STEWARSHIP

"When he disembarked and saw the vast crowd, his heart was moved with pity for them, for they were like sheep without a shepherd; and he began to teach them many things."

Mark 6: 34

Sheep are among the most defenseless animals, and they are completely dependent upon the shepherd to feed them or lead them to food and water; to keep them from wandering aimlessly; and to protect them because they are so vulnerable. In today's Gospel the Lord recognizes that the people are "sheep without a shepherd" and He begins to teach them. He is feeding them with the word of God. The Hebrew word for "shepherding" can also be translated "feeding." Jesus calls us to serve as shepherds for those around us, just as He shepherds us. It is this stewardship of our family, friends, co-workers, and others which allows us to show the love we are expected to demonstrate. - See more at www.catholicsteward.com/blog/.

STEWARSHIP OF TIME AND TALENT

HOLY FAMILY HOUSE NEEDS YOUR TIME

For years now, St. Sabina Parish has built a relationship with Holy Family Catholic Worker House, sending volunteers every month to help prepare and serve a meal to the homeless in Kansas City. While we have taken a break for the summer, we do start back up in August and need more volunteers! Every third Saturday of the month we carpool to Holy Family House, leaving Belton at 4pm and returning around 8pm. If you can help in this ministry of feeding the hungry, contact Terri Standley at 816-277-5250 or terristan@gmail.com. Holy Family House is also always in need of items such as: plastic cups (like from QuickTrip) and cloth napkins to reuse each meal, white socks (gently used is OK), and hygiene products. You can bring these donations to the parish office or leave them in the donation box on the South side of the gathering space.

VBS SET UP THANKS

Thank you to Nancy Ruffini, Barb Rewald, Sarah Hagemann, Calvin, Jaeden, Justin and Austin for all your help in preparing for Vacation Bible School this year. Your efforts helped to make this another great year for VBS!

LIVING STONES

Foundations for Living Stones

A Faith Formation Program for interested Adults

"Come to him, a living stone...chosen and precious in the sight of God, and, like living stones, let yourself be built into a spiritual house..." (1 Peter 2:4-5)

St. Sabina, a Catholic faith community committed to total and lifelong faith formation, is offering an adult faith formation program titled, Foundations for Living Stones. The program explores in greater depth and knowledge the basics of our faith. All the sessions focus on the ministry that we are called to in and through our baptism. Communication skills, group development, leadership skills, bible study, church history, prayer and sacraments are some of the many areas explored and examined in depth. Adult methods of learning and reflection are employed throughout.

The sessions are scheduled on Tuesday evenings, from 7-9:30 PM, beginning in late August and ending in late May. This is a 9-month commitment to deepen one's skills and knowledge so as to become a more effective and engaging minister. We hope to work collaboratively with our neighboring parishes, inviting them to be part of this mutual learning process. For a brochure or more information, please call or e-mail either Kris or Biagio at:

As of now we are planning to travel to El Salvador on January 5 and staying approximately 8 days. If you are interested or would like more information, please contact Kris at 816-979-3151 or by email at kris@stsabinaparish.org.

ADULT FAITH FORMATION

REFLECTION ON THE SIXTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME , YEAR B

The sixteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time, Year B, sets the context for the next five Sundays. In today's gospel, Jesus and his disciples set time aside for rest. In doing so, they become aware of the large crowd following them. Jesus looks upon them with pity, for they are like sheep without a shepherd. Reaching out to them, he desires to address their needs, modeling himself on God, the Good Shepherd whose qualities are extolled in Responsorial Psalm 23.

This desire to care for, teach, and feed God's people sets the stage for the exploration of John's "Bread of Life" discourse. From the Seventeenth to the Twenty-first Sunday in Ordinary Time Year B, the semi-continuous reading of Mark is interrupted with the proclamation of John chapter 6, the "Bread of Life" discourse. Since the discourse did not appear in any of the three year lectionary cycles, the lectionary committee inserted it here so that we could hear and reflect on it for five successive Sundays. More on this in the following weeks.

Today's readings focus on being good shepherds modeled on Jesus who takes his cue from the image of God articulated in Psalm 23. Here God is imaged as the one who provides, guides and walks with us no matter the dangers. The good shepherd knows the sheep. They can trust and depend on the shepherd no matter what comes. Such covenant relationship leads to peace and to a desire to dwell with the shepherd always. Today, we too can joyfully sing the refrain from Responsorial Psalm 23, "The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want."

The first reading from Jeremiah excoriates the shepherds of Israel, usually the leaders, especially kings and priests, for failing in their responsibility to care for the people. Jeremiah predicts that someday, the Lord will raise up a descendant of David who will "govern wisely, he shall do what is right and just in the land," so much so that they will name him, "The Lord our Justice." Christians believe Jesus to be this very descendant of David whose ministry is to "do what is just and right in the land."

