Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults

(Contact: Biagio Mazza – 816-979-3153; e-mail: biagio@stsabinaparish.org)

The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults, the RCIA, is a process which welcomes all who are interested in becoming Catholic, or any Catholic wishing to deepen their understanding of the faith. The Rite involves the formation of a community that learns, shares, builds community and prays together to deepen their relationship to God and to the parish family. The entire process leads to full commitment to God and the faith community, celebrated during the Easter Triduum of Holy Thursday, Good Friday and the Easter Vigil. This year the key steps, rituals and dates are:

August 24, 2017, 6PM – Initial getting to know one another gathering and meal

August 31, 2017, 7-9PM – The first of our weekly Thursday evening gatherings

December 10, 2017, 10:30AM – The Rite of being welcomed and accepted by the parish family

February 17, 2018, 10AM – The Rite of being welcomed and accepted by the diocesan family

March 29-30-31, 2018 – The Triduum Rituals leading to full commitment to God and parish family

If you or anyone you know would be interested in being part of the RCIA, please share the information with them. There are forms in the gathering space, along with a complete calendar for this year's program. Please fill out the contact information on the other side and we will personally contact and invite all those interested to our RCIA Meal which will be held on Thursday, August 24th, 2017 at 6:00pm.

Pupusa Sale - August 27

On Sunday, August 27 our Salvadoran community will be selling pupusas after Masses. A pupusa is a traditional Salvadoran dish made of a thick, handmade corn tortilla that is usually filled with variations of cheese, pork, and refried beans. There will be samples to try so you can purchase your favorite variety. The cost will be $2 each and you can purchase them to go. All funds collected will be used to fund our annual celebration in honor of Blessed Oscar Romero.

Foundations for Living Stones – Taste and See Experience

Have you ever wanted to explore your faith in greater depth and become more informed about our Catholic tradition? Are there questions that you always had about our faith but were either afraid to ask or did not know who to ask? If so, then this Foundations for Living Stones Taste and See Experience will begin to address your desire and curiosity about your faith. On Wednesday evening, August 16 at 7 PM in the double classroom of the Education Wing, you can experience what our Foundations for Living Stones program is all about. This adult faith formation program explores in greater depth and knowledge the basics of our faith. Communication skills, group development, leadership skills, bible study, church history, prayer and sacraments are some of the many areas explored and examined. Adult methods of learning and reflection are employed throughout.

This Taste and See experience allows you to meet Living Stones graduates, as well as explore the syllabus, books and materials used throughout the 9-month program. Come and enjoy. Information about the program, questions and inquiries, along with application forms will be available. So, if you have a desire to learn more about your faith and to continue growing in it, then do plan on attending the Taste and See session and find out more about Foundations for Living Stones. It could change your life for the better. Stewardship

"When the disciples saw him walking on the sea they were terrified. 'It is a ghost,' they said, and they cried out in fear. At once Jesus spoke to them, 'Take courage, it is I; do not be afraid.' Peter said to him in reply, 'Lord, if it is you, command me to come to you on the water.' He said, 'Come.' Peter got out of the boat and began to walk on the water toward Jesus. But when he saw how strong the wind was he became frightened; and, beginning to sink, he cried out, 'Lord, save me!' Immediately Jesus stretched out his hand and caught Peter, and said to him, 'O you of little faith, why did you doubt?'"

Matthew 14: 26-31

When Peter loses his focus and begins to observe and think about the storm raging around him, he begins to sink. To Peter's credit he knows exactly to Whom to turn in that situation. "Lord, save me." We may often find ourselves in similar circumstances. Peter knew exactly Who to call out to at the moment of crisis. We may do the same. God truly loves us; we are His children. Listen to the Word of the Lord in Psalm 91: "Because he loves me," says the Lord, "I will rescue him; I will protect him, for he acknowledges my name. He will call on me, and I will answer him; I will be with him in trouble; I will deliver him and honor him. I will satisfy him and show him my salvation." St. Francis de Sales wrote, "Either God will shield you from suffering, or He will give you unfailing strength to bear it. Be at peace then; put aside all anxious thoughts and imaginations." — See more at www.catholicsteward.com/blog/

What is a Grief Recovery Group? The grief group we offer at St. Sabina is based on an adult mutual self-help grief recovery model. It is a safe place to recognize and acknowledge a painful loss. The participants are grievers that are courageous and have chosen to be proactive rather than passive. It's a place to give your grief its voice. Advanced registration is important, group size is limited but we must have at least five participants to have a group. All are welcome, you do not have to be a parishioner to participate. Friends and family members are welcome.

