PARISH NEWS

BLOOD DRIVE - SEPTEMBER 13 Our next blood drive will be held on Sunday, September 13 from 8am-1pm in the gym. For additional information, please contact Michael Dailey at 816-853-8386 or mgdai-ley123@yahoo.com.

PLEASE TAKE NOTE: We want to make all parish-ioners aware that the Belton Code of Ordinances states that nowhere within the city are people allowed to “beg” or ask for money. If someone asks you for money in our parking lot when you come to attend Mass, please direct them to any staff member at that Mass, or to the parish office during office hours, rather than giving them money. A staff member is present after every Mass for any ques-tions or concerns. You can find us in the South Alcove of the Gathering Space. We will direct them to the appropri-ate resources.

CATHOLIC RADIO Fr. Curt Vogel will be on Catholic Radio Monday, September 14th at 10am! Catholic Radio will be hosting their Fall Radiothon the week of September 14-18th and have asked me to be on the air! Listen in as I talk about my vocation story and our wonderful parish.

STEWARDSHIP

"What good is it, my brothers and sisters, if someone says he has faith but does not have works? Can that faith save him? If a brother or sister has nothing to wear and has no food for the day, and one of you says to them, 'Go in peace, keep warm, and eat well,' but you do not give them the necessities of the body, what good is it? So also faith of itself, if it does not have works, is dead."

James 2: 14-17

James is making reference to something termed by most theologians as "living faith." That kind of faith is exemplified by being an active participant in building the Kingdom. It is more than attending Mass and praying. It is the kind of faith to which we are called through stewardship. Our faith communities, our parishes, are filled with ministries and ways that we can serve and reach out to those in need. Perhaps we need to find a way to be involved in something, anything, to be an active member of our communities, a focused and participating steward. - See more at www.catholicsteward.com/blog/.

STEWARDSHIP OF TIME AND TALENT:

LOOKING FOR A WAY TO SHARE YOUR TIME OR TALENTS?

St. Sabina volunteers go to Lord of Love Lutheran church, in Belton, every third Wednesday of the month to help with their weekly community meal. This is a free meal that all are welcome to, an opportunity to help those right here in our community. The next meal we will be helping with will be on Wednesday, September 16. There are opportunities to help both in the afternoon and in the evening. You can also help by providing a dessert (bought or baked) for the meal. If you would like to help, you can sign up using the link on our parish website: www.stsabinaparish.org, click on "Volunteer Opportunities" and look for "Community Meals" in the "Social Justice" section.

BASKETS NEEDED FOR WELCOMING MINISTRY

As we improve our Welcoming Ministry, we could really use some empty baskets to use for gift baskets for our new parishioners. You may have seen some of these baskets in the gathering space over the last several weeks. Please consider donating any extra baskets you may have around to this ministry. Thank you!

CHRISTMAS IN OCTOBER - OCT 10

This year the Christmas in October workday will be held on Saturday, October 10th. If you are interested in participating, please contact either John Ryan at ryan-cows@aol.com or Pete Muenks at pmuenks@gmail.com or sign up in the gathering space. It is very helpful for John and Pete to know in advance how many helpers we will have so they can determine how many houses our parish volunteers will be able to help with.

AREA INFORMATION

WALKING WITH CHRIST – AN IGNATIAN PRAYER EXPERIENCE

You are invited to join an engaging six-week guided Ignatian prayer experience designed for you and a small group. It is modeled on the tried and true method of spiritual renewal known as the Spiritual Exercises of St. Ignatius, founder of the Society of Jesus, better known as the Jesuits.

Two facilitators from the Ignatian Spirituality Center will direct you during these sessions, helping you focus on your prayer life. Learn several ways of praying so that daily prayer is more possible. Be inspired once a week by the experience of others who are seeking to walk with Christ more closely as you are. You may learn some new methods of prayer or get reacquainted with some old ones.