The second reading from the letter to the Ephesians specifies how Jesus, David's "righteous shoot," acted with love, concern and justice towards all. Through his willingness to give of himself totally for others, Jesus unites us to God and to one another, establishing peace, breaking down boundaries, enacting forgiveness and reconciliation, and drawing us near to the Father in the Spirit. As disciples, we too are called to be David's "righteous shoot," modeling ourselves on Jesus, ministering to others as good shepherds should.

Last week's gospel had Mark's Jesus commission his disciples to preach, teach and heal in his name. Today's gospel has them return, reporting to Jesus their ministerial success. Jesus counsels them to take time to regroup from their ministry to a "deserted place" for renewal and recommitment. Yet, Jesus and the disciples' ministry has caught the attention of the crowd who would not allow them quiet and peace. Jesus, moved by the people's desire to experience good shepherding, begins "to teach them many things." This was not merely an intellectual exercise, but a practical one in which the criteria of a good shepherd, which the other three reading delineate, was made manifest for all to see.

In Baptism we commit ourselves to continue the mission and ministry of Jesus by building up God's kingdom wherever we are planted. We model ourselves on Jesus, the good shepherd, who walked that same path, trusting in God's wisdom and guidance, "doing what is right and just in the land." This week, reflect on how you live out your call to be a "good shepherd" to all you encounter. How do you go about "doing what is right and just in the land?"

RCIA

ST. SABINA RITE OF CHRISTIAN INITIATION OF ADULTS – 2015-2016

The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults, the RCIA, is a process which welcomes all who are interested in becoming Catholic, or any Catholic wishing to deepen their understanding of the faith. The Rite involves the formation of a community that learns, shares, builds community and prays together to deepen their relationship to God and to the parish family. During the next few weeks, we will be asking if you are aware of anyone who would benefit from participation in this faith learning process. Below are some of the values that we hold as Catholic Christians, which we readily share with all who desire to journey with us through the RCIA.

WHY BE CATHOLIC? The Catholic Church has consistently believed that God has a universal will and desire to save all people. Our God is the God of all people. God has initiated this love relationship with all creation and desires to bring all to fullness through total union with God for all eternity. Each one is called to union with God through the faith path and tradition that they feel God is leading them.

If this is so, then why be Catholic? One is Catholic, not because it is the only way to God, but because one feels attracted to the things that the Catholic tradition offers. One feels at home more in the Catholic tradition than in other faith traditions. The following list is meant to highlight some of those aspects of the Catholic tradition that have attracted others to it.

Catholics are not the only ones that value these qualities. Nor have we been consistent in following through on them. But, no matter the history, we seem to have held onto these values rather consistently.

See if these are values and attractions for you.

1. We affirm a belief in the goodness of all creation.
2. We have a universal sense of openness to all people and all cultures.
3. We affirm that we are all called to holiness.
4. We are committed to continual growth as persons.
5. We are challenged to change the world and society into the reign of God.
6. We are called to live in community.
7. We have historical roots and identity.
8. We respect reason, human knowledge and human exploration.

If you or anyone you know would be attracted to these values, please share this with them. Please fill out the contact information sheet located in the gathering space and we will personally contact and invite all those interested to our RCIA (Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults) Meal which will be held on Thursday, August 27th, 2015 at 6:00pm.

DRINKING GREEN

Green drinks refer to an entire category of juices from barley, wheatgrass, magma, or any other combination of whole green foods, including spinach, broccoli, parsley, and virtually any other healthy green thing that grows. Green drinks pack an incredible nutritional wallop and have an amazing amount of phytonutrients. Green drinks are very alkalizing. The pH balance is very important for all living things. Alkalizing green drinks help correct and balance a diet that is higher in meat protein. Use green drinks as a stand-alone energy boost, or in combination with solid foods.

Be creative and find a combination that works for you. Get a blender and start your day out right!

We will return to offering weekend screenings on the 1st and 3rd Saturday in August. We will be open the 25th of July for workouts and class.

ORACION POR LA ELECCION DE UN OBISPO

O Dios, pastor eterno, que gobiernas de tu rebaño con cuidado infalible; concede en tu amor paternal sin límites a un pastor para tu Iglesia, un pastor quien te agrade por su santidad y para mostrarnos atención vigilante. Por nuestro Señor Jesucristo, tu

Hijo, quien vive y reina contigo en la unidad del Espíritu Santo, un solo Dios, por los siglos de los siglos.

Amen.
