STEWARDSHIP

"Humbly welcome the word that has been planted in you and is able to save your souls. Be doers of the word and not hearers only, deluding yourselves. Religion that is pure and undefiled before God and the Father is this: to care for orphans and widows in their affliction and to keep oneself unstained by the world."

James 1: 21B-22, 27

Our society is quite taken with images and appearances. We need to recognize that Jesus sees through and beyond what we appear to be and do, and He sees into our hearts and souls. This may make us uncomfortable, but it is something with which we must deal on a daily basis. Whatever we do and whatever we may pursue needs to be motivated by love of the Lord and of "our neighbor." Love like that - having our hearts close to Jesus - is work, but it is a labor worth pursuing. - See more at www.catholicsteward.com/blog/.

WHAT IS GRIEF? Grief is the normal response to loss, a deep sorrow, especially one caused by someone's death.

WHAT IS A "GRIEF RECOVERY GROUP"?

At St. Sabina our Adult Grief Recovery Group consists of 6 sessions, 90 minutes in length. It is based on an adult mutual self-help grief recovery model. It is a safe place to recognize and acknowledge a painful loss. The participants are grievers that are courageous and have chosen to be proactive rather than passive. It's a place to give your grief it's voice. Your grief is important!

WHEN? WHERE? HOW? Sessions at St. Sabina begin Tuesday, September 22, 2015 and continue for six weeks. We will offer an afternoon group and an evening group if we have enough participants. Group size is limited to 9 and we must have 5 to have the sessions. Advanced registration is important. To register or for more information contact Marta Roper in the parish office at 816-979-3154 or marta@stsabinaparish.org.

LIVING STONES: Foundations for Living Stones A Faith Formation Program for interested Adults

"Come to him, a living stone...chosen and precious in the sight of God, and, like living stones, let yourself be built into a spiritual house..." (1 Peter 2:4-5)

St. Sabina is offering an adult faith formation program titled, Foundations for Living Stones. The program explores in greater depth and knowledge the basics of our faith. All the sessions focus on the ministry that we are called to in and through our baptism. Communication skills, group development, leadership skills, bible study, church history, prayer and sacraments are some of the many areas explored and examined in depth. Adult methods of learning and reflection are employed throughout.

The sessions are scheduled on Tuesday evenings, from 7-9:30 PM, beginning in late August and ending in late May. This is a 9-month commitment to deepen one's skills and knowledge so as to become a more effective and engaging minister. We hope to work collaboratively with our neighboring parishes, inviting them to be part of this mutual learning process. For more information, please call or e-mail either: Biagio Mazza 816-979-3153 biagio@stsabinaparish.org or Kris Larkey 816-979-3151; kris@stsabinaparish.org

2016 DELEGATION TO EL SALVADOR

Our parish will be taking its second delegation to El Salvador to learn more about the scholarship program there and to have the opportunity to meet and visit with our scholarship students and their families. As of now we are planning to travel to El Salvador on January 5 and staying approximately 8 days. If you are interested or would like more information, please contact Kris at 816-979-3151 or by email at kris@stsabinaparish.org.

PARENTS LOOKING FOR A SUPPORT GROUP

In response to our needs survey, the Love Thy Neighbor team is hosting an informal gathering for the parents of our parish to determine specific areas of support our families may need, such as, tutoring, parents night out, behavior issues, single parent issues, etc. If as a parent you've ever needed information, advice or just another parent to talk to, please plan on attending. We will meet in the Parish Hall on Sunday, September 27, during PSR (9-10:00). A light breakfast of fruit, pastries, coffee and juice will be served. To help us plan for food and babysitting, sign up slips are in the gathering space.

TUESDAY NIGHT CONFESSIONS We now offer confessions every Tuesday from 4:30-5:30pm. Confessions are also offered every Saturday from 3-3:30pm.

MUSIC MINISTRY - IT'S TIME TO JOIN!

