspective we are united with Christ. Communion should increase our love of God and of our neighbor. This is lived out in the action of stewardship. - You can see more at www.catholicsteward.com/blog/.

LIVING STONES

Foundations for Living Stones

A Faith Formation Program for interested Adults

"Come to him, a living stone...chosen and precious in the sight of God, and, like living stones, let yourself be built into a spiritual house..." (1 Peter 2:4-5)

St. Sabina, a Catholic faith community committed to total and lifelong faith formation, is offering an adult faith formation program titled, Foundations for Living Stones. The program explores in greater depth and knowledge the basics of our faith. All the sessions focus on the ministry that we are called to in and through our baptism. Communication skills, group development, leadership skills, bible study, church history, prayer and sacraments are some of the many areas explored and examined in depth. Adult methods of learning and reflection are employed throughout.

The sessions are scheduled on Tuesday evenings, from 7-9:30 PM, beginning in late August and ending in late May. This is a 9-month commitment to deepen one's skills and knowledge so as to become a more effective and engaging minister. We hope to work collaboratively with our neighboring parishes, inviting them to be part of this mutual learning process. For a brochure or more information, please call or e-mail either Kris or Biagio at:

HOW LIVING STONES CHANGED MY LIFE

For the past three years I have been on a journey with Living Stones. This journey has been life changing in so many ways. I have learned so much about myself as well as my religion and belief in God. My faith has deepened and I am ready to pursue more opportunities to learn more about my faith.

I truly believe that God does guide us in ways we may not be aware of at the time. Living Stones was offered to me at a time in my life when I was struggling somewhat in my faith so this was a great opportunity regain and increase my belief.

The people I have met on this journey, my fellow classmates, have become like family to me. Some of the people I had known before, some I met for the first time but we all grew together. I know these people will have a special place in my heart from now on.

I would truly encourage all of you to pray over the decision to join Living Stones and pursue your own great adventure.

Sincerely
Quin Henry

Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen

ADULT FAITH FORMATION

REFLECTION ON THE FEAST OF THE BODY AND BLOOD OF CHRIST, YEAR B

This Sunday we celebrate the feast of the Body and Blood of Christ. It was and still is traditionally known as Corpus Christi (Body of Christ) Sunday. The name change is significant in that the focus is not just on the body of Christ, but also on the blood. There was a separate feast of the Precious Blood, celebrated on July 1 in the old liturgical calendar that was joined with Corpus Christi. Bread and wine together are the fullness of the real presence of Christ in our midst, the fullness of which we are all called to share.

The readings for this Sunday focus primarily on blood as the symbol of life and all that is dear and precious to any living being. The first reading tells of the sealing of the covenant on Mt. Sinai. The blood of sacrificed animals is sprinkled on the altar, representing God, and on the people. The covenant, sealed with blood, makes God and the people blood relatives, with God taking on the responsibility for the lives of the people.

Responsorial Psalm 116 proclaims that the Lord has saved the psalmist from danger and harm, rescuing the people from slavery and oppression, enabling them to sing, "I will take the cup of salvation and call upon the name of the Lord." The symbol of the cup of salvation is the public ritual acknowledgment of God's saving love. The people would fill a cup of wine and pour it out to the Lord as a means of publically acknowledging God's gracious care.

The letter to the Hebrews recalls the covenant blood ritual of Sinai which is now sealed not with the blood of sacrificial animals but with the very blood of Christ. Christ's blood sacrifice empowers him to be our mediator with God, pleading on our behalf. Through Christ's blood sacrifice we are united with him and intimately bonded with God.

Mark's account of the Last Supper culminates in Jesus' total giving of himself for all. Jesus gives of himself for us enabling us to give of ourselves for others. United with him and strengthened by the Spirit, we are sent forth to be bread, nourishment, blood and sacrifice for others. In this manner we all truly become the very body and blood of Christ.

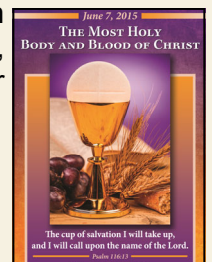

This very real presence of Christ in the elements of bread and wine has never been understood by the Church to be a physical presence. The presence that we speak of is sacramental. It is the risen Christ, real and substantial, true and full that is really present, yet not in a physical manner. Our gathering and our sharing in that bread and wine really and truly express our belief in the living Christ and unites us with Christ in life, death, resurrection and forever.

This sharing is unlike any other sharing or eating that we have or will ever experience in our lives. Our best meal experiences in this life allow us a glimpse into the fullness of sharing that we are called to realize as Eucharistic communities.

How do we go forth to share our body and blood with others, as Jesus has done for us? How do we become "bread and wine," nourishment, drink, care, concern and sacrifice for others? How do you make real Jesus' Eucharistic presence in your life? On this most special feast, commit yourself once again to do for others as Christ has done for us.

Pastoral Associate

WELLNESS CENTER

SLEEP is key to weight loss. Sleep is our body's repair state. Picture the charging of a battery pack; we get plugged in and recharge during sleep. From a biological perspective, if our bodies don't get to go through this process, it perceives it as a stress. Our body releases the hormone cortisol under stress. As our cortisol levels rise, our body becomes resistant to insulin. This plays a role in the way our bodies are able to tap into energy. Our body is no longer efficient at being able to use the available stored energy and we know what that means...our waist keeps getting bigger as our life energy goes down. Then, we REALLY don't feel like moving. So get your 7-8 hours. It can make a BIG difference!

WELLNESS SCREENINGS are offered throughout the week but ALSO on the 1st and 3rd Saturdays of the month from 8:30am - 11:30am. We are available on June 20th to serve you.

Don't forget that we provide one-on-one wellness coaching to help you meet your health goals! We can support you with your weight loss program!

HYVEE GROCERY STORE TOURS AND COOKING CLASSES

We all get stuck in "cooking ruts" sometimes, and taking a grocery store tour can shed light on foods you may have never noticed before! Learn what aisles to avoid if you'd like to maintain or lose weight, how to read a food label and which foods boost metabolism, lower blood pressure, provide protection from cancer and other diseases.

Space is limited to 13 guests per class so check your schedule and call the Wellness Center to reserve your spot for this free event.

- Monday June 15th 2:00-4:00pm
- Saturday June 20th 11:00am-1:00pm

Making lives easier, healthier, and happier!
