This Week's Do You Know Video:

Catholicism affirms that every human life is sacred from conception to death and everything in between. Every person is precious, created in the image and likeness of God, having equality, value, dignity and corresponding human rights which should never be violated for any reason. People are more important than things. These core beliefs form the bedrock and foundation of all Catholic Social Teaching and become the measure by which every society or institution is to be judged as to whether they threaten and undermine or uphold and protect human life and dignity. Make time to view this week's DYK video and commit yourself to uphold and protect all human life and dignity, no matter the cost.

En Nuestro Video ¿Sabes...? de Esta Semana:

El catolicismo afirma que toda vida humana es sagrada desde la concepción hasta la muerte y todo intermedio. Toda persona es preciosa, creada a imagen y semejanza de Dios, con igualdad, valor, dignidad y los correspondientes derechos humanos que nunca deben ser violados por ningún motivo. Las personas son más importantes que las cosas. Estas creencias fundamentales forman la piedra angular y el fundamento de toda la Enseñanza Social Católica y se convierten en la medida por la cual cada sociedad o institución debe ser juzgada en cuanto a si amenazan y socavan o defienden y protegen la vida y la dignidad humanas. Reflection on the Readings

On this Twenty-third Sunday in Ordinary Time the readings invite us to see the “work” of God that is constantly operative among us. In healing the deaf man with the speech impediment, Jesus highlights God’s relation to all humanity. Just like the deaf man, we are all challenged to “ephphatha,” to be open to God’s work so powerfully evident among us.

One might say that there is little evidence of God’s marvelous work in a time of economic disparity, violence, war, injustice, racism, migrant parents separated from their children, greed, global warming, fires, floods, on top of a world pandemic, and many other social and environmental ills that befall us. Yet, this is the challenge of today’s readings, namely to go deeper and see things in a more hopeful, trusting manner.

Mark’s gospel and the other readings challenge us to see beyond appearances and to examine the events of life from the perspective of God rather than from our limited viewpoint. In doing so, then we too can sing joyfully the refrain of responsorial Psalm 146, “Praise the Lord, my soul!”

Isaiah, in the first reading, addresses those “whose hearts are frightened.” Today we experience many people whose hearts are frightened because of gun violence, racism, world instability, hurricanes and floods due to global warming, and just basic inhumanity to our migrant brothers and sisters in need. Global warming has devastated the lives of many people and neighborhoods in our country and most especially around the world. Many feel powerless in the face of political and religious divides that cause groups to demonize the other, leading to anger, hatred and violence. Lives are terrorized or destroyed in an instant when someone wields a gun and creates fear, havoc and death. Many despair of ever having peace and security in living out their lives. To these people and situations, Isaiah boldly proclaims that God has not forgotten them, and that God “comes with vindication and divine recompense to save you.”

If we trust in God and continue to deepen our relationship, we will see with new eyes, and experience life in new ways that will ultimately be life-giving and fulfilling. Our blindness will be removed, our hearing will be more attuned, we will speak with clarity, and the deserts of our lives will bloom again. Such rich images take away fright and promote trust in an ever-faithful God who is always ready to help.

Responsorial Psalm 146 reprises the image of God who “keeps faith forever” and who “raises up those who were bowed down” while “securing justice for the oppressed” and “setting the captives free.” With hopeful hearts and grateful trust in our loving God, we shout out in response, “Praise the Lord, my soul!”

The reading from the letter of James challenges us not to judge by appearances but to see things more deeply, looking into the heart. God does not judge by externals like power and wealth, something that we easily succumb to in our dealings. Rather God loves all, especially the poor, the powerless, the migrant, the stranger and the foreigner. Those who have nothing often find it easier to trust in a loving, caring God. God demands that we too be attuned to those that most need our care and support. This is the Christian obligation towards all, and today most especially toward migrants fleeing violence and danger. God often uses the poor to show all of us how to rely on God with complete confidence.