Walking with Christ will be offered at St. Sabina on Wednesday evenings from 7:30-9:00 p.m., beginning Oct. 7 and ending Nov. 18, 2015. Cost for book and facilitator is $40 and scholarships are available. Register by calling the Parish office and by sending a check for $40 made out to St. Sabina. Registration is due by Sept 30. SOCIAL JUSTICE

PARENTS LOOKING FOR A SUPPORT GROUP

In response to our needs survey, the Love Thy Neighbor team is hosting an informal gathering for the parents of our parish to determine specific areas of support our families may need, such as, tutoring, parents night out, behavior issues, single parent issues, etc. If as a parent you've ever needed information, advice or just another parent to talk to, please plan on attending. This will be your chance to tell us what you need. We will meet in the Parish Hall on Sunday, September 27, during PSR (9-10:00). A light breakfast of fruit, pastries, coffee and juice will be served. To help us plan for food and babysitting, sign up slips are in the gathering space.

PARISH HAPPENINGS

MUSIC MINISTRY - IT'S TIME TO JOIN!

When we pray with song at Mass it deepens our experience of prayer. That's why we need you. You are invited to share your interest in making music with our parish by joining one of our music groups. And here is the great thing - you don't have to be an expert. All we need is you. You love God. You enjoy coming to Mass because it touches you, feeds you. You have a sense of how music affects your feelings. The rest of it - the music stuff - we can teach you as we go.

We are seeking singers and those with instrumental experience of all ages. Hey you high school band & choir members out there, I'm talking to you, too! It would be great to have one of you playing flute, clarinet, violin, cello or trumpet on occasion at Mass! You may choose to become involved at any Mass. Practice for the 4:00 and 10:30 Masses is on Wednesdays at 7:00 in the music room of church. The first practice of the season is Wednesday, September 9. The 8:00 Mass choir practices every other Thursday evening. Even if you can't be there every week, come when you can.

So how about it? Why not come and try it out? I guarantee you will feel like you gain more than you invest. For more information please contact Susan Ratigan in the parish office, 979-3158 or susan@stsabinaparish.org

OVER 55 TO AMERISTAR - SEP 24

ADULT FAITH FORMATION

REFLECTION ON THE TWENTY-FOURTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME , YEAR B

The gospel according to Mark highlights Jesus as the suffering servant of God, who willingly gives of himself in service of others. Jesus is so committed to serving others that he is willing to place his life on the line. Fidelity to God's ways of doing things gets him into trouble with the power structures of his time, ultimately leading to his passion and death.

Jesus does not seek suffering and death. Fidelity to God's values empowers him to challenge all who would undermine human dignity. Powers that are so challenged use their power to strike back and do away with the challenge. It is this reality that Jesus expounds to his disciples in this Sunday's gospel reading.

Mark's community is facing suffering, misunderstanding, rejection and persecution because of their commitment to follow Jesus. They, along with their religious leaders, represented by Peter in today's passage, seem to be astonished by such treatment, leading them to question or at least cast doubts on their life of discipleship. In arranging his Jesus narrative, Mark emphasizes that fidelity to God's way of thinking results in Jesus being rejected and persecuted, ultimately leading to his suffering and death.

However, this is not the end of the story. Mark is aware of the reality of the resurrection, the ultimate victory of Jesus over the forces of evil and death. That victory is only won through the lived experience of rejection, persecution, suffering and death. Mark challenges his community, especially its key religious leaders, to become aware of the consequences that discipleship entails. The gospel narrative is Mark's attempt to school the religious leaders, the community, as well as ourselves to the demands of discipleship.

The first reading from Isaiah has God's servant speak about the suffering that results from the servant's desire to be attuned to God's word and ways of operating. Such a life style brings rejection and suffering. But the servant does not abandon a life attuned to God but rather endures the "buffets and spitting" so as to live a life of fidelity to God. The servant hopes and trusts in the Lord. Such trust enables the servant to endure whatever comes. The servant, aware of the consequences of fidelity, trusts God, placing everything in God's hands. With the servant, we too can sing with trust and confidence the refrain of Responsorial Psalm 116, "I will walk before the Lord, in the land of the living."

In the gospel reading, Jesus schools his disciples to the cost of discipleship. Jesus first seeks out their understanding of his identity. Once Peter affirms that Jesus is the messiah, the anointed of God, Jesus immediately launches into the first prediction of his passion, death and resurrection. Peter sees this reality as foreign to his understanding of the messiah's role. Jesus rebukes him strongly for failing to see and think as God does. Mark's Jesus emphasizes that discipleship entails taking up one's cross, always ready to enter the paradox of being willing to lose one's life in order to gain it.