When and How to Register? This year our group will begin Monday, September 18th. The group will meet once a week for six weeks from 6:30-8pm at St. Sabina. If you would prefer a daytime group please let me know. To register or for more information contact Marta Roper at 816-979-3154 or marta@stsabinaparish.org.

Although no one can walk your grief path for you, someone can walk with you!

Wellness Center

Did you know—a 16-ounce soda can have up to 200 calories? Water has none! Flavor it with fresh fruit, cucumber slices, or mint leaves and you've created a delicious fruit infused water.

To build a healthy eating style and stay within your calorie needs, choose foods and beverages with less added sugars. Added sugars are sugars and syrups that are added to foods or beverages when they are processed or prepared. This does not include natural sugars found in milk and fruits.

Most of us eat and drink too many added sugars from the following foods:

- beverages, such as regular soft drinks, energy or sports drinks, fruit drinks, sweetened coffee and tea
- candy, cookies and brownies
- cakes, pies and cobblers
- sweet rolls, pastries, and donuts
- ice cream and dairy desserts
- sugars, jams, syrups, and sweet toppings

Reading the ingredient label on packaged foods can help to identify added sugars.

You can limit your intake of added sugars by:

- drinking water, unsweetened tea or coffee, or other calorie-free beverages instead of sodas or other sweetened beverages
- choosing beverages, such as low-fat or fat-free milk and 100% fruit juice
- choosing fruit as a naturally sweet dessert or sweet snack instead of foods with added sugars
- making sweet desserts and snacks, such as cookies, cakes, pies, and ice cream, a once in a while treat and choosing a small portion when you enjoy them
- choosing packaged foods that have less or no added sugars such as plain yogurt, unsweetened applesauce, or frozen fruit with no added sugar or syrup

Here's a tip to cut down on saturated fat in your next coffee order. Skip the whip cream and ask for skim milk in place of whole milk. Little changes can make a big difference over time.

Reflection on the Readings

The readings this Sunday challenge us to be open to the diverse, surprising and multiple ways in which the divine presence is manifest among us. This challenge is best summarized in the prayer refrain from responsorial Psalm 85: "Lord, let us see your kindness and grant us your salvation." The psalm affirms that the presence of God is made manifest whenever "kindness and truth meet" in our encounter with others, and whenever "justice and peace kiss" in the routine actions of our daily lives.

In living lives that reflect such attitudes, we make God's presence active and alive. We pray that our lives be open to "see" God's loving presence among us, as we ask God to be our true source of salvation. This manner of seeing requires that we put on "faith glasses," enabling us to perceive the power and presence of God acting on our behalf.

In our first reading, Elijah, fleeing Queen Jezebel, travels to God's mountain, Mt. Horeb or Sinai, to experience God's presence, safety and salvation. Like Moses before him, Elijah expected to experience the Lord's presence in the mighty phenomena of nature, namely wind, earthquake and fire. But none of these usual patterns of God's manifestation seem to be the means God chooses.

Rather, Elijah waits with patience and attentiveness to experience how God would choose to be present. Finally, Elijah hears a "tiny whispering sound" and realizes that today, God's presence would be manifested in this most unusual manner. With the eyes of faith, Elijah experiences God's presence, kindness and salvation in a manner he least expected.

