A Vision for our Future

In the coming weeks and months, Bishop Johnston will be leading us in a process of crafting a vision for our future as a diocese. Our goal will be to discern what God wants us to do, right here, right now, and then act together.

This process will unfold over the next six months or so. To begin, the bishop will be attending ten listening sessions throughout the diocese. These sessions are meant for Bishop Johnston to hear our hopes and dreams for the Church and will occur in the latter half of July. All are welcome and encouraged to attend these sessions. We will have a listening session at our parish in English and Spanish on Wednesday, July 25, 7-8:30pm.

This Week's Do You Know Video:

What is the difference between catechesis, theology and faith formation? We are all called to be lifelong learners, especially in the realm of faith and spirituality. While catechesis, the handing down of the teaching of our faith tradition, can and should include all that is involved in being a Christian, it is often narrowed down to handing on concepts or head knowledge. Theology, defined as faith seeking understanding, should be in continual dialogue with catechesis, helping it to be in touch with the lived experience of the community. Faith Formation exposes the community to both catechesis and theology, allowing the learner to consider the various diverse ways to understand the faith, and to make it their own. In so doing, the learner appropriates those faith aspects that best address their relationship to God and to others. These differences are explained and detailed in this week's DYK video. To find out more, make time to check out this week's video at www.stsabinaparish.org and click on the Do You Know Series link.

15th Anniversary of Our Church Building Dedication

July 12, 2018 marks the fifteenth anniversary of the Dedication of the St. Sabina church building. We will celebrate this anniversary on the following weekend, July 14/15 at all weekend Masses. It is an occasion for us to celebrate our local history as a part of the universal church. It also gives us a chance to reflect on the fact that the church building is a sacred place and that it is here that we celebrate our identity as the people of God, the living church.

Do you have any memories of the planning and building of the church? Perhaps you have some pictures of the building process or the Dedication Mass. If you have anything to share to help create a booklet to mark the 15th Anniversary of the church building, please contact Susan Ratigan at susan@stsabinaparish.org or 816-979-3158.

Wellness Center

Did you know running and walking are among the purest, most natural forms of exercise around? With newfangled innovations like Freon-filled midsoles and pump-it-up tongues, it's difficult to know which shoes to buy. Choose the wrong athletic shoes and you could end up lying on the couch nursing shin splints or aching heels instead of enjoying a brisk walk or run. Here are a few tips to get to the right fit.

Don't make shoes multitask. Walking shoes are stiffer; running shoes are more flexible, with extra cushioning to handle greater impact. If you do both activities, get a pair for each.

Know your feet and measure your feet frequently. We all have 10 toes and two heels, but beyond that, feet come in a variety of shapes and knowing your foot's particular quirks is key to selecting the right pair of shoes. It's a myth that foot size doesn't change in adults. It does change as we get older, so have your feet measured twice a year. Sizes also vary between brands, so go by what fits, not by the shoe size.

Shop toward the end of the day. Feet swell over the course of the day; they also expand while you run or walk, so shoes should fit your feet when they're at their largest.

Bring your own socks -- the ones you wear while running or walking. If you wear orthotics, bring those, too. Shoes need to fit with the orthotic inside.

Don't believe in breaking in. Running and walking shoes should feel comfortable right away.

Don't over- or underpay. Good-quality running and walking shoes are fairly pricey -- and usually worth it. A $15-shoe will not be as good as an $80-shoe. But you'll pay a premium for super-fashionable styles or those associated with a celebrity and they won't be any better for your feet.

Know when to replace them. The average pair of running shoes should be replaced after about 350-400 miles of use. Once the back of the sole is worn out or the shoe feels uncomfortable or less supportive, it's time to take those tootsies shopping again.

Stewardship

"For you know the gracious act of our Lord Jesus Christ, that though he was rich, for your sake he became poor, so that by his poverty you might become rich. Not that others should have relief while you are burdened, but that as a matter of equality your abundance at the present time should supply their needs, so that their abundance may also supply your needs, that there may be equality."

2 Corinthians 8: 9, 13-14

Paul uses the old Greek word charis to describe the giving to which he is making reference. We can probably see that the roots of that word are very much the same as the roots of the word "charity." Giving and sharing are definitely the work of God's grace in us. In fact, our motivation should be very much the same as that of the Lord. He gives to us because of Who He is, not because of what or who we are. We, too, must give if we wish to show holiness, or to at least aspire to it. That is also what we mean when we say that we are all called to stewardship, to be good stewards. It is one thing to be faithful, but it is another to give. — See more at www.catholicsteward.com/blog/

CHIEFS

Consider Making a Bequest to St. Sabina Bequests in a will or trust

The most basic estate planning tools are wills and trusts. "Bequests" are established by wills and trusts. Bequests are not payable until death, so they do not affect your assets or cash flow during your lifetime. You can change the provisions of your will or a revocable trust at any time.

