Child Safety

The Diocese of Kansas City-St. Joseph is committed to combatting sexual abuse in the Church. If you are a victim of sexual abuse, or if you observe or suspect sexual abuse:

1. Call the Missouri Child Abuse Hotline at 1.800.392.3738 (if the victim is currently under the age of 18), and
2. Contact your local law enforcement agency or call 911, and
3. After reporting to these civil and law enforcement authorities, report suspected sexual abuse of a minor or vulnerable adult to the Ombudsman, Joe Crayon, at 816.812.2500 or crayon@ombudsmankcsj.org if the abuse involves a priest, deacon, employee or volunteer of the Diocese of Kansas City-St. Joseph.

The Diocese has a sincere commitment to providing care and healing resources to victims of sexual abuse and their families. Please contact Whitney True-Francis, Victim Assistance Coordinator, at 816.392.0011 or true.francis@diocesekcsj.org for more information.

All volunteers with youth and children must attend one Protecting God's Children workshop, submit to a background check and sign the policy on Ethics and Integrity in Ministry, (EIM). More info at <https://kcsj catholic.org/the-office-of-child-and-youth-protection/>.

This Week's Do You Know Video:

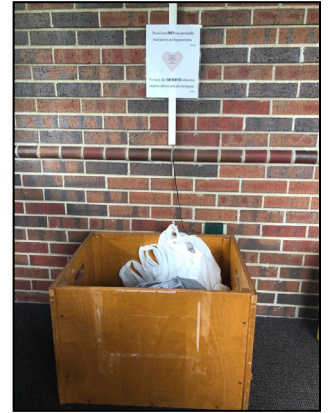

As we conclude our series on the History of the Mass, we briefly examine the impact that the Second Vatican Council had on the Mass. Pope John XXIII called the council and insisted that the first issue to be addressed was to be the liturgical life of the Church, for the way one prays affects the way one believes. The focus of Sacrosanctum Concilium, the Dogmatic Constitution on the Liturgy, was and still is the "full, conscious and active" participation of all in the liturgical life of the church. Vatican II countered the Council of Trent by insisting that all fully participate in the Mass with the priest presiding or leading us as full, conscious and active celebrants of the liturgy. The liturgy document became a tool for this significant shift, such that the Vatican II missal begins by stating that "Mass begins when the people have gathered". Make time to view this week's DYK video and immerse yourself in the way Vatican II impacted and continues to impact our liturgical life as Catholic Christians.

Donation Box Notice

Please note that the wooden donation box in the gathering space is now for non-perishable food pantry items and hygiene items only. If you have other items to donate, you're welcome to call Bridget in the parish office for suggestions of organizations that will accept your items.

Aviso Sobre la Caja de Donación

Tenga en cuenta que la caja de donación de madera en el espacio de reunión ahora es solo para alimentos no perecederos y artículos de higiene. Si tiene otros artículos para donar, puede llamar a Bridget en la oficina parroquial para obtener sugerencias de organizaciones que aceptarán sus artículos.

Wellness Center

Did You Know- National Relaxation Day is an annual event on August 15th. It was proposed by nine-year-old Sean Moeller of Clio, Michigan in 1985. In American culture, relaxation is considered a luxury that's enjoyed on vacation. However, relaxation is actually an important part of our mental and physical health. When we don't allow ourselves to take time to unwind, the harmful effects of daily stressors begin to accumulate and can contribute to psychological and physical maladies like depression, memory loss, heart disease, stroke, and diabetes (just to name a few). Relaxing gives our bodies and minds a chance to recover from stress and live our best lives.

- Deep breathing—Deep breathing is a simple yet powerful relaxation technique. It's easy to learn, can be practiced almost anywhere, and provides a quick way to get your stress levels in check.
- Progressive muscle relaxation—Progressive muscle relaxation is a two-step process in which you systematically tense and relax different muscle groups in the body. And as your body relaxes, so will your mind.
- Mindfulness meditation—Rather than worrying about the future or dwelling on the past, mindfulness switches your focus to what's happening right now, enabling you to be fully engaged in the present moment.
- Yoga—Yoga involves a series of both moving and stationary poses, combined with deep breathing. As well as reducing anxiety and stress, yoga can also improve flexibility, strength, balance, and stamina.

