STEWARDSHIP

"In him you also, who have heard the word of truth, the gospel of your salvation, and have believed in him, were sealed with the promised holy Spirit, which is the first installment of our inheritance toward redemption as God's possession, to the praise of his glory."

Ephesians 1: 12-14

At the end of this particular reading, Paul makes reference to two important aspects of our faith and of our beliefs. St. Paul tells us that we have "believed in him (Jesus)" and that we are "sealed" with the promised Holy Spirit. Believing in Jesus, in His promises, in His redemption of us, is at the core of everything we do. This trust, this belief, is what allows us to take the steps needed to follow Him, to be His disciple, and to practice a stewardship way of living. - See more at www.catholicsteward.com/blog/.

LIVING STONES

Foundations for Living Stones

A Faith Formation Program for interested Adults

"Come to him, a living stone...chosen and precious in the sight of God, and, like living stones, let yourself be built into a spiritual house..." (1 Peter 2:4-5)

St. Sabina, a Catholic faith community committed to total and lifelong faith formation, is offering an adult faith formation program titled, Foundations for Living Stones. The program explores in greater depth and knowledge the basics of our faith. All the sessions focus on the ministry that we are called to in and through our baptism. Communication skills, group development, leadership skills, bible study, church history, prayer and sacraments are some of the many areas explored and examined in depth. Adult methods of learning and reflection are employed throughout.

The sessions are scheduled on Tuesday evenings, from 7-9:30 PM, beginning in late August and ending in late May. This is a 9-month commitment to deepen one's skills and knowledge so as to become a more effective and engaging minister. We hope to work collaboratively with our neighboring parishes, inviting them to be part of this mutual learning process. For a brochure or more information, please call or e-mail either Kris or Biagio at:

Biagio Mazza 816-979-3153 biagio@stsabinaparish.org
Kris Larkey 816-979-3151; kris@stsabinaparish.org

HOW LIVING STONES CHANGED MY LIFE

As recent retirees, we joined Biagio's class on Women in the Old Testament three years ago. The class convinced us we needed to update and expand our understanding of scripture and the contemporary Church. When we read the announcement of the first Living Stones class, we decided would try it for a year and ended up staying for the entire three-year program. Besides gaining a much richer understanding of scripture, church history, and modern theology, we were enriched by our membership in our Living Stones community - a diverse, age-integrated group of Kansas City Catholics sharing their own views and experiences as modern Christian disciples.

Living Stones has been an incredible learning experience for both of us and we urge anyone interested in a better understanding of 21st century Catholicism to take advantage of this opportunity to participate.

SOCIAL JUSTICE

LOVE THY NEIGHBOR PROJECT UPDATES

Through our needs survey that we asked everyone to participate in, we have discovered several needs that we are trying to resolve in different ways. We just had our very first St. Sabina Helping Hands program on Saturday, June 20, where volunteers helped fellow parishioners with household repairs and yard work. We are working on making a free resource book for seniors available to parishioners. In this book you will be able to find resources for transportation, in home care, senior activities and entertainment, and many more. In the coming weeks, you can expect to see a "Love Thy Neighbor" update area set up in the gathering space. Here you will be able to find the needs surveys, which you can fill out at any time, information and sign ups for current projects, and the resource books mentioned above.

ADULT FAITH FORMATION

REFLECTION ON THE FIFTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME , YEAR B

Mark's gospel presents Jesus as the one sent by God to establish the reign or kingdom of God by confronting and ultimately defeating the forces of evil. In the words of Mark, Jesus has come to "bind the strong man," namely Satan, and plunder his house or domain. Jesus' whole life and ministry are directed towards preaching repentance, a turning away from sin, and bringing God's healing presence and touch to all people. When Jesus chooses disciples and sends them out on ministry, he commissions them to continue, deepen and intensify the work he has begun.