The second reading from James powerfully sums up the reality of discipleship. Faith must lead to action on behalf of others, no matter the cost. Without such action, faith has no meaning, for it is not concretized in service to others.

How do you respond to the demands of faith and discipleship? Is service to others, without counting the cost, an integral part of your life as a disciple? Do you trust that God will be there no matter what happens? This week, commit yourself to be of service to others in need and pray for the courage not to count the cost.

Biagio Mazza,
Pastoral Associate

BIBLE STUDY

BIBLE STUDY AND SUNDAY READINGS

Catholics are mostly exposed to the Bible through the Sunday Lectionary Readings. In order to help us all enter into the Bible through the Sunday readings, we are offering study sessions that will provide an opportunity to read, to study background to the readings, and to reflect on how to apply the readings to our lives. We will gather on September 13th and 27th at 10:30am. All are welcome. Bring a Bible and a friend. To register for these sessions, please call Biagio at 816-979-3153.

Think of an aunt, uncle, grandparent, godparent or other awesome person in your life who you know well and with whom you would love to spend time. Each month we have a meeting for the candidate and their sponsor to attend which is the preparation class for the sacrament. Your first meeting will be October 14th in the Parish Hall from 7-8:30pm. If your sponsor is unable to attend the meeting, you must still be present. If you need help finding a sponsor, please call Kirstie in the Youth Office. She knows people.

All volunteers with youth and children must attend one Protecting God's Children workshop, submit to a background check and sign the policy on Ethics and Integrity in Ministry, (EIM).

PRAYER

PRAYER FOR THE ELECTION OF A BISHOP

O God, eternal shepherd, who govern your flock with unflinching care, grant in your boundless fatherly love a pastor for your Church who will please you by his holiness and to us show watchful care. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.

Amen

WELLNESS CENTER

WHAT KIND OF EXERCISE IS BEST?

Scientists have known for years that calorie-burning aerobic exercise can help control two of the most important diabetes risk factors: weight and blood sugar. Now, a new study suggests you may want to add strengthening exercises such as yoga or weight lifting to your active life. Harvard researchers tracked women for eight years and found that those who did more than 150 minutes per week of weight training or toning workouts had a 40 percent lower risk of developing diabetes than those who skipped this type of exercise. The greatest benefit was found when women combined cardio and strengthening exercises. So, mix it up when it comes to exercise. It will keep your mind engaged, your body energized and your heart happy!

The Wellness Center is here to support your health and wellness, body, mind and spirit! Drop in to see how we might be able to support you on your journey to wellbeing.

¿ESTÁ BUSCANDO UNA MANERA DE COMPARTIR SU TIEMPO O TALENTOS?

Voluntarios de Sta. Sabina van a la Iglesia Luterana Lord of Love, en Belton, cada tercer Miércoles del mes para ayudar con su comida semanal para la comunidad. La próxima comida en la que estaremos ayudando será el Miércoles 16 de Septiembre. Hay oportunidades para ayudar en la tarde y en la noche. También puede ayudar a proporcionar un postre (comprado o hecho en casa) para la comida. Si usted desea ayudar, puede registrarse usando el enlace en nuestra página web de la parroquia: www.stsabinaparish.org, haga clic en "Volunteer Opportunities" y busca "Community Meals" en la sección de "Social Justice."

SE NECESITA CANASTAS PARA EL MINISTERIO DE HOSPITALIDAD

Puede ser que han visto algunas de estas canastas en el espacio de reunión durante las últimas semanas. Por favor, considere donar sus canastas que no usa a este ministerio. Gracias!

Amen.

Nuestra parroquia llevara a su segunda delegación a El Salvador para aprender mas sobre el programa de becas allí y para tener la oportunidad de conocer a nuestro estudiantes becados y a sus familias. Viajaremos a Cinquera y a El Mozote. El pueblo de Mozote fue uno de los muchos donde ocurrieron masacres durante la Guerra Civil en El Salvador. Por ahora, planeamos viajar a El Salvador el 5 de Enero y quedarnos aproximadamente 8 días.