Get started! Join us in the Wellness Center for yoga and try setting aside at least 10 to 20 minutes a day for daily relaxation practice.

Happy Relaxation Day Monday August 15th!

Beginning Experience

The Beginning Experience Coping with Life Alone program is designed to help men and women who are widowed, separated or divorced work through the grief process associated with the end of a marriage and move into the future with a new hope. This is a 9-week program that meets virtually once a week, on Mondays from 6:30 to 8:30. $75 (scholarships available). Session starts on August 22. For more information and to register: beginningexperiencekc.org or call Maria at 913-314-9844.

Human living is a struggle. Christian living adds another layer to that struggle. Human life is a struggle because we find it difficult to sort out the conflicting voices and drives that continually pull at us. Christian living adds the layer of sorting out those conflicting voices in light of God's values and voice. Today's readings offer various insights into this Christian and human struggle.

Jesus' message in this Lucan passage is that fidelity to God's word, values and mission will bring division, opposition and possibly even death. This gospel message tends to shock us because we believe that Jesus came to bring peace and not division. Jesus does bring peace, but a peace that often comes at a high price. G. K. Chesterton puts it rather succinctly when he states that "the Christian ideal has not been tried and found wanting; it has been found difficult and left untried." Often, living the Jesus life style and incarnating gospel values, is so overwhelming that people compromise, or give up trying. The readings present us with people who remained faithful no matter what the cost.

The first reading from Jeremiah shows that fidelity to God's word will bring opposition leading to death as a real possibility. Prophetic words challenge the status quo of people, calling for a new way of seeing and acting. This often unnerves people to such an extent that rather than listen and possibly change, they usually prefer to close their ears and do away with the prophetic voice that is causing them discomfort.

However this does not seem to unnerve Jeremiah who is willing to suffer as long as his fidelity to God's word and values is maintained. The good news is that he is rescued from his predicament for now, till the next time. In the meantime, he will continue to "comfort the afflicted and afflict the comfortable." This is the essence of a prophet's "job description."

© J. S. Paluch Co., Inc.

The letter to the Hebrews offers us the rich image of the "great cloud of witnesses," faithful ones who have gone before us and who cheer us on as we "persevere in running the race that lies before us while keeping our eyes fixed on Jesus." God gifts us with these witnesses as well as with Jesus, so that we "may not grow weary and lose heart." God knows the challenge of fidelity to word and mission, thus God offers us companions along the way to comfort, aid and support us on our faith journey. Try to list for yourself people who might no longer be with us but who did provide you with comfort, aid and support on your life and faith journey. Since we believe that death does not sever those important relationships, ask them to be for you a continual source of comfort and support.

The Lucan gospel passage presents the images of fire (judgment) and baptism (Jesus' passion and death) as incorporating the stiff opposition to Jesus' message and ministry. Jesus makes it clear that disciples are called to be prophetic no matter where they are planted. Like Jeremiah, taking prophetic stances will result in opposition, division and possibly death, and bring with it sadness, frustration and aloneness.

It is at this point that the responsorial Psalm 40 enters in with the continual refrain of "Lord come to my aid." The psalmist recognizes that fidelity to God's message will stir opposition. It takes courage to stand against others for the sake of God's values. The psalmist is there to remind us that God is our comfort, support and joy in times of opposition and division. That comfort and aid is also expressed through the many people that God sends into our lives. Try to name some of those people in your life, tell them what gifts they are to you, and thank God for bringing such people into your life.

How do you maintain fidelity to God's word and values when faced with opposition and rejection? Who are those people that can and do help you remain faithful despite the difficulties? Pray for the courage to "not grow weary and lose heart."

