Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA) - 2018-2019

(Contact: Biagio Mazza - 816-979-3153; e-mail: biagio@stsabinaparish.org)

The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults, the RCIA, is a process which welcomes all who are interested in becoming Jesus' disciples in union with the Catholic Community, or any Catholic wishing to deepen their understanding of the faith. The Rite involves the formation of a community that learns, shares, builds community and prays together to deepen their relationship to God and to the parish family. The entire process leads to full commitment to God in and through the faith community, celebrated during the Easter Triduum of Holy Thursday, Good Friday and the Easter Vigil. This year, the key steps, rituals and dates are:

August 30, 2018, 6 PM - Initial getting to know one another gathering and meal

September 6, 2018, 7-9 PM - The first of our weekly Thursday evening gatherings

December 9, 2018, 10:30 AM - The Rite of being welcomed and accepted by the parish family

March 9, 2019, 10 AM - The Rite of being welcomed and accepted by the diocesan family

April 18-19-20, 2019 - The Triduum Rituals leading to full commitment to God and parish family

If you or anyone you know would be interested in being part of the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults, please share the information with them. There are forms in the gathering space, along with a complete calendar for this year's program. Please fill out the contact information on the other side and we will personally contact and invite all those interested to our RCIA Meal which will be held on Thursday, August 30th, 2018 at 6:00pm.

This Week's Do You Know Video:

As we continue our series on the basic principles of the Second Vatican Council, this week's DYK video looks at the principle of "aggiornamento". Often translated as updating or modernizing, it is best translated in its literal meaning as "the act of bringing things to the present day and time". Pope John XXIII used the word to explain one of the purposes for calling Vatican II. He dreamed of a church and gospel that would speak to the world by actively engaging the world and all that the world had to offer in terms of learning, science and other advancements. Unfortunately, the church had been rather suspicious of the world and had not actively engaged with it for a long time. The council participants saw the need for "aggiornamento" and in its work and deliberations produced documents that enshrine the principle of "aggiornamento" as an essential component in Catholic teaching and action. The need to be cautious in not accommodating to the world, while real, should not remove Catholics from actively engaging the world and bringing the message of the gospel in active and respectful dialogue with the world. Make time to view this week's DYK video and become familiar with the principle of "aggiornamento" and the challenge it offers us as we journey in faith in this present world.

The diocese of Kansas City-St. Joseph, under the leadership of Bishop James Johnston, Jr., is the Catholic sponsor of St. Joseph Medical Center. The Catholic Tradition Agreement, an agreement between Prime Healthcare and the diocese, has achieved numerous things. In 2017 over 6 million dollars in charity care and over 21 million in uninsured discounts were provided. A Catholic chapel is on site where Mass is celebrated daily and the Eucharist reserved for prayer and adoration. Board Certified chaplains, appointed by the Bishop, provide high quality spiritual care that embraces the total person: body, mind and spirit.

Stewardship

"I am the bread of life. Your ancestors ate the manna in the desert, but they died; this is the bread that comes down from heaven so that one may eat it and not die. I am the living bread that came down from heaven; whoever eats this bread will live forever; and the bread that I will give is my flesh for the life of the world."

John 6: 48-51

Feeling worn down at times is actually part of the stewardship journey. It means we are giving our all to the life God is calling us to live. But it is also a sign to us that we need to find new strength. How? Ask the Lord! He will meet your physical needs. Even more, He will send you His own Son, the Bread from Heaven, to strengthen you with the Eucharist and the living Word of the Scriptures. A stewardship way of life takes all the strength we have to give. The beauty of this way of life is that we have a God who delights in giving us every bit of strength we need to live it! — See more at www.catholicsteward.com/blog/

Annual Life and Justice Campaign - Aug 19

Next weekend our parish will have a second collection for the Annual Life and Justice Campaign. Join the campaign to share your gifts! The Life and Justice Campaign supports local organizations dedicated to defending the dignity of the person and the sanctity of human life. All funding decisions are made locally by the diocesan Life and Justice Campaign Committee and 100% of all donations are distributed locally. To qualify for a grant, an organization must meet a set of strict criteria. These include having a primary goal of directly addressing injustice toward the dignity of the person or the sanctity of human life through spiritual growth, pastoral care, education, or public policy advocacy and empowering members of affected groups to break their cycle of vulnerability. To learn more, please visit www.lifeandjusticekcsj.org.