The family of the deaf man in the gospel reaches out to Jesus with trust and confidence. Jesus heals the man’s deafness along with his speech impediment. The man can hear clearly and speak plainly. The external cure is a sign of the internal attitude that Jesus desires of the man and the whole crowd. Jesus asks all who have experienced the miracle to understand that God is faithful and does care for all.

This week, no matter the fears, the hurt or the insecurity all around you, challenge yourself to trust in a loving and caring God who is always concerned about us, no matter what our situation on life may be. While still immersed in a global pandemic, may this new school year and this new year of ministry to God’s people be one of hearing more deeply and speaking more plainly about God’s mighty works made manifest and active in our daily lives.

Reflexión Sobre las Lecturas

En este Vigésimo Tercer Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario las lecturas nos invitan a ver las obras de Dios que operan constantemente entre nosotros. Al curar al sordo con su traba de lengua, Jesús resalta la relación de Dios con toda la humanidad. Al igual que el sordo, todos tenemos el desafío de "effetá", de estar abiertos a las obras de Dios tan poderosamente evidentes entre nosotros.

Se podría decir que hay poca evidencia del maravilloso trabajo de Dios en un tiempo de desigualdad económica, violencia, guerra, injusticia, padres migrantes separados de sus hijos, avaricia, calentamiento global y muchas otras enfermedades sociales que nos sobrevienen. Sin embargo, este es el desafío de las lecturas de hoy, es decir, profundizar y ver las cosas de una manera más esperanzada y confiable.

El evangelio de Marcos y las otras lecturas nos desafían a ver más allá de las apariencias y a examinar los eventos de la vida desde la perspectiva de Dios en lugar de nuestro punto de vista limitado. Al hacerlo, entonces nosotros también podemos cantar con alegría el estribillo del Salmo responsorial 145, "Alaba, alma mía, al Señor".

En la primera lectura, Isaías se dirige a "los de corazón apocado". Hoy nos encontramos a muchas personas de corazón apocado por la violencia armada, la inestabilidad mundial, los huracanes y las inundaciones debido al calentamiento global, y la inhumanidad básica de nuestros hermanos y hermanas migrantes necesitados. El calentamiento global ha devastado la vida de muchas personas y vecindarios en nuestro país y especialmente en todo el mundo. Muchos se sienten impotentes frente a las divisiones políticas y religiosas que hacen que los grupos demoníen al otro, lo que lleva a la ira, el odio y la violencia. Las vidas son aterrorizadas o destruidas en un instante cuando alguien empuña un arma y crea miedo, estragos y muerte. Muchos se desesperan por tener paz y seguridad al vivir sus vidas. A estas personas y situaciones, Isaías audazmente proclama que Dios no los ha olvidado, y que Dios "vengador y justiciero, viene ya para salvarlos".

Si confiamos en Dios y continuamos profundizando nuestra relación, lo veremos con ojos nuevos y experimentaremos la vida de maneras nuevas que finalmente darán vida y serán plenas. Nuestra ceguera será eliminada, nuestra audiencia estará más sintonizada, hablaremos con claridad y los desiertos de nuestras vidas florecerán nuevamente. Tales imágenes enriquecedoras quitan el miedo y promueven la confianza en un Dios siempre fiel que siempre está listo para ayudar.

El Salmo responsorial 145 retoma la imagen de Dios que "mantiene su fidelidad perpetuamente" y que "endereza a los que ya se doblan" mientras "hace justicia a los oprimidos" y "libera a los cautivos". Con corazones esperanzados y confianza agradecida en nuestro Dios amoroso, gritamos en respuesta, "Alaba, alma mía, al Señor".

La lectura de la carta de Santiago nos desafía a no juzgar por las apariencias, sino a ver las cosas más profundamente, mirando al corazón. Dios no juzga por factores externos como el poder y la riqueza, algo que sucumbimos fácilmente en nuestros tratos. Más bien, Dios ama a todos, especialmente a los pobres, a los débiles, a los inmigrantes y a los extranjeros. Muchas veces, a los que no tienen nada se les resulta más fácil confiar en un Dios amoroso y afectuoso. Dios exige que nosotros también estemos sintonizados con aquellos que más necesitan nuestro cuidado y apoyo. Esta es la obligación cristiana para todos, y hoy en especial para los migrantes que huyen de la violencia y el peligro. Muchas veces, Dios usa a los pobres para mostrarnos a todos cómo confiar en Dios con confianza total.