Readings

Sunday, August 14

1st Reading: Jeremiah 38:4-6, 8-10

Psalm: Psalm 40:2, 3, 4, 18 (14b)

2nd Reading: Hebrews 12:1-4

Gospel: Luke 12:49-53

Sunday, August 21

1st Reading: Isaiah 66:18-21

Psalm: Psalm 117:1, 2 (Mark 16:15)

2nd Reading: Hebrews 12:5-7, 11-13

Gospel: Luke 13:22-30

La vida humana es una lucha. La vida cristiana agrega otra capa a esa lucha. La vida humana es una lucha porque nos resulta difícil resolver las voces conflictivas y los impulsos que continuamente nos jalan. La vida cristiana agrega la capa de clasificar esas voces conflictivas a la luz de los valores y la voz de Dios. Las lecturas de hoy ofrecen varias ideas sobre esta lucha cristiana y humana.

El mensaje de Jesús en este pasaje de Lucas es que la fidelidad a la palabra, los valores y la misión de Dios traerá división, oposición y posiblemente la muerte. Este mensaje del evangelio tiende a sorprendernos porque creemos que Jesús vino a traer paz y no división. Jesús sí trae la paz, pero una paz que a menudo tiene un alto precio. G. K. Chesterton lo expresa de manera bastante sucinta cuando afirma que "el ideal cristiano no se ha probado y se ha encontrado que falta; se ha encontrado difícil y no se ha probado." Muchas veces, vivir el estilo de vida de Jesús y encarnar los valores del Evangelio es tan abrumador que las personas ceden o dejan de intentarlo. Las lecturas nos presentan a personas que se mantuvieron fieles sin importar el costo.

La primera lectura de Jeremías muestra que la fidelidad a la palabra de Dios traerá oposición que llevará a la muerte como una posibilidad real. Las palabras proféticas desafían las cosas como están y exigen una nueva forma de ver y actuar. Esto a menudo inquieta a las personas hasta el punto de que, en lugar de escuchar y posiblemente cambiar, generalmente prefieren cerrar los oídos y eliminar la voz profética que les causa incomodidad.

Sin embargo, esto no parece inquietar a Jeremías, que está dispuesto a sufrir mientras se mantenga su fidelidad a la palabra y los valores de Dios. La buena noticia es que es rescatado de su situación por ahora, hasta la próxima. Mientras tanto, continuará "consolando a los afligidos y afligiendo a los cómodos". Esta es la esencia de la "descripción del trabajo" de un profeta.

La carta a los Hebreos nos ofrece la rica imagen de la "multitud de antepasados nuestros", los fieles que nos han precedido y que nos animan mientras "corremos con perseverancia la carrera que tenemos por delante, fija la mirada en Jesús." Dios nos regala estos testigos así como también a Jesús, para que "no nos cansemos ni perdamos el ánimo." Dios sabe el desafío de la fidelidad a la palabra y la misión, por lo tanto, nos ofrece compañeros en el camino para consolarnos, ayudarnos y apoyarnos en nuestro viaje de fe. Trate de enumerar por sí mismo a las personas que tal vez ya no estén con nosotros, pero que le brindaron consuelo, ayuda y apoyo en su vida y viaje de fe. Como creemos que la muerte no rompe esas relaciones importantes, pídale que sean para usted una fuente continua de consuelo y apoyo.

El pasaje del evangelio de Lucas presenta las imágenes de fuego (juicio) y bautismo (la pasión y muerte de Jesús) como la incorporación de la rígida oposición al mensaje y ministerio de Jesús. Jesús deja en claro que los discípulos están llamados a ser proféticos sin importar dónde estén plantados. Al igual que Jeremías, adoptar posturas proféticas provocará oposición, división y posiblemente la muerte, y traerá tristeza, frustración y soledad.

Es en este punto que el salmo responsorial 40 entra con el estribillo continuo de "Señor, date prisa en ayudarme". El salmista reconoce que la fidelidad al mensaje de Dios despertará oposición. Se necesita valor para enfrentarse a los demás por el bien de los valores de Dios.