Paul struggles in his letter to the Romans as to why some of his fellow Jews have been unable to accept Jesus as the Christ, or messiah. The Jews have consistently been open to the multiple manifestations of God. In so doing they are so dear to God that "theirs the adoption, the glory, the covenants, the giving of the law, the worship and the promises." Paul agonizes as to why some of them cannot see Jesus as the richest and best manifestation of God among us. This has been the richest thing to have happened to Paul and he wants his people to share in that abundance and richness. So he struggles in his desire for them to be opened to Jesus now as they have been opened to the "benefits" and gifts of God in the past.

Matthew's gospel speaks of Jesus going off to pray and connect with God on a mountain. Meanwhile his disciples are in a boat, being tossed about by the wind. Soon they see someone coming towards them walking on the water. Terrified, they think it is a ghost. Jesus calms their fears: "Take courage, it is I; do not be afraid." In Greek, "it is I" literally says "I AM," the standard name for God in the Old Testament, as revealed to Moses on Mt. Sinai. This divine affirmation is further strengthened as Matthew shows Jesus having the same power and control over the waters of chaos that is so characteristic of God in the Old Testament.

Peter asks Jesus to command him to come to Jesus by also walking on the water. Jesus invites Peter to come. Peter attempts to but is soon frightened by the wind and water and begins to sink, calling upon Jesus to save him. Jesus responds with one of the most consoling and affirming non-verbal gestures ever: "Immediately Jesus stretched out his hand and caught Peter..." Then comes Jesus' challenge that every disciple needs to take to heart: "O you of little faith, why did you doubt?"

Being attuned to God demands that we put on "faith glasses." Faith helps us to see God's presence in the most unexpected places. Faith gives us the strength to believe, even when life seems so difficult and overwhelming that, like Peter, we feel like we are going to sink. Calling out to Jesus for help gets the immediate response of Jesus reaching out to save us.

How do your "faith glasses" help you to see God present in your daily life?

Catholics are mostly exposed to the Bible through the Sunday Lectionary Readings. In order to help us all enter into the Bible through the Sunday readings, we offer study sessions that provide an opportunity to read, to study background to the readings, and to reflect on how to apply the readings to our lives. Remaining summer date is August 20th at 10:30am in the conference room. All are welcome; bring a bible. To register, call Biagio at 816-979-3153.

Reflexión Sobre las Lecturas

Las lecturas de este domingo nos desafían a estar abiertos a las diversas, sorprendentes y múltiples formas en la cual la presencia divina se manifiesta entre nosotros. Este desafío se resume mejor el refrán de oración del Salmo responsorial 84: "Muéstranos, Señor, tu misericordia y danos tu salvación". El salmo afirma que la presencia de Dios se manifiesta siempre que "la misericordia y la fidelidad se encuentran" en nuestro encuentro con los demás, y siempre que "la justicia y la paz se besan" en las acciones rutinarias de nuestras vidas cotidianas.

En vivir vidas que reflejan tales actitudes, hacemos la presencia de Dios activa y viva. Oramos que nuestras vidas estén abiertas para ver la presencia amorosa de Dios entre nosotros, mientras le pedimos a Dios que sea nuestra verdadera fuente de salvación. Esta manera de ver requiere que pongamos "anteojos de fe", lo que nos permite percibir el poder y la presencia de Dios actuando en nuestro nombre.

En nuestra primera lectura, Elías, huyendo de la reina Jezabel, viaja al monte de Dios, El Horeb o Sinai, para experimentar la presencia, seguridad y salvación de Dios. Como Moisés antes que él, Elías esperaba experimentar la presencia del Señor en los poderosos fenómenos de la naturaleza, es decir, el viento, el terremoto y el fuego. Pero ninguno de estos patrones habituales de la manifestación de Dios parece ser el medio que Dios elige.

Por el contrario, Elías espera con paciencia y atención para experimentar cómo Dios escogería estar presente. Finalmente, Elías escucha un "murmullo de una brisa suave" y se da cuenta de que hoy, la presencia se manifestaría de una manera tan inusual. Con los ojos de fe, Elías experimenta la presencia, la bondad y la salvación de Dios de la manera que menos esperaba.