Music is something that really has an effect on the way we feel. You know what I mean, you have been somewhere and heard that certain song that really seemed to lift your spirits, bring you comfort or make an event more joyful. When we pray with song at Mass it deepens our experience of prayer in the same way. That's why we need you. You are invited to share that feeling with our parish by joining one of our music groups. And here is the great thing - you don't have to be an expert.

That is usually the first thing I hear when I speak with someone about joining a parish choir, "Well I don't have a professional voice." Most of us don't. That's not what we need. Of course we will never turn down an interested person who has a great deal of musical experience. But frankly, those folks aren't pounding down the doors. What we need is you. You love God. You enjoy coming to Mass because it touches you, feeds you. You have a sense of how music affects your feelings. The rest of it - the music stuff - we can teach you as we go.

We are seeking singers and those with instrumental experience of all ages. Hey you high school band & choir members out there, I'm talking to you, too! It would be great to have one of you playing flute, clarinet, violin, cello or trumpet on occasion at Mass! You may choose to become involved at any Mass. Practice for the 4:00 and 10:30 Masses is on Wednesdays at 7:00 in the music room of church. The first practice of the season is Wednesday, September 9. The 8:00 Mass choir practices every other Thursday evening. Even if you can't be there every week, come when you can.

Most choir members come to think of choir as a sort of small Christian Community, an extended family if you will, because we share so much together over the years. So how about it? Why not come and try it out? I guarantee you will feel like you gain more than you invest. For more information please contact Susan Ratigan in the parish office, 979-3158 or susan@stsabinaparish.org

ADULT FAITH FORMATION

REFLECTION ON THE TWENTY-SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME , YEAR B

After proclaiming the Bread of Life discourse from John 6 for five Sundays, today we return to our proclamation of Mark's gospel. The refrain of responsorial Psalm 15 captures the focus of today's readings "The one who does justice will live in the presence of the Lord." The readings guide us on our path to live in the presence of the Lord. That path requires that we do justice. The readings are full of directions concerning acts of justice and how to activate them.

The first reading from Deuteronomy outlines the parameters of justice with a set of verbs. God's chosen people are challenged to "hear" and "observe" the statutes and decrees of the Lord. Such hearing and observing will result in a community that is wise and intelligent in the ways of the Lord. Both mind and heart are attuned to God, leading the people to know and follow through on God's wisdom and desires. Following through on God's wisdom and desires will be so evident in their lifestyle and relationships that others will see and praise God's people for living in the presence of the Lord, and for acting justly.

The psalm verses are a series of responses to questions that are initially asked by the psalmist in verse one, "Lord, who may abide in your tent? Who may dwell on your holy mountain?" Such questions speak to our desire to understand the demands of living "in the presence of the Lord." The psalmist is clear that "speaking truth from the heart" is crucial to a life committed to doing the works of justice. To do justice requires that we be just. Exterior actions must correlate to interior disposition, else we become hypocrites. Doing justice requires "doing no harm to another...disdaining the wicked...keeping an oath despite the cost...accepting no bribe against the innocent." If one does such actions, then we have some assurance that one is "speaking truth from the heart."

The letter of James is clear on our need to "humbly welcome the word that has been planted in you...." God plants the word in our hearts. We are called to cultivate that word, making it fully our own, allowing it to suffuse our very being. Such cultivation conditions us to "be doers of the word and not hearers only...." This leads to a life of "care for orphans and widows in their affliction...." James clearly states that if we claim to live in the presence of the Lord, then it must manifest itself exteriorly. Interior disposition does lead to actions that reflect what is in one's heart and mind.

This dilemma is directed at Jesus in the gospel passage from Mark. Jesus accuses some of the scribes and Pharisees of hypocrisy because they seem to focus on exterior actions without paying any attention to the interior disposition of the person. Legal external actions seem to be more important than proper interior disposition. Jesus clearly claims that interior disposition is just as important as external actions. Proper external actions can be done for a variety of reasons. It is essential to test the heart and mind if one wants to assess external actions rightly.