El salmista está allí para recordarnos que Dios es nuestro consuelo, apoyo y alegría en tiempos de oposición y división. Ese consuelo y ayuda también se expresa a través de las muchas personas que Dios envía a nuestras vidas. Trate de nombrar a algunas de esas personas en su vida, dígales qué regalos son para usted y agradézcale a Dios por traer a esas personas a su vida.

¿Cómo se mantiene la fidelidad a la palabra y los valores de Dios ante la oposición y el rechazo? ¿Quiénes son esas personas que pueden y le ayudan a mantenerse fiel a pesar de las dificultades? Ore por el valor de no cansarse y desanimarse.

Comenzamos otro año de la Escuela de Religión el 18 de septiembre. ¡Iniciaremos el año el domingo antes (11 de septiembre) con nuestra primera Feria de Regreso a Clases! ¡Todos los estudiantes de la Escuela de Religión y sus familias están invitados a venir al área de educación durante el horario normal del catecismo y disfrutar de algunas donas, conocer a su nuevo maestro para el año, jugar algunos juegos y ganar premios! ¿Preguntas? Póngase en contacto con Kirstie en la oficina parroquial. Regístrate: www.stsabinaparish.org/permission-slips.

PSR Welcome Back Carnival

We begin another PSR year on September 18. We'll kick off the year the Sunday before (September 11) with our first ever Welcome Back Carnival! All PSR students and their families are invited to come to the education wing during the normal PSR time slot and enjoy some donuts, meet your new teacher for the year, and play some games & win some prizes! Questions? Contact Kirstie in the parish office or kirstie@stsabinaparish.org Still need to register for PSR? Download a registration form at www.stsabinaparish.org/permission-slips.

"Jesus said to his disciples: 'I have come to set the earth on fire, and how I wish it were already blazing! There is a baptism with which I must be baptized, and how great is my anguish until it is accomplished! Do you think that I have come to establish peace on the earth? No, I tell you, but rather division.'"

Luke 12:49-51

Jesus' life on this earth and the message He brought were not meant to simply make us feel good. In fact, His words can make us downright uncomfortable at times. That's because His Good News (and it is indeed good news!) is meant to change us, to make saints of us. The stewardship way of life sets a high bar indeed. But deeply embraced, this way of life focused on God and others will make us the saints we are called to be.

— See more at www.catholicsteward.com/blog/.

"Jesús dijo a sus discípulos: 'He venido a traer fuego a la tierra, ¡y cuánto desearía que ya estuviera ardiendo! Tengo que recibir un bautismo, ¡y cómo me angustio mientras llega! ¿Piensan acaso que he venido a traer paz a la tierra? De ningún modo. No he venido a traer la paz, sino la división'."

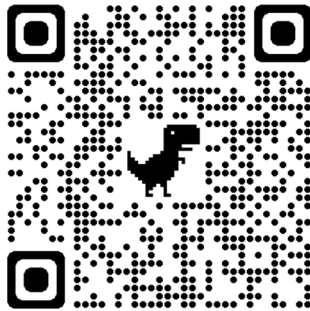

Lucas 12:49-51

La vida de Jesús en esta tierra y el mensaje que trajo no estaban destinados simplemente a hacernos sentir bien. De hecho, sus palabras pueden hacernos sentir francamente incómodos a veces. Eso es porque Sus Buenas Nuevas (¡y de hecho son buenas noticias!) están destinadas a cambiarnos, a hacernos santos. El estilo de vida de la corresponsabilidad establece un listón muy alto. Pero aceptada profundamente, esta forma de vida centrada en Dios y en los demás nos hará los santos que estamos llamados a ser.

Para apoyarnos de esta manera, asegúrese de hacer sus compras en Amazon a través de smile.amazon.com y seleccione "St. Sabina Catholic Church, Belton" como su organización benéfica preferida. ¡Gracias a los 130 compradores que nos han elegido como organización benéfica!