Reflection on the Readings

This Sunday we continue our proclamation of John 6, the Bread of Life discourse. John's gospel is often challenging to read and understand. Chapter 6 is no exception. Yet, while challenging to listen to and comprehend, the message that John's Jesus proclaims is pretty straightforward.

Jesus affirms that he is the "living bread come down from heaven. Whoever eats this bread will live forever." Jesus' identity is made known and we are told how to gain eternal life. Why the murmuring among some of his followers? The last line of today's gospel reading, which is reiterated at the beginning of next Sunday's gospel, clearly states that "the bread that I will give is my flesh for the life of the world."

Therefore, to eat of the living bread come down from heaven demands a willingness to give of that bread for the sake of others, so that the world might have life. This is the clear challenge of partaking in the "living bread come down from heaven." Just as Jesus, our living bread, was willing to give his entire self "for the life of the world," so too, anyone who freely and willingly partakes in that bread must be willing to give of their self for the life of the world.

Placing trust and confidence in God no matter the obstacles can often lead to rejection and suffering. This was true for Jesus as it is for his disciples. Like Elijah in the first reading, whenever we find it difficult to work through rejection and suffering, we tend to give up and lose our way. We complain to God and no longer trust in God's nourishing care and love. This is what the murmuring is about. For some, suffering for the sake of others is too high a price to pay for eternal life. But eternal life is not just for those who partake in God's life, but is intended for all humanity. Just as Jesus gives totally of himself so that we might have eternal life, we must be willing to give totally of ourselves so that all may have a share in God's eternal life.

We manifest this by reaching out with love, care, and compassion to the poor, the powerless, the afflicted, the brokenhearted, the stranger, and the immigrant. We offer to others Jesus, the living bread, whenever we challenge systems and structures that oppress and dehumanize. We share Jesus' eternal life with others whenever we fight for justice, right relationship and the dignity and worth of all human beings. We clearly model Jesus' love and self-gift whenever we open our borders, our doors, and our arms to all those fleeing oppression and seeking a better life for themselves and their children.

Jesus, by referring to himself as "the living bread come down from heaven," uses bread as a symbol to express how to connect with him and God more deeply. Bread is a rich symbol of sharing life with others in the context of eating and nourishing one another. Bread is a sacramental, a sign of life. When shared with others, it becomes a living sign of our willingness to give of ourselves for others, so that they may be nourished and fed.

The word "companions" literally means "with bread," those who bond themselves to each other in and through the sharing of bread. Sharing bread says that we are there for you in your need, in your struggles and in your joys. Sharing with others enables us to sing and proclaim together with passion and commitment the refrain of responsorial Psalm 34 "Taste and see the goodness of the Lord."

Whenever we do Eucharist together, we proclaim our desire to carry on Jesus' mission of willingly giving himself for others. Sharing Eucharist, the living bread come down from heaven, with others makes us partakers with Jesus in building up the Body of Christ and in proclaiming our solidarity with all humanity.

This week, share bread with someone you do not know or one who needs to know that you care. Use the sharing of bread as an opportunity to connect, bond and become companions on life's journey. As you share, tell stories of how you have been fed by others and the difference it has made in your life. Ask God to deepen your desire to give of yourself to others, as Jesus has given of himself to us. May you recognize Jesus more deeply in the breaking of the bread.

Reflexión Sobre las Lecturas

Este domingo continuamos nuestra proclamación de Juan 6, el discurso del Pan de Vida. El evangelio de Juan muchas veces es desafiante de leer y entender. El Capítulo 6 no es una excepción. Sin embargo, aunque desafía escuchar y comprender, el mensaje que proclama el Jesús de Juan es bastante directo.

Jesús afirma que Él es el "pan vivo que ha bajado del cielo; el que coma de este pan vivirá para siempre". La identidad de Jesús se da a conocer y se nos dice cómo obtener la vida eterna. ¿Por qué el murmullo entre algunos de sus seguidores? La última línea de la lectura evangélica de hoy, que se reitera al comienzo del evangelio del próximo domingo, establece claramente que "el pan que les voy a dar es mi carne para que el mundo tenga vida".

Por lo tanto, comer del pan vivo que baja del cielo exige la disposición a dar de ese pan por el bien de los demás, para que el mundo tenga vida. Este es el desafío claro de participar en el "pan vivo bajado del cielo". Así como Jesús, nuestro pan vivo, estaba dispuesto a entregarse por completo "para la vida del mundo", también cualquiera que voluntariamente participa en ese pan debe estar dispuesto a entregarse por la vida del mundo.