La familia del sordo en el evangelio se acerca a Jesús con confianza. Jesús sana la sordera del hombre y también su traba de lengua. El hombre puede oír claramente y hablar claramente. La cura externa es un signo de la actitud interna que Jesús desea del hombre y de toda la multitud. Jesús pide a todos los que han experimentado el milagro que entiendan que Dios es fiel y se preocupa por todos.

Esta semana, sin importar los miedos, el dolor o la inseguridad a su alrededor, desafíese a sí mismo a confiar en un Dios amoroso y afectuoso que siempre está preocupado por nosotros, sin importar cuál sea nuestra situación en la vida. Que este nuevo año escolar y este nuevo año de ministerio al pueblo de Dios sea uno de los que escuche más profundamente y hable más claro acerca de las obras poderosas de Dios que se han manifestado y hechos activos en nuestra vida diaria.

Stewardship

"He took him off by himself away from the crowd. He put his finger into the man's ears and, spitting, touched his tongue; then he looked up to heaven and groaned, and said to him, 'Ephphatha!'— that is, 'Be opened!' —

And immediately the man's ears were opened, his speech impediment was removed, and he spoke plainly."

Mark 7:33-35

This story in our Gospel overwhelms us with comfort and peace because we have a compassionate God who sees our physical needs. Yet if we reflect further on this reading, we see that God uses this moment of physical healing as an opportunity to restore something much deeper—our souls. Often, we are blind and deaf to God in our lives. We miss countless opportunities to see God working in our day-to-day moments—through our loved ones, our community, or even a stranger. We miss the quiet voice of Jesus in our hearts telling us to choose Him instead of sin, respond in love instead of anger, or care for someone else in a moment instead of ourselves. These are how we need to be spiritually healed. And the scriptures remind us that God is with us and wants to heal us. This week let us seek God to heal our souls and transform our hearts. Let us pray that our eyes and our ears might "be open" to His workings, words, and promptings in our lives.

Corresponsabilidad

"Él lo apartó a un lado de la gente, le metió los dedos en los oídos y le tocó la lengua con saliva. Después, mirando al cielo, suspiró y le dijo: "¡Effetá!" (que quiere decir "¡Abrete!"). Al momento se le abrieron los oídos, se le soltó la traba de la lengua y empezó a hablar sin dificultad."

Marcos 7:33-35

Esta historia en nuestro Evangelio nos abruma con consuelo y paz porque tenemos un Dios compasivo que ve nuestras necesidades físicas. Sin embargo, si reflexionamos más sobre esta lectura, vemos que Dios usa este momento de curación física como una oportunidad para restaurar algo mucho más profundo: nuestras almas. A menudo, somos ciegos y sordos a Dios en nuestras vidas. Perdemos innumerables oportunidades de ver a Dios trabajando en nuestros momentos del día a día, a través de nuestros seres queridos, nuestra comunidad o incluso un extraño. Extrañamos la voz tranquila de Jesús en nuestro corazón que nos dice que lo escojamos a Él en lugar de pecar, que respondamos con amor en lugar de enojarnos o que nos preocupemos por otra persona en un momento en lugar de por nosotros mismos. Así es como necesitamos ser sanados espiritualmente. Y las escrituras nos recuerdan que Dios está con nosotros y quiere sanarnos. Esta semana busquemos a Dios para sanar nuestras almas y transformar nuestros corazones. Oremos para que nuestros ojos y nuestros oídos estén "abiertos" a Sus obras, palabras e impresiones en nuestra vida.

Charitable Gifts - Farming

Cash basis farmers who harvest their crops in the fall and make their plans for spring planting may find that making a charitable gift is an especially effective way to "share the harvest." The value of the contributed grain is excluded from income so there is no need to itemize to get the benefit. In many cases the donated grain lowers the income subject to self-employment tax. Contact Kris at 816-979-3151 or kris@stsabinaparish.org with questions.