To make a bequest you will most likely engage an estate planning attorney. This professional can guide you to make sure all legal necessities are followed. Charitable bequests are private. Your will is not filed or made public until your death. Trusts are never made public unless you instruct otherwise.

Frequently Asked Questions

Q What's the difference between a will and a trust?

A will is your instructions to your survivors and to the probate court about how you want your property distributed. It is a revocable, private document that only takes effect after your death.

A revocable trust -- sometimes called a living trust -- is a legal document that is always private and holds assets during your lifetime. After death, the trust transfers your assets -- or benefit from them -- to family and charity. Unlike a will, a trust must take title to assets before it can pass them to your survivors.

Q What if I already have written my will or trust?

You can amend a will or trust to make a new gift. Your attorney can prepare a simple document, called a codicil or amendment that adds a new charitable bequest while reaffirming the other terms of your will or trust.

Please consult with your own attorney and other professional advisors regarding your personal tax and financial situation.

Reflection on the Readings

This Lectionary year B focuses on the gospel according to Mark. Mark's community understands Jesus to be the long awaited Messiah, who came to establish God's kingdom by battling and eventually overcoming the forces of evil. Throughout the gospel, Mark recounts how Jesus' teachings and actions manifest his power over the forces of evil. However, the evil forces do not give in so easily, pushing back and opposing Jesus all the way. Such opposition and rejection will be experienced by anyone who commits themselves to carrying on the mission and ministry of Jesus.

Using Jesus as the model, Mark counsels courage and strength, faith and persistence. Only with faith in God and persistence in living out the values and life style of Jesus will evil be defeated and God's kingdom be established. Responsorial Psalm 30 clearly links with Mark's message. The psalm is a song of praise and thanksgiving by one rescued from death and destruction through God's saving help. It provides a rich lens to this Sunday's theme of God as the author and the sustainer of life. By placing complete trust and confidence in God, the psalmist is rescued from death and given richness of life.

The first reading from the book of Wisdom clearly states that God did not make death, the implication being that it was the result of humanity's inability to be content with creaturehood, desiring to be Godlike instead. Death entered the world through the "envy of the devil" and will be experienced by all those who prefer the devil's company rather than God's. However, the author believes that "justice is undying" and that God formed humanity to be "imperishable," having been created in the very image and likeness of the imperishable God. The gist of the reading presents God as the creator and sustainer of enduring and imperishable life, clearly linking it with the responsorial psalm and the gospel.

The second reading from Paul's Second Letter to the Corinthians encourages the followers of Jesus to imitate him in his willingness to become "poor" so that we "might become rich." Paul is attempting to motivate his community to contribute to other Jesus followers who are in need. Sharing resources so as to meet the basic needs of others should be the concern of all. Justice demands as much, and so does our relationship to God, who gives to all according to their needs. God's gift of manna in the desert manifested this shared equality of needs and so it should be among those who claim to be Jesus' disciples.

Mark's Jesus performs actions and deeds that overwhelm his followers, forcing them to seek deeper understanding of who Jesus is and what following him demands. Mark recounts the miracle of the raising of Jairus' daughter intermingled with the cure of the woman afflicted with a blood disease. While totally marvelous in themselves, Mark uses the events to teach the disciples and ourselves the virtues and attitudes required of any follower of Jesus.

Both miracles challenge Jesus' disciples not to be afraid but to have faith even in the face of overwhelming odds and circumstances. The woman had been suffering with a blood disease for twelve years. Yet her courage and faith in Jesus and his power over evil has her dare to reach out and touch the fringes of Jesus' garment. Once she is discovered she fears the worst, yet she is not afraid to reveal her faith and belief. Jesus directly connects her healing with her faith.

The same message is evident in the account of the raising of Jairus' daughter, a young girl of twelve. (Notice the stories' connections through the number twelve.) While others pronounced her dead, Jesus counsels Jairus: "Do not be afraid. Just have faith." Jesus can and does bring even the dead back to life. Faith can overcome all sorts of fear and limitations, even death. Faith thus becomes the essential component in overcoming evil, suffering and fear, enabling us with God's help to make real God's reign.

How is this message of trust and faith operative in your life as a follower of Jesus? How does this stance help you come to a deeper awareness of who Jesus is and what following him entails? Let us help one another to be people of faith.