Poner confianza en Dios sin importar los obstáculos muchas veces puede resultar en el rechazo y sufrimiento. Esto fue cierto para Jesús como lo es para sus discípulos. Al igual que Elías en la primera lectura, cada vez que nos resulta difícil superar el rechazo y el sufrimiento, tendemos a renunciar y perder el rumbo. Nos quejamos con Dios y ya no confiamos en el cuidado y amor nutritivos de Dios. De esto se trata el murmullo. Para algunos, el sufrimiento por el bien de los demás es un precio demasiado alto para pagar la vida eterna. Pero la vida eterna no es solo para aquellos que participan en la vida de Dios, sino que está destinada a toda la humanidad. Así como Jesús da totalmente de sí mismo para que podamos tener vida eterna, debemos estar dispuestos a dar totalmente de nosotros mismos para que todos tengan una participación en la vida eterna de Dios.

Manifestamos esto al extendernos con amor, cuidado y compasión hacia los pobres, los desamparados, los afligidos, los desconsolados, los extranjeros y los inmigrantes. Ofrecemos a los demás a Jesús, el pan vivo, cada vez que desafiamos sistemas y estructuras que oprimen y deshumanizan. Compartimos la vida eterna de Jesús con los demás cada vez que luchamos por la justicia, la relación correcta y la dignidad y el valor de todos los seres humanos. Claramente modelamos el amor y el don de Jesús cada vez que abrimos nuestras fronteras, nuestras puertas y nuestros brazos a todos los que huyen la opresión y buscan una vida mejor para sus familias.

Jesús, al referirse a sí mismo como "el pan vivo bajado del cielo", usa el pan como símbolo para expresar cómo conectarse con él y con Dios más profundamente. El pan es un rico símbolo de compartir la vida con los demás en el contexto de comer y nutrirse unos a otros. El pan es un sacramental, un signo de vida. Cuando se comparte con otros, se convierte en un signo vivo de nuestra voluntad de darnos a los demás, para que puedan nutrirse y alimentarse.

La palabra "compañeros" significa literalmente "con pan", aquellos que se unen el uno al otro en el intercambio de pan. El compartir pan dice que estamos allí para ayudarlo en su necesidad, en sus luchas y en sus alegrías. Compartir con otros nos permite cantar y proclamar juntos con pasión y compromiso el estribillo del Salmo responsorial 33 "Gusten y vean qué bueno es el Señor".

Cada vez que hacemos Eucaristía juntos, proclamamos nuestro deseo de continuar la misión de Jesús de entregarse voluntariamente a los demás. Compartir la Eucaristía, el pan vivo bajado del cielo, con otros nos hace partícipes con Jesús en la edificación del Cuerpo de Cristo y en la proclamación de nuestra solidaridad con toda la humanidad.

Esta semana, comparta pan con alguien que no conoce o con alguien que necesita saber que le importa. Use el compartir del pan como una oportunidad para conectarse, vincularse y convertirse en compañeros en el camino de la vida. Al compartir, cuente historias de cómo ha sido alimentado por otros y la diferencia que han hecho en su vida. Pídale a Dios que profundice su deseo de entregarse a los demás, tal como Jesús se entregó a nosotros. Que reconozca a Jesús más profundamente al compartir pan.

Corresponsabilidad/Información

Donaciones de Valores y Fondos Mutuos

¿Valen algunas de sus acciones o fondos mutuos más que cuando los compró? Esto le proporciona un método sabio de dar a la parroquia de Sta. Sabina.

Donar acciones apreciadas o acciones de fondos mutuos es un método estratégico de la planificación de regalos. En la mayoría de los casos, el donante recibe una deducción detallada en el monto total del valor justo de mercado (FMV) de las acciones donadas a la fecha de la donación. Este valor es deducible hasta un 30% del ingreso bruto ajustado del donante y puede ser transferido por hasta cinco años después del año de la donación. Consulte a su asesor financiero o jurídico.

Donaciones por Internet

Sta. Sabina ofrece una opción de donar en línea para los feligreses y visitantes.

Esta es una manera fácil, y segura de contribuir por internet. Para establecer una contribución única ó recurrente: visite nuestro sitio web de la parroquia en www.stsabinaparish.org, haga clic en el botón "Online Giving" en la parte superior derecha y llene el formulario de contribución en línea.