New Format for Online Giving Page

Usio, our payment processor for online giving, has updated our online giving page to provide a refreshed look, enhanced security, and greater functionality. Please note the following updates:

1. Previously when setting up a recurring donation, the first payment was processed immediately. You can now choose the initial date for the first payment to process (this goes for one-time donations as well).
2. The "Electronic Check" payment option is now labeled as "ACH." These are the same thing.
3. The donation amount fields have "0.00" in them by default instead of being blank. Please confirm you are entering your desired amount. You will be asked to confirm your donation amount when you submit.

If you have questions regarding the updated format, please contact Jeff Shields: 816-979-3152, jeffshields@stsabinaparish.org.

Nuevo Formato para la Página de Donaciones por Internet

Usio, nuestro procesador de pagos para donaciones en línea, ha actualizado nuestra página de donaciones para brindar una apariencia renovada, seguridad mejorada y mayor funcionalidad. Tenga en cuenta las siguientes actualizaciones:

1. Anteriormente, al configurar una donación recurrente, el primer pago se procesaba de inmediato. Ahora puede elegir la fecha inicial para que se procese el primer pago (esto también se aplica a las donaciones únicas).
2. La opción de pago "Electronic Check" ahora está etiquetada como "ACH". Son lo mismo.
3. Los campos del monto de la donación tienen "0.00" en ellos de forma predeterminada en lugar de estar en blanco. Confirme que está ingresando la cantidad deseada. Se le pedirá que confirme el monto de su donación cuando envíe.

Si tiene preguntas sobre el formato actualizado, comuníquese con la oficina parroquial.

Comuníquese con nosotros por WhatsApp! Agrégue el número 816-331-4713 a sus contactos. Envíenos por WhatsApp la palabra "español" por si gusta recibir noticias parroquiales por esta plataforma.

El Salvador Scholarship Students

St. Sabina currently supports 11 university students in El Salvador. Over the next several weeks we will highlight one student a week. If you would like to support Yuleydi and our other 10 scholarship students, please place your donation in the collection basket and label it El Salvador Scholarship Fund. Thank you.

Yuleydi Gabriela Videl López

Yuleydi is from the community of San Nicolas, just outside of Cinquera, and is 18 years old. She is currently in her first year of study at Salvadoran Lutheran University and her field of study is social work. She is expected to graduate in 2026 and her grade point average last semester was 8.91.

Yuleydi lives with her parents, her sister and her daughter. Yuledi's mother, Carmen, is 34 years old, is a cook, and received a 6th-grade education. Her father, Oscar, is 34 years old, is a janitor, and received a 6th-grade education. Her sister, Joselin, is 14 years old and is currently in the 8th grade. Yuleydi has a 3-year-old daughter named Yenedith.

Below please read Yuleydi's comments about the Scholarship program, her challenges and her future plans.

WHAT IMPACT HAS THE SCHOLARSHIP PROGRAM HAD ON YOUR LIFE?

It has had a positive impact for me and my family. Thanks to the opportunity I have been given, I have been able to continue my university studies. I'm grateful with ARDM and CIS and St. Sabina for the support they are giving me.

WHAT IMPACT HAS THE SCHOLARSHIP PROGRAM HAD ON YOUR COMMUNITY?

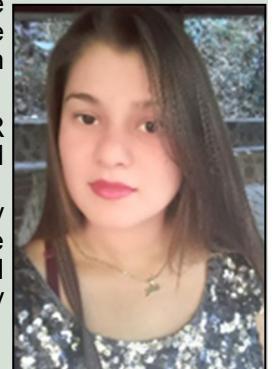

The impact has been very positive. Thanks to the scholarships provided, the community will have professionals in different areas. Youth have the chance to strengthen their capacities thanks to the program, increasing their opportunities for the future.

WHAT HAVE BEEN YOUR GREATEST OBSTACLES IN ORDER TO CONTINUE YOUR EDUCATION?