Reflexión Sobre las Lecturas

Este ciclo Leccionario B se enfoca en el evangelio según San Marcos. La comunidad de Marcos entiende que Jesús es el Mesías largamente esperado, que vino a establecer el reino de Dios luchando y finalmente venciendo a las fuerzas del mal. A lo largo del evangelio, Marcos relata cómo las enseñanzas y acciones de Jesús manifiestan su poder sobre las fuerzas del mal. Sin embargo, las fuerzas del mal no ceden tan fácilmente, empujando y oponiéndose a Jesús todo el camino. Tal oposición y rechazo será experimentado por cualquiera que se comprometa a llevar a cabo la misión y el ministerio de Jesús.

Usando a Jesús como modelo, Marcos aconseja valentía y fortaleza, fe y persistencia. Solo con la fe en Dios y la persistencia en vivir los valores y el estilo de vida de Jesús se derrotará al mal y se establecerá el reino de Dios. El Salmo responsorial 29 se vincula claramente con el mensaje de Marcos. El salmo es una canción de alabanza y acción de gracias por parte de alguien rescatado de la muerte y la destrucción por medio de la ayuda salvadora de Dios. Proporciona una lente rica al tema de este domingo de Dios como el autor y el sustentador de la vida. Al depositar completa confianza en Dios, el salmista es rescatado de la muerte y se le da la riqueza de vida.

La primera lectura del libro de Sabiduría claramente establece que Dios no hizo la muerte, lo que implica que fue el resultado de la incapacidad de la humanidad para contentarse con la criaturidad, deseando ser como Dios en su lugar. La muerte entró en el mundo a través de la "envidia del diablo" y será experimentada por todos aquellos que prefieren la compañía del demonio en lugar de la de Dios. Sin embargo, el autor cree que "la justicia es eterna" y que Dios formó a la humanidad "para que nunca muriera", habiendo sido creada a la imagen y semejanza del Dios imperecedero. La esencia de la lectura presenta a Dios como el creador y sustentador de una vida duradera e imperecedera, vinculándola claramente con el salmo responsorial y el evangelio.

La segunda lectura de la segunda carta de Pablo a los Corintios alienta a los seguidores de Jesús a imitarlo en su voluntad de hacerse "pobre" para que nos hiciéramos ricos. Pablo intenta motivar a su comunidad para que contribuya con otros seguidores de Jesús que están en necesidad. Compartir los recursos para satisfacer las necesidades básicas de los demás debería ser la preocupación de todos. La justicia exige tanto como nuestra relación con Dios, quien da a todos según sus necesidades. El regalo de Dios del maná en el desierto manifestó esta igualdad compartida de necesidades y por lo tanto debería estar entre aquellos que dicen ser los discípulos de Jesús.

El Jesús de Marcos realiza acciones que abruman a sus seguidores, obligándolos a buscar una comprensión más profunda de quién es Jesús y qué le exige seguirlo. Marcos relata el milagro del resucito de la hija de Jairo entremezclada con la cura de la mujer que padece una enfermedad de la sangre. Aunque son totalmente maravillosos en sí mismos, Marcos usa los eventos para enseñar a los discípulos y a nosotros mismos las virtudes y actitudes requeridas de cualquier seguidor de Jesús.

Ambos milagros desafían a los discípulos de Jesús a no tener miedo, sino a tener fe incluso frente a circunstancias abrumadoras. La mujer había estado sufriendo de una enfermedad de la sangre durante doce años. Sin embargo, su valentía y fe en Jesús y su poder sobre el mal la tiene a ella a tender la mano y tocar las franjas de la vestimenta de Jesús. Una vez que la descubre, teme lo peor, sin embargo, no tiene miedo de revelar su fe y creencia. Jesús conecta directamente su curación con su fe.

El mismo mensaje es evidente en el relato del resucito de la hija de Jairo, una niña de doce años. (Observe las conexiones de las historias a través del número doce.) Mientras que otros la declararon muerta, Jesús le aconseja a Jairo: "No temas, basta que tengas fe". Jesús puede devolver a la vida a los muertos, y lo hace. La fe puede vencer toda clase de miedos y limitaciones, incluso la muerte. La fe se convierte así en el componente esencial para vencer el mal, el sufrimiento y el miedo, permitiéndonos con la ayuda de Dios hacer realidad el Reino de Dios.

¿Cómo funciona este mensaje de confianza y fe en su vida como seguidor de Jesús? ¿Cómo le ayuda esta postura a llegar a una conciencia más profunda de quién es Jesús y qué implica seguirlo? Permitámonos ayudarnos unos a otros a ser personas de fe.