Third Edition Catholic Study Bible Now Available

The third edition of The Catholic Bible: Personal Study Edition published by Oxford University Press is now available for purchase. Our own pastoral associate here at St. Sabina, Biagio Mazza, co-edited the reader's guide to every book of the bible in this study edition. The edition is available for purchase on the Oxford University website, <https://global.oup.com/academi>.

It is also available on Amazon as well as at any other religious goods store. For those interested, we will have copies available for purchase here at St. Sabina, both in paperback and hardcover editions.

Over 55 Outing—August 30

On Tuesday, August 30 our Over 55 group will head to the Midwest Genealogy Center for a class on Tracing Immigrant Origins. In order to find 19th and 20th-century genealogical records in a foreign county, you often need to know your ancestor's hometown. At this class we will learn what records exist in the United States to help you find where your immigrant ancestor was born.

9:30am – Meet at parish office to carpool

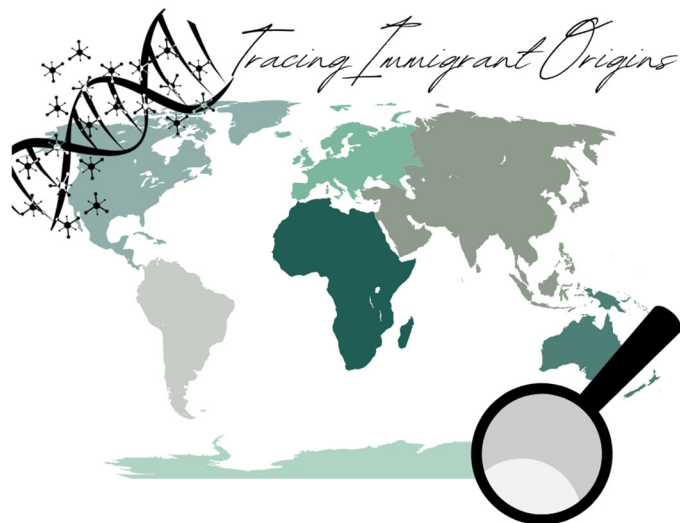

9:45am – Carpool leaves

10:30-11:30am – Tracing Immigrant Origins class

Head back to parish hall for lunch!

Call Bridget in the parish office to register for this outing 816.979.3159 (class space is limited and pre-registration is required). The class is free, but please provide $7 per person by Tuesday, August 23, to cover the cost of lunch.

Please also let Bridget know if you are willing to drive and how many your car seats.

Golden Wedding Anniversary Masses

Two Masses honoring all couples in the diocese celebrating 50 years of marriage in the year 2022 will be celebrated by Bishop Johnston on Sunday, September 25 at 9am and 11am at the Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception, located at 11th Broadway, downtown. Each Mass will be followed with a light reception at the Cathedral. All couples who have celebrated or will be celebrating their Golden Wedding Anniversary between January 1, 2022 and December 31, 2022 are invited to attend one of the Masses. If you plan to attend one of the Masses, please call Kris in the parish office at 816-979-3151 so we can inform the diocese. Couples celebrating their 50th anniversary are listed below. If you are celebrating your 50th anniversary in 2022 and your name is not listed, please contact the parish office so we can correct our records.

10th Annual Life and Justice Collection

The annual Life and Justice Campaign parish collection allows our faithful to share their gifts with our brothers and sisters in need. This collection will be held the weekend of August 13-14. www.lifeandjusticekcsj.org.

Leaving a Planned Gift

Put your life-long, hard earned assets to work for the Lord. A planned gift to the Lord acknowledges that we are simply stewards of all that God has provided. We are managers of His blessings upon us. Just as we sacrificially give throughout our lives, we give our final gift at the end of our lives here on earth. By naming the parish the beneficiary of assets like retirement plans, our charity does not end when we are gone. Contact Kris for more information. 816-979-3151, kris@stsabinaparish.org.

Pictured are Charles, Luke and Alyson who served as altar servers on Sunday, August 7. It was Luke's and Alyson's first time serving. Great job, guys!

En las fotos aparecen Charles, Luke y Alyson, quienes sirvieron el domingo 7 de agosto. Fue la primera vez que Luke y Alyson sirvieron. ¡Buen trabajo chicos!