This Sunday's gospel focuses on Mark's Jesus sending forth his disciples on mission. He sends them forth to heal, giving them authority over unclean spirits, while preaching repentance and reconciliation. At the same time, Jesus prepares them by advising them to travel light and to be ready for rejection and possible failure. Today's readings guide us in being faithful to our evangelizing task even in the midst of opposition and rejection.

Responsorial Psalm 85 centers on God's enduring covenant love (kindness) as the source of all that sustains us. This faithful love relationship is the source of peace, of continual attunement to the Lord, of justice and truth, and of all that aids us in being faithful witnesses to the Lord's presence. We are sent to preach not doctrine but God's enduring faithful love, enabling others to experience that love through our lives and actions. This Sunday we are invited to call upon the Lord and sing, "Lord, let us see your kindness, and grant us your salvation."

The first reading from the prophet Amos exemplifies a significant aspect of what fidelity to God's covenant entails. In our desire and mission to share God's love with others, some might not be ready or open to receiving that message. God's love demands that we change our way of acting and thinking towards ourselves and others. Some are not ready or willing to do so, resulting in an attack of the messenger and the message. Such experiences can be discouraging and debilitating. Yet, like Amos, we are to focus on God's covenant love and mission as the source of our strength and courage. God has set us on this evangelizing path, and God will sustain us in whatever struggles surface.

The letter to the Ephesians gets at the core of God's covenant love with all humanity. God calls all people into relationship, choosing and loving us freely and completely. In Christ, God manifested the richness and abundance of that love, and we are the beneficiaries of God's saving love and redemption. Being chosen by God, we have the responsibility to proclaim that choice and love to all we encounter. God's love is all inclusive. It is up to others to open themselves up to it. It is up to us to continually proclaim that love with our lives.

As Mark narrates Jesus' story, he emphasizes the importance of the mission to establish the kingdom of God, God's covenant love available to all, but also consistently highlights the opposition to Jesus and his mission. Establishing God's kingdom demands a change of mind and heart, a movement away from the powers of evil and a movement towards God. This process of repentance and conversion is usually resisted by those who find it too challenging or opposed to their own perceived way of living and acting. Such opposition results in rejection, persecution and oppression of those who desire to cooperate in building up the kingdom of God.

In Baptism we commit ourselves to continue the mission and ministry of Jesus by building up God's kingdom wherever we are planted. We model ourselves on Jesus who walked that same path, trusting in God's love, wisdom, and guidance, no matter how challenging the road. Can we, like Jesus, have hope, courage, and trust in God that building up the kingdom through reconciliation and healing are ultimately worthwhile, no matter the risks involved?

This week, take time to reflect on your baptismal commitment to carry out Jesus' mission and ministry of reconciliation and healing for the world. Ask God for help and strength in your commitment to build up God's kingdom.

Pastoral Associate

RCIA

ST. SABINA RITE OF CHRISTIAN INITIATION OF ADULTS – 2015-2016

The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults, the RCIA, is a process which welcomes all who are interested in becoming Catholic, or any Catholic wishing to deepen their understanding of the faith. The Rite involves the formation of a community that learns, shares, builds community and prays together to deepen their relationship to God and to the parish family. During the next few weeks, we will be asking if you are aware of anyone who would benefit from participation in this faith learning process. Below are some of the values that we hold as Catholic Christians, which we readily share with all who desire to journey with us through the RCIA.

WHY BE CATHOLIC? The Catholic Church has consistently believed that God has a universal will and desire to save all people. Our God is the God of all people. God has initiated this love relationship with all creation and desires to bring all to fullness through total union with God for all eternity. Each one is called to union with God through the faith path and tradition that they feel God is leading them.

If this is so, then why be Catholic? One is Catholic, not because it is the only way to God, but because one feels attracted to the things that the Catholic tradition offers. One feels at home more in the Catholic tradition than in other faith traditions. The following list is meant to highlight some of those aspects of the Catholic tradition that have attracted others to it.

Catholics are not the only ones that value these qualities. Nor have we been consistent in following through on them. But, no matter the history, we seem to have held onto these values rather consistently.