One of the greatest obstacles we face is the insecurity of our country. Also, the pandemic has become an obstacle, as virtual education modality is something new for me. Internet signal is very bad in my community, so it's hard to connect to have online classes. We have to make a huge effort to continue moving forward in our studies.

WHAT ARE YOUR PLANS AFTER GRADUATING FROM HIGH SCHOOL OR UNIVERSITY?

I want to support my community putting into practice the knowledge acquired in the social work area. I want to help others, and eventually get a job.

Catholic Social Teaching

Mondays, Sept. 13, 20, 27 by Zoom

Why has Catholic social teaching often been called the church's "best kept secret?" How does Catholic social teaching fit under the umbrella of the gospel's "consistent ethic of life" or that of a "seamless garment of life?" What is the foundation of Catholic social teaching and how does Catholic social teaching challenge every aspect of our life as disciples?

Come and see so as to deepen our understanding of Catholic social teaching and its consistent challenge on our faith journey. These Zoom sessions will be facilitated by Biagio Mazza, Pastoral Associate at St. Sabina Parish in Belton, MO on three successive Monday evenings, Sept 13, 20 and 27, from 7-8:30 PM. For more information or to register, email Biagio at biagio@stsabinaparish.org or biagio46@gmail.com.

Christmas in October is Back!

After a year off, our Christmas In October (CIO) ministry will resume this autumn. Work Day is Saturday, October 9th. This year we have selected a house in Belton belonging to one of our parishioners to work on. Most of the work will be done outdoors per CIO program guidance.

Some of the work needed will be raising and leveling a deck/sun room; repairing and/or replacing front porch posts, railings and unsafe handrails; repairing or replacing guttering; trimming trees and bushes and cutting back summer vegetation; and a variety of other jobs.

All help is very welcomed, especially those with carpentering and gutter installing skills. The more hands we have, the more that can be accomplished.

We will meet at the church at 7:30 AM and start work at 8 AM. Lunch will be provided. Masks are encouraged whether you have been vaccinated or not even though we will be outside.

You can sign up in the Gathering Space on the sheet on the front table, or by contacting Chuck Stinger by email at c.m.stinger@att.net or by phoning him at 816.868.7323. Remember, by helping your neighbor, you are practicing Christ's teachings.

Proyectos Laudato Si'

El 4 de octubre, fiesta de San Francisco, el Dicasterio Vaticano para la Promoción del Desarrollo Humano Integral comenzará a ofrecer Proyectos Laudato Si'.

Al completar el formulario de registro, se compromete a completar un proyecto cuando se abra el proceso. La información sobre el proceso de discernimiento, las oraciones, los proyectos de acción de Laudato Si y las metas están disponibles en <https://laudatosiactionplatform.org/resources/> en inglés y español.

¡Vuelve la Navidad en Octubre!

Después de un año de descanso, nuestro ministerio de Navidad en octubre se reanudará este otoño. El día de trabajo es el sábado 9 de octubre. Este año hemos seleccionado una casa en Belton que pertenece a uno de nuestros feligreses para trabajar. La mayor parte del trabajo se realizará al aire libre según la orientación del programa Navidad en Octubre.

Parte del trabajo necesario será elevar y nivelar una terraza/solárium; reparar y/o reemplazar postes del porche delantero, barandas y pasamanos inseguros; reparar o reemplazar canaletas; podar árboles y arbustos y recortar la vegetación de verano; y una variedad de otros trabajos.

Toda la ayuda es bienvenida, especialmente aquellos con habilidades de carpintería e instalación de canaletas. Cuantas más manos tengamos, más se podrá lograr.

Nos reuniremos en la iglesia a las 7:30am y comenzaremos a trabajar a las 8am. Se proporcionará almuerzo. Se recomienda usar cubrebocas, ya sea que haya sido vacunado o no, aunque estaremos afuera.

Puede inscribirse en el espacio de reunión en la hoja de la mesa del frente, o comunicándose con Chuck Stinger por correo electrónico a c.m.stinger@att.net o llamándolo al 816.868.7323 (inglés).

Recuerde, al ayudar a su prójimo, está practicando las enseñanzas de Cristo.