Green Team Tip of the Week

Blue-green algae is toxic to aquatic life, shore birds, people and pets. It is worsened by fertilizers and animal feces. Decrease fertilizer use in your lawn and gardens and pick up after your pets.

Décima Colecta Anual de Vida y Justicia

La colecta parroquial anual de la Campaña Vida y Justicia permite a nuestros fieles compartir sus dones con nuestros hermanos y hermanas necesitados. Esta colecta se llevará a cabo el fin de semana del 13 al 14 de agosto. www.lifeandjusticekcsj.org.

Dejar un Regalo Planificado

Ponga a trabajar para el Señor los bienes que ha ganado con tanto esfuerzo durante toda su vida. Una ofrenda planificada al Señor reconoce que somos simplemente administradores de todo lo que Dios ha provisto. Somos administradores de Sus bendiciones sobre nosotros. Así como damos con sacrificio a lo largo de nuestras vidas, damos nuestro último regalo al final de nuestras vidas aquí en la tierra. Al nombrar a la parroquia como beneficiaria de activos como planes de jubilación, nuestra caridad no termina cuando nos hayamos ido. Comuníquese con Kris para obtener más información. 816-979-3151, kris@stsabinaparish.org.

Consejo de la Semana del Equipo de Ecología

Las algas verdeazuladas son tóxicas para la vida acuática, las aves costeras, las personas y las mascotas. Empeora con fertilizantes y heces de animales. Disminuya el uso de fertilizantes en su césped y jardines y recoja los desechos de sus mascotas.

St. Sabina Parish Community - Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA) - 2022-2023
(Contact: Biagio Mazza - 816-979-3153; e-mail: biagio@stsabinaparish.org)

The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults, the RCIA, is a process which welcomes all who are interested in becoming Jesus' disciples in union with the Catholic Community, or any Catholic wishing to deepen their understanding of the faith. The Rite involves the formation of a community that learns, shares, builds community and prays together to deepen their relationship to God and to the parish family. The entire process leads to full commitment to God in and through the faith community, celebrated during the Easter Triduum of Holy Thursday, Good Friday and the Easter Vigil. This year, the key steps, rituals and dates are:

September 8, 2022, 7-9 PM - The first of our weekly Thursday evening gatherings

November 27, 2022, 10:30 AM - The Rite of being welcomed and accepted by the parish family

February 25, 2023, 10 AM - The Rite of being welcomed and accepted by the diocesan family

April 6-7-8, 2023 - The Triduum Rituals leading to full commitment to God and parish family

If you or anyone you know would be interested in being part of the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults, please share the information with them. There are forms in the gathering space, along with a complete calendar for this year's program. Please fill out the contact information on the other side and we will personally contact and invite all those interested in the RCIA (Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults) process.

WHY BE CATHOLIC?

The Catholic Church has consistently believed that God has a universal will and desire to save all people. Our God is the God of all people. God has initiated this love relationship with all creation and desires to bring all to fullness through total union with God for all eternity. Each one is called to union with God through the faith path and tradition that they feel God is leading them.

If this is so, then why be Catholic? One is Catholic, not because it is the only way to God, but because one feels attracted to the things that the Catholic tradition offers. One feels at home more in the Catholic tradition than in other faith traditions. The following list is meant to highlight some of those aspects of the Catholic tradition that have attracted others to it.

Catholics are not the only ones that value these qualities. Nor have we been consistent in following through on them. But, no matter the history, we seem to have held onto these values rather consistently.

See if these are values and attractions for you.

1. We affirm a belief in the goodness of all creation.
2. We have a universal sense of openness to all people and all cultures.
3. We affirm that we are all called to holiness.
4. We are committed to continual growth as persons.
5. We are challenged to change the world and society into the reign of God.
6. We are called to live in community.
7. We have historical roots and identity.
8. We respect reason, human knowledge and human exploration.

If you or anyone you know would be attracted to these values, please share the information with them.