See if these are values and attractions for you.

1. We affirm a belief in the goodness of all creation.
2. We have a universal sense of openness to all people and all cultures.
3. We affirm that we are all called to holiness.
4. We are committed to continual growth as persons.
5. We are challenged to change the world and society into the reign of God.
6. We are called to live in community.
7. We have historical roots and identity.
8. We respect reason, human knowledge and human exploration.

If you or anyone you know would be attracted to these values, please share this with them. Please fill out the contact information sheet located in the gathering space and we will personally contact and invite all those interested to our RCIA (Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults) Meal which will be held on Thursday, August 27th, 2015 at 6:00pm.

10-MINUTE WORKOUT... WHO SAYS YOU DON'T HAVE TIME TO GET ACTIVE?

The biggest obstacle to the 10-minute workout lives only in your mind. It's the idea that if you do only 10 minutes, it doesn't count. It does. It is true that there are a lot of benefits from longer workouts, but it's equally true that 10 minutes count AND it all adds up at the end of the day. If you've only got 10 minutes or so on a given day, here is an example of what you can do. And who knows, once you get started, you just may find that 10 minutes easily turns into 20 or 30 minutes. The possibilities are limited only by your imagination and your commitment to JUST get started.

Moderate intensity cardio workout (outdoors or on a treadmill):

TESORO:

MISIONERA COLOMBANA -12 DE JULIO

Rev. Tom Shaughnessy, un misionero de San Columbano, predicará en todas las misas de este fin de semana. La Sociedad Misionera de San Columbano, también conocida como los Padres de San Columbano, es una sociedad misionera católica que fue fundada en 1918 para anunciar y dar testimonio de la Buena Nueva de Jesucristo. La Sociedad tiene por objeto establecer la Iglesia Católica donde el Evangelio no ha sido predicado, ayudar a las iglesias locales evangelizar su laicado, promover el diálogo con otras religiones, y fomentar entre todos los bautizados la conciencia de su responsabilidad misionera. Para aprender más sobre los Padres de San Columbano, puede visitar su sitio web en www.columban.org.

MANOS PARA AYUDAR DE STA. SABINA

Gracias a toda la gente de Manos para Ayudar por todo el trabajo que hicieron adentro y afuera de mi hogar. Nunca lo hubiera hecho sin ustedes. Dios los bendiga y mantenga a salvos y saludables es mi oración diario por ustedes.

ACTUALIZACIONES DEL PROYECTO AMA AL PROJIMO

A través de nuestra encuesta de necesidades en que pedimos a todos participar, hemos descubierto varias necesidades que estamos tratando de resolver de diferentes maneras. Acabamos de tener nuestro primer programa Manos para Ayudar de Santa Sabina el Sábado 20 de Junio, donde voluntarios ayudaron a otros feligreses con reparaciones del hogar y trabajo del jardín. Estamos trabajando en hacer disponible un libro gratuito de recursos para las personas de la tercera edad. En este libro usted podrá encontrar los recursos para el transporte, cuidado dentro del hogar, actividades y entretenimiento para personas de la tercera edad, y muchos más.

En las próximas semanas, se puede esperar ver un área de actualizaciones del proyecto "Ama al Próximo" establecido en el espacio de reunión. Aquí usted podrá encontrar las encuestas de necesidades, que se pueden llenar en cualquier momento, información e inscripciones para los proyectos actuales, y los libros de recursos antes mencionados.

ORACION

ORACION POR LA ELECCION DE UN OBISPO

O Dios, pastor eterno, que gobiernas de tu rebaño con cuidado infalible; concede en tu amor paternal sin límites a un pastor para tu Iglesia, un pastor quien te agrade por su santidad y para mostrarnos atención vigilante. Por nuestro Señor Jesucristo, tu Hijo, quien vive y reina contigo en la unidad del Espíritu Santo, un solo Dios, por los siglos de los siglos.

Amen.