Pablo lucha en su carta a los romanos en cuanto a porqué algunos de sus compañeros judíos han sido incapaces de aceptar a Jesús como el Cristo, o mesías. Los judíos han estado siempre abiertos a las múltiples manifestaciones de Dios. Al estar abiertos son tan queridos por Dios que les "pertenecen la adopción filial, la gloria, la alianza, la ley, el culto y las promesas". Pablo agoniza por que algunos de ellos no pueden ver a Jesús como la mejor y mas rica manifestación de Dios entre nosotros. Esto ha sido lo más rico que le ha pasado a Pablo y quiere que su pueblo comparta en esa abundancia y riqueza. Así que lucha en su deseo de que se abran a Jesús ahora como se han abierto a los "beneficios" y los dones de Dios en el pasado.

El evangelio de Mateo habla de Jesús, que se va a orar y conectar con Dios en una montaña. Mientras tanto, sus discípulos están en una barca, siendo arrojados por el viento. Pronto ven a alguien que viene hacia ellos caminando sobre el agua. Aterrorizados, piensan que es un fantasma. Jesús calma sus temores: "Tranquílícense y no teman. Soy yo". En griego, "soy yo" literalmente dice "YO SOY", el nombre estándar de Dios en el Antiguo Testamento, como se reveló a Moisés en el Monte Sinai. Esta afirmación divina se fortalece aún más cuando Mateo muestra que Jesús tiene el mismo poder y control sobre las aguas del caos que es tan característico de Dios en el Antiguo Testamento.

Pedro le pide a Jesús que le ordene que venga a Jesús también caminando sobre el agua. Jesús invita a Pedro a venir. Pedro intenta pero pronto se asustado por el viento y el agua y comienza a hundirse, invocando a Jesús para salvarlo. Jesús responde con uno de los gestos no verbales más consoladores y afirmativos: "Inmediatamente Jesús le tendió la mano y lo sostuvo..." Después viene el desafío de Jesús que cada discípulo debe tomar en serio: "Hombre de poca fe, ¿por qué dudaste?"

Estar en sintonía con Dios exige que nos pongamos "anteojos de fe". La fe nos ayuda a ver la presencia de Dios en los lugares más inesperados. La fe nos da la fuerza para creer, incluso cuando la vida parece tan difícil y abrumadora que, como Pedro, sentimos que nos vamos a hundir. Clamando a Jesús para recibir ayuda obtiene la respuesta inmediata de Jesús extendiéndose para salvarnos.

¿Cómo le ayudan sus "anteojos de fe" a ver a Dios presente en su vida diaria?

El Rito de Iniciación Cristiana de Adultos, el RICA, es un proceso que da la bienvenida a todos los que están interesados en convertirse en católicos, o cualquier católico que desee profundizar su comprensión de la fe. El Rito implica la formación de una comunidad que aprende, comparte, construye comunidad y ora juntos para profundizar su relación con Dios y con la familia parroquial. Todo el proceso conduce al compromiso total con Dios y la comunidad de fe, celebrada durante el Triduo Pascual del Jueves Santo, Viernes Santo y Vigilia Pascual. Este año los pasos claves, rituales y fechas son:

24 de agosto de 2017, 6PM - Conocimiento inicial y reunión

31 de agosto de 2017, 7-9PM - La primera de nuestras reuniones semanales los jueves por la noche

10 de diciembre de 2017, 10:30 AM - El rito de ser recibido y aceptado por la familia parroquial

17 de febrero de 2018, 10AM - El rito de ser recibido y aceptado por la familia diocesana

29-30-31 de marzo de 2018 - Los Rituales del Triduo que conducen al compromiso total con Dios y la familia parroquial

Si usted o alguien que conoce estaría interesado en ser parte del RICA, por favor comparta la información con ellos. Hay formas en el espacio de reunión, junto con un calendario completo para el programa de este año. Por favor llene la información de contacto en el otro lado y personalmente nos pondremos en contacto e invitaremos a todos aquellos interesados a nuestra comida de RICA que se llevará a cabo el jueves 24 de agosto de 2017 a las 6:00 pm.