In your dealings with others, how do you deal with this perennial human dilemma? Do you assess on the basis of external actions alone or do you probe the mind and heart? If others were assessing your actions, would you want them to factor in your interior disposition as well? This week, force yourself not to judge based on external actions alone, but attempt to probe the heart and the mind in your assessment of the other. Pray that we may be people who always do justice by having our external actions correlate with our interior disposition.

Biagio Mazza,
Pastoral Associate

PRAYER FOR THE ELECTION OF A BISHOP

O God, eternal shepherd, who govern your flock with unflinching care, grant in your boundless fatherly love a pastor for your Church who will please you by his holiness and to us show watchful care. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.

Amen

BOOST YOUR MEMORY AND YOUR LIFE SPAN WITH WALNUTS

A new study in the Journal of Nutrition, Health and Aging found that people ages 20-59 who ate an average of five walnut halves daily performed significantly better on cognitive tests than those who didn't eat them. The brain-boosting effects may come from the nuts' high levels of antioxidants and omega-3 fatty acids.

The fats we really need to avoid are found in man-made, processed foods. Of course, we need to moderate the amount of nuts we eat because they are high in calories, which can lead to weight gain. Balanced consumption of nature's natural fats will support your health AND your memory. Doesn't get much better than that! So have a hand full of health today!

Do you or someone you care for have diabetes, asthma, heart disease, back pain, cancer, arthritis, fibromyalgia, depression or ANY other ongoing health condition? Join us for...

MINISTERIO DE HOSPITALIDAD

Estamos tratando de mejorar nuestra Ministerio de Hospitalidad de la parroquia y necesitamos su ayuda! Estamos formando un equipo de feligreses que pueden ayudar a dar la bienvenida a nuestros nuevos feligreses mediante la entrega de una canasta de bienvenida. Que manera tan fácil de hacer que nuestros miembros más recientes de verdad se sienten como una parte de nuestra familia parroquial! Si usted está interesado en ayudar con este ministerio, póngase en contacto con Bridget Hernández 816-979-3159 o bridget@stsabinaparish.org

GRACIAS A JEREMY STINGER

Gracias a Jeremy Stinger por ayudar a mejorar el terreno de la parroquia para su proyecto de los Eagle Scout. Jeremy movió la línea del drenaje al lado del garaje de los tractores. Apreciamos su trabajo en este proyecto!

Amen.

TALLERES DE ORACIÓN Y VIDA

Comienza el martes, 1 de Septiembre del 2015, de 7 a 9 de la noche en los cuartos de clases. Participantes aprenderán 14 diferentes maneras de orar.

10 Puntos Clave

- Basado en la Biblia
- Con Cristo como centro
- Fuente de Vocaciones Apostólicas
- Servicio excesivamente Laical
- Carácter totalmente práctico y experimental
- Actividad Orante paso a paso y adaptada a la persona
- Taller liberador y sanador a través del conocimiento de Dios y de uno mismo
- Transformación a la luz de la Palabra
- Compromiso con los pobres
- Promoción de los Valores del Evangelio

Los Talleres de Oración y Vida (TOV) son una nueva forma de Evangelización. Mas viva y con una visión mas positiva de lo que se ha mostrado siempre. Es una presentación mas vibrante y activa de Jesús que posee una mayor adaptación a las necesidades de la sociedad actual y a lo que las personas realmente necesitan. Esta basada en el amor y lo que este es capaz de realizar, no en el temor ni en el castigo.

Por eso decimos con pleno convencimiento que los Talleres de Oración y Vida son una respuesta al mundo de hoy. El Taller es gratuito, solamente es el costo del material de $12. No se requiere pre-registración, pero esto ayudara a saber la cantidad de material necesaria para todos los participantes. Favor de comunicarse con Arturo González al teléfono 817-807-0494 o al arturotovusa@hotmail.com. Para mas información acerca de los TOV, visite nuestro sitio de internet a www.tovpil.org.
